

First Love 15

Chapter 15 Conspiracy

Lizhen rejected the chairman, and he was in a bad mood that day, drinking alone in the lounge.

Just as I was about to go find the director of the chairman's office, he happened to see me.

"What's wrong with the chairman? Why is he drinking alone here? What's troubling him?" The director rolled his small triangular eyes. While asking about the chairman, he was wondering why the chairman was so depressed.

"Hey, why? It's all because of this secretary chick. Why is she so weird? I'm a chairman and there are people lining up to throw themselves at me, but I just don't like her. I just like her."

"I have tried everything I can for her, but she insists that she likes this guy. Alas." The chairman picked up the wine glass and took a sip of the wine in the glass. He drank more than half of the half-full glass of wine.

The director rolled his triangular eyes, thinking of some weird idea in his mind.

"Chairman, don't worry, let me help you find a solution." He had already come up with an idea, and he hurried to comfort the chairman.

"You can help with things like this. The problem now is not with others, but with the fact that she doesn't like me, but that she likes that guy." The chairman looked at him strangely, because he knew that the director had a lot of tricks up his sleeve.

"Don't worry about it, I have a solution." The director had ulterior motives and was full of bad intentions.

"Don't go too far." The chairman knew that this person was cunning and ruthless.

"No, Chairman, I know my limits and I won't make things difficult for you." After the director comforted the chairman, he went out.

When the director went out, he went straight to find Wang Kun, who was at work.

"Wang Kun, let Xiao Liu do the work here." Wang Kun looked at the director and said nothing. He packed his things. Since Wang Kun didn't have much stuff, he finished it quickly. What was supposed to happen to Wang Kun finally happened, but what was waiting for him was what would happen.

"Wang Kun, have you packed your things?"

"Sort it out"

"Come with me." Wang Kun took his things and got into the car with the director.

"Where is Wang Kun?" Li Zhen has been looking for Wang Kun these days but hasn't seen him, so she had to ask Xiao Liu who works with Wang Kun.

"He was transferred," Xiao Liu had no choice but to answer truthfully.

"Where has he been transferred to?"

"I don't know, the director had to ask me to take over his job"

Lizhen hurried to look for the director, but she couldn't find him after searching for a while. It turned out that the director had hidden himself and told others not to tell Lizhen.

Lizhen remembered and called but the phone was turned off. Just like that, Wang Kunru disappeared without a trace as if he had evaporated from the face of the earth.

Lizhen was looking for Wang Kun like crazy. She called Wang Kun but his phone was turned off. She began to hate Wang Kun.

She hated Wang Kun for being so weak and having no manliness at all, wanting to leave when something happened.

People say that the deeper the love, the deeper the hatred. Whenever Lizhen was alone in the night, she missed Wang Kun especially.

When I had a cold, Wang Kun brought me hot water and stayed by my bed all night without sleeping.

Sometimes when I feel tired, I blame myself for not working too hard.

In particular, there was one time when her feet were covered with blisters due to being too busy with work. When Wang Kun saw it, he was more anxious than she was. He specially found a needle, disinfected it with alcohol, pricked the blisters one by one, squeezed out the water with his hands, and then disinfected them with alcohol. Wang Kun was so careful and meticulous that Lizhen was so moved that she almost cried.

Scene after scene, one piece of past events after another made Li Zhen unable to sleep, she missed Wang Kun too much.

Wang Kun, Wang Kun, where are you now? Do you know how much I miss you?

Lizhen spent her days in longing for him, and she began to slowly walk out of the shadow of love. Although Lizhen would look for him as long as there was any clue, she always returned disappointed.

Suddenly one day, Xiao Chen, a colleague who used to get along well with Wang Kun, secretly saw that there was no one around, so he secretly told Li Zhen a secret.

"Secretary Lizhen, I'm going to tell you a secret," he said while looking around to see if there was anyone around.

"Oh, go ahead." Li Zhen found it very strange when she saw his mysterious look.

"Do you know how Wang Kun left?" He said as he looked around with his eyes dripping, afraid that someone would break in.

"Oh" Lizhen looked at him in surprise.

"He was taken away by the director, but I don't know where he was taken." He felt relieved after he finished speaking, as if he had accomplished something big, because he had been holding this matter in his heart for too long, especially when he saw Lizhen looking for Wang Kun every day, he felt particularly sad.

"Did you hear what they said?" Lizhen asked impatiently.

"No, I just saw Wang Kun seemed to be very obedient, and he sorted out his things without saying a word."

"Okay, I got it. Thank you." Li Zhen already understood. It must be the chairman who asked the director to drive Wang Kun away, and Wang Kun had no choice but to leave because the chairman was his savior.

She rushed to the chairman's office in a panic and went straight into the chairman's office without even knocking on the door.

"What's wrong with you?" Seeing the angry Lizhen, Director Zhong was very surprised. He didn't know what happened and why Lizhen was so angry.

"Don't you know what you did?" There was no smile on Lizhen's face. Instead, she was extremely angry, like an angry rooster, with her face flushed red.

"What did I do?" Director Zhong pointed at himself, feeling confused because he knew nothing about Wang Kun's affairs. He didn't know what the director had done to Wang Kun.

"You are such a rich and big boss. Don't you think it's a bit too much to do this to someone who has nothing?"

"Come and sit down and talk slowly." When Director Zhong saw Lizhen so angry, he was not only surprised but also felt particularly distressed. He immediately stood up and pulled Lizhen to sit on the sofa next to him.

"I don't want to sit down. Tell me where you put Wang Kun." Li Zhen was very angry when she saw that the chairman was still acting with her.

"Wang Kun was working normally, why did he go there? I don't know." All of Wang Kun's matters were handled by the director, and he was completely unaware of the matter.

"Yes, you are rich and powerful, and you think that treating a young man who has just entered the society and has little experience in the world is as easy as crushing an ant. But Wang Kun is so grateful to you, his savior, and often praises you as a good man in front of me. I didn't expect that you would do such a shameful thing for your own selfish interests." Li Zhen's eyes were red at this time, and she seemed about to cry. She cried out for justice for Wang Kun, but she hated Director Zhong even more. A man dares to do things but not to take responsibility.

"Lizhen, your words are becoming more and more outrageous. What did I do to make you so sad and painful? I haven't done anything shameful." Director Zhong looked at Lizhen blankly with a blank expression on her face. She didn't understand why Lizhen came to blame her with such a fuss.

"Wang Kun went there. If you don't give the order, would the director dare to do this?" Li Zhen was like an angry bird. She didn't care about Director Zhong's face.

When he heard Lizhen mention the director and Wang Kun, he realized that the director had taken Wang Kun away, but he had no idea where he had taken him.

"Xiao Liu, go get the director for me." Director Zhong wanted to find the director and ask him questions clearly so that he could give Lizhen an explanation. Otherwise, he would never be able to clear himself even if he jumped into the Yellow River.

"No matter what you do, I will find him. Even if you fire me, I will find him. I just like him." Lizhen swore to Director Zhong that she would find him.
