Chapter 801 Transparent Condensation Beads

As the words had just fallen, Jocelyn's eyes snapped open.

Opening her eyes, she realized that she was dreaming again.

And, the third dream she had, it seems still connectable to the previous two.

She couldn't imagine what it exactly was.

For a whole night in a row, she was tormented by dreams.

Because she hadn't slept well, at the moment, she felt dizzy and uncomfortable.

Her brain is in chaos, with little ability to think at all.

Just at this time, Noah, who was beside her, slowly opened his eyes.

Seeing Jocelyn awake, Noah extended his long arms and took Jocelyn in his arms, asking, "Awake?"

Jocelyn nodded lightly, "Good morning."

"Good morning." the man's voice, with a kind of gentle and languid unawakenedness, was still damn good.

"What would you like to eat for breakfast?" Noah asked.

"Dad will come home for breakfast in the morning. It's about time, let's get up." said Jocelyn.

"Okay, did you sleep well last night?" Noah asked.

Jocelyn, however, shook her head, "No, it's been a dream."

Upon hearing this, Noah asked with a serious face, "What kind of dream did you have?"

Jocelyn said, "Very strange dream."

"Honey, is it good?" Seeing that Allen had drained the bird's nest, Connie took Allen's arm in a delicate manner and inquired.

Allen slowly put down the empty bowl and said, "It's good. It's just that you stew these for me every day and I'm getting tired of eating them."

At that, Connie's tone became softer, "Honey, this kind of thing is mainly for health. Even if you are tired of eating, you still have to eat it."

"I feel like I can't sleep well all day since I started eating bird's nest every day." Allen said.

"How can it be because of bird's nest? Bird's nest is a calming thing," added Connie.

With those words, she then continued to look into Allen's eyes with a smile, "Honey, let's eat bird's nest, okay?"

Allen placed his gaze on Connie's face.

The moment the pupils touched together, Allen suddenly felt that his head produced a burst of dizziness.

Immediately afterwards, he developed a strong desire to listen to Connie.

He instantly nodded heavily, "Yes, I'll eat. I'll eat."

Connie hooked her lips contentedly, "Well, good. Let's go out shopping, shall we?"

Allen met Connie's eyes again.

The moment the four eyes met, there was a strong desire to obey.

In this instant, he wanted to treat the girl in front of him with all the obedience he could muster.

He nodded heavily again, "Okay, up to you."

Connie once again hooked her lips contentedly, "Well, good, then I'll go up and put on some makeup and we'll go out later."

Chapter 803 A Chance to Poison More

There is so much, curious about, the feud between her master and Jocelyn.

It's just that since he won't allow her to be curious.

For what her master did not want her to know, she could not know.

Because she was in a good mood today, she changed into a bright and vibrant dress and looked energetic.

Downstairs, Allen saw Connie coming down, immediately put down the cup of tea in his hand, and then walked up to her, smiling and complimenting, "You are so pretty."

Connie daintily leaned on Allen's shoulder, smiling, "Honey, you let Jocelyn come back for dinner at night, OK? I want to have a better relationship with Jocelyn." Only if Jocelyn comes back more often, she can have more chances to poison.

"Okay." Allen said.

"Then tonight, if Jocelyn comes back, you make a request with Jocelyn, let Jocelyn come home for dinner every morning and evening from now on, OK? It will be easier for us to get close."

With that, Connie cupped Allen's face, before fixing her gaze on his eyes.

Allen, similarly subconsciously, fixed his gaze on Connie's eyes.

The moment the four eyes met, Connie silently recited in her heart, a listening incantation.

Allen wanted to do whatever he was told to do by Connie.

He then gave a quick nod, "Okay, all at your service."

"Good, then it is settled, you must tell her." added Connie.

"Okay." Allen nodded, "Let's go out then."

Then, one of the bodyguards at the front, immediately opened the car door for Jocelyn and respectfully.

When the car door opened, Jocelyn's feet, which were on pink heels, were the first to hit the ground.

Immediately afterwards, slender legs, and a delicate figure, as well as a stunning face, were presented to the crowd.

At this moment, the few people who came out from inside the Flento City TV station were all mesmerised by her poise.

Even though they are in a TV station and have seen countless beautiful women, they still can't do it and are indifferent to Jocelyn's beauty in front of them.

The members of the XS team, who were in the luxury cars behind them, got out of the cars themselves and walked behind Jocelyn.

At this moment, Jocelyn's aura is in full swing, just like a domineering woman.

