

First Love 153

Chapter 153 You Are Nothing But

After Wang Kun received a call from Li Zhen, he rushed to the hospital. It turned out that his daughter was sick. The doctor said that his daughter was ischemic and needed a blood transfusion. The blood transfusion had to be from a direct relative. Li Zhen had no choice but to call Wang Kun over.

Wang Kun looked at his daughter on the bed, his heart filled with anxiety and worry. He stretched out his arm without hesitation and told the doctor to draw blood quickly. As the blood slowly flowed out, Wang Kun's mood gradually calmed down.

After the blood transfusion, Wang Kun came to his daughter's ward and gently stroked her forehead. At this time, his daughter woke up and saw her father beside her, her eyes full of tears.

Although the daughter is young, she immediately smiles when she sees her father's face and makes a "toot" sound with her mouth.

"Don't be afraid, baby, Daddy is here, everything will be fine." Wang Kun comforted.

At this time, Li Zhen also walked into the ward. She looked at Wang Kun with gratitude. Their eyes met, and it seemed that a special emotion was spreading.

When Lizhen saw the smile on her daughter's face, her heart slowly settled down.

Li Zhen looked at Wang Kun and thought about the factory. She hadn't asked about the factory for a long time. "What's the situation in the factory now?"

"No, it's not good. Previously, we were both in charge, but now I am alone. Not only do I have to take care of the factory, but I also have to take care of the family affairs. Previously, my mother took care of the family, but now she is sick. I really can't do it. Lizhen, you are angry, and you are leaving. Let's not be angry anymore, okay?"

"For the sake of the children, we should also be good and give them a complete home." Wang Kun gently held Lizhen's hand and said affectionately.

Lizhen was touched after hearing these words. She looked at her lovely daughter and couldn't help but shed tears.

"I know you have worked hard during this period. I will take better care of the family in the future, and you can focus on handling the affairs of the factory." Li Zhen nodded, and Wang Kun smiled with relief.

At this time, Lizhen's heart was touched. She thought about her son and daughter, and the hard thing in her heart slowly melted.

"And Qiuyan is the one who always stays at our house. Our whole family doesn't like her, but she always uses the excuse that mom was injured because of her and she has to take care of her mom. She stays at home and doesn't want to leave. Plus, there are too many things at home and I'm too busy to handle it. Don't worry, she has found a job, and we will definitely drive her away when mom gets better." Wang Kun saw that Lizhen was in a better mood, so he wanted to slowly explain Qiuyan's matter.

If Wang Kun didn't mention Qiu Yan, Li Zhen would feel a little better. But when Wang Kun mentioned Qiu Yan, Li Zhen's heart could not calm down again.

"You speak better than you sing. If it weren't for your lineup, she wouldn't dare to stay."

"I know you're still blaming me, but she and I are really done." Wang Kun explained quickly, "I only let her stay at home for a while because her mother was injured and had no one to take care of her. Now she has found a job and will soon stop coming."

Li Zhen kept a straight face and said nothing. Wang Kun continued, "Believe me, I will treat you and the children well in the future. Let's start over, okay?"

Li Zhen was actually a little shaken in her heart. She knew that what Wang Kun said made sense. But when she thought of Qiu Yan, she still couldn't let it go completely.

"Give me some more time." Li Zhen finally said, "I need time to adjust my mentality."

Wang Kun nodded, knowing that this was Li Zhen's biggest concession. "I will wait for you, and we will work together to give the children a happy family." Wang Kun wanted to hug Li Zhen gently, wanting her to feel her warmth, but Li Zhen thought of Wang Kun and Qiu Yan, and she could not forgive him, so she gently pushed Wang Kun's hand away.

At this moment, Wang Kun suddenly remembered the photo he saw at Qiuyan's place, of Hongliang and Lizhen hugging each other.

His eyes became sharp. "You are so repulsive to me, but you are willing to accept him. What's the matter with this photo?" Wang Kun suddenly handed a photo to Li Zhen and questioned.

Li Zhen took the photo and her face turned pale instantly, "This... this is not real, it's fake!"

"Fake?" Wang Kun sneered, "Do you think I will believe it?"

"This is really fake. Hongliang and I are just ordinary friends." Lizhen explained eagerly.

Wang Kun remained silent, his eyes full of suspicion and disappointment.

"You forged it. Do you think I don't know that you have gone to work for him and he picks you up every day for work. You are together every day. No one can tell what might have happened. This photo proves that you are innocent. How could others take such an intimate photo?" Wang Kun couldn't bear it any longer.

In the world of love, men cheat on their partners, and they will never allow the other party to have any flaws.

Seeing this, Li Zhen felt a pain in her heart, "You don't believe me..." She bit her lip, tears welling up in her eyes.

"You said Qiuyan and I were cheating on each other, but you are no different from us."

"You" Li Zhen was so angry that she could hardly speak.

"I don't know whether I should believe you." Wang Kun took a deep breath. Seeing Li Zhen so angry, he felt a little distressed.

"I need some time to figure this out." After saying that, he turned and left, leaving Lizhen crying alone in the ward.

Li Zhen looked at Wang Kun's departing back, her heart filled with despair.

She didn't understand why Wang Kun refused to believe her. Was the trust between them so fragile?

A few days later, Lizhen decided to talk to Hongliang, hoping that he could help her prove her innocence.

Hongliang was very surprised after listening to Lizhen's story.

"This photo is with Xiaomai? I don't know what happened. It's strange how the photo got to Wang Kun. Could it be that Xiaomai gave it to him? But they don't know each other." Hongliang also felt very strange.

Lizhen was very confused. Could it be that Wang Kun also sent someone to follow her? She wanted to go home and find Wang Kun to find out.

However, when she returned home, she found that Wang Kun had disappeared, leaving only a letter.

The letter read: "I need time to calm down and think. I won't come to see you during this period. I hope you can take good care of our daughter." Lizhen felt heartbroken after reading the letter.

She didn't know when Wang Kun would believe her, nor did she know whether this family could ever return to its former warmth.

She decided to put her worries aside for the time being and take care of her daughter wholeheartedly.

As the days passed, there was still no news from Wang Kun.

Lizhen takes care of her daughter while working hard, she wants to prove her worth.

Just when she felt helpless, an unexpected visitor broke her peaceful life. ”

After reading the letter, Lizhen burst into tears. She knew that their marriage was facing a huge test and she had to face it with strength.

That day, Li Zhen was busy at home when she heard the doorbell ring. She opened the door and saw a strange woman standing at the door. The woman claimed to be Wang Kun's secretary and came to convey Wang Kun's news. She said that Wang Kun was on a business trip and encountered some troubles, and it would take some time for him to come back.

Lizhen felt mixed emotions, she didn't know if Wang Kun still cared about this family. However, she decided to trust Wang Kun and give him time and space to solve the problem. As the days went by, Lizhen worked harder and took good care of her daughter. She hoped that through her actions, Wang Kun would feel her change and determination.

One day not long after, Wang Kun finally came back to see Li Zhen. He looked exhausted, but his eyes revealed determination. Wang Kun hugged Li Zhen tightly, apologized to her, and said that he had realized his mistake. He admitted that his previous suspicion and distrust had hurt Li Zhen, and hoped to win her heart back and hope that she would return home and reunite with him as soon as possible.
