

First Love 23

Chapter 23 Looking for a job

After saying goodbye to her best friend Lizhen, Wang Kun returned home and found that he had cooked the meal. As soon as she opened the door, the aroma of the food wafted into her nose, which immediately aroused her hunger. The sound of her stomach moving made her feel hungry.

"It smells so good," Li Zhen couldn't help but blurt out.

"You're back, wash your hands and have an meal." Wang Kun brought out the cooked dishes from the kitchen.

"I'm hungry, and the smell of the food makes me even hungrier." Seeing a plate of scrambled eggs with tomatoes, a plate of stir-fried pork with celery, and a bowl of golden braised pork on the table, Lizhen was so greedy that her saliva was almost flowing.

"Come, let you satisfy your craving first." Wang Kun saw Lizhen's eyes shining as she looked at the food. He knew she was drooling with greed, so he quickly took the chopsticks, picked up a piece of braised pork and put it into Lizhen's mouth.

Lizhen chewed the fragrant braised pork. It was extremely sweet, oily but not greasy, and very refreshing. "It smells so good." This was a particularly happy moment in their day.

"How was your day at the company today? They didn't give you any trouble, did they?" They were having dinner, and Wang Kun was very happy to see Lizhen eating with relish. He suddenly asked Lizhen about her work.

"I forgot to tell you that I have resigned," Li Zhen told Wang Kun while eating.

"What did you say? You really resigned?" Wang Kun seemed very shocked.

"Yes, didn't we discuss this issue last night?" Li Zhen saw Wang Kun's shocked expression and immediately stopped eating.

"But I've been looking for several days without any results. If you quit so soon, I'm afraid it will be difficult for you to find a good job like the one you have now. I don't want you to suffer because of me." Wang Kun slowly put down the bowl, his face gradually becoming gloomy.

"What's wrong with you? Didn't we agree yesterday that we would leave them and slowly find a job?"

"I'm just caring about you. It doesn't matter if I'm a little bit miserable." Wang Kun looked at Li Zhen affectionately.

"It doesn't matter. If it's really hard to find a job, we can start our own business." Lizhen suddenly seemed very excited.

"It's easy to say, but if we start a business, we don't have the technology and we don't have the funds. How can it be easy?" Wang Kun's face was gloomy.

"Today I met my former colleague, who is also my best friend. You know, I was so surprised to see her today that I almost didn't recognize her." Lizhen told Wang Kun about Jenny's situation. Wang Kun was fascinated by what he heard. He longed to let Lizhen live such a luxurious and aristocratic life one day.

"If there is such a day between us, I will buy a diamond as big as a goose egg and kneel on the ground to propose to you with both hands. I will also buy the most expensive clothes in the store for you to wear. You can buy whatever you want, hahahaha."

When he got excited, Wang Kun immediately turned around and put his arms around Li Zhen's shoulders. His eyes penetrated into her beautiful pupils. She felt as if she had fallen into an icy cave with joy. There seemed to be magic in her eyes, which firmly attracted his gaze. She caught a glimpse of his vague outline with the corner of her eye in excitement.

Wang Kun was extremely excited, his eyes were terrifyingly bloodshot. Li Zhen looked up at him with charming lips, and Wang Kun couldn't help but press his lips against those pink lips.

Just when these two flames were about to create intense sparks, Wang Kun suddenly stopped.

Wang Kun thought that he was still a penniless pauper and was not qualified to love. I couldn't do this yet. What if I failed? I couldn't delay the girl.

Li Zhen leaned on Wang Kun's chest. She looked up at the face that made her fall in love. She slowly moved closer and listened quietly to Wang Kun's heartbeat. The two young hearts became closer.

"But we don't have the technology and the funds now," Wang Kun said with deep eyes, looking into the distance. He felt as if a huge rock was pressing on his heart and he was very sad. The excitement just now fell and became deep and hesitant.

Yes, it is so exciting to see other people's achievements and glory, but we don't have any of them. Lizhen's heart began to calm down.

They were only halfway through their meal, but the two of them had no appetite and ate the whole thing.

"Why should we be so sad? We are still young, and we are not at the point where we can't go on. We still have advantages that others don't have. For example, I have learned a lot in the past six months, and I don't believe that we are doing worse than others," Lizhen encouraged Wang Kun.

"Well, I listen to you. I don't believe that others can do it. We can't do it."

"We will submit our resumes tonight and look for jobs separately tomorrow."

That night, Wang Kun and Li Zhen were busy looking for jobs until after 2 a.m.

Because of Lizhen's education and work experience, she was notified to go for an interview the next day.

The next day, Lizhen arrived at the location as notified early. When Lizhen arrived there, many applicants had already arrived, and she couldn't help feeling a little anxious.

"He Lizhen" At this time, a young man wearing glasses stood at the door and called her name, notifying her to come in for an interview.

When Lizhen walked into the interview office, a familiar face appeared in front of her. She immediately looked at the person carefully and took a deep breath. She immediately turned around and left the interview.

"What's wrong, you great student, how come you don't even have the courage to face me now?" Seeing Li Zhen turning around and wanting to leave, an interviewer sitting in the middle had deep pupils and a slightly sarcastic tone.

After hearing what he said, Lizhen froze there, her heart pounding, as if there was no hole in the ground and she wanted to crawl into it immediately. She didn't know whether to stay or walk out of the interview room immediately.