The others, on the other hand, were all her subjects.

Looking at the scene in front of them, a group of members of the XS team have been stunned.

After all, this is a height they have never experienced before.

Many people, for their part, could not help but draw in a cold breath.

"Miss Murphy, how are you? Thank you very much, you brought your team and came to be interviewed by our TV station." Sidney took the initiative to extend his hand towards Jocelyn, acting friendly.

Jocelyn smiled as she shook Sidney's hand and responded, "No worries."

Next, Jocelyn introduced all the members of the XS team to Sidney, as well as the executives of Flento City TV.

After everyone shook hands with each other, Sidney and a group of senior executives personally guided Jocelyn and the XS team members to one of the best studios in Flento City TV.

This studio is the one they will be using today for the interview with Priya.

The show has been held for more than twenty years ago.

The host has always been Priya, the leading lady of Flento City TV.

[Dream broken, in this world, there's actually someone my Alex can like, curious who that girl is.]

The fans' comments were all expected by Jocelyn.

It was not much of a ripple in Jocelyn's heart as she watched.

She's just really curious how the news got out so fast, it's only logical that the station would have put such a heavyweight interview on the day it aired for ratings.

Continuing to scroll down through the topics, Jocelyn found the answer.

She saw a marketing number with a half hour posting.

The marketing number said that a friend of his TV staff told him that Alex had a girl he liked.

This solves the case.

Looking inside the topic, Alex's fans were sad and hysterical, Jocelyn felt deeply sympathetic.

In fact, she was curious to know which girl it was that could make Alex, who was not close to women, go off the deep end.

Sitting on the couch, Jocelyn texted Alex and asked, "Who the hell is she?"

After a while, there was a reply, "Secret."

At the other end of message, Alex was standing in the bathroom of his room, with only a snowy white towel around his bottom.

Seeing the last message from Peyton, Alex's brow, subconsciously, frowned.

He thought, "Are all girls nowadays so direct?"

Without thinking, Alex responded bluntly, "That's not possible."

Peyton, "Well, so play the game together?"

Alex, "No, going to bed, sleepy."

After sitting on the sofa for a while, Jocelyn went straight upstairs.

Noah hadn't returned yet, but she didn't call to ask, she knew that if he wasn't back at this time, he naturally had something to do.

So she put the phone down and went to the bathroom to take a shower.

Noah had not yet returned at this time, and she suddenly did not want to sleep, so she leaned lazily on her bed, picked up her laptop and logged on to League of Legends.

Suddenly she wanted to play a couple of games of League of Legends before going to bed.

Although, this game, which she plays every now and then, never gets boring.

Probably because, with this game, it means something different to her.

It was the game that accompanied her all the way through those lonely and isolated days when she was abroad for medical treatment and healing from her love affair.

Once she got on the game, she casually called out in the XS Team message group, "Anyone coming to play the game with us?"

Alex replied in near seconds, "I will, just couldn't sleep."

Jocelyn, "Good."

Soon Alex came on the line and invited her to join the team.

Looking at Noah, Jocelyn's heart ached, "Well, then you hurry up and take a bath, then go to bed."

"Okay, you be good and stop after this one, okay?" His voice, with its tired huskiness, was damn good and damn sexy.

"Okay." nodded Jocelyn meekly.

Immediately afterwards, the man went into the bathroom to take a shower, while she returned her gaze to the game screen.

At this point, the teams have been matched.

This time, their teammates, who are all professionals in the LPL, are some of the best.

These are players that are in some of the bottom ranked teams in the division.

When he saw the Alex players, he started to phasing him.

Alex, on the other hand, is indifferent to all this.

For her part, Jocelyn watched all this with a calm face, with no intention of intervening.

Soon, a team of them picked the heroes they would play.

This time, Alex was his usual self, playing her support.

Because everyone is a pro, they are invincible as a team.

With everyone operating in unison, they won a game in thirteen minutes.

At the same time, Noah finished his shower and walked out from the bathroom,.

Hearing the voice, Jocelyn then closed her laptop before fixing her gaze on the man's face.

Even though she had seen a thousand times of this man, Jocelyn would still be enchanted by him.

"Done?" The man inquired in a soft voice, before naturally getting into bed, casually pulling off the bath towel and dropping it on the floor.

Chapter 808 Dreams and Reality

"The dream you had tonight is so similar to the one you had before, how come? It feels like some tiny little fragment from a certain drama." said Noah with a serious face.

The stories, it seems, can be tied together.

It's just that there are a few, other tiny little stories missing in the middle.

