

First Love 156

Chapter 156: Mr. Zhong's Heart

Ever since Wang Kun left his office, Director Zhong fell into deep thought. How could he compare to this kid Wang Kun? Apart from being younger and more handsome than him, how could Li Zhen possibly be interested in me at that time?

Back then, Wang Kun was just an ordinary poor boy, with no money, no power, and no looks. But what about Li Zhen? She was a famous beauty! Not only was she beautiful, but she was also very gentle and kind.

In comparison, what is he? So, Li Zhen didn't like me at that time, but liked this guy. After all, a girl as good as her must find a man who is much better than me in all aspects as a partner, but she didn't like me, a diamond bachelor.

Last time when Mr. Zhong met Li Zhen at the salon for the city's richest people, he was a little bit unrecognizable. Today, Li Zhen was wearing a gorgeous dress, dazzling and eye-catching. Her sleeves fluttered, like a fairy descending to the earth; her makeup was exquisite, like peach blossoms reflecting people. Her every move showed her elegant temperament; her every frown and smile revealed her charming style. She was like the brightest star in the night sky, attracting everyone's attention and becoming the focus of the whole audience.

Director Zhong stared at Li Zhen in front of him, and a feeling of emotion welled up in his heart. He found that Li Zhen was more beautiful than before, and the years did not seem to have left too many marks on her.

Lizhen greeted Mr. Zhong with a smile, her eyes revealing a familiar warmth. The two chatted about their recent situation, and the topic naturally turned to what happened in the past.

"Actually, I've always wanted to say thank you to you." Li Zhen said softly, "If it weren't for your encouragement and support, I might not be able to get to where I am today."

Director Zhong looked at Li Zhen in surprise. He didn't expect her to say such a thing. "Thank me? Why?"

Lizhen smiled and recalled the past. "Because you made me see the possibility of success and made me believe that I can do better. Although we didn't end up together, that experience is still very precious to me."

After hearing what Li Zhen said, Mr. Zhong felt relieved. He suddenly realized that the seemingly insignificant him had left such a strong mark in her life! It was as if God had deliberately done it to make this story more colorful.

"Oh, I'm so happy, it turns out that I have left something so precious in your heart." Mr. Zhong was still muttering in his heart, I pursued you so hard back then, but you didn't fancy me, but now you say such nice things to me.

"Yes, your tolerance and magnanimity make me admire and respect you." Lizhen admires the chairman from the bottom of her heart.

"Some people, because they failed to achieve their goals, especially in terms of feelings, will always hate you, and even retaliate against you, fighting with you to the death. But you just laughed it off and let it go calmly. You showed me a person with a heart as broad as the sea. Especially last time you could have gotten me, but you remained calm and loyal. You are a true gentleman." Lizhen's eyes were red when she talked about it with emotion.

"No, no, I'm not as good as I said. Do you know that sometimes I think, I regret it so much. If I had done things for real at that time, you would have been mine, and I would have been able to get you. You, such an excellent and beautiful person, would belong to me, Zhong, and there would be no place for this kid Wang Kun. Hahaha, I'm just kidding." Director Zhong was humorous and witty, which made Lizhen laugh.

It is like a bright star, shining in the dark night sky; it is also like a blooming flower, exuding a charming fragrance. This stroke may change the direction of the entire plot and lead readers into a brand new world; it may become a turning point in the fate of the protagonist, embarking on an extraordinary journey from then on. No matter which possibility it is, it makes people full of expectations and can't wait to know what will happen next.

Perhaps it was a casual moment, a smile, a word or an action of his that deeply touched the softest corner of her heart; or perhaps it was the companionship and support over the long years that became an indelible memory in the depths of her heart. In any case, this experience made him feel extremely precious and proud.

Thinking of the conversation with Lizhen, he still has endless aftertastes. Alas, if I hadn't married yet, I would definitely win Lizhen back. Unfortunately, my current wife is so good to me. A man's responsibility lies in his responsibility and contribution to himself, others and society. Everyone should conscientiously fulfill his due obligations and responsibilities. This is not only related to personal growth and development, but also to the progress and harmony of the entire society.

First of all, people should be responsible for themselves. This means that we should take care of our health, strive to improve our quality and ability, and at the same time establish a correct outlook on life and values, and pursue true happiness and satisfaction in our hearts.

Secondly, people should also be responsible for others. In the family, we need to care for our family and friends and take on corresponding family responsibilities; in social occasions such as work and study, we should respect the rights and interests of others, abide by social morality and professional ethics, etc.

In particular, a good man must be responsible for his family and fulfill his responsibilities as a husband to his wife. As the saying goes, when the wife is at peace, the family is harmonious and all things will be well. Chairman Zhong is a responsible and capable man, so his career is going very smoothly and his business is growing bigger and bigger.

Last but not least, Pizza Hut must be responsible to the society. As a member of the society, we have the obligation to actively participate in public welfare activities, maintain public order and promote the society to move forward in a more civilized and progressive direction.

Director Zhong thought about this and decided to teach Wang Kun a lesson, otherwise he would not know that without Li Zhen's help, he would not have achieved what he has now. Director Zhong decided to find a chance to make things difficult for Wang Kun at work, so that he would know that without Li Zhen's help, he would be nothing.

A few days later, the company received an important project, and Director Zhong deliberately assigned the most difficult part to Wang Kun's team. He thought, let's see how you can handle it this time.

However, Wang Kun was not defeated by the difficulties. He led the team to work overtime, worked hard to find solutions, and finally completed the task brilliantly. Zhong Dong couldn't help but look at Wang Kun with new eyes, and at the same time realized that he could no longer underestimate him.

Mr. Zhong also realized at this time that Wang Kun's success in his career was not necessarily due to Fei Lizhen's efforts, and Wang Kun's own strength should not be underestimated.
