

First Love 127

Chapter 127 Rescue

"Wa wah" Li Zhen was sitting in the garden of the villa in a daze that day, when the baby suddenly burst into tears. She immediately ran to pick up the child. She felt the child to see if he had urinated, but when she untied the diaper, she saw that it was dry and there was no urine. However, the child was still crying.

Lizhen wondered if the child was hungry, so she hurried to feed him, but her daughter was still crying. At this time, Lizhen put her nipple in her daughter's mouth, but her daughter's mouth was very hot. She immediately reached out to touch her daughter's forehead, which was very hot. Lizhen hurriedly touched her own forehead, thinking that her daughter had a cold. Lizhen had an idea and took her daughter to the hospital.

When Lizhen picked up her daughter and was about to go out, she suddenly thought how could she get there without a car. Lizhen looked at her cradle daughter who was still crying.

The villa where Lizhen lives is in the suburbs, and it is far from the hospital in the city. This is a villa area, and generally everyone has a private car, so taxis rarely come here. What should she do? Lizhen felt really at a loss at this time.

"Ms. Lizhen, wait a minute while I make a phone call." Looking at the anxious Lizhen, Aunt Liu immediately came up with a plan and turned around and ran into the house.

Lizhen looked at Liu Ma's back, wondering if Liu Ma saw her leaving in a hurry and without taking all the baby's things.

In less than a few minutes, Mrs. Liu ran out and said, "Miss Lizhen, please wait a moment. Master Hongliang will be here soon."

"How do you know the young master's phone number?" Li Zhen looked at her in surprise.

"Hehe, the young master told me a long time ago that if there is any emergency, tell her to dial this number." Mrs. Liu ran while breathing heavily, probably because she was in a hurry.

Lizhen originally wanted to call Hongliang, but she thought that Hongliang was at work and she didn't want to disturb him.

After a while, the sound of a car was heard at the door.

"The young master is here" Mrs. Liu hurried to open the door.

"How is the child? Is he suffering from a severe fever?" As the car stopped, the loud voice also stopped.

"Why are you here? Aren't you at work? The baby has a fever." Lizhen was a little surprised to see Hongliang at first, but she felt that Hongliang was at work and she couldn't disturb him.

"Going to work is also important for the child. The child has a fever. What if she develops pneumonia?" Hongliang looked anxious, as if his daughter was sick. Hongliang took the baby and rushed outside.

After they went out, they got in the car immediately. Hongliang started the engine and drove towards the hospital.

Along the way, Hongliang drove while asking Lizhen about her child's condition.

While waiting for the traffic lights, he would look at the changes in his child. Lizhen saw that Hongliang cared about his daughter, and she thought that if Hongliang had a child, he would definitely be a good father.

In a short while, their car arrived at the hospital. After parking the car, Hongliang and Lizhen rushed to the hospital outpatient department with the baby in their arms.

"I'll go register, you take the baby to the outpatient clinic and wait." Hongliang Zhen was about to turn around, and Xiaomeng, Hongliang's classmate in the hospital, saw Hongliang.

"Hongliang, is that you? Why are you here? Is your aunt feeling unwell?" She felt strange when she saw Hongliang's anxious look. She called him immediately.

Hongliang turned around quickly and saw a girl who looked like a doctor in a white coat. She had big eyes and fair skin that looked even more youthful and beautiful against the white coat. She also had a high nose bridge, a slim figure, and rosy and sexy lips. She looked so youthful and beautiful.

"You are" Hongliang didn't recognize her at first.

"I'm Li Xiaomeng, how come I even forgot my old classmates?"

"You've changed so much, I almost didn't recognize you."

"What are you doing?" Xiao Meng looked at Hongliang in surprise.

"It's Lizhen's child who has a cold and fever." Xiao Meng felt a little strange when he heard Hongliang talking about Lizhen's child. Isn't Lizhen's child your child?

"Is Lizhen's child your child? Everyone in school knew that you two were a couple. How come you..." Xiao Meng looked at Hongliang strangely. She thought to herself, isn't it your child? Didn't you get divorced? Xiao Meng was secretly happy in her heart.

It turned out that Xiao Meng had a crush on Hongliang when she was in school. Since she had not yet developed, she was not as pretty as Lizhen in every aspect, and she felt a little inferior. But who would have thought that girls change a lot when they grow up, and now Xiao Meng is becoming more and more beautiful.

Xiao Meng happened to go to the bathroom on her way to work just now. When she came back to work, her eyes suddenly lit up. This man was so handsome that she couldn't help but stare at him.

I saw this man with neat short hair, long eyebrows slanting into his hair, sharp and domineering eyes, a jade-like nose, and thin but sexy lips.

