

First Love 10

Chapter 10 | Already Have a Boyfriend

Elegant singing rang out from the quiet inner box. Although it is a box, it is open. Each box is separated from another box at a certain distance. They are unrelated and do not disturb each other. Each box has a different type and decoration. There is a small bridge and flowing water on the side, and green trees above the head, just like in a very quiet forest. The floor of the box is covered with soft beige carpet, pink lights, and emerald green radiate soft and attractive light, giving people a warm atmosphere, which is especially suitable for couples to talk about love.

The waiter led them to the box and left.

"Come and sit down." Mr. Zhong pulled out a stool very gentlemanly and asked Lizhen to sit down very eagerly.

Lizhen looked at Mr. Zhong with a flattered and frightened look. She wanted to sit down but was afraid to do so. She looked very frightened. "I"

"Please sit down." Mr. Zhong smiled and looked very sincere, which made Lizhen feel a little relieved.

Director Zhong sat down opposite Li Zhen and made a gesture very skillfully. At this time, a waitress came out from the side and said, "Sir, what do you need?" "Bring me some tea."

"Okay," the waitress understood and stepped back.

After a while, a well-trained waiter came slowly towards them with a beautifully decorated cart, pushing a cart full of various exquisite foods.

Only then did Li Zhen understand Mr. Zhong's intention. "Chairman, didn't you say you wanted to discuss business? The person who is going to discuss business has not arrived yet."

The waiter pushed the dining cart back up, poured drinks for each of them, and arranged the snacks. The snacks were very delicate and beautiful, and it was obvious at first glance that they were very expensive. The waiter arranged the snacks and left.

"I don't know what you like to eat, so I ordered some food according to my own ideas. We can order whatever you like."

After seeing these beautiful and exquisite snacks, Lizhen felt very uncomfortable, surprised, and uneasy.

Director Zhong leaned forward, smiling, with curved eyebrows and raised lips, and looked at Li Zhen kindly, "Let me give you a surprise. If I tell you that I'm here for a date, will you agree to it? How did I scare you?"

"Date" Lizhen looked at Mr. Zhong in surprise and astonishment, appearing to be very shocked.

"What's wrong? Are you going on a date with me?" Director Zhong smiled foolishly. She thought Lizhen was shocked by the surprise. Later, Lizhen would definitely be excited by the surprise, or even moved to tears.

"How come I had no idea that I was dating you?" Li Zhen looked at the chairman in surprise.

"It's not too late for you to know it now. Love between men and women is basically about men pursuing women. What's wrong with that?" Mr. Zhong spoke humbly, gently and kindly.

"No, Chairman, you misunderstood. I meant that I had no idea we were like this, but I have a boyfriend now." Li Zhen couldn't even speak clearly.

"You have a boyfriend? According to our investigation, you don't have a boyfriend yet." Director Zhong was very surprised. He thought Lizhen had only been here for a short time, and he also asked other people in the company and learned that someone was pursuing her. But he thought that this person was not qualified at all. He had no diploma and just looked okay, but he heard that he was still a worker. He was a golden bachelor and a diamond bachelor. There were many women pursuing him. He could just hook his finger and there were women lining up to pursue him. How could the man compare with him? He was not his opponent at all.

"Chairman, I really have a boyfriend and we love each other very much." Li Zhen spoke with her head down, she didn't dare to look him in the eye.

Director Zhong never even thought about it. As a chairman of the board and a wealthy bachelor, he was regarded as a treasure by all kinds of women and there were many women throwing themselves at him. But today he was rejected by one of his subordinates.

He suddenly felt furious, but he didn't vent it. He was a chairman, how could he be so uncultured, otherwise he wouldn't be able to do such a thing.

When he changed his mind, this girl had something that others didn't have...she had backbone and ambition, dared to love and hate, was not swayed by money, and was educated. Isn't this the love I have always dreamed of? He suddenly admired Lizhen's personality.

"What does your boyfriend do now? Can his wealth and status compare with mine?" Director Zhong wanted to stimulate Lizhen and see how she would perform.

"He doesn't have it now, but that doesn't mean he won't have it in the future." Li Zhen spoke firmly, which made Director Zhong look at her with admiration.

"Be my girlfriend. As long as you are willing, you can be the chairman's wife." Mr. Zhong threw out various tempting conditions, hoping that Lizhen would be tempted.

"Thank you, Chairman, for thinking so highly of me, but we have already made an agreement," Lizhen politely declined.

