

First Love 117

Chapter 117 Mother-in-law's Difficulties

The whole family was in turmoil, but the one who was most heartbroken was grandma-in-law Jinlan.

Since she met Lizhen, in order to save her son's family, she not only had to take care of her son's family, but she also often ran to Lizhen's place and often cooked delicious food and sent it to Lizhen, which made her busy and exhausted. Fortunately, she was a hardworking person and had good physical fitness, otherwise she would not collapse from exhaustion.

After breakfast that day, Jinlan went out to buy groceries. At this time, she saw her son's car parked on the roadside at the corner of the street. She was puzzled. When they were having breakfast, her son told her that he had to go to the factory earlier today because a boss was coming to the factory to discuss business. But more than an hour had passed, but he hadn't left yet. She wanted to run up to find out...

Jin Lan walked quickly to her son's car. When she got to the car, she saw that the door was closed. Because the windshield of the car was covered with a sunscreen film, she could not see inside from the outside. Jin Lan pulled the door and it opened with a click. "Why didn't the kid lock the door when he parked his car on the side of the road?" She lowered her head and looked into the car. She saw her son sitting in the driver's seat and a woman sitting steadily next to the passenger seat. She took a closer look and was furious. "You vixen have caused our family so much misery, and you still come to see our Kun Kun with a face like that." Jin Lan angrily rushed from the car on the right to the driver's seat on the left...

The woman in the passenger seat was talking to Wang Kun when she suddenly heard the car door open with a bang. She was also startled, but when she saw the face of the person who opened the door, her face suddenly changed. She was immediately at a loss and panicked.

"Get out of the car and run." Wang Kun saw his mother rushing towards the left passenger seat angrily. He knew that his mother would not let go of the culprit who had brought unrest to their family. He hurriedly yelled at the woman to leave quickly.

The woman in the car was stunned when she saw Jin Lan. She sat there like a wooden statue. When she heard Wang Kun telling her to leave, she came to her senses. When she heard Wang Kun's scolding, she hurriedly opened the car door and fled, but it was too late...

"You shameless vixen, look where you're going to escape to?" As she pushed open the car door and her feet touched the ground, she was caught by Jin Lan who rushed over angrily from the right.

Jin Lan rushed to her, grabbed her clothes and pulled her hard, but because she used too much force, they both fell to the ground at the same time.

"Ouch, my waist." At this moment, Jin Lan suddenly felt a "pop" in her waist. Suddenly, she felt a piercing pain in her waist, and her whole body seemed to be falling apart and she couldn't move at all.

"Mom, what happened to you?" Hearing Jinlan fall to the ground and groaning in pain, Wang Kun's face suddenly changed. He felt that the situation was not good. He immediately got out of the car with a bang and ran like crazy in the direction where his mother fell...

When Wang Kun saw Jinlan falling to the ground, he saw his mother lying on the ground, face up, with her hands on her waist, her face was ashen, her face was hideous, and she had a very painful expression on her face.

"Mom, what happened to you?" Wang Kun immediately ran forward and tried to help his mother up.
"Ouch, my waist!"

Seeing your heart-wrenching screams and your face twisted in pain, Wang Kun's eyes flashed with murderous intent. Looking at Qiuyan who was still trembling, he gritted his teeth and uttered word by word, "If anything happens to my mother, I will never let you off."

"I didn't mean it." Looking at the anger in Wang Kun's eyes, Qiuyan had already been frightened by Jin Lan's situation and couldn't speak. Her voice was crying, tears were in her eyes, and she looked at Wang Kun pitifully.

"Call 120 now!" Wang Kun shouted angrily at Qiuyan.

"Oh!" Qiuyan immediately reached into her pocket in panic to get her phone. Due to her panic, she couldn't hold the phone and it fell to the ground with a "pop".

Qiuyan immediately picked up the phone with trembling hands and made a call, but because her hands were shaking so badly, she had to tap the number several times before she could get it right.

It turned out that Qiuyan had recovered from her appendectomy surgery after a period of rest, but she had not been to work during this period. Together with the hospital expenses, the money she had brought with her for food and lodging had been almost used up. However, she did not find a job after the surgery, so all the money she had brought with her was used up.

Qiuyan was desperate, so she had to shamelessly come to Wang Kun to ask for money. However, during this period of time, Wang Kun didn't dare to see her, and didn't want to see her and always avoided her, so she had to use extreme means to pester Wang Kun today.

There were several times when Qiuyan went to Wang Kun's factory to look for him, but she was stopped by Wang Kun's father and scolded by him, so she had to leave in shame.

Later, she thought of Wang Kun's door and was afraid of Jin Lan, so today she had to come to the place where Wang Kun passed by to stop Wang Kun. She firmly believed that as long as something happened to her, Wang Kun not only loved her, but would never leave her alone.

She came to a turning and saw Wang Kun's car was about to reach the turning, so she rushed over immediately. As Wang Kun's car just reached the turning, he suddenly saw a figure rushing out in front of him. Wang Kun's hair stood on end all over his body. He was suddenly startled and cried out in his heart, "Oh no!" He slammed the brakes, and the car body shook violently and stopped with a "bang". A person fell down in front of the car.

Wang waited for the car to stop and he was still standing there in a daze until a passerby knocked on his car window. Then he realized, "Bang, bang, the car coming down hit someone."

Wang Kun hurriedly unbuckled his seat belt, opened the car door and jumped out immediately. When he saw the person who was knocked to the ground, he finally understood and was furious.

"Why didn't I hit you to death? If you want to die, I'll grant your wish."

"Do you still have any humanity at all? You think you're right after hitting someone." Wang Kun's words aroused the indignation of passers-by. Several passers-by who did not know the truth immediately stepped forward to pull Wang Kun.

"Don't blame him, it was my own carelessness." Qiuyan, who was lying on the ground, saw everyone scolding Wang Kun, and she immediately spoke up to stop them.

"Look how kind that girl is. She was hit by a car but she is still begging for mercy for you." The onlookers present were filled with righteous indignation and blamed Wang Kun one after another.

"You think I will surrender to you just by using such despicable means, right? And you are repeating the same old tricks. You didn't learn from the last lesson, but instead made things worse." Hearing the crowd of onlookers scolding him, Wang Kun became even more fed up with Qiu Yan.

"So it was you who set up a scam. We almost got fooled by you." The deceived onlookers present immediately understood what was happening. At this time, the wind direction had turned to Qiuyan who was still lying on the ground, and people began to blame Qiuyan for her mistakes.

"Aren't you harming people by doing this?"

"Girl, even if you feel wronged, don't joke with your life."

"Well, let's send him to the hospital first."

"I don't want to go to the hospital." At this time, Qiuyan heard everyone blaming her. She lowered her head and blushed, mumbling that she didn't want to go to the hospital.

Seeing everyone scolding Qiuyan, Wang Kun's heart slowly softened. He squatted down and wanted to pick her up and send her to the hospital.

"I'm not going to the hospital, I'm fine, I just want to see you"

After hearing Qiuyan's words, everyone present found it very boring and dispersed one after another.

"Alas, people nowadays are so pretentious, playing with their lives. It's ridiculous." Some of the onlookers sighed and some shook their heads.

"Alas, why haven't I met someone who loves me so wholeheartedly?"