Jocelyn nodded heavily, her eyes full of curiosity, "I didn't expect that, I think that these stories can be strung together, if you add some small pieces, it would be a complete plot."

"In the beginning, I think it was the dream one where I saved a Lena fox, which turned out to be, in fact, a genie, and then maybe the Lena fox fell in love with me for saving his life."

"After that he took my husband captive so he could be with me, and made demands that I must be allowed to marry him, or else my husband would die."

"Then I had no choice but to agree to his request, and then there was that wedding night episode in my dream earlier, where I probably put some kind of poison into the wine on my wedding night."

"It caused the Lena Fox Elf to show nine tails and run out of strength or something, and then I cut off the Lena Fox Elf's tail with a sword that I had prepared in advance."

"At the end the Lena fox sprite disappeared, but that's just my guess."

While seriously recalling the few dreams she had, Jocelyn used her imagination to string them together.

Although, as outrageous as it sounds, it makes sense when connected in this way.

"It's possible." said Noah, his eyes full of seriousness and planning.

"My husband in my dream is still you, called Hector. but I don't know, what is the name of that Lena."

"Honey, I think, this story is so real, and it's not at all like a dream."

"Do you think this could be a past life for both of us? Didn't Ghost Face say that before? That we have the same person's curse on us."

"Could this man be the genie? But, if I look inside my dream, I feel that we don't owe him anything."

"It's all him, he's doing us wrong, he's hurting us . He's taking by force and doing whatever he can to get what he wants."

While continuing to analyse it carefully, Jocelyn raised her doubts.

Seeing that Jocelyn was awake, he then forced himself to hold back the discomfort that filled his body and hugged her tightly in his arms, asking seriously, "Last night, did you sleep well?"

Jocelyn lied, "Yeah, what about you?"

Immediately afterwards, he lied too, "Very well. Get up , aren't you going back to Dad's house and have breakfast?"

.....

After washing up, the two were instantly refreshed.

After Jocelyn had put on her make-up and dressed, she arrived at the Murphy's house next door, together with Noah.

When Noah's car, stopped at the Murphy family's yard, the gardener in the Murphy family's yard was busy trimming the flowers and plants in the small garden in the garden.

A gust of wind greeted them, wrapped in the smell of flowers and trees, filling their nostrils and instantly relieving the discomfort in their bodies even more.

Although not well rested, at this time Jocelyn still looks like a blooming rose.

Noah's face can not see half a sense of fatigue.

Once the two got out of the car, they held hands and went into the house together.

At the same time, in the dinning room, Connie once again took out a transparent gel pearl from inside the white gold pendant around her neck.

Immediately afterwards, she crushed the clotted beads with her fingernails and dripped the clear liquid inside, into a large bowl of rock sugar bird's nest on the table.

The moment the liquid dripped into the bird's nest, Jocelyn opened the door to her home and, together with Noah, stepped into the living room.

Hearing the voice, Connie immediately put the shell of the condensed beads in her fist, and went into the bathroom next to her, throwing the shell sharply into the sink.

And then she just unscrewed the faucet and used the water hose, to flush the condensed bead shell, down the drain.

"The one that burst open was the one under the sink." the maid added.

Hearing that, Connie instantly panicked.

Early this morning, when she was washing her hands, the white gold pendant around her neck had accidentally opened.

Then the clear condensation beads inside, fell into the sink's drain hole.

That thing really were down?

What if they were to accidentally hang on the outer wall of the pipe or get stuck somewhere and Jocelyn and Noah found out about the anomaly?

Yet, on reflection, she thought that this seemed highly unlikely.

Soon, she let out another long, relaxed breath.

But just to be on the safe side, she got up and walked to the door, looked at the maid and said, "I'll go check it out. I'm the best at fixing plumbing."

Her father used to be a plumbing worker.

Since she was a child, she had seen many times, with her own eyes, her father fixing the water pipes.

So, how to fix a water pipe is something she just happens to know how to do.

For the first time, she felt that the experience, for herself, was that useful.

At those words, Jocelyn was filled with stunned eyes, "You can fix it?"

She really couldn't imagine that a girl like Connie, who looked so gentle and quiet, would actually do such a thing.

Connie smiled, "Yeah."

"It's better to let the worker come, it is dirty." Noah spoke indifferently.

And then, Noah looked at the maid and said, "You go and call someone."

Connie saw the situation, but immediately smiled, stepped towards the bathroom, "No, I can do it, you two leave it to me, you should go to work."
