

First Love 34

Chapter 34 Missing

Wang Kun returned to their place very early in the morning, prepared lunch and waited for Lizhen. He wondered if Lizhen had passed the interview today.

He bought a lot of food today. If Lizhen passed the interview, they would have to celebrate it properly.

But when it was 12 o'clock, Lizhen had not come back yet. He wanted to call her, but the call showed that the phone was turned off. Wang Kun's heart skipped a beat and he had a bad feeling.

After a few minutes, Wang Kun became worried and called again, but the phone was still turned off. Wang Kun kept calling but the phone showed as turned off.

Wang Kun was no longer calm at this time. He looked for Lizhen everywhere. He was very nervous. Could something have really happened? He called Lizhen's best friend Chunyan and asked, "Chunyan, is Lizhen going to your place?"

"No, why hasn't Lizhen come back yet?"

"No, she said she was going to an interview this morning. I waited for her to eat in the morning, but her phone was turned off when I called her. I kept calling her this afternoon, but it was always turned off. I wanted to go to the police station to report the case, but they were afraid. They said it would take 24 hours to report the case. What should I do? I've searched everywhere I can, and now it's still 12 hours." Wang Kun's voice was a little choked up at this time.

"Don't panic, I'll call my friend at the Public Security Bureau and see if they can help find the person." Chunyan is a reporter and she knows some of her friends, so she also has this right.

"Okay, thank you."

"No, Lizhen is my best friend. I'm more anxious than you."

"Ding-ling" the phone rang soon, and it was Chunyan calling

"Hello, is there any news about Chunyan?" Wang Kun asked anxiously.

"Wang Kun, please come to the Public Security Bureau immediately. I don't know the situation. Please go to the Public Security Bureau and tell them the situation. We will meet at the Public Security Bureau." It is easier to get things done when you have acquaintances. This is the effect of power. When Wang Kun went there, people were unwilling to pay attention to him. Chunyan made a phone call and immediately got it done.

Wang Kun hurried to the Public Security Bureau and stopped a taxi at the door. "Master, to the Public Security Bureau."

The taxi driver from the "Public Security Bureau" was an old driver in his fifties. While driving, he looked at Wang Kun with a strange look.

"What happened to you, young man?" the driver looked at Wang Kun and asked.

"Oh, it's my girlfriend. She went out at 8 o'clock in the morning and hasn't come back yet. I went to report the case." Wang Kun looked at the master and thought he was a pretty good person, so he told him.

"Oh, what does your girlfriend look like?"

"My girlfriend is of medium height, with fair skin, big eyes and beautiful looks." Wang Kun described Li Zhen as if he was describing a particularly exquisite work of art, with a beautiful smile on his face.

"Do you have a photo of your girlfriend? Show it to me."

"Yes." Wang Kun immediately took out his wallet from his pocket, pulled out a photo of Lizhen from it, and handed it to the old master.

When the old master saw the photo, his eyes lit up and he said, "I've seen this girl before."

"Really? It's there." Wang Kun almost jumped up in the car.

The old master immediately described what Lizhen was wearing in the morning and said, "Yes, it's my girlfriend, teacher. Take me to the place where my girlfriend got off the bus now." After listening to the old master's description, Wang Kun knew that Lizhen was wearing this dress when she went out in the morning.

It turned out that this driver was the one who took Lizhen to the interview in the morning.

"I just happened to meet Chunyan. She is the driver who took Lizhen to the interview this morning. I am on my way there now." Wang Kun immediately called Chunyan.

"Okay, go quickly, and tell me where you are when you get there, and I'll rush over right away."

"Come on, Master, please take me there quickly to have a look." The driver immediately drove the taxi there.

When Wang Kun and the taxi driver arrived at the place where Li Zhen got off, the building was already pitch black. It was already 10 o'clock in the evening, and the door was closed. Not even a single person could be seen. Looking at the pitch-black sky, Wang Kun fell into disappointment again.

"Your girlfriend got off here. I saw she was dressed so neatly and beautifully. I even joked with her and asked her if she was going for a blind date. When I heard her say she was going for an interview, I thought I had never heard of any company here. I even wondered if it was a scam. I didn't expect that I guessed it right." The old driver described the situation of sending Lizhen off in the morning.

"Lizhen, where are you?" Wang Kun kicked the ground in pain, holding his head in agony, then stood up and sighed with his head raised.

"Let's go, I'll take you home." Looking at the painful Wang Kun, the old driver shook his head helplessly.

"You'd better take me to the Public Security Bureau. My girlfriend's best friend is still waiting for me there." Wang Kun looked at the dark building and had to leave to find Chunyan.

"Wang Kun, do you have any clues?" When Wang Kun rushed to the Public Security Bureau, Chunyan was already waiting at the gate. Chunyan couldn't wait to greet him.

When Chunyan saw Wang Kun getting out of the car with a dejected look on his face, she knew that things were not going so smoothly.

"No, the driver only knew that Lizhen got off the car at the door of the building and then went inside. But now the door is closed and everyone has gone off work. It's pitch black there and there's not even a single person to be found," Wang Kun said almost in tears.

"Let's call the police. We can only ask the police to help us find it," Chunyan said and led Wang Kun to the office.

"Reporter Chen, you are still working so late. Have you discovered something and want to report it?" At this time, a uniformed policeman came towards them and asked Chunyan with a smile when he saw her.

"Yes, hello, Chief Liu."

"Xiao Liu, this is my friend's boyfriend. Wang Kun, tell Xiao Liu what happened when Lizhen left." Chunyan seemed to be particularly familiar with this place and would greet her whenever she saw her.

Wang Kun came and sat down opposite Xiao Liu. He recalled and said, "My girlfriend received a call last night. The content of the call was that she was asked to go for an interview at 8 o'clock today. At 12 o'clock, I prepared dinner and waited for her at home, but I waited until 1 o'clock in the afternoon and she still didn't come back. I wanted to call her to ask, but the phone was not connected and was turned off. Then I called again after 10 minutes and it was still turned off. Later, I called more than ten times and it was the same. I looked for her all afternoon today. I looked for her in all the places she could go, but she was nowhere to be found."

"Why didn't you call me earlier so I could go with you to look for it earlier?" Chunyan was a little angry.

"I didn't think of it at first. I was afraid to disturb you while you were at work." Wang Kun didn't dare to look at Chunyan.

"If you tell me in the afternoon that there is no closing time there, it will be easier for me to find you."

"What did you say? Say what you just said again." At this time, the clerk Xiao Liu seemed to have heard something fishy when listening to their conversation.
