Chapter 120 - Renewal

Frankly speaking, Shen Lang is still a bit vague about the concept of 500 million yuan of money.

As a master of self-cultivation, the past life has long detached from the category of secular money. This world is lack of money. I have to consider the cost of living more than a month ago. In order to buy medicine, I have to sell that piece of jade and take advantage of it.

I quickly got a few million in the back and bought the factory right away. This will make my parents have a better life and have a career. It is quite good. Millions of people who continue to trade with Yue Jia, and now he is on the account, there is no place to use money too much.

Now, let him give him five hundred million. For Shen Lang, the difference with five million is the number. For the time being, I can't think of any effect.

"It doesn't help me to give it to you. You also have cash pressure, and it's not good to do it. That's it! One hundred million, I will accept it. I don't accept it, let your father treat it by the way!"

After hearing the next sentence, Yue Gang was excited. If he had said this before, he had no confidence, but he had seen it tonight and he fully believed that he had this ability.

"Haha, everyone bargaining for business is hoping to make a little more profit. The more you pay the price, the more you are."

In the end, it was the owner of the Yue family. Yue Gang had the strength and strength, did not show the excitement, and immediately adjusted the plan.

"You say one hundred million, then one hundred million. But in addition, we are going to give you a part of our company's shares. When you need to use money, you can trade and redeem, just need a process and process."

Shen Lang considered it and nodded.

Yue Gang is of course a shrewd person. In addition to repaying his grace, this is also tied to Shen Lang! It should be said that the Yue family are savvy. When Yue Qiang came to talk about the treasure, he also took the initiative to pay more money in order to get exclusive.

Just now, Li Shengzhen and Ye Long, Shen Lang said that they asked them to send the compensation to the Yue family and let Yue Gang take the lead.

This is a convenient and casual description of his figure, but in the eyes of others, this is an attitude! Covered the attitude of Yue Jia!

Yue Gang can't make people's homes coverlessly, and the benefits can be more solid than the friendship! Therefore, he boldly gave a reward of 500 million yuan. In the case that Shen Lang did not want to collect so much, he changed it to 100 million in cash plus 400 million shares. This is of course better, and it is more intertwined than one-time.

This point of Shen Lang can still be seen through, it is the Yue family to borrow his power in the level of comprehension, since it is equivalent exchange, it is also welcome.

Yuezheng, who is on the side of the guest, secretly stunned. A month ago, even if there was energy, Shen Lang had nothing to do with the boy. The cooperation with him was partly due to the potential of the Yue family.

I did not expect how long it took to become a Yue family to borrow his power!

This is the influence of the comprehension!

This makes Yuezheng South, which can already be cultivated, also a very motivating one. It is decided that it must be hard-working and hard-working. Even if it does not reach the level of Shenlang, it can become a self-cultivator as soon as possible, and it can also add a little guarantee to the homeowner.

The guest set a chill, and seeing Yue Bailun also came out from the thoughts of the missing father, Shen Lang proposed to treat Yue Gang's father. He has no interest in living here tonight, so he will go back if he solves it.

Yue Gang did not endure anymore. He respectfully invited Shen Lang to another house in Yuefu Garden. It became a special care unit, where doctors have nurses and various medical equipment.

After coming to the ward, Yue Gang whispered it.

His father, Yue Baichuan, has already been eighty. If it is ordinary people, it is almost the age of the oil. But in fact, as the inheritor of the comprehension family, this should not be the case.

The most obvious contrast is that more than 70 Yue Bailun can still fight. Yue Baichuan has already passed the boyhood before the decline of Yuejia, and the foundation will only be stronger than Yue Bailun.

So the real reason is caused by the injury.

Yue Gang grew up during the transition period of Yuejia, and during this time, the previous generation of the family who shouldered the family responsibility was Yue Baichuan.

For the suppression of other families, the Yue family showed weakness, embarrassment, and even pleasing, and then began to transform, and did not form any competition with them. Let the children of the family begin to enter the fields of politics and business that they cannot see.

It is because of Yue Baichuan's forbearance and decisiveness that Yuejia has the time and opportunity for transformation. Of course, when they were the homeowners of the Yue family, they did not seem to push directly in this way. And the benefits have already been taken, and there is no pressure now. For Yue Baichuan's knowledge of affairs, they also have a certain degree of acquiescence.

In the past few decades, Yuejia has become a secular giant in Pingxi City, including Yue Baichuan himself, who is a high-ranking official. The children of all departments are also very competitive and have made achievements in different fields.

Because of the political relationship, Yue Baichuan did not have enough time to cultivate. Finally, he used the resources of sitting on the mountain to support Yue Bailun, but he himself also reached the beginning of the return to the Yuan Dynasty. And his step by step is high, it is the help of the power of repair!

What he said is that he will secretly use the secrets of health care. In fact, he secretly uses vitality. In the leadership, the small is lacking, the big is criticized, and it is welcomed by many old leaders. It is also a good relationship, and many people are cultivated.

This is why as long as he is still alive, it has a great effect on the Yue family. It is a golden signboard of an old cadre.

Yue Baichuan's accident was in the first two years. When he went out to visit friends, he fell down, and he couldn't find out what was being confessed. He had never figured out who was attacked. Yue Jia said that he had a stroke, but it was clear that he was seriously injured.

The previous routine Chinese and Western medicine have been treated, and there is no effect. Up to now, modern medical equipment has been routinely maintained, and the key is to rely on Yue Bailun to continue his life.

The problem is that Yue Bailun has exhausted all the details of the Yue family, and there is no way to treat it well. It can only be maintained. But his strength is not endless, he is also more than 70 people. Therefore, in the past two years, Yuejia has been working hard to search for folk medicine doctors and the latest scientific research results also search for items containing energy.

For example, the jade that Shen Lang sold to them has obvious effects, which can alleviate the pressure of Yue Bailun. Later, the treasures also returned to the soup, which also proved to have a certain maintenance effect.

But the result is known as Shen Lang. As he now sees, Yue Baichuan can only continue to live for a while.

Just now, Shen Lang said that he would help them with the treatment. Yue Gang suppressed the excitement and dared not let his expectations be too big to avoid disappointment. After all, more than two years ago, they have paid a lot, and they have experienced the disappointment of disappointment.

When they came in, they had already sent out doctors and nurses, and only Yue Bailun and Yue Gang were here.

After listening to Yue Gang's remarks, Shen Lang did not comment much, just nodded.

"You all go out! I try, and I can't pack tickets."

“Of course, of course, Mr. has such a heart, our Yue family has been very grateful, dare not ask too much.” Yue Gang finished, and Yue Bailun quit, and said that he would guard the outside, not let anyone disturb.
