

First Love 121

Chapter 121 I Will Never Agree

"What's wrong with you?" The nurse couldn't stand it anymore and ran in immediately.

It turned out that the nurse had not left at all. She was standing at the door listening to every move in the room. She heard everything that had just happened. She heard their quarrel. She thought that if she didn't go in, what would happen if they fought and affected the patient's wound.

"You are such an ignorant auntie. She was kind enough to take care of you and even made chicken soup for you, but you didn't appreciate it and even knocked over her chicken soup." The nurse saw that Qiuyan's hands had been scalded red by the chicken soup, so she immediately picked up a pair of tongs with alcohol to disinfect Qiuyan.

"The nurse is a weasel visiting a chicken in the New Year. She has no good intentions. Don't be fooled by her gentle appearance now. She is a vixen who specializes in sowing discord among other people's families. My son and my wife are fine, but this shameless vixen is the one who drove my wife away. She wants to please me and make me agree with her." Jin Lan paused for a moment as her wound began to hurt again when she said this.

"So he is such a person. No wonder you are so angry. What you did is absolutely right. But your daughter-in-law must be an exceptionally good daughter-in-law, which is why you, the mother-in-law, can't forget her." At this time, the noise alarmed many spectators in the hospital.

"Now my daughter-in-law has been driven away by her. Now that she sees that my daughter-in-law is not at home, she comes to bother my son every day. I was injured this time because she came to find my son again. You shameless vixen, did my son owe you something in his previous life and you come to repay the debt in this life?" Jin Lan became more and more excited as she spoke.

"I" listened to Jinlan's scolding, Qiuyan's face turned red, then pale. Seeing so many people watching at the door, she was so angry that she wanted to dig a hole in the ground and crawl into it.

"When my son was in school, he delayed his entrance exam to university because he wanted to tutor you. But you left my son and tried to marry someone better. You left if you wanted to, but now you see my son is rich and prosperous, and you want to come back. How could your parents give birth to such a shameless daughter like you? You are thicker-skinned than a city wall. Now you are happy, and my wife has been taken away by you. But don't be happy too soon. Even if my son wants you, you can't get past me. You can't enter my house unless I die." Jin Lan was not only angry but also heartbroken when she said this, with tears in her eyes.

"No wonder the old lady was so angry. This is too shameless and too much."

"Alas, people nowadays are so immoral. It really subverts people's three views"

"Auntie, I was wrong, but I had no choice but to leave. I shouldn't have come back to find Wang Kun after I left him. But after Brother Kun knew my difficulties, he forgave me. I can see that he still likes me." Qiuyan heard everyone talking about her and condemning her, and she wanted to leave immediately.

But she changed her mind and thought, if I do this, all my previous efforts will be wasted. Once the arrow is shot, there is no turning back. Brother Kun is a filial son. If I don't pass the old lady's test, no matter how hard I try, Brother Kun will not and dare not pay attention to me.

"Auntie, this incident was caused by me. I have the responsibility to take care of you. You are injured now, and Brother Kun is busy in the field. He has no time to take care of you, so you let me take care of you. This time, no matter you hit me or scold me, I will not leave. I will take care of you until you recover." Now Qiuyan doesn't care what others say about her. She wants me to stay here. I will take good care of her and make her moved. I don't believe that I can't move her.

"Hey, old lady, just let her take care of you here. This is what she should do." Qiuyan's words moved some of the people present, and everyone persuaded Jinlan.

"How can I be worthy of my daughter-in-law if I let her take care of me here? What if my daughter-in-law finds out that she is here? You'd better get out of here. I don't want you to take care of me." Jin Lan has a stubborn temper. She doesn't like Qiuyan and she just doesn't want her to take care of her.

"Your injury hasn't healed yet, so just think of myself as the caregiver hired by Brother Kun. I'll leave when your injury is healed. Don't worry, I will leave and I won't bother your son," Qiuyan patiently persuaded Jinlan.

"The old lady actually said that. Don't chase her away. Just let her take care of you." The nurse couldn't bear it either, so she helped Qiuyan persuade Jinlan.

"I still don't believe what you said, because you have lied to us too many times, especially now that you have caused our family so much trouble."

"I will never lie to you again this time. I will always keep my word. If you don't believe me, call Brother Kun over." Qiuyan saw that she could not convince Jinlan, so she had to call Wang Kun.

"Don't disturb my son. My son stayed with me all night last night and now he's going to the field again. I'll keep you here for now. I'll keep an eye on you. Don't do anything weird again. If I find out that you're bothering my son again, I'll be rude to you." Jin Lan thought, then let her stay here for now so that I can still keep an eye on her.

"What's going on?" At this time, Wang Kun went home after breakfast and brought his mother's meal. He saw so many people gathered at the door of his mother's ward. He felt very strange and thought something had happened to his mother. He immediately pushed his way through the crowd and squeezed in.

Wang Kun walked closer and saw Qiuyan standing there with a worried and helpless look on her face. He looked at her angry mother and immediately understood the situation in the ward.

"You've come at the right time. Your mother is having a conflict with your friend. Talk to your mother and tell her not to get excited at this time, as the wound may get infected easily." The nurse was like seeing a life-saving straw when she saw Wang Kun coming.

"okay, I get it"

"Didn't I tell you not to come? You clearly knew my mother didn't want to see you, but you came anyway. What do you want?" Wang Kun looked at Qiuyan, who had a worried look on her face, and then at his mother, who had a furious face.

"Why are you still standing there? Get out now." Seeing the crowd of onlookers standing at the door of the ward, Wang Kun felt ashamed and humiliated.

"I saw you were so busy, I just wanted to help and look after your aunt," Qiuyan said, covering her face with her hands and fleeing the ward in embarrassment.

"Oh, what a sin! People nowadays have no morals at all. They can do anything else but choose to be mistresses, destroying other people's families and making them restless." Looking at Qiuyan leaving, the crowd of onlookers blamed Qiuyan.

Hearing everyone blaming Qiuyan, Wang Kun's face turned red and white, his dark eyes were filled with cold anger, his hands were clamped tightly, and they were about to break his arm, but when he saw that the corners of his lips were slightly raised, a slight arc appeared.

The cold black pupils inadvertently glared in the direction where Qiuyan left.

Like falling into an icy cave with a bottomless abyss, the sharp ice cone cuts through the ice, drawing a perfect arc.

He still had the same cold expression as usual, stern eyebrows and eyes, sharp thin lips, but in his pair of bottomless black pupils, there was a terrifying storm.

Jin Lan was lying in bed and saw her son's terrifying and angry eyes. She felt a chill down her spine. She was very worried that her son might do something extreme and felt very anxious and uneasy.
