Chapter 138 - Pure yang body

Zheng Yumeng did not find the investigation of Shen Lang, nor did he notice the difference. He re-dressed the jade pendant and was relieved.

“Why look at me? Tell me!”

Shen Lang gave her a deep look: “I believe that you are a descendant of the king, talk about your family’s situation!”

“Ah?” Zheng Yumeng did not convince him of his plans. I didn’t expect him to believe it. I don’t know how to react.

“No! I asked you, you are now asking about my family’s situation. This is to set my words!”

Shen Lang slightly frowned, but she can be a little alert.

“The legend of Zheng Man should have a real foundation, because he is actually a very powerful self-cultivator. As his descendants, he should also be a comprehension family. I didn’t believe you before because you are not a self-cultivator!”

Shen Lang said bluntly, let Zheng Yumeng open his mouth.

What she originally wanted to hear was the words of true worship of her ancestors. I did not expect to be a person who really understood the inside story.

“So, is the Zheng family completely down, or is your personal problem? Is the Zheng family still in Pingxi?”

Shen Lang has no information about Zheng Man’s descendants. If you are still in Pingxi City, they may not know the secret of the Tomb of the King, but he also mentioned it with Yue Baichuan. Yue Baichuan is completely unclear about the descendants of the King.

“You...how do you know everything?” Zheng Yumeng could not help but lower his voice.

Shen Lang gave her a positive look: “I am old with the King, so you can rest assured.”

The Shen Lang in front of her eyes will not be older than her, so when I hear this, Zheng Yumeng’s natural understanding is that the ancestors of Shen Lang and the savage king are old.

“It turned out! Then we are the world.” She spit out her tongue: “Fortunately, I insisted, or else I almost missed it.”

Shen Lang nodded and then gestured to her to say something right.

“This is the case. Our family used to be on the Pingxi side. Later, it should be that you said that it has fallen, and moved to a foreign country. From generation to generation, people are not prosperous...”

Zheng Yumeng shrugged a little helplessly: “Our family is more traditional and unwilling to marry a foreign race. It is not easy to find a suitable one. Now, there are dozens of people, and all the business may add up to billions. “”

Shen Lang was speechless for a while, now the girls are beginning to force it? People are not prosperous – there are dozens of people, business is only a few billion, this should be a foreign currency calculation...

“But the self-cultivation you said, we really don’t have much. The main people are not interested. My grandfather has been very upset. When he says that he wants to break off here, he will see his ancestors.”

This point can be understood. For generations overseas, even if the purity of national descent is maintained, the concepts have already been subtle, not to mention the generations that have experienced technological development.

“In our generation, no male has potential and no interest. Finally, Grandpa had no choice but to choose me. But I failed his expectations and did not practice anything.” Zheng Yumeng was a little depressed.

Shen Lang knows why she has this jade pendant. It is not that Zheng Man stayed with too many good things, but that her grandfather had no choice but to be a man.

“Give your hand to me.”

This time, Shen Lang took the initiative to reach out. Just now he just touched it and had limited understanding of her physical condition. Since her grandfather determined that she is the only potential of this generation, with the inheritance and resources of Zheng family, even if it is almost nothing, nothing will be achieved.

In the Palace of the Tomb of the King of the King, Zheng Man left the storage ring. At that time, there was no hope of Shen Lang’s hand after the reincarnation, but only for the sake of the people. The only requirement was to take care of the descendants of the Zheng family.

Even if there is no such relationship, Shen Lang knows that it is the descendants of Zheng Man, who will also take care of it. Now that Zheng Yumeng is a descendant of Zheng Man, I want to give her a diagnosis and see if it is similar to Yue Zhennan.

“Hand?” Zheng Yumeng was a little surprised after listening, but he didn’t shake her before, but now he is serious and doesn’t want to pull her hand.

Just a little hesitation, she put the generous hand on the palm of the hand.

This time, Shen Lang was a clear source of energy to explore the past, and she scanned all of her body.

It doesn’t take long, he immediately understands the crux.

If you switch to someone else, you may have overlooked it, but he has seen this situation, so he noticed the key.

The occlusion of the meridians with Yuezhen South is totally different. Zheng Yumeng is the body of congenital pure yang!

It is very difficult for a woman to be a yin, to appear pure Yin, and it is even more miraculous to have a pure yang body.

But this is also a problem!

The pure yin body of a woman is a wonderful qualification. The speed of cultivation will be a natural genius for a thousand miles, just like the pure male body. But in turn, the woman's pure yang body, or the man's pure yin body, is also a natural wizard, but it is easier to become a waste!

In the early stage, whether it is the practice of practicing pure Yin or the practice of pure Yang, it will progress very quickly. But it will soon be restricted, and it will be difficult to move forward. If you use more resources and external forces to assist, you may be abolished!

Zheng Yumeng's current situation is that her grandfather found that her body potential is very good, but she does not understand the pure body. So she practiced well in front of her, but she soon stopped, and the distance from the self-cultivator was also far away.

She is very disappointed herself. She feels that she is not the same material. Her grandfather may feel that she is not working hard enough, or that her skills are not right, and the resources are insufficient.

"Follow your grandfather's request, you can live less than twenty years old." Shen Lang loosened her hand and said directly.

"Ah? Don't scare me!" Zheng Yumeng spit out his tongue but it was not really scared.

"You have been practicing for several years, and you have just started to improve very quickly. Later, there was no movement, until now." Shen Lang's words.

Zheng Yumeng was a little surprised: "You...what is it? How do you touch my hand and know my situation? Very powerful comprehension?"

If she didn't want to take care of her before Shen Lang, she even suspected that this was the first person to inquire about her situation.

"Give up all the exercises of your Zheng family. I will give you a hard work and start again according to my guidance. Not only can I live safely, but I can still make achievements."

Shen Lang immediately helped her make a decision, but it is obvious that Zheng Yumeng is difficult to understand and accept.

Those who don't know for half an hour want her to give up the family practice and re-follow him. This is hard to accept.

“That one.....”

“Call your grandfather!” Shen Lang said in a tone that could not be refused.
