

First Love 185

Chapter 185 Argument

Wang Kun had just reconciled with Qiu Yan when his phone rang. "Chairman, something bad has happened. It seems that the order we signed with Country A last time has been canceled. They said that due to the financial crisis, their company is going to go bankrupt." The call was from his assistant Xiao Wang.

"When did this happen? We have already paid for the materials. Please call the material supplier and ask them to stop supplying."

"Okay." Less than a quarter of an hour later, Wang Kun's phone rang again. "The chairman said he refused to withdraw. They said the contract had been signed and they would not withdraw."

"Tell them that our buyer no longer wants our goods and they canceled the order, so we have to cancel it too."

"I've already said that," the assistant Xiao Wang replied

"Where are you now? I'll go back to the company right away." Wang Kun immediately left Qiu Yan and went to the company in a hurry.

Seeing Wang Kun's face suddenly change and he hurried away, Jin Lan was very worried and asked Qiu Yan with concern, "Kun Kun, why do you have to go to the company so late? What happened in the company?"

"It seems there is a problem with the company's order," Qiu Yan answered casually.

"What company has problems? What's the problem?" Jin Lan became anxious when she heard that the company had problems.

"How do I know what his problem is?" Qiu Yan still gave Jinlan an irrelevant answer.

"How can you say that? Your husband's company is in trouble, but you're not in a hurry and you're acting like it's not a big deal." Jin Lan got angry when she saw Qiuyan's indifferent look.

"Aren't there so many people in the company? Of course, the company's affairs are men's affairs. Of course, there are men in the family to support them." Qiuyan was not angry when she saw Jinlan was angry.

"Yes, you spend my son's money all day long. My son has a hard time making money, but you can't help him except spending money." Jinlan couldn't stand Qiuyan's spending, but she couldn't say anything because of her son. When she saw Qiuyan's attitude today, she couldn't help but feel a nameless fire in her heart, as if there was a burning flame. The anger surged into her heart like a surging tide, making her unable to suppress her emotions.

Jinlan felt as if her chest was being tightly grasped by an invisible force, and her breathing became rapid. There were sparks of anger flashing in her eyes, as if she wanted to ignite everything around her.

This anger not only came from Qiuyan's attitude, but also was a vent of dissatisfaction and helplessness about the whole incident. She felt that she was treated unfairly, and Qiuyan's behavior became the fuse, triggering the long-suppressed emotions deep in her heart.

However, despite her rage, she tried to control herself and not let her emotions get out of control. She knew that impulsiveness would only make things worse, so she gritted her teeth and tried to calm the waves in her heart with reason. But the fire still burned in her heart, reminding her of the injustice and grievances she had suffered.

"What's wrong with using your son's money? He is my husband, and your son is willing to spend it on me. What can you do to me?" Qiuyan had been tolerating Jinlan because she was afraid that Wang Kun would not want her. But now Wang Kun is on her side, and she doesn't want to tolerate it anymore.

"You only know how to spend money and you can't help my son with anything except spending money. It turns out that Lizhen can do everything. She is both civil and martial. What a useless thing." Jinlan is not someone who can be easily messed with.

"Yes, I am so nice and capable, but I don't want to be with you."

"I'm not here because of you, a vixen. If you hadn't been pestering my son, he wouldn't have wanted a slut like you."

"Why are you talking so harshly?" Qiuyan was also angry, "Wang Kun and I are truly in love!"

"True love?" Jin Lan sneered, "How can someone like you be true to us? That's ridiculous. You're just attracted by our money!"

"I didn't!" Qiuyan defended, "I love Wang Kun as a person, not your family's money!"

"Humph, who would believe that!" Jin Lan said disdainfully, "I've seen a lot of women like you!"

At this time, Wang Kun came back. He saw his mother and Qiuyan arguing and hurried forward to mediate.

"Mom, what's wrong?" Wang Kun asked.

"Can I not come? Look at the good wife you found, she only knows how to spend money and doesn't care about your career at all!" Jin Lan said.

"Mom, don't say that about Qiuyan. She is with me because she loves me," said Wang Kun.

"Love you? She loves your money, right?" Jinlan said.

"Mom, stop talking!" Wang Kun was a little angry, "Qiuyan is my wife, I hope you can respect her"

"Respect her? Does she deserve it? I respect a daughter-in-law like Lizhen." Jinlan's face was full of anger, and she glared at Qiuyan fiercely.

Jinlan was upset to see her son defending Qiuyan, but she didn't say anything. She turned back to her room, feeling aggrieved and sulking, leaving Qiuyan with a wronged look and Wang Kun with a helpless look.

"What's going on in the company now, husband?" Qiuyan saw Wang Kun's worried face, and she asked Wang Kun with concern.

"Take your time and see what happens. Now we can only take one step at a time. The company is in a downturn recently and I don't have much time to be at home. I hope you can stay at home and assist your mother, take care of household chores, take good care of the children, and don't make your mother angry." Wang Kun sighed and looked at Qiuyan's helpless face.

At this time, Wang Kun fell into deep memories, and a strong feeling of nostalgia surged in his heart.

Thinking back to the time he spent with Lizhen in the past, he couldn't help but feel deeply moved.

At that time, my mother devoted herself to the housework and kept the house in good order;

Lizhen always gives Wang Kun advice at critical moments, helping him thrive in business. The family lives in harmony and is full of laughter.

Looking back now, that time seemed like a beautiful dream, which Wang Kun missed very much. "I know, husband, I was not sensible before, I will change in the future." Qiuyan said while holding Wang Kun's hand.

Wang Kun looked at Qiuyan, and his heart was moved, "Well, as long as we work together, we can definitely get through this difficult time."

In the following days, Qiuyan took the initiative to take on more housework and tried to avoid conflicts with Jinlan. Wang Kun devoted himself to the company's affairs, hoping to find a solution to the problem.

With everyone's joint efforts, the company's situation gradually improved. Wang Kun also had more time to spend with his family, and the family relationship became more harmonious.

After this incident, Qiuyan realized the importance of family. However, Wang Kun's career is not going well now, so she has to be patient and not conflict with her mother-in-law and distract Wang Kun.
