

First Love 123

Chapter 123: Child, You'd Better Come Back

Qiuyan was thinking about her future path when Lizhen arrived at the hospital.

"I haven't seen my son for a long time. I wonder how he is doing now," Lizhen suddenly told Chunyan after dinner that day.

"Lizhen, I forgot to tell you that your mother-in-law is in the hospital." Chunyan looked at Lizhen and quickly turned her head away. She was a little afraid to look into Lizhen's eyes, for she was afraid that Lizhen would blame her for not telling her earlier.

"Is my mother-in-law sick? When did she go to the hospital? Is it because I'm going to divorce that she's getting mad at me and making her sick?" Lizhen looked at Chunyan anxiously. She wondered if it was because of her divorce that her mother-in-law got angry and made her sick.

"It doesn't seem so. I heard from Wang Kun that day that your mother-in-law fell down." Chunyan knew that Lizhen's mother-in-law was admitted to the hospital because of Qiuyan, but she couldn't say it because she was afraid that Lizhen would be even more angry if she knew.

Lizhen arranged for a nanny to look after the child, bought some things and went to the hospital with Chunye.

"Was the fall serious?" Lizhen asked anxiously.

"I heard that he broke his chest bone. I heard that it was quite serious." Chunyan spoke hesitantly because she didn't dare to tell Qiuyan the truth. She lied. She was afraid to tell her best friend that she was hiding it from her because Wang Kun told her it was because of Qiuyan.

"Which hospital is my mother-in-law in? I want to go see her." This mother-in-law is so kind to me, and loves me like my own mother.

After Lizhen asked the nanny to look after her daughter, she and Chunyan bought some nutritional supplements and rushed to the hospital immediately.

At this time, Qiuyan made some chicken soup and came to the hospital again. She had been thinking about it all night last night. When she returned home, she had been expelled from school and could not go back.

Now the only way is to cling to Wang Kun and make him accept her. She is sure that Wang Kun can do it, but Wang Kun's mother is not only a tigress, but also very powerful and strong. As long as she doesn't like something, she will try every means to obstruct it. Wang Kun is a filial son, and he doesn't have the courage to accept her without his mother's nod.

Qiuyan thought that I should think of some way to deal with this old guy.

As soon as the sky turned light, Qiuyan came to the supermarket. Fortunately, the supermarket had just opened, so she immediately bought a fresh chicken and rushed to the rental house. She stewed the chicken very quickly, bought some breakfast, packed up, and rushed to the hospital immediately.

When they arrived at the hospital ward, Jinlan was still sleeping. Seeing that Jinlan had not woken up, Qiuyan hurried to the water room to get some boiled water and put it in the ward. She also tidied up the cups on the bottom cabinet and washed them clean. In the eyes of others, she was a very rare good daughter-in-law.

"Hey, isn't this the mistress who was kicked out yesterday?" This was a bed attendant of a patient in the adjacent bed. When she saw Qiuyan coming, she immediately started talking to the patient sleeping in the bed.

"You are so shameless. You come here even though you were scolded so badly yesterday." The man who was accompanying her in bed said to Qiuyan rudely and glared at her with a pair of contemptuous eyes.

"I say, who do you think you are? I'm not here to take care of your family. I'm taking care of the people I should take care of. What does it have to do with you? Why do you care so much? I'm touching your eyes and blocking your way." Qiuyan is not a pushover. She is also a sharp-tongued person. She wants to be scolded by Wang Kun's mother, but she has no way to bear it. She can't bear it when you, who have no relationship with Wang Kun's family, mock her.

The sound of Qiuyan quarreling with the person in the next bed woke up Jinlan who was sleeping soundly. When she opened her eyes slightly, she saw Qiuyan quarreling with someone. She immediately scolded Qiuyan in a harsh voice: "I told you not to come, why did you come?"

