

First Love 37

Chapter 37 Start a new life

The warm yellow light shone on the infatuated young couple. They pressed their lips against each other, nourishing their hearts better than any other nectar.

"Ding, ding" the ringing of the phone broke this sweet moment, and they let go of each other. It was Lizhen's phone ringing.

The person who called was Lizhen's best friend. She knew that Lizhen and her family were starting a business, and her husband had imported a batch of new machines for making mobile phone parts from abroad, and these old machines needed to be disposed of. At this time, she thought of Lizhen, so she called Lizhen to ask if she wanted them.

"Wang Kun, we are really going to make it big. This is a rare opportunity that is hard to find even with a lantern."

It turns out that Lizhen's best friend's husband made his fortune by processing mobile phone parts for others using these machines, which made her family a lot of money. Now her family wants to upgrade.

At that time, during the period of reform and opening up, some people opened factories specifically to help others process various parts. At that time, mobile phones were being mass-produced. However, it was an era of lack of technology and very few people knew about such technology. Lizhen made a prompt decision to accept the transfer.

"Wang Kun, we must seize this rare opportunity." Li Zhen was so excited that she was almost going crazy.

"I can handle technical issues, but we don't know much about business issues." Because Wang Kun understood technology in his previous company, and he was also the company's technical backbone, he felt there was no problem, but he was worried about the business side of things because he had no experience with it, so he was a little worried.

"You have forgotten what I do in the company. I have a deep understanding of the business and customers. I am fully capable of doing the job." It turned out that in order to pursue Lizhen and make her his girlfriend, Director Zhong devoted himself to building Lizhen.

Let her familiarize herself with various businesses and take her to meet clients to discuss business and sign contracts. Lizhen is a very smart and hardworking person.

During that period, she learned a lot, especially came into contact with many big clients, which was a great asset for her and paved a smooth road for her future career.

"Yeah, how could I have forgotten about this?" Wang Kun danced with joy.

"Gurgle, gurgle" "It's your stomach rumbling" They pointed at each other at the same time, and the sound just now was actually from both of their stomachs.

"Let me cook together."

"No, you just came back and you are very tired, go and rest."

"You just came back too." They gave in to each other, and ended up cooking together, discussing their future while cooking.

"Ding, ding" the alarm clock woke Lizhen up. She slowly opened her eyes and looked at the time. It was still early. She wanted to sleep a little longer, but she suddenly remembered that she had to talk to her best friend's husband about machines today, so she got up immediately.

"Wang Kun, let's go find my friend earlier today." When she came to the living room, Wang Kun was not there. How could he go there so early?

It turned out that Wang Kun had gotten up early. He had not slept well the whole night because of the purchase of the machine. He was thinking about all kinds of problems, which kept him awake all night.

When he woke up early in the morning, he saw that Lizhen had not gotten up yet, so he quietly went to buy breakfast.

After breakfast, Wang Kun and Li Zhen immediately went to discuss the machine.

When Lizhen came to her best friend and found her, her best friend Jenny said anxiously, "You guys are here just now. I'm so anxious. Someone who came earlier than you is talking to my husband about the machine. I didn't tell my husband yesterday that you were going to buy the machine, but he notified someone else."

"Oh, what should we do then?" Lizhen became anxious when she heard Jenny say that.

"Let me make a phone call and see." Jenny waited for a long time but no one answered the phone. Jenny guessed that her husband must be talking to a client.

"Let's go, I'll talk to my husband and see if he can fire that boss and give you the machine." Jenny immediately took Lizhen and Wang Kun to find her husband.

When Jenny, Wang Kun and Li Zhen rushed to their company, they saw from a distance that Jenny's husband was in the office, talking about something with another man and another woman.

Jenny knocked on the office door, then winked at her husband, asking him to come out. Jenny's husband understood and came out immediately.

"I'm talking about something." Although Jenny's husband came out, he was a little unhappy that Jenny interrupted him while he was talking to a client.

"Honey, are you talking about selling the machine?" Jenny looked at her husband with a smile.

"Yes, our new machine will arrive soon, and I need to transfer the machine as soon as possible, otherwise we will have nowhere to put it when it arrives."

"Come, husband, let me introduce her to you. This is my best friend at school, Lizhen, whom I often mentioned to you." She pointed at Lizhen and introduced her to her husband.

"Hello, Jenny often mentions you, the top student in the class and her best friend." He shook hands with Jenny enthusiastically.

"There, Jenny is my best friend in school. We often learn from each other and communicate with each other. No wonder Jenny is getting more and more beautiful. It turns out that behind her stands a good man who is so handsome and successful in his career." They flattered each other.

"This is Lizhen's boyfriend," Jenny pointed at Wang Kun.

"Hello, handsome guy and beautiful girl, I've heard a lot about you." Jenny's husband shook hands with Wang Kun enthusiastically and humorously.

"You are so beautiful, successful in your career, and have a happy family. You are so enviable." Wang Kun also praised Jenny's husband.

"Husband, Lizhen and the others want to buy our machine," Jenny immediately told her husband the purpose of their visit.

"Oh" Jenny's husband suddenly seemed to be very surprised, his eyes suddenly paused, the smile on his face suddenly disappeared, his handsome face immediately became sad, and he looked particularly ruthless.

Li Zhen and Wang Kun's hearts immediately skipped a beat and they secretly thought that the situation had changed.