The more determined Lizhen was, the more she aroused his admiration for her. This is a common problem among men. The harder it is to get something, the more she loves him. Mr. Zhong thought, "I like this kind of woman. I will not give up. I must make you willing to follow me."

The next day, Lizhen was promoted. She was promoted to the head of the engineering department. All projects were under her control and her colleagues congratulated her.

Because she was promoted after the commendation meeting, her colleagues thought that her company promoted her as a reward, but it was Director Zhong who promoted her intentionally.

He wanted to train her slowly, prepare her to be his right-hand man, and then slowly influence Lizhen to become his capable wife.

Lizhen felt like a fish in water under such conditions and environment. With her intelligence, she quickly mastered the design and production of the entire set of technology.

Although she and Wang Kun do not work together, they will discuss various problems together after get off work, and Lizhen also helps Wang Kun complete his studies.

Wang Kun is also a very caring person. Not only does he study research topics with Lizhen, he also pays special attention to Lizhen's daily life.

It turns out that Lizhen has only known how to study since she was a child. She is the only single girl in the family. Her mother treats her like a jewel in the palm of her hand. Although the family is not wealthy, in order for her to study hard, her mother takes care of everything for her at home. Therefore, she is still not very able to take care of herself after graduation.

Wang Kun, who was born in the countryside, became her good helper. Not only did he buy breakfast for her every day, but he also did her laundry and tidied her room every time he went to Lizhen's place, treating her like his own sister.

In particular, there was one time when Lizhen went out to a subordinate factory to guide work. Due to the hot weather and the fact that she had to run back and forth, and then stay in the air-conditioned room, she had to come out and walk outdoors.

Due to the alternation of hot and cold, Lizhen suffered from heatstroke. As she was walking, she could not hold on and fell headfirst at the door of the company. Fortunately, her colleagues found her and immediately sent her to the hospital, so her life was not in danger.

After hearing this, Wang Kun rushed to the hospital immediately; "What's wrong? Why don't you take enough rest?" Seeing her lying in the hospital, Wang Kun felt heartbroken, and he quickly reached out and touched her forehead.

"I was too busy at work today. I wanted to finish all the work quickly. I was in a hurry. I will pay attention next time." Lizhen pulled Wenkun's hand and shook it coquettishly.

At this time, Mr. Zhong, who came to visit Lizhen, saw them. This was the first time he, Wang Kun and Lizhen met together.

Director Zhong and his secretary came in carrying a basket of fruits. "Lizhen, are you feeling better? What happened? If you can't make it in time, you can ask someone else to finish it. Next time you encounter such a situation, tell me and I will arrange my car to take you there," he said with a smile and great concern.

"I'm sorry, Chairman. I'm so sorry to have you here," Lizhen quickly remembered.

Director Zhong hurriedly walked forward and held Lizhen down, "Don't get up, just lie down and have a good rest." He then covered Lizhen with a quilt and looked at Lizhen with a special look.

"Hello, Mr. Zhong." Wang Kun finally had the opportunity to interrupt and ask questions.

Director Zhong's series of actions did not escape Wang Kun's eyes. He suddenly felt a strong sense of jealousy in his heart, but Director Zhong was his benefactor, so he could not create momentum.

"Oh, why are you here?" Director Zhong only noticed Wang Kun at this time.

"Chairman, please take a seat." He suddenly had an idea and pulled a chair next to him for him to sit down.

Director Zhong looked at Wang Kun and recalled the scene he saw when he entered the room just now.

"Oh, you are colleagues, it's only natural for you to care about your colleagues."

"I'm sorry, Chairman. I forgot to introduce him just now. He is from the department where I used to work. He is my boyfriend Wang Kun." Li Zhen immediately introduced him to Chairman Zhong. She was afraid that if the Chairman did anything excessive again, Wang Kun would misunderstand her.

"Oh, really?" Director Zhong was surprised, but he did not show his surprise. He secretly glanced at Wang Kun and was a little shocked. Well, this kid is getting more and more handsome. This guy is definitely a potential stock. No wonder Li Zhen was fascinated by him.

Wang Kun's face turned red immediately. He thought that Director Zhong would definitely say to him, "You are a young boy with nothing, and you are talking about love. You are so disappointing." But he never expected that Director Zhong also liked Lizhen.

Boyfriend, this guy doesn't know that I like Lizhen. I'm going to find a way to tell him and make him leave Lizhen.

Mr. Zhong was brewing a conspiracy in his heart, but Ke Lizhen and Wang Kun were kept in the dark.
