

First Love 42

Chapter 42 Early Startup

The next day, Wang Kunlizhen went out early. They wanted to finish their tasks as soon as possible when others went to work.

They divided the work among themselves and went to look for various matters needed to set up the factory. Money is a good thing, with money everything can be done easily and quickly.

It's really you." Lizhen unexpectedly ran into Zhong Dong, the chairman of her former company, at a product exhibition.

"Hello, Chairman. What a coincidence to meet you here today." Li Zhen was also very happy to see the Chairman.

"You are here today on behalf of a certain company for a sales exhibition." Mr. Zhong was very surprised to meet Li Zhen, and immediately asked about his situation when he saw her.

"I am here to represent my own factory and to find a partner to share the business with," Lizhen said with a smile as she introduced her products to Mr. Zhong.

"Is it true?" Mr. Zhong looked at her in amazement. When she looked carefully at his beloved lover, he realized that Lizhen was much thinner than before, but her face showed a very resolute look and confidence.

When Mr. Zhong looked at the products produced by their factory, he was stunned. He picked up Lizhen's products and was amazed. The products were so beautiful. He praised Lizhen with emotion, saying that she was amazing.

"When did you start to think about what you did?" Mr. Zhong looked at the girl he loved deeply with ripples in his heart.

"After I left the company, when I had trouble finding a job, I thought why not go out on my own and see what I am capable of." Lizhen looked at Director Zhong seriously, and seemed to be saying this to herself.

"Great, a businessman who is dedicated to her career." Mr. Zhong had always thought that Lizhen was a promising talent, but he did not realize that Lizhen was also a daring person who dared to take risks, act and keep her word. He admired this talented and beautiful woman from the bottom of his heart.

The image of Wang Kun and Li Zhen together immediately emerged in Director Zhong's mind. What's wrong with me? He immediately started to do a move he was very used to when thinking about something, tapping the back of his head with his fingers. He was a dignified chairman of the board, but he was thinking about the petty issues that those villains did. Thinking of this, he couldn't help laughing.

"Thank you, Chairman, for your compliment." Li Zhen suddenly blushed when she heard Chairman Zhong's praise. Seeing Li Zhen blushing, Chairman Zhong thought Li Zhen was even more beautiful and liked her even more.

"Let's cooperate. All the parts you make will belong to our company, and I will be responsible for helping you sell them."

"Is this true?" Li Zhen was ecstatic. She thought she was dreaming. She secretly pinched her fingers, and fortunately she was not dreaming.

"Yeah, that's what you think." Director Zhong was very happy and pleased when he saw Lizhen's ecstatic look. He thought to himself, this silly girl, you are too easily satisfied, yet she is so happy when you give her a little benefit.

But he couldn't help feeling a sense of loss, because Lizhen was not happy for me, but for another person, and he couldn't help feeling jealous in his heart.

"Thank you, thank you Chairman." Li Zhen couldn't contain her excitement. She wanted to tell Wang Kun the good news immediately, but she held back. She looked at Chairman Zhong and had an indescribable feeling in her heart.

Tomorrow you should prepare and come to the company to sign the contract."

"Okay, okay, we will definitely make a good product and let the chairman rest assured." Lizhen looked at the chairman's harmonious face with a determined look.

"I believe you can do a good job. See you tomorrow." Director Zhong looked back at Lizhen, then left with his assistant.

Looking at Director Zhong's leaving back, Lizhen felt deeply guilty. She knew that Director Zhong loved her, but she didn't like him and couldn't accept him, especially since Director Zhong was so good to her. She felt that she had let him down.

"Lizhen, did you get anything today?" Wang Kun happened to come to Lizhen at this time.

"Wang Kun, you came at the right time. I have good news to tell you." Seeing Wang Kun suddenly excited, she was as happy as a child and danced with joy. She couldn't wait to tell him the good news.

"Oh, what good news makes you so happy?" Looking at the excited Li Zhen, Wang Kun also felt happy.

"Guess what?" Li Zhen deliberately kept the question in suspense.

"Our product has been sold." Wang Kun thought that the good news now must be that our product has found a buyer.

"You are very smart and quick to react." Li Zhen was still laughing, but she was unwilling to tell the result. She wanted to tease Wang Kun.

"Is it true? I guessed right." Wang Kun also became excited.

"Guess who is the person who placed the order with us?" Li Zhen still didn't say it.

"Who is he?" Wang Kun blinked and asked Li Zhen curiously.

"He is the one personally appointed by Mr. Zhong from the famous Tengyun Company. Haha, our products are great, right? We have made a good start, and our products are a great success."

Li Zhen was so happy that she didn't notice Wang Kun's change. At this time, Wang Kun's eyes were deep, and his face was immediately covered with dark clouds, which gradually turned gloomy.

"What's wrong?" Li Zhen turned around and looked at Wang Kun with a gloomy face, feeling a little puzzled.

"Why can't we get rid of him? After going around in circles, we are still back to where we started and still relying on his help." It turned out that Wang Kun was very conflicted. In addition to feeling unwilling to repay Mr. Zhong's debt of favor, he also felt a little jealous.

Hearing Wang Kun's muttering, Li Zhen began to comfort Wang Kun, "Yes, Director Zhong helps us every time, as if he owes us something. Every time I'm in trouble, I can run into him." "That may not be as simple as you think. He has other purposes."

Wang Kun didn't think what Li Zhen thought. This silly girl was still in the dark. She was coming for you.

Lizhen is also a smart person. She also heard that there was something else behind Wang Kun's words, and there was a hint of jealousy in his words. She felt very unhappy and a little angry when she heard it.

"Do you understand what our situation is now? Our business has just started, and we must strive for all the strength we can to find a market for our products and sell them as soon as possible. Now a leading company like Tengyun Company has taken a fancy to us, this is our luck, others are not as lucky as us, others can't even get close to us. Besides, we should focus on our overall situation now, put aside all the petty right and wrong, focus our energy here, and not care about those petty right and wrong." Li Zhen became more and more excited as she spoke. She was particularly angry when she thought that Wang Kun had the same idea. She couldn't understand how such a smart man like Wang Kun could see things so superficially and have such a short-sighted vision. He would encounter many such things in the future. In order to make his career bigger and stronger, Li Zhen couldn't help but worry about his future career.
