

First Love 20

Chapter 20 I choose to resign

That night, Wang Kun tossed and turned in bed and couldn't make up his mind.

The next morning, when Lizhen got up and looked at the time, she found that it was almost time to go to work, so she got up immediately and ran to the bathroom to wash up.

"You're up, have breakfast." Wang Kun had already prepared breakfast.

"Why didn't you call me when you got up?" Lizhen ate her breakfast without thinking, smiling happily.

"Eat slowly, don't choke." Seeing Lizhen eating with relish and a happy look on her face, Wang Kun's eyes lit up and he felt a sense of accomplishment.

"You should have breakfast too." Li Zhen saw that Wang Kun didn't have breakfast.

"I'll eat later. I'll be happy watching you eat."

"After you finish eating, come with me to the company."

"Why should I go to the company? If I go there, wouldn't it be the same as telling him that I have run back?" Wang Kun looked at Li Zhen in shock, not knowing what she was thinking.

"I'll go and reason with them. Why did they put you there where there's no one around and no smoke? When are they going to transfer you back?" Lizhen raised her eyebrows and looked very angry.

"I think I'd better not go to the company. I want to leave the company and find a job somewhere else. This way it won't affect your work." Wang Kun felt that if he rashly went to the company, it would be disadvantageous to Lizhen.

"No, if they don't transfer you back to the company, I will quit too."

"No, they don't seem to know I'm back. You continue to work and I'll go out and look for a job."

Seeing Wang Kun's determination, Li Zhen did not stop him. She decided to let Wang Kun go out and try.

"Okay, just go and take a look." Li Zhen looked at the time and saw that it was almost time to go to work, so she ran out quickly.

Wang Kun was walking around that day, and he looked at every job opening he saw, but he was always disappointed.

What disappointed him even more was that every time he went to a place, he was asked which university he graduated from. When they heard that he had not attended university, they did not even give him a chance to speak and rejected him.

Seeing Wang Kun depressed and unhappy, Li Zhen felt anxious, but she didn't know how to comfort him.

That day, Lizhen went to the chairman's office to sort out some documents as usual. As soon as she walked to the door, she saw the chairman leaning his head on the back of the chair, staring at the ceiling in a daze. She wondered when the chairman would come back from his business trip. She stood at the door and knocked politely.

"Come in." Hearing the knock on the door, he slowly raised his head.

"When will the chairman come back?" Li Zhen's voice like a silver bell gave Zhong Dongru a shot of adrenaline, and he stood up in an instant.

"Good morning, Lizhen." He smiled with shining eyes, as if he had met a relative he hadn't seen for a long time, feeling very curious and excited.

Lizhen immediately turned back and made a cup of coffee for Director Zhong. This was because she knew that the chairman was at home and she had to do something.

"Chairman's Coffee" Li Zhen carefully brought him a cup of coffee and wanted to leave.

"Wait a moment," the chairman hurriedly called her.

"Chairman" Li Zhen's heart was pounding when she heard the chairman calling her. She thought the chairman knew that Wang Kun had left the workplace and couldn't find anyone, so he came to her to accuse her.

"I bought you a sapphire necklace when I went to the United States this time. Do you like it?"

Lizhen's pounding heart finally calmed down. I was so scared that she touched her heart that was about to jump out.

When the chairman saw that Lizhen stopped and did not turn her body towards him, he thought Lizhen must want to reject him again because he had rejected him many times.

He quickly took a beautiful box and walked towards Li Zhen. "Take a look. How can you tell whether you like it or not without even looking at it?"

When she saw that the chairman was buying another gift for herself, she didn't even look at it and politely declined the gift.

"Thank you, Chairman, for your kindness to Lizhen, but your gift is too heavy. Lizhen can't afford it." Lizhen lowered her head very low. She was afraid to see the eyes that were fixed on Director Zhong.

"This..." Director Zhong immediately avoided Li Zhen's gaze, his eyes darkened.

"Also, the chairman transferred Wang Kun away. He asked me to leave because he wanted me to compromise, but you don't understand me yet. I will definitely continue on the path that Li Zhen has chosen."

The chairman, a man who is very successful in the business world, is helpless in terms of feelings in front of Lizhen. He feels annoyed and painful at heart, but he tries his best not to show it in front of Lizhen.

"I guessed right, didn't I?" Li Zhen immediately plucked up her courage and continued speaking.

"Chairman, I can find him no matter where you transfer him. He may not be as rich as you now, but that doesn't mean he will have no money in the future. He is still young. I think you had no money when you first came out, too. You also started from nothing and accumulated wealth slowly." Lizhen spoke firmly and unambiguously. Chairman Zhong was very shocked. He thought this girl was extraordinary, but he admired Lizhen's strength and sincerity even more.

But Chairman Zhong could not let go of his face and dignity. He wanted to scare Lizhen to see how she would react. "Lizhen, do you know who you are talking to? I am your sergeant, you are my subordinate now, you are working in my company and getting my money. I want you to be here, and you stay here. If I tell you not to go to work, you will get out immediately." All men want to save face, but what they think and what they do are different. The chairman loves Lizhen very much, but for the sake of so-called face, he still chooses face.

After listening to the chairman's words, Lizhen was not scared. Instead, it aroused her stronger courage and fighting spirit. She thought, I will leave for Wang Kun, and at worst I can find another job.

"If the chairman thinks that I left Wang Kun in order to work here, and that I cannot work here if I leave Wang Kun, you can rest assured that I will resign. I choose to leave." Lizhen is a stubborn girl. After she said that, she left the chairman's office without even looking back.

"You" Chairman originally wanted to use provocation to make Lizhen compromise, but Lizhen, this stubborn girl, not only did not compromise, but was not scared by Huang. Instead, you angered her and scared her away. The Chairman was very regretful.

He thought hard but couldn't come up with any good solution. Would Lizhen really leave as chairman?