"Auntie, I told you yesterday that it was me that caused the incident. I have the responsibility to take care of you until you are fully recovered. During this period, even if you scold me again, I will not fight back if you hit me." Qiuyan looked at Jinlan and listened to her quietly. She continued;

"Auntie, you need to cure your illness before you have the strength to chase me away." When Jin Lan heard what Qiuyan said, she thought there was some truth in what this woman said.

"If you love your son, you just need to be obedient and I will take good care of you. Your son is so busy every day. He has to manage the factory during the day and take care of you at night. Even the strongest man can be worn down by this. Let him have a rest." Perhaps Jin Lan had heard Qiuyan's words, and she didn't say a word anymore.

At this time, a young woman and a girl who was fashionable and looked very capable walked out of the elevator.

The young woman was wearing a printed light yellow cheongsam. She was tall with fair skin, and her skinny flesh-colored stockings set off her slender legs. She was wearing a pair of mid-heeled black leather shoes, and she was tapping on the tiles on the floor in a very rhythmic manner, making a "dengdeng" sound.

The girl wore a white top, a pair of dark blue jeans, a fashionable cape on her face, and a pair of high-top sneakers on her feet, which made her slender legs look particularly tall.

The appearance of the beautiful young woman and the fashionable beautiful girl was like a beautiful scenery in the quiet atmosphere of the hospital, and people couldn't help but stop and watch.

They showed up at the trauma ward carrying fruit baskets and came to the front desk to inquire about the inpatients.

"Excuse me, which ward is Liu Jinlan staying in?"

"Let me check for you," the nurse enthusiastically helped them check.

"In Bed 26, Ward 5"

"Okay, thank you"

They hurried to Jinlan's ward, pushed the door open and saw Jinlan sleeping on the bed.

"Mom, are you okay?"

"Child, come here quickly and let mom see you." The people who came were Lizhen and her best friend Chunyan. Lizhen's call of "Mom" made Jinlan cry, and her eyes were filled with tears.

"Mom, what happened to you? You were so careless. How could you fall so badly?" Lizhen walked forward and held her mother-in-law's hand. Seeing her mother-in-law lying on the hospital bed, who had lost a lot of weight, her voice choked and tears welled up in her eyes.

"Well, it's a long story." Seeing Lizhen's slightly red eyes, Jinlan couldn't help but cry.

"Hello, Auntie." Chunyan came out from behind Lizhen at this time. She put the fruit basket aside and walked forward to stand with Lizhen.

"Thank you for coming to see me, Miss Chunyan"

"My child, how is my granddaughter? She was born and is already a month old, but grandma hasn't seen her yet." Jin Lan wanted to scold Duguai Qiuyan for being a vixen, but she thought that she couldn't embarrass her son anymore. She had to try her best to hide it from her daughter-in-law and not let her know that she was injured because of Qiuyan. She quickly changed the subject.

"Mom, just rest assured and get well. Your granddaughter is doing fine."

"The child is Kun Kun and he did something wrong. Can you forgive Kun Kun for the sake of your son and me? My grandson is still so young and you can't let her be without a mother," Jin Lan said pleadingly, holding Li Zhen's hand.

"Mom, you have to take good care of your illness and get better soon. (Baby) is still waiting for grandma to get better soon," Lizhen comforted her mother-in-law.

"The child's mother begged to come home to visit. You go and see Binbin during this time. Your father won't be able to take care of the child when I'm not at home. KunKun is busy in the farm, so he has to accompany me at night." Jin Lan's eyes were slightly red.

"Mom, I will, don't worry." Lizhen looked at her mother-in-law begging her in tears, and her heart was shaken.

At this time, a man came in from outside, carrying a bowl of hot water and a lunch box.

When Li Zhen's eyes met this man's, anger suddenly spread throughout her body. Her eyes were still as cold as usual, with stern eyebrows and eyes, sharp thin lips, but in her pair of deep, dark pupils, there was a terrifying storm.