He was wearing a burgundy plaid suit with a white shirt underneath. His raised phoenix eyes were as exquisite as a demon's, his facial features were delicate and three-dimensional, and he looked elegant. This man was so handsome.

When Xiao Meng saw the man clearly, he couldn't help but get excited. Isn't this Chen Hongliang, the destined lover I have been thinking about day and night?

I heard a few years ago that he went to study in the United States, so how come he is back now?

When she was in school, she saw Hongliang often visiting Lizhen, and she was very envious, but she did not have this status. But when she heard that he and Lizhen did not succeed, Xiaomeng felt ecstatic.

"It's not that Lizhen has married someone else," Hongliang explained quickly.

"So who are you now?" Li Xiaomeng wanted to continue asking.

"Sorry, I have to go register. Lizhen's daughter has a cold and has a fever." Seeing that Xiaomeng continued to ask questions, Hongliang became a little impatient.

"Lizhen is there, call her over, it will be faster if I take you there."

"You" Hongliang hesitated and looked at her puzzledly.

"I am a pediatrician in a hospital."

"Oh" Hongliang understood immediately, and he immediately strode to find Lizhen, and Xiaomeng immediately followed.

At this time, Li Zhen was anxiously touching her daughter's forehead. Her daughter had fainted due to a high fever. She only saw her daughter with a red mouth and heavy breathing. "Baby, what's wrong with you?"

At this time, Hongliang and Xiaomin were walking in this direction. They were frightened when they saw Lizhen's appearance at this time.

"What's wrong with baby Lizhen?" Hongliang rushed over quickly.

"Hongliang, come and see the baby, what's wrong with her?" Seeing her daughter's appearance, Lizhen was frightened by the baby's appearance.

"Let me see." Xiao Meng rushed over immediately. Xiao Meng was also shocked to see the baby in such a situation.

"Quickly send the baby to the emergency room," Xiao Meng said decisively.

"Give me the baby." Hongliang immediately picked up the baby and ran to the emergency room. Xiaomeng and Lizhen also followed him.

Xiao Meng immediately told the nurses to take the baby to the emergency room. Xiao Meng immediately put on a mask and gloves and entered the emergency room. At this time, the lights in the emergency room suddenly came on.

Lizhen was still shivering at the door of the emergency room. When her son was young, Lizhen was usually busy in the factory, and her mother-in-law was usually in charge of taking care of the child. Her mother-in-law was more experienced in taking care of children and had never worried about the child's cold. This was the first time she saw the situation, and she was also frightened by her daughter's dangerous situation.

Seeing Lizhen standing at the door and trembling, Hongliang immediately walked up to her and comforted her, "Lizhen, don't be afraid, the baby will be fine." Hongliang patted Lizhen's shoulder gently.

Lizhen looked at Hongliang's determined gaze, and she slowly calmed down her uneasy heart.

"Do you know the doctor who rushed into the emergency room just now?" Suddenly Lizhen remembered the prospect of a female doctor and Hongliang running over together.

"You also know this person" "Who is she?"

"She is Li Xiaomeng" "Li Xiaomeng"

"Oh" Li Zhen then remembered that she was not very tall and had a dark skin when she was in school, but her facial features were still delicate. However, the change was too great, and her original appearance was gone. She was like a completely different person.

Lizhen and Hongliang paced back and forth at the door. It had only been more than an hour, but to Lizhen it felt like several years. Only then did Lizhen understand the feeling of living day by day like a year.

After an hour of rescue, the door of the emergency room was finally opened. Xiao Meng, who came out first, took off his mask and gloves and breathed a long sigh of relief.

"How's the baby?" Lizhen immediately rushed to Xiaomeng and asked anxiously.

"It's not a big problem, just a high fever. The baby had convulsions. Fortunately, it didn't last long and the fever didn't spread to the lungs." Xiao Meng explained the baby's condition lightly, and Lizhen and Hongliang felt relieved.

"Xiao Meng, I'm sorry, I didn't recognize you just now." Li Zhen felt a little embarrassed, and she quickly apologized to Xiao Meng.

"I understand. All mothers have this reaction, especially when their children are sick, the mother only has her children in her eyes," Xiao Meng explained while joking.

"Thank you, Li Xiaomeng. Thanks to you today. I'll treat you to dinner tonight." Hongliang also expressed his gratitude to Xiaomeng.

"If an old classmate invites me to dinner, I will be very polite." Xiao Meng was secretly happy when she heard that Hongliang invited her to dinner. It turned out that she heard that Lizhen was not married to Hongliang. She thought, isn't this a great opportunity created by God for me to get in touch with Hongliang?
