

First Love 140

Chapter 140: Shooting Yourself in the Leg

"It's impossible that Lizhen did it, you must have made a mistake," said Hongliang in the chairman's office. When the accounting team told him that it was Lizhen who sold out the company's data, Hongliang's brain was like a thunderclap. All the joints in his body seemed to be glued by strong glue and he couldn't move. He suddenly stared at his assistant Xiao Wang with wide eyes. Although his face was pale, he looked heroic and his heart was trembling.

"But a document was being sent out from Cheng Lizhen's computer," Xiao Wang confirmed with certainty.

At this moment, Hongliang was like falling into an icy cave with a bottomless abyss. The sharp ice cone cut through the ice and drew a perfect arc.

He still had the same cold expression as usual, stern eyebrows and eyes, sharp thin lips, but in his pair of bottomless black pupils, there was a terrifying storm.

"I absolutely don't believe that Cheng Lizhen did this. Assistant Wang immediately sent someone to investigate A'man, including her account transactions." Hongliang made a gesture to call Assistant Wang over, and he whispered to Assistant Wang.

"Yes." Assistant Wang made a phone call and went out immediately.

"Secretary, please call Cheng Lizhen from the accounting group to the office," Hongliang called secretary Xiaomai.

"Okay, Chairman." Hearing Hongliang calling Lizhen to the office, Xiaomai was secretly happy. Now, Cheng Lizhen, you are in big trouble. Humph, you even want to work in the chairman's office. You wish. You are going to be fired before you have established a firm foothold in the company. She thinks that I, the behind-the-scenes commander, am quite capable. I can drive you away with just a little thought.

After a while, Lizhen came to the chairman's office. As soon as Lizhen arrived at the office, Hongliang immediately closed the door.

When Lizhen saw Hongliang closed the door, she felt it was very strange "What happened?" Lizhen didn't know that their company failed in the bid. Hongliang didn't tell her. Because Hongliang had a meeting yesterday, Lizhen took a taxi back first.

"Have you sent out any materials during this period?" Hongliang pointed at a girl named Lizhen and spoke in a low voice. He pointed at the door to indicate that there was someone there.

"No, my team leader only assigned me some miscellaneous tasks during this period of time and there was no one to do them. I just occasionally touched the computer when I had nothing to do," Lizhen told the truth.

"Do you know what happened in the company yesterday?" Hongliang said very sadly.

"I just heard them talking about the bidding when I was at work today, but I don't know much about it. I just heard them saying that there was a traitor here and that someone from the company sold out company secrets." Li Zhen was completely confused.

"Yes, someone betrayed our company's secrets, which led to our company's failure in the bid yesterday." Hongliang was so sad that he was speechless.

"Really? Have you found out who sold out the company secrets?"

"It has been found out," Hongliang said and looked up at Lizhen.

"Once you find out, arrest her and send her to the police station," Li Zhen said angrily.

"Do you know who the person found out is?" Hongliang looked at Lizhen very seriously.

"Who is it?" "It's you" Hongliang blurted out.

"Hehe, Hongliang, don't joke about this." Lizhen thought Hongliang was joking.

"I'm not kidding. This morning when I was at work, I found on your computer that you sent out a document. After investigation, I found that the recipient was Hongda Company, and our bid was snatched away by them."

"Impossible, I have never used the computer to send documents here. I'm just an employee who does odd jobs, and I haven't sent documents yet." Li Zhen's brain was like a thunderclap. All the joints in her body seemed to be glued by strong glue and she couldn't move. She suddenly stared at Hong Liang with wide eyes, her heart trembling. Li Zhen almost lost her balance, but fortunately she didn't fall down.

Hongliang immediately stepped forward to support Lizhen and said, "We haven't investigated it clearly yet. I believe it is definitely not you. Someone is framing you."

"We must investigate you thoroughly. I believe you will clear my name and will not let any bad guy go." Only then did Li Zhen breathe a sigh of relief.

"Secretary, what are you doing?" Xiao Wang's voice came from outside the door.

It turned out that after Xiaomai Lizhen went into the chairman's office, especially when she saw the chairman close the door, she wanted to know how the chairman interrogated Lizhen. She put her ear to the door to try to understand what the chairman said about Lizhen, but after listening for a long time, she couldn't hear clearly what was said inside.

"I, I" Xiaomai was leaning against the office door listening to what was said inside.

"You" Xiao Wang pointed at Xiaomai and knocked on the door. The chairman's voice came from inside, "Come in"

"What did you just say? Someone is eavesdropping at the door," Xiao Wang pointed outside the door.

"I see," Hongliang nodded to show that he understood.

"Lizhen, go back to work. We will investigate your case. I believe in you, but don't feel burdened. A man of integrity is not afraid of his own shadow."

"Xiaomi, call the head of the accounting team here."

"Okay, okay." Xiaomai was still feeling uneasy, but when she heard the chairman's words, she ran to call someone.

At this time, the assistant Xiao Wang whispered something into the chairman's ear. As the chairman listened, a wave of anger slowly emerged on his face. He still had the same cold expression, stern eyebrows, and sharp thin lips as usual, but in his deep black pupils, there was a terrifying storm.
