

First Love 32

Chapter 32 Setting up a trap

Chairman Zhong has been drunk every day since Lizhen left, and today was no exception. But today was indeed a trap set by someone.

Today, when he just arrived at the company, several of his subordinates came to the office at the same time and said that they had received bonuses yesterday. In order to thank the chairman, they treated the chairman to a meal.

"Okay, it's rare that you have such a grateful heart. Okay, I'll go," the chairman agreed readily.

When it got dark, they gathered together and helped the chairman into the car.

"Assistant, drive the car over here." The chairman immediately picked up the phone and called his assistant.

"Hey, let's go together. You can take our car." They advised the chairman one after another. They were all taught by Director Liu.

"We make a living here thanks to the chairman's favor. Only if we please the chairman, our lives will be better. Now the chairman is unhappy, and we want to make him happy. So we must work together to do things for the chairman," Director Liu said when he was working with them.

"Okay, for the chairman's sake we will listen to you," several of Director Liu's subordinates answered in unison.

"Everyone remember, if I, Liu, have a bite to eat, everyone will have a share. I, Liu, will not eat alone." Director Liu once again displayed his smooth-talking skills to the fullest.

The car drove all the way and they arrived at the hotel restaurant. The waiter led them to a luxurious box where Director Liu had been waiting for a long time.

The meal was particularly sumptuous. They toasted the chairman one by one, and they all spoke one after another, praising the chairman.

"Let me say first, we brothers from all corners of the world rely on our Chairman Zhong, who provides us with a platform to make a living and allows us to have a stable job thousands of miles away. Our chairman has worked hard for all of us and has made great contributions, so we must work hard to repay the chairman's kindness and help our chairman solve his problems." Director Liu took the initiative to express his feelings in front of the chairman and his subordinates with his iron will.

"For the sake of our chairman, I am willing to sacrifice my life and risk my life for him." The subordinate Xiao Wang thought of what Director Liu said. He wanted to show the chairman that he would do anything for him.

"Haha, I just want you to work hard and do your job well. I don't need you to sacrifice for me. I don't want to have any factions here. What we bosses want is efficiency. Come on, I toast to you all." The chairman was very happy to hear that they were expressing their determination for him. When he heard them saying some strange words, he was a little puzzled.

"Chairman, I'm sorry for what happened recently. The last time you gave me a task, not only did I not satisfy you, but I also messed things up and scared people away. I deserve to die." Director Liu raised his hand and pretended to slap himself.

"Well, Old Liu doesn't blame you. It's Secretary He who looks down on me. She's a good person, a loyal and righteous person. She's for true love and not moved by money. It's hard to find a girl like her nowadays." The chairman spoke of Li Zhen with a look of admiration on his face and his eyes full of admiration.

Looking at the infatuated chairman, everyone present looked at each other and wondered if the chairman would blame us for doing this today. Was it right or wrong for us to do this?

Except for Director Liu, they were all feeling uneasy and very scared.

They took turns toasting the chairman. Director Liu had already informed everyone that they had to get the chairman drunk tonight no matter what. It would be easier to get things done when the chairman is drunk, hahahaha.

The chairman has been immersed in the pain of a broken heart for a while. Today he wants to indulge himself here and get drunk tonight.

Gradually, the chairman got drunk. He began to talk nonsense, his tongue seemed to be broken, and he kept calling Lizhen's name. Director Liu winked at everyone, and several subordinates nodded in understanding. They helped the chairman leave the box and go to the hotel where Lizhen was staying.

Someone quietly came to the hotel room to inquire, and saw that Lizhen was in a coma. They put the chairman on Lizhen's bed, put the chairman and Lizhen side by side, covered them with a quilt, and left.

"Lizhen Lizhen, don't leave me." But before they left, the chairman called Lizhen again. They thought the chairman had woken up. They were startled. They looked at each other, you looked at me, I looked at you, standing there motionless. After a while, they saw the chairman snoring, and then they carefully left the room. After they closed the door, they looked at each other and took a long breath.

Director Liu smiled at the room and said, "I hope the chairman's wish will come true tonight and will not let us down. Hehehe." They looked at the door of the room and left quickly.

Let's wait and see whether the Chairman and Li Zhen will have any drama tonight.
