

First Love 130

Chapter 130 Quarrel

Hongliang's car arrived at the hospital in a short while, and Lizhen was about to help her daughter with the discharge procedures.

At this time Wang Kun also came to the hospital. As soon as he arrived at the hospital, he asked about the ward where Lizhen and the others were staying. When he just found the ward, he saw Hongliang persuading Lizhen to eat quickly. Lizhen was not very hungry and wanted to wait until she had packed up before eating.

"I've been away from the hotel for some time. If you don't eat now, the food will get cold. Cold food will harm your body. You just came out of confinement and you can't eat cold food. You have to take good care of yourself." Hongliang was bringing the meal over and asking Lizhen to take it. Just as Lizhen stretched out her hand, Wang Kun appeared at the door.

Lizhen and Hongliang were facing the door with their backs to each other, but from the angle of the door, it seemed that they were holding hands.

At this time, Wang Kun was so angry when he saw their actions. You adulterers, you still don't forget to pull each other in the hospital. If you do something even more disgusting behind his back, he will be angry that Lizhen has been hiding from him for so long, and he can't find who was behind the scenes to find a place for Lizhen to stay.

At first Wang Kun suspected it was Hong Liang, but he couldn't find solid evidence, and today it seems that it was Hong Liang who did it.

Wang Kun strode to the back of Hongliang and Lizhen. He grabbed the collar of Hongliang and pulled him back. Wang Kun cursed them fiercely, "What an adulterer and whore!"

Hongliang was holding the lunch box towards Lizhen, but he didn't expect Wang Kun to arrive behind him and he fell to the ground with a bang. Lizhen happened to catch the rice in her hand, otherwise the food would have spilled all over him.

Just as Lizhen took the lunch box, Hongliang fell to the ground. Wang Kun was standing there with an angry look on his face, looking at the fallen Hongliang and Lizhen who was still holding the food in her hands in a daze.

"Wang Kun, what are you doing?" Looking at Hongliang lying on the ground and seeing Wang Kun standing next to him, Lizhen's face was filled with anger and she stared at Wang Kun with a pair of angry eyes.

"I" When Wang Kun saw the lunch box in Lizhen's hand, he was also stunned. He seemed to sense something.

Lizhen quickly put the lunch box in her hand on the table and immediately went to help Hongliang who had fallen to the ground.

When Wang Kun realized his mistake, he wanted to help Li Zhen to help Hong Liang, but Li Zhen glared at him and said "Get lost".

Men are stubborn in their bones. Even if they are wrong, they will not admit their mistakes in person. They will fight to the end for the sake of their own face.

Lizhen pulled Hongliang up from the ground and immediately asked Hongliang, "Did you fall there? Are you hurt?" Lizhen's voice was soft, gentle and heartwarming.

"I just saw you..." Wang Kun didn't dare to say anything else.

"What did you see? Do you think everyone is as cowardly as you?" Li Zhen heard that Wang Kun didn't say it, she knew what Wang Kun was thinking.

"Lizhen hasn't had dinner yet. I was bringing the meal over. I advised her that the food would get cold if she didn't eat. Now you've spilled all the food and she can't eat it." Hongliang watched the two of them arguing. He stood up, dusted off his body, and said sarcastically to Wang Kun.

"I'll go outside and buy another one for you." Wang Kun sounded a little weaker at this time.

"Who wants to eat the food you bought? I'm full just seeing you. I don't want to see you, so get out of here." Seeing Wang Kun now, especially seeing Wang Kun's recklessness and rudeness, Li Zhen's heart towards Wang Kun has reached the bottom.

"I heard from Sister Liu that you came to the hospital. I came to see my daughter. Do you think I came to see you?" Wang Kun heard Li Zhen yelling at him to get out again, especially not giving him face in front of another love rival, his anger began to rush to his head again.

"You are a married woman. You haven't even returned home for more than a month, but you are having an affair with another man. How can I, as your husband, feel?" Wang Kun didn't even make sense at this time. He was lying and going against his conscience.

"You still know that you are the husband. Why did Lizhen leave you? Don't you understand in your heart? How dare you say that she is not home?" Hongliang really couldn't bear to listen to Wang Kun's shameless words without bottom line.

"This is a matter between us as husband and wife. It's not your turn as an outsider to talk nonsense here." Wang Kun got even angrier when he heard Hong Liang interrupting.

"I warned you when you got married that you must treat Lizhen well, otherwise I would be rude to you." Hongliang was also angry.

"So what? You are already married and you have a wife. Go home and live a good life with your wife. Don't let outsiders interfere in our affairs." Wang Kun thought that it was because of your interference that Li Zhen had the courage to go against me.

Wang Kun's words choked Hongliang. Yes, I am already a married man, and they are a couple. You are an outsider. You are interfering in the affairs of the couple. You are their family member. In what capacity do you get to manage their family affairs?

"You know you have a family, so why do you do things that go against family ethics? You do those dirty things yourself and don't let others say anything. Wang Kun, don't say so much. I think you have become hopeless. Let's get a divorce." Li Zhen heard that Wang Kun had no bottom line in his words. She felt that it was time to separate and there was no hope.

"Why do you have to say such things? Have you considered the consequences of divorce? Have you considered your son and daughter? Especially your daughter is still so young. Can you bear to let them lose their father and mother?"

When Lizhen heard Wang Kun talking about the child, she fell silent. She couldn't face the pain of her child losing his family. She thought about her own child and the children from other divorced families.

Seeing that Lizhen was silent, Wang Kun thought that today was not the time to talk about this matter. If he continued to talk about it, it would only make things worse. He ran to his daughter who was sleeping on the bed, checked on her, and reached out to touch her forehead. It seemed that she no longer had a fever, so he had to leave.

"Lizhen, let's not talk about divorce all the time. Let's think about how I founded the factory and how we got to where we are today step by step. I won't argue with you today. Let's go back and think about it carefully." Wang Kun said, looked at Hongliang again and left.

Li Zhen looked at Wang Kun's leaving back and tears immediately welled up in her eyes.

"Let's go, let's discharge our baby from the hospital." Hongliang patted Lizhen's shoulder and helped Lizhen carry the baby's bag and leave the hospital.
