

First Strong 100

Chapter 100 - Headshot

In which position they ambushed, Shen Lang knew in advance, when this person turned on the light, Shen Lang had already started ahead!

When he was just about to sneak out, he felt that his body was hit. What kind of attack was he didn't know. He just felt like he was hitting the back wall and he was falling apart!

And he felt that his body had not stopped, he was pulled again, and he was ready to go under the dodge.

“Hey!”

The successive sounds rang in the channel, and the person who was pulled by the sinking waves smashed multiple attacks in succession!

Shen Lang knew about their ambush position, and they had already predicted their attack trajectory when they shot. Therefore, the “Phantom Meteor Step” came to the person in an instant, but just gave him a punch and did not directly kill people.

Then he pulled the man over and his own body went down.

Shenlang's headlights are still on, plus the headlights of this person, both of which are in one direction. Whether it is ambushed from the second floor of the road, or the first layer, it is under the glare, only to see the light, can not determine the specific goals.

I don't know if they are caught off, or regardless of the life and death of this person. In short, they all attacked this person and directly killed people.

But this corpse was under the control of Shen Lang, and it seemed to be like nothing to them!

There are still four people left. They don't have headlights on their heads. They are glaring in the eye and can't see the situation behind the lights. Seeing that the enemy has attacked again, it means that it has not been killed yet. If it is not a wave, it will continue to attack!

After being hit again, the body immediately flew out. When the person was in the air, the head was already on the back and the light was shining to the top. The four people who had been attacking while attacking the time were all quickly turning on the headlights.

They all reached the corner, and they saw that the people who had fallen were their own camps.

“What about people?”

“Fast chase!”

In the situation just now, everyone understands that it is impossible to tell who is attacking. Seeing this consequence is very clear. I have already killed my own person for the first time. I just thrown the body and delayed the time!

In front of them, there is an initiative to ambush and intercept. Now that Shen Lang has reached the front, and find another place to hide, it is even harder to find out. The key is time is tight!

And they have four people, the action will be bigger, together they are easy to be stared at by the waves, and they are easily broken by secret sneak attacks.

They are almost all the heads of the homes of the families. They are very decisive. If they don't talk about it, they will chase the past together. Be sure to remove this uncertainty as soon as possible!

As for the one who died on the ground, no one cares, and even if he doesn't even look at it, when he leapt down, he also trampled the body that fell on the steps.

Although everyone responded very quickly, but this squatting channel was so big after that, a person is fairly spacious, and wanting to go side by side does not work, but also affects speed. And with their experience, they can only have one after another, and if they are going side by side, they will all be recruited by ambush.

Four people, the speed is very fast, the corner can not be fully presented.

When the front is already on the third floor, the last one is still outside the corner. Originally the enemy was in front, his last pressure was the smallest, and it played a role in the support of the squad, but always felt a little uneasy...

When he looked back, he suddenly saw a fist in front of him!

This person did not have time to make a sound, his head was directly blown up!

“what happened?”

After hearing the movement behind him, the two people in the middle quickly stopped, then turned and watched the police. The most nervous one on the third floor, and quickly stepped back to the corner, so that I can observe both sides.

The last person did not respond to them. Under the light of their lights, the last person was seen falling from the corner.

They are not ordinary people, at least they are the self-cultivators of Yuanyuan. But at this moment, there is a feeling of creeps!

Because the partner who was just behind, when it fell down, it was a headless body!

If they have been practicing for decades, they are also very powerful people. It is doubtful that this swell is a ghost.

“come out!”

“What the * are you?”

“How do you want to be with us?”

Needless to say, they have made it clear that the enemy did not flee below, and did not know how to get around them.

At the beginning, there were five people. They felt that they were ten, and they died. That is why they lost their hands. Four people can still kill the waves.

Now it is almost under their eyes, and they have quietly killed one of their partners!

They are all in the same realm, and their strength is between the two, even if they are sneak attacks, it is not so easy to kill each other, except for the four dozens as before (in fact, Shen Lang first seriously injured the person). In front of Shen Lang, even the rebellious, even the sound can not do it, and even the head is beheaded!

Reminiscent of the previous Shen Lang's attack, Li Lao was seriously injured, and the remaining three people were guilty, and no confidence could kill the Shen Lang.

Shen Lang came out and looked at them with condescending.

The angle of looking up is even more stressful, and Shen Lang also carries the "halo" (headlights), and there is a deterrent that just started with a headshot, so imposing, directly let them three momentum.

"Mr. Shen... Master Shen, welcome you to join us. We are willing to share everything we know with you! Only you are the leader!"

The bottom of the after a moment of hesitation, decisive choice to surrender.

Anyway, there are still many secrets in the tomb of the King of the King, but even if things are fixed, now two are dead, and the two of them are good for Shen Lang. He really does not want to sacrifice here.

The first two heard this and couldn't help but look back at him.

The one in the middle whispered: "Li Hang, you are crazy! You don't want to see the big Xuanmen? Do you have a face to see Li Lao?"

At this time, the one above, but slammed his hand, hit the back of the man's neck, and waited for him to react, immediately stunned.

“Li Hang is right, Master Shen, I am Ye Shifeng, and on behalf of Ye Jia, I am willing to take your lead!”

Shen Lang looked at this scene and there was no accident. Yue Jia has always felt that the owner of the house was killed in the tomb of the king of sixty years ago, which means that they are not a piece of iron, but they can use whatever means for profit. Just now they killed the man, there is no trace of embarrassment, it also shows that there is no difference between this batch and sixty years, or one hundred and twenty years ago!
