Chapter 611 Be together

Paige paused in her steps and looked back at Abel with a picturesque brow, "What's wrong?"

Abel smiled, "Nothing, I just called to call you, I want to see you again."

Paige didn't pay him any more attention, giving him a straightforward blank stare, closing the door and looking out at the crowd outside the emergency room.

At this moment, Noah, Jocelyn and the others, as well as the doctor Lennon, were all sitting on the bench.

She felt embarrassed for Abel when she thought of the prank he had just pulled.

So, she then immediately looked at the crowd with an apologetic face and said, "That is really embarrassing, Abel..."

Jocelyn smiled as she got up and walked over to her, and without waiting for her to finish her sentence, she smiled directly and said, "We all know, Lennon has explained, it's nothing to be ashamed of."

"Sorry to have you guys worry, Abel is really excessive." Paige frowned helplessly.

Jocelyn shook her head, "It is okay."

Robert looked at Paige with interest and asked, "Have you said yes to him yet?"

Paige's heart tightened and she nodded cautiously

Jocelyn, Harry, Robert and Zoe all had smiles on their faces.

As for Noah, although his expression was light, in his eyes also carried a smile.

Abel's plan went smoothly and surprised Jocelyn.

Jocelyn clutched Paige's hand tightly and said with a smile, "Bless you, Paige, and I hope you two can have a long and loving life."

The corners of Paige's mouth unconsciously lifted slightly, "Thank you, Miss Murphy."

Jocelyn smiled again

Abel's eyes, deep in love, remained fixed on her face.

Such a gaze on her was like an iron, as if it could melt her in a minute.

Soon, her face, too, was red to the extreme.

Is he a wife stalker?

Paige coughed lightly in embarrassment, looking at him and asking faintly, "What's wrong?"

Abel smiled again, "Just, want to thank you for being willing to accept me. From then on, I have a home."

Paige did not speak, the corners of her mouth unconsciously curved up into a satisfied arc.

"Go and see the villas in the city centre, if there is one that you fancy, you can just buy it." Said Robert then took out a gold card from the pocket of his hospital gown and handed it to Paige.

"There's enough money in here for you to buy a house of any size in any part of Flento City."

"By the way, you can also go to see the car again, I see you quite like cars, go and buy a better one, depending on your own preferences." Abel added.

On hearing that, Paige was under the illusion that she was being adopted by Abel.

The money, though, is really big.

But there was no temptation for her, because, with her own abilities, she could get these too.

She prefers to earn it with her own hands than to get something from someone else.

She stuffed the card back into Abel's pocket and said with a serious face, "Abel, I'm very serious, we are in a relationship, I don't need you to give me money."

This was expected from Abel.

He once again took out the card from his pocket and put it into her palm, "I just want to give you something, you're with me, I can't give you nothing, right?"

The coffee table in the living room is filled with an assortment of snacks.

A huge set of sofa filled with a variety of boxes of different sizes with the logos of various major international brands.

Jocelyn was filled with stunned eyes, "What's going on? Mum is taking the whole mall and moving it home?"

Noah said faintly with a touch of slight surprise in his eyes, "Not sure."

In the kitchen, Allie and Scott were busy.

At the sound of their young couple's voices, the pair then stopped what they were doing and walked up to them with smiles on their faces.

Allie intimately took Jocelyn's arm and said with a smile, "Jocelyn, do you like those?"

With those words, Allie then lifted her delicate chin towards that area of the sofa.

Jocelyn couldn't believe her ears, "So, you prepared these for me?"

Allie smiled, "Well, I was on tiktok today and saw a girl's boyfriend gave her a box of lipsticks, she was very happy."

"And then in the comments section, all those people said that girls like those, so I got them for you too."

"I thought I can you a lipstick, so I just, got some more, lipstick, perfume, makeup and so on."

"Also, I stopped by to get you some snacks that all the girls like."

As soon as the words left her mouth, Jocelyn felt a warmth in her heart.

Somewhere in the deepest part of the heart, it seemed to be touched by a pair of warm hands.

"I found that you know more than I do," Noah said with a light smile and hooked his lips, gently wrapping his arms around Jocelyn's waist and lowering his eyes to look at Jocelyn's face with deep affection.

"So, you need to learn more from me, read more articles when you have nothing to do, and learn more about what girls nowadays are into." Allie smiled.

Jocelyn smiled faintly and picked up the crab legs, eating them as she said, "Thanks, Mum."

Ryan looked at Jocelyn and smiled slightly, then he extended his knife and fork towards the king crab

Allie saw this, gave him a piece of ribs, said, "You eat less king crab, I prepared this for your sister-in-law, you eat more ribs, as good for your health."

Saying that, Allie put several more pieces of ribs in front of Ryan.

Ryan smiled bitterly, "Okay, okay."

Subsequently, Ryan, while eating the ribs, asked, "Mom, are Noah and I your own children?"

Whenever he was with Jocelyn, he always had the illusion that Jocelyn was his mother's child, and that he and Noah were adopted.

Allie gave him a direct blank stare, "What are you talking about?"

Jocelyn smiled awkwardly and said, "Ryan, you can eat as much as you want, I can't eat that much."

With those words, she then looked at Allie and added, "I can't finish them all, alone, so don't be like this, Mom."

Allie nodded, "Okay then."

She then picked up a crab leg and put it in front of Ryan, "Peel it yourself."

The difference in treatment is simply too great

However, he felt relieved to see how much Jocelyn was favoured in his family.

Because of his deep love, he wanted her to be well.

Even if they can't be together, it would be nice just to see her happy, as she is now.

Jocelyn was careful and handed the scissors she had in her hand to Ryan, "Use this."

Ryan, taking the scissors, said softly, "Thank you"

Especially, she was so angry to see the posts that called her out.

