

First Love 105

Chapter 105 Are You Her Relative?

"Who are you to Qiuyan? Please sign and confirm that you are her immediate family member." The nurse checked Wang Kun's surgery again because it was a matter of life and death.

Yes, he was related to Qiuyan in some way. They couldn't be brother and sister because they didn't have the same surname. When the nurse asked him who he was, he was stunned.

If they had not cheated on each other, Wang Kun could have answered the nurse's questions openly and unambiguously, but Wang Kun, feeling guilty, thought for a long time and still could not say anything.

"This..." Wang Kun mumbled, his brain seemed to be short-circuited and he suddenly stopped.

The nurse looked at Wang Kun with strange eyes, as if to say, what's wrong with you? Can't you even figure out what time it is? Is there something wrong with your brain?

Seeing the nurse looking at him, Wang Kun felt even more flustered. Was she doubting himself? But he was still a little anxious. He was still thinking about Qiuyan. She must be in unbearable pain inside and must be in extreme pain.

Wang Kun's face immediately turned slightly red and his heart beat faster, but Wang Kun was only panicked for a moment and he immediately calmed down.

"She is my cousin, and no one from her family is here. I am her cousin, can I sign?" Wang Kun really wanted to find a reason to defend himself.

The nurse looked at Wang Kun, then turned her head to look at the patient in the operating room. "Okay, that's the only way. Sign it quickly. The patient is waiting in the operating room."

Wang Kun looked at the operating room, gritted his teeth, immediately took the pen from the nurse and signed quickly.

Wang Kun finally breathed a sigh of relief, but he was still worried about Qiuyan's health. If it weren't for this operation, Wang Kun and Qiuyan might have lived in peace for a while, but Qiuyan had no relatives here, so what should she do during the recovery period of the operation? This put Wang Kun in a particularly difficult position.

Since the operation was not too complicated, after two hours of surgery, the lights in the operating room went out and the door of the operating room finally opened. "Doctor, how is the patient?"

"The patient is in good condition. This operation is just a minor one. The patient is in good physical condition and will recover quickly. You can go in and take a look." The doctor immediately comforted Wang Kun.

"Okay, thank you doctor." After thanking the doctor, Wang Kun hurried into the operating room to see Qiuyan.

"Wow, I thought I would never see you again." Qiuyan couldn't help crying when she saw Wang Kun coming in.

Qiuyan's crying broke Wang Kun's heart. Although Qiuyan broke his heart, she was his first love and deep in his heart, he still loved her.

Wang Kun walked up to her and touched her forehead. He took a few tissues from the table, held them in his hands and wiped away the tears on Qiuyan's face.

"Don't cry. The doctor just told me that you are in good physical condition and will recover soon. Just focus on taking care of yourself so that you can recover faster." Wang Kun immediately comforted Qiuyan, but he felt a dark pain in his heart.

"Okay, I'll listen to you," Qiuyan responded to Wang Kun in a sweet voice. But I was very happy in my heart. She thought that as long as I see you every day, I will be happy even if I am sick. It is worth doing such an operation.

"Just take good care of your injuries now, and don't worry about other things, I will arrange it." At this time, Wang Kun thought that Qiuyan came to this city because she wanted to be with him. She didn't have any relatives here. Now I am her relative, and I have the responsibility to help her.

At this time, the nurse came to the ward with the bill. She looked at Wang Kun and handed him the bill. "Sir, please go and pay the bill."

Wang Kun quickly took the bill and looked at Qiuyan lying on the bed. "I'll go pay the bill and I'll be back."

"Okay, Brother Kun, why am I so useless that I have to make you spend money again?" Qiuyan squeezed out a few tears after she said this, but she felt happy inside, thinking that Brother Kun still loved her.

"Don't worry, just get well. I'll take care of everything here."

"Thank you, Brother Kun." Qiuyan looked at Wang Kun's departing figure. This disease came at the right time.

It was such a coincidence that Qiuyan's illness came so coincidentally. Originally, Wang Kunhou and their relationship had not developed so quickly, but because of this sudden illness, their relationship developed at a rapid pace.

Wang Kun would come to see Qiuyan early every day while he was on early shift. Qiuyan's condition recovered very quickly due to Wang Kun's daily care. Qiuyan was immersed in the joy of seeing Wang Kun.

Qiuyan regards this time of morning every day as the most exciting and happiest time for her. She especially enjoys the opportunity to spend more good time every day, but she pretends to be in great pain every day. She thinks this way she can win more sympathy and love from Wang Kun.

Every time Wang Kun came, Qiuyan would try her best to pretend to be in great pain, while Earl would also try hard to make some charming expressions to seduce Wang Kun.

"Is Qiuyan feeling better today?" Wang Kun came to Qiuyan's ward as usual.

"Brother Kun, why did you come just now? My wound was hurting all night last night, and I only slept for a short while when it was almost dawn." Qiuyan spoke in a very soft voice with a crying tone, which made people feel numb all over. Men, in particular, found it more difficult to control themselves and would feel special sympathy and pity.

"Oh, have you taken your medicine? Has the doctor come to check on you?" After hearing Qiuyan's story, Wang Kun felt even worse. He immediately ran to the bed and held Qiuyan's hand. Especially when he heard Qiuyan's gentle voice, his feelings of sympathy overflowed and he could no longer conceal them.

"But brother Kun, now that you came to see me, I feel that the wound is not so painful anymore. But I feel so sad that you have to get up early and go to bed late every day for me. I see that you have lost weight during this period of time." Qiuyan did not forget to squeeze out a few tears after saying this.

Wang Kun felt warm in his heart after hearing Qiuyan's words, and at the same time he felt cared for. His nose felt sore and his eyes couldn't help but turn red.

"It's okay for me, but your wound needs to heal as quickly as possible, and you should be discharged from the hospital earlier," Wang Kun said, but he was thinking in his heart, if you hadn't left me, you wouldn't be in this situation now.

Qiuyan looked at Wang Kun. Wang Kun seemed to be much gentler towards her than before. From this period of time, Qiuyan came to a conclusion that if she was more considerate to Wang Kun, his attitude towards her would be better. If she was more relaxed towards him, he would be more considerate and caring.

From observing Wang Kun for a period of time, she knew that he still had her in his heart. She had more confidence in Wang Kun and she was confident that she could win back Wang Kun's heart through her own efforts.

"Brother Kun, you have been so busy because of me during this period. Especially you came here secretly under such pressure. I feel very sorry. I am feeling better now. You don't have to come. I can take care of myself. Besides, there are nurses here." Qiuyan didn't forget to squeeze out some tears after she finished speaking.

"It's okay, I will take care of it myself, they won't know. I will wait until you are discharged from the hospital." Wang Kun thought that you have become more and more considerate.

At this time, the door was pushed open, and the person who came in made Wang Kun's marriage completely collapse...
