Chapter 102 - Wild king treasure

For Li Hang and Ye Shifeng, the choice of Shen Lang is only to give him a preferred option, and will not affect the amount of treasure. Because not to mention the outsiders of Shen Lang, their predecessors, have not reached the fourth floor.

This is an unknown field. From the experience of the above layers, there is no inevitable law. So which way to choose, what can be found, everything is still looking at luck.

When they looked for a way to find the past, Shen Lang had reached the end of the road.

If Li Hang followed them, they would be amazed at the goal of Shen Lang. When he first came in, he didn't even explore it at all. He didn't look carefully at the doorway with stone room next to him. Did he examine whether there were any organs around him or not? End!

At the end of the road, there is nothing, a closed stone wall.

After Shen Lang arrived, the headlights shone at the end of the wall, and he stared silently for a while. Then, in the past, different positions on the wall, continuous slaps, not only the stone wall surface, but also several places above the head were photographed.

The whole process is very complicated, but his speed is very fast. The flashing of the "Phantom Meteor Step" is very agile, and the headlights shine. If anyone looks at it, it only feels that the light and shadow flicker for a while. What is the law.

After completing this series of actions, Shen Lang stepped back a few steps.

After a moment of tranquility, the place where he had just stood, the ground in front of him, suddenly collapsed, and the large slabs fell down and made a loud noise. In the tomb palace, there was a burst of echoes.

Then a series of dark arrows flew out, intertwined, and completely covered the top!

Shen Lang has already retired a few steps ahead of schedule, and he has to retreat a few steps later. If you are in a hurry, you may be hurt by a dark arrow.

Obviously, there are no ghosts like Li Hang and Ye Shiguang. They don't have poison arrows. They just want to let him relax their vigilance. Maybe they want to kill him by the authorities!

But how can Shen Lang actually be fooled?

People are insatiable, considering the immediate interests, the interests of the children and grandchildren are the after-sales, it is impossible to get the last resort. If there really isn't any hidden weapon, do they have multiple martial arts families, and will they really be so honest for 60 years?

Only two hours at a time, surely it will be arranged for a large number of people to come in and search, and will wait until now!

As for the time when I came in, I didn't encounter the dark arrows of the organs. I didn't have one or three layers in front. It should have been triggered by the predecessors. It is very likely that the first time, a lot of people will be killed and injured, so it will be agreed to let the strongest people in the group go in. One is to contain each other, the other is to reduce the sacrifice, the strongest and often self-protection ability. Stronger.

Now that this is the fourth layer that has not been developed, the two of them are not vying for the front of the waves, and it is likely that they are counting on him to be trapped or killed by the organs.

After waiting for the dark arrow to shoot, Shen Lang only breathed the past.

The falling slate reveals a new entrance, but you can see below, there are not many steps.

Shen Lang remained vigilant and went on step by step. Here, because of the closed and closed relationship, the environment is worse than the above channel, and it can be felt even if it is not breathing.

After the headlights shine, Shen Lang sees this underground palace, which should be regarded as the fifth floor. The space is not big, that is, it is a square.

What is left in the center is a skeleton.

Looking at it again, in addition to this, there is nothing else in the abbot's palace. The wall is also blank and there are no instructions.

Shen Lang did not hesitate, directly in the past, you can see that this is a stone, not to mention the whole movement, that is, the coffin cover is also very weighty. He reached for a shot, then picked it up and pulled the coffin cover up and down.

When he opened, his body retreated a few steps back to the edge of the wall.

Unsurprisingly, as the ground made a loud noise, a burst of pale green smoke spread. If you stand there, you will face it directly, not to mention that it is also a smoke.

Shen Lang raised his hand and waved, and a palm wind quickly dispelled all the smoke, and he still kept his breath.

And when he was about to go, the fierce squat inside squatted and screamed!

Not to mention that there is only one person, that is, many people in the graveyard, after seeing the squats after opening the coffin, they will also be shocked.

However, Shen Lang did not stop and went straight.

“naughty.”

He snorted helplessly and grabbed the cockroach directly. Then I looked at it with the light. I saw a little protruding thing at the bottom of the center where I was lying. I pulled it hard and pulled a space at the bottom of the stone sarcophagus. I placed a wooden box.

Shen Lang reached out and took out the wooden box. Then he covered the thing and put the bones back. There was a small organ next to it. After the buckle was closed, the modified truss could be played. Sit up.”

Obviously, when Zheng Man, the owner of the Tomb of the King, designed this, the protection of the layers was here. If the last one could come in, the dark arrows would not be hurt, and the poisonous fog would not work. Use this to make a mischief.

After the waves were re-finished, the stone shovel was re-covered. Then I looked at the wooden box that I took out and reached for the dust on it.

This is the biggest king treasure in the tomb of the King of the King!

There is no institution, it is open directly.

Under the headlights, he saw the wooden box, a small box, and then a folded piece of paper.

Open that piece of paper with the two lines of writing written by the brush.

“Hate the sky can’t meet again.”

“Seeing this is the reason, I hope to take care of my descendants of Zheng.”

Then open the small box inside is a dark ring.

Shen Lang could not help but sigh.

The word is a familiar word, which means the ring is a familiar ring!

He had never heard of the tomb of the King of the King, but he knew that the burial was Zheng Man, and when he found out the legendary information, he was on the top. This Zheng Man, hundreds of years ago, was a follower of his time!

In the past, he did not directly accept the apprenticeship, and there were many friends and many followers. These followers can be said to be both friends and friends, and get a lot of instructions from him, but there is no teacher or apprenticeship. Zheng Man is one of them.

Before the robbery, he confessed to the arrangement. One of the rings was given to Zheng Man. This is not a token, but a ring of storage space. There are many resources for comprehension, which are equal to Zheng Man.

Originally, Zheng Man felt that it was too expensive and he refused to accept it. He said that the success of the robbery would have no value in these things, and it was a waste. In case of failure, he will be reborn and reborn.

Zheng Man said that he saved it first, and then said after the successful robbery.
