

First Love 88

Chapter 88 Let's Separate

"Chunyan, I was wrong. I want to see Lizhen in person even if you want me to apologize and scold me."

"Kelizhen is my best friend and she won't let me do this." Chunyan was also very embarrassed.

"Chunyan, you also want your best friend to be happy, but we are husband and wife, we have to talk face to face to solve the problem. It's not good for anyone to drag it out like this. I have to see Lizhen no matter what I say today."

"Okay then, I'll take you to try it out, but you have to follow me and wait for half an hour before you can enter my house, and you can't tell that I brought you there and say that you found it through someone else." Chunyan was forced into a corner, so he had to compromise.

Lizhen has been suffering in extreme pain these days. She never expected that the love she chose so persistently would end like this.

Thinking back to when she had just graduated from school, Chairman Zhong pursued her so passionately. When she was with him, she immediately became the chairman's wife. But she only had Wang Kun in her heart because Wang Kun loved her so much. But now everything is in the past.

She never dreamed that Wang Kun would betray her, let alone that he would rekindle his first love.

Wang Kun told her how his first love ruthlessly abandoned him. She still remembers it vividly. Li Zhen felt very sympathetic towards him when she saw how painful and sad Wang Kun was. Gradually, their sympathy turned into love.

But now Wang Kun has healed his wounds and forgotten the pain, and they are hooking up again. What should I do now?

At this time Chunyan came back from get off work and asked, "Lizhen, have you eaten?" Seeing Lizhen so haggard, Chunyan felt particularly heartbroken.

"I can't eat and I don't want to eat." Lizhen lay weakly on the sofa. In just a few days, Lizhen seemed to have become a different person and looked extremely haggard. It seemed that Lizhen was seriously hurt this time. No wonder some people say that love cannot be hurt.

"You have to eat a little, otherwise your body will collapse." Chunyan was very anxious. Seeing Lizhen sinking, she became particularly anxious.

"Bang, bang" someone was knocking on the door.

"Who is it?" Chunyan knew it well, and she deliberately asked loudly who was outside, for she was afraid that Lizhen would become suspicious.

"You" Chunyan immediately pretended to close the door and even blinked her eyes deliberately to give Wang Kun a hint.

Wang Kun immediately pushed the door open and rushed in. "Don't come in."

"I beg you to let me in and see Lizhen, okay?" Wang Kun pretended to look very pitiful.

"Lizhen doesn't want to see you. How did you find her?" Chunyan pretended to be very angry.

"I asked someone," Wang Kun said as he walked inside.

When Lizhen heard Wang Kun's voice, she immediately stood up and stumbled into Chunyan's room.

When Wang Kun saw the distraught and haggard Li Zhen, he was shocked. He felt as if his heart was being cut by a knife. His momentary confusion had caused such great harm to Li Zhen.

Wang Kun immediately rushed forward to grab Li Zhen, but Li Zhen was so angry that she suddenly raised her hand and slapped Wang Kun hard, then closed the door with a bang.

Wang Kun ignored the burning pain on his face and knocked on the door desperately. "Lizhen, I know it's my fault. Open the door and let's talk face to face. You can hit me or scold me, and I will never fight back."

Seeing Wang Kun and the others in such pain and sadness, Chunyan, who was standing aside, was still frightened. You knew this would be the outcome, but you couldn't control yourself and made such a mistake.

"Lizhen, please open the door, let's talk it out. Please listen to my explanation. You don't know the whole story. You misunderstood me, but you are suffering in your heart. I feel especially distressed and guilty when I see you so haggard." Wang Kun was choking up as he spoke.

"Lizhen, just open the door and listen to Wang Kun's explanation. Things have already happened. We all understand that you can't get over it, but you have to have a solution. If you keep dragging it on like this, you will suffer, he will suffer, and more importantly, you still have a child." Chunyan felt very uncomfortable seeing how painful they were, and she helped Wang Kun persuade Lizhen to open the door.

Lizhen had been listening quietly inside, thinking as she listened, and couldn't help but tears streaming down her face. Yes, both of us have been through trials before we got together, but you couldn't stand the slightest test and gave in. If you encounter greater temptations in the future, will you still go down this path?

Think about the sweet moments she had with Wang Kun, when they had been through thick and thin together and started a business with great difficulty. Sometimes they even forgot to eat until their stomachs growled and they remembered they had not eaten. Sometimes they were too busy to remember to go to the supermarket, but there was only one box of instant noodles at home, so they had to share a box and feed each other the soaked noodles. Sometimes they would feed each other, and in the end the instant noodles would get cold.

Such unforgettable love will make people irrational. When one person betrays the other, people will lose their reason. The deeper the love, the deeper the hatred.

Lizhen wiped her tears, her heart full of resentment. She stumbled to the door angrily and opened it.

Lizhen's brows were furious and her face was full of anger, which made her look a little scary.

Chunyan and Wang Kun were shocked to see Lizhen in this state. They looked at Lizhen in horror and observed her quietly, fearing that any movement or mistake would anger her.

"You still have the nerve to ask for my forgiveness? Have you ever thought about how I feel when you do this? Do you know what I hate the most?" Li Zhen angrily scolded Wang Kun. She approached Wang Kun step by step. Wang Kun saw Li Zhen approaching step by step, and he retreated step by step in fear.

"I" Wang Kun stepped back and shook his head, saying that he still couldn't understand.

"I am not afraid of hardship, I sympathize with the weak, but what I hate most is betrayal. How did our factory get started? I have suffered so much just to be with you."

"In order to be with you, I rejected the honor of becoming the chairman's wife immediately. How many people have I sinned against?" Li Zhen said as tears flowed uncontrollably down her face, which was heartbreaking to see.

When Chunyan saw this situation, she also started to cry. Her heart ached. She couldn't bear to watch it anymore, so she walked out.

"Lizhen, I'm a bastard. I'm confused. I'm sorry for you and our child. As long as you can calm down, you can ask me to do anything." Wang Kun knelt in front of Lizhen with a bang.

"Lizhen, I was also forced into a situation. She kept pestering me and I couldn't get away. And I just realized now that she was also forced into a situation. I also misunderstood her in many things." Wang Kun said this while observing Lizhen's reaction first. She was afraid that Lizhen would not be able to accept it.

When Lizhen heard Wang Kun's story, she suddenly stopped crying and listened to Wang Kun quietly.

Wang Kun told her about Qiuyan's situation one by one. As she listened, Lizhen began to cry again. Lizhen didn't even know whether she was sympathizing with Qiuyan or being angry at Wang Kun's actions.

"Don't say any more, let's just separate."

"I have done something wrong to you, but please don't say such things so quickly. We still have our son and our common career. Our career was created through our hard work. Why are you so anxious to file for divorce? Do you have new plans?" When Wang Kun heard Lizhen proposed divorce, he immediately thought, could it be that he is still thinking about being with Hongliang-----.

"What are my plans? I can't tolerate any grain of sand in my eyes. I don't want to live with someone as fickle as you. I want to break up with you."