"What? An ugly old hag? You're the ugly one, your whole family is ugly!"

"They are idiots."

Bella couldn't help but mutter to herself, talking through gritted teeth!

She then viciously threw the phone on the bed, and went under the covers again.

"You think about it more than I do," said Jocelyn.

"Love you, I naturally have to think more for you. If you don't like it, we won't have child, I'm fine with it." Noah said, then pulled her into his arms once again.

Jocelyn once again was deeply moved, "No, there must be a child that belongs to us."

After the words, Jocelyn added, "But I don't want to have a baby that early, is that okay?"

Noah hooked his lips again, "Well, you can have the baby whenever you want."

Jocelyn, "Wait until I'm thirty then, I want to make a good career now while I'm young."

Noah, "Okay."

"I'm so tired, I want to take a bath," Jocelyn said.

Seeing that it was Paige's phone, Jocelyn pressed answer, "Hello, Paige"

"I just want you to help me prescribe some herbs that can promote Abel's wound recovery," Paige said over there.

At that, the corners of Jocelyn's mouth immediately curled up into a gentle smile, "Okay."

When she finished, she sat down on the bed and leaned lazily against the backrest.

She could feel how much Paige cared for Abel.

And the sweetness between the lines when Paige mentions Abel, she can also feel it.

Now, watching Paige reap the benefits of happiness, she is really happy for her.

"Paige, be good with Abel, he looks like he's really put his heart into it." Jocelyn seriously admonished.

"Yeah, I know."

"I will also give Abel a good admonishment some day, I will tell him that you have someone behind you, not someone he can just bully, and if he dares to treat you badly, I will just waste him." Jocelyn added.

"Haha, that doesn't require you to do anything, I can tear him up with one hand." Over there Paige stood on the balcony by Abel's hospital bed, overlooking the bustling night scene at his feet, and said with a grin.

At these words, a smile grew at the corners of Jocelyn's mouth.

After chatting with Paige for a while, Jocelyn pressed hang up and then found a prescription in her phone's memo.

This prescription was written when she came out of Abel's hospital room.

She just hadn't bothered, because she had been so busy, to get his medicine.

After confirming the remedy once again, she lazily lay down.

The next second the internet celebrity immediately stood up and looked at Paige with a nervous face and said, "Sorry for the intrusion, I didn't know that Mr. Mccall already had a girlfriend."

Although outwardly apologetic, she did not have Paige in mind.

Because, she had always known that Abel changed his mind fast.

Once he got a woman, he would change his mind.

Paige coldly snorted, stepping on slender legs, walking up to the internet celebrity, her hands naturally folded in front of her chest, looking askance at her hyaluronic acid filled face, "Now that you know, you can leave."

Her attitude was extremely unsatisfactory to the internet celebrity.

However, due to the presence of Abel, the internet celebrity could only keep nodding obediently.

"In future, you don't need to think about him."

"Today, I will reluctantly forgive you for the fact you don't know he has a girlfriend."

"But if next time, if you let me see it again you seduce my man..."

"Don't blame me for being unkind to you," Paige continued with a cold face and a domineering declaration.

At this moment, Paige's aura was in full swing, and her body exuded an air of royalty.

She is half a head taller than the internet celebrity, and her aura, too, is several times stronger.

At a glance, the internet celebrity looks like a weakling in front of her.

Such Paige, once again, makes Abel's heart flutter

Beauty in the arms makes a man's heart, in an instant, go pitter-patter.

"Wife," he spoke in a low voice in her ear.

"Yeah?" Jocelyn raised her eyes and looked at the man with a few probing glances in her eyes.

"I love you so much," the man added.

At those words, Jocelyn's heart raced.

She naturally curled her lips and smiled lightly, "Well, I love you too."

Her voice, lazy, disturbed the men once again.

"Honey, will you always love me?" Jocelyn asked.

"I will." Noah said without thinking, looking at her with deep affection.

"How long will you love me?" Jocelyn asked, her voice soft.

Once again, without thinking, Noah said, "Until the day I die"

Jocelyn put on a smile.

In the next second, the man kissed her lips naturally.

In the next second, she was carried into the bathroom again, lately, this man has been very fond of having sex in the bathroom.

.....

It was noon when Jocelyn opened her eyes.

Fumbling with her phone, she didn't want to get up immediately, but opened Weibo, ready to swipe through it.

She was so light-headed at the moment that she wished, if she could, that she didn't have to work today.

She, once again, was refreshed.

Jocelyn took a pulse for herself again

This time, from the pulse, she still had no problems.

So, she sat up in peace.

She thought to herself that it must be because she had eaten too much last night, coupled with the lack of rest and over-exercising.

Without thinking too much more about it, she went back to the bathroom again and washed up.

After washing up, she put on a light make-up, changed into a white dress, a pair of silver spaghetti strap thin high heeled sandals and carried her silver Hermes bag straight downstairs.

There was no sound from downstairs, and she knew that Noah must have gone to work.

So she was customary to walk into the restaurant.

On the table, there was a lot of good food, including fried buns, soy milk, doughnuts and tofu.

On top of that, there was a note from him, "Warm up before you eat, no cold food, it's not good for your health."

Seeing this, she once again felt her heart warm.

Putting down the note, she didn't choose to go to the microwave, but just sat down, took a raw pancake and ate it.

She didn't really have the energy, right now, to heat the food up.

She wasn't that pretentious.

Halfway through the meal, Allie's phone call came in

"Jocelyn what are you doing?" Allie's tone over there was, as always, doting.

"I'm having lunch," said Jocelyn.

"There's a jewellery exhibition this afternoon, wanna go with me?" Allie said again.

"Okay." Jocelyn agreed decisively.
