

First Love 155

Chapter 155 The Trick of Fate

Wang Kun seemed to be in bad luck since Li Zhen left. Everything went wrong. The factory orders were getting less and less. No matter how hard he tried, it was useless. One day, Wang Kun was worrying about the factory and suddenly received a call. The person on the other end of the phone was a purchasing manager of a large company. The other party expressed interest in Wang Kun's products and wanted to cooperate.

After Wang Kun heard this, he was ecstatic. This was the opportunity he had always dreamed of. However, when he heard the conditions for cooperation proposed by the other party, he felt disappointed.

It turned out that the other party asked Wang Kun to lower the price and deliver the goods in advance. This was almost an impossible task for Wang Kun, but if he did not agree, he would lose this rare opportunity.

Wang Kun was in a dilemma, he didn't know what to do. Just when he was hesitating, a familiar voice came.

"What's up, brother? Don't you recognize me?" Wang Kun realized it was Xiao Dong after hearing the voice.

This person was none other than Xiao Dong, a salesman working under his former savior, Mr. Zhong, and now serving as vice president of Mr. Zhong's company.

"Hello Mr. Dong, we haven't seen each other for a long time," Wang Kun was very happy.

"Hello, Mr. Wang. I heard that you have been very successful in recent years. Not only is your career going smoothly, but your love life is also going smoothly. Hahaha. You are truly a winner in the world." Mr. Dong said it nicely, but he was actually mocking Wang Kun.

"No, no, Mr. Dong is joking." Wang Kun blushed when he heard what Mr. Dong said.

It turned out that Director Zhong had heard about Wang Kun's romantic affairs from others in their industry. He was very angry. It turned out that he was competing with me for a woman, but he didn't cherish her well after he got her. He wanted to punish Wang Kun. At this time, Xiao Dong came up with an idea. He whispered in Director Zhong's ear. After hearing what he said, Director Zhong nodded repeatedly and said, "Go and do it."

"But I want to tell you a piece of news." Xiao Dong said this, deliberately keeping it a secret and watching Wang Kun's reaction.

Wang Kun had a bad feeling in his heart, but he still smiled and asked, "What's the news? Mr. Dong, please tell me."

Xiao Dong raised his lips slightly and said, "Our Director Zhong intends to cooperate with you, and the conditions remain unchanged."

Wang Kun couldn't believe his ears after hearing this. He said excitedly, "Really? That's great! Thank you, Mr. Zhong, thank you, Mr. Dong!"

"Don't thank me yet." Xiao Dong interrupted him, "Director Zhong has another condition."

"What conditions?" Wang Kun asked hurriedly.

"You must go and apologize to Director Zhong in person and let him see your sincerity," said Xiao Dong.

Wang Kun's face suddenly turned ugly. He didn't expect that Mr. Zhong would make such a request. But for the future of the factory, he could only grit his teeth and think to himself: "What should I do?"

His brows were knitted tightly together, as if they could pinch a fly to death. His lips were unconsciously pursed, showing his inner anxiety and uneasiness. At this moment, he felt like he was being pressed down by a mountain, and that mountain was the predicament before him.

However, he did not give up easily, but gritted his teeth and tried to get out of this difficult situation. In the endless darkness, he stared wide-eyed, desperately looking for a faint light. It was the dawn of hope! It was like a lighthouse in the sea, giving him the courage and strength to move forward.

He didn't know how long he had been walking, but he knew that the road was getting rougher and rougher, and the scene in front of him was getting blurrier. However, he couldn't give up, because a glimmer of hope was waiting for him ahead.

Finally, he saw it. It was a small light spot, flickering faintly in the darkness. He quickened his pace and ran towards the light spot. As the distance shortened, the light spot became larger and brighter.

When he finally reached the place where the light was, he found that it was a door, a door leading to an unknown world. He took a deep breath, pushed the door open, and walked into the world full of mystery and hope... and agreed.

Wang Kun drove to the building where Mr. Zhong's company was located. After he got off the car, he looked up and saw that Mr. Zhong's company had grown even bigger on the basis of the original foundation. All the old buildings had been demolished and a 30-story building had been rebuilt.

Wang Kun saw this important building and realized that it was Director Zhong who brought him here. His life and career were like a bright star, shining its unique light in the endless night sky.

Under the careful cultivation of Mr. Zhong, he has established a firm foothold in this city. With his talent and perseverance, he has passed through the fog, overcome countless difficulties and challenges, and reached the pinnacle of his career step by step.

His love story with Li Zhen started from this place, and their fate also started from this moment. This place is full of romance and mystery, as if it is a world that belongs to them alone, bringing their hearts closer.

Here, they met for the first time. Lizhen helped him review his lessons everywhere. The moment their eyes met, it seemed as if time had stopped.

At that moment, they saw the tenderness and desire in each other's eyes, and an indescribable emotion surged in their hearts. From then on, their destinies were closely intertwined, and together they wrote a beautiful and moving love chapter.

This place has witnessed their countless reunions and separations, and every reunion has deepened their relationship. Whether it is walking in the sea of flowers in spring, looking up at the stars in the summer night, or talking under the maple leaves in autumn, or dancing in the snow in winter, this is the place where they have the most beautiful memories.

Their love has grown here, and has become stronger despite the trials and tribulations. This place has become a safe haven for their souls. Whenever they encounter difficulties and setbacks, they will think of this place, the warmth and comfort they have received from each other.

This is the starting point of their love and their eternal destination. No matter how time passes, their love will always bloom here and become an immortal legend.

Wang Kun calmed himself down and walked into the building with a firm step. He came to the elevator and pressed the floor button. As the elevator slowly rose, he became more nervous.

The moment the elevator door opened, he saw Director Zhong's office. He took a deep breath and knocked on the door.

"Come in." Director Zhong's voice came from inside.

Wang Kun opened the door and walked in. Director Zhong was sitting behind his desk, looking at him coldly.

"Director Zhong..." Wang Kun said, "I'm here to apologize..."

Director Zhong interrupted him and said, "You don't need to apologize. I just want you to understand that opportunities are reserved for those who are prepared. I can give you this cooperation, but you have to prove your strength with your results."

Wang Kun nodded repeatedly, "I will definitely not let you down!"

Director Zhong stood up, walked up to Wang Kun, and patted him on the shoulder. "I believe in you. After all, you were once someone I was optimistic about. Do a good job! You prepare the materials and give them to our finance department. We will sign the contract someday."

Wang Kun looked at Mr. Zhong gratefully, then turned and left the office. He walked out of the building, feeling the warmth of the sun on his body. He knew that his life was about to usher in a new turn. Wang Kun thought that Mr. Zhong was the great benefactor in his life, but he did not know how to repay him, and he snatched away the woman Mr. Zhong liked, but he did not know how to cherish her, snatched away Li Zhen, and let her down.

Will Mr. Zhong really sign a contract with him? How is their cooperation going? Is he really helping him, or is he setting a trap to trick Wang Kun?
