Chapter 128 - Helpless

“We didn’t want to buy clothes! We met him and saw that he came here only here.” The boy endured the embarrassment and managed to cope with it.

Losing face is very depressed, and losing face in front of girls is even more depressed, but this face must also be able to stand up!

If this is a mass sports brand like Nike, Adidas, then he can calm down. In the summer, you can buy a T-shirt for up to a few hundred. However, the cheapest ones here are thousands of pieces, and I don’t know how to pay for it when I go home.

Compared with the moneyless payment, he would rather admit that he did not want to buy.

“That is, we see acquaintances, can’t you come in and say hello?”

“You open the door to do business, and there is no requirement to buy something when you enter the door?”

“We just watched him try on!”

Others, including girls, have argued together. The shopping guide smiled and said that it doesn’t matter, although visiting, although watching, don’t affect other guests.

Although it solved the embarrassment of Shen Lang’s sentence, even if the girls helped him to talk, it was still shameful, and his face was burning!

Now he has only one thought, can you afford to buy it? If you can’t afford it, just try it on here, then don’t blame him for being ridiculous. Can make the original shape of Shen Lang, this face will not be lost!

Shen Lang has already tried to pass through, that is, they are paired with several other choices. With his current body, it is basically a perfect hanger. Only the problem that I like or dislike, the dress looks good.

They had a group of flies to influence their mood, and he didn't want to choose any more. He pointed to one of the many sets of clothes placed next to him.

“Is this one? Ok, I will open the bill for you right away.” The shopping guide smiled and promised, reaching for the piece of Shen Lang.

The boy sneer has come to his lips. In his opinion, Shen Lang is a swollen face to fill the fat, certainly must be prepared to buy the cheapest one, he is ready to be a good irony!

“I mean, don't do this. The other sets are all packaged, and I won't change it.”

When Shen Lang said this, there was a big change in the atmosphere at the scene.

The shopping guides watched Shen Lang wearing ordinary clothes, which is definitely a replacement for a few sets, so he was very enthusiastic to receive and match. In the end, I just chose one, which is naturally a big drop. I also think that it is really like the boys and girls said, just try to wear and have no money to buy.

Maybe... Pingxi also has a Rolls-Royce lease?

But the professional quality, so that they still keep a smile, and can sell one is also a performance, so did not urge Shen Lang to replace the body.

I did not expect the next sentence to be in addition to that one, no matter what else!

Originally, they expected Shenlang to buy a few sets, but because they just had a huge gap, thinking that they only bought one set and suddenly became all bought, it became a huge surprise.

Contrary to the excitement of the clerk, a few of them were very embarrassed. The boy was originally prepared to satirize the words of Shen Lang, and he could only hold it at this moment.

“Pack! I see where you pay for the bill!” He muttered in a low voice.

Although it is not clear how many sets of specific money Shenlang bought, but the price of this brand, less than three or forty thousand has been on.

“Yes! You can stand up and don’t run!” Another boy said.

They still don’t believe that Shen Lang can afford it. They didn’t say the name of the poor before. The family is generally clear. I feel that Shen Lang is going to force them in front of them. If the salesperson comes over, people will pretend to answer the phone and run.

“Do you want to buy it? Just pick one, I will pay the bill together.”

Waiting for the package to open a bill around nothing, Shen Lang will tease the girls.

“Really?” One of them couldn’t help but ask.

When I heard Shen Lang say “this one”, they thought it was a reluctance to buy a piece of support. I didn’t expect it to be “this one, don’t buy it!”, so in order to buy things, they are still the first in reality. See you again.

But the other two girls were busy pulling her up: “Wake up! If you are not a relative, why would you just choose a set to buy?”

“Yes! Even if it is true, are you too embarrassed?”

The girl smiled awkwardly: “I will talk about it.”

Some of them are still sensible, but the words in the ears of the boys are even more hot on the face.

This is what they brought with them. This is because they can’t afford to sneer at the waves, and the result is to buy clothes for their companions! However, their wallets are not thick enough, and they dare not say loudly: “Don’t ignore him, I will buy it for you!”

“We... let’s go?” The girls also feel very shameful, and standing here will only be more shameful.

“No! I have to watch him pay the bill!” The boy has been shameful, and he insists on sticking to the end. As long as Shen Lang has no money to pay the bill, the face can earn back.

The clerk’s speed is very fast, packaged and packaged, billing the bill, and then came over to lead the wave to the checkout counter.

The driver is following the boss’s embarrassment and is the first to pay for it.

The boy came along, and immediately called up: “Shen Lang, let others pay the bill, do you want a face? Who knows if you want to go back all the time? You have the ability to brush your own card, you can brush Come out, I will serve you!”

Shen Lang helpless eyes: “Who are you? Which green onion do you want? I want you to serve me?”

“You, you...!” The man was so angry that the other boys and girls rushed over, fearing that he would make things big and want to pull him away. It is already very shameful now, and the clerk looks at it with strange eyes.

“But there are no big trash cans here, you can’t put them in the trash can. In order not to let you stick like a dog skin plaster...”

Shen Lang shook his head stopped the driver’s paying. “I’m optimistic, this is my own card. I can’t possibly expect you to bite me, borrow someone else’s card in advance?”

“You, you...” The boy saw Shen Lang mentioning that he was stuffed into the trash can, and his face was almost dark.

If you are not afraid of playing, he really wants to do it! At this moment, my face has been thrown away, but when I look at Shen Lang and take out the card, I still hold my teeth.

The driver is understanding people. Although they feel that their actions are a bit ridiculous, they have not said anything. At this moment, they will retreat and let Shen Lang brush his own card. The boss who pays so much attention to the boss, this money must be brushed out.

Shenlang swiped the signature. When the cashier retired and handed back the bank card, the boy couldn't hold on. He turned around and ran outside. Several other people quickly followed.

The driver smiled and wanted to comfort the sinking waves, but did not know where to start.

Shen Lang shook his head helplessly, motioning him to take things.

The two came out and found that the boy actually returned again!
