

First Strong 154

Chapter 154 - Heroes will hear the wind

In the early morning, Yue Baichuan, Yue Bailun and Yue Gang all came to wait, and Yuezhengnan in the living room was already awake and earned his work. He was also embarrassed about his encounter with this blessing.

There is more beauty, even if people have two rooms, who knows if they live together? Therefore, Shen Lang did not come down, even if it was Yue Zhennan, it was not good to go to him, they could only wait in the downstairs.

In the upstairs room, last night, I went up to eat Zheng Yumeng, who was behind the door, and wrapped around him, staying to follow him.

Although she has now reached the realm of the Yuan Dynasty, but many things do not understand, need the guidance of Shen Lang.

Shen Lang still ordered her to leave, and directly said what happened when she practiced last night.

The first Tian Jingwen, but they came to her, has now troubled Shen Lang. If she stays here and continues to be a tiring wave, she will not be willing to go.

After begging for a few days of unsuccessful, she could only promise to leave after breakfast and return to her grandfather as soon as possible. But you must exchange telephone numbers, WeChat and other contact information with Shen Lang.

This is not a rejection of Shen Lang. She is a descendant of Zheng Man. As long as he can take care of it, he will take care of it.

After seeing them down, let Yue Gang tell the people, prepare breakfast for Zheng Yumeng, and then send her directly to the nearest international airport. As for the ticket purchase, whether it is Yuejia's money or Zheng Yumeng himself, it is a small matter for them.

Yue Baichuan and Yue Gang, naturally, are inevitably thankful to Shen Lang. It is Yue Zhennan, but also very grateful, but he did not use words to emphasize, but to take this gratitude in the bottom of his heart, when necessary, do not hesitate to report!

Because of the super-wu heroes, they did not stay in the Yuefu Garden, but went to the resort villa in the suburbs. Other related people have already rushed.

Last night, I was told to tell Yue Zhennan and Shen Lang about the situation, but then did not succeed, so now on the way to the resort, it is a brief statement.

This time, the super-martial heroes, the main players are still domestic, but there are also some foreign super-wu people. Just like the division of power in Pingxi, there are some forces that can come to participate, but because it is only the scope of the super-wu people, it is not too obvious.

The previous Super Wu Heroes Club is actually an opportunity to select a rookie. Some young people who do not have a strong backstage have reached the ranks of high-ranking and extraordinary warriors by virtue of their talents and hardships. It is very difficult to break through the realm of the Yuan Dynasty. It is necessary to attach a force with resource security.

The people's sects and big families are not collected by people. The recruits must also be young people with potential and promising futures.

Therefore, many large families will arrange for them to come over to see if there are any good seedlings, or if some of them are originally recommended by them, to see if they can pass the experience and whether they can be created.

For the super-wu people, if you have the object of trust, you must prove yourself. If you don't have an object, you need to make a comeback to attract the attention of others.

There are also a few who just want to verify their strength or exercise.

Like Chuyun City, it is the family that the Chu family arranged to look after. The level of the Super Wu heroic club does not need to be too high and the name of the seniority. Chu Yuncheng is the late Yuan Dynasty and is already a strong monk.

The banquet last night was also an opportunity for many people to get acquainted with it. Originally, many of them were familiar with each other, but because they came to Pingxi for the first time, they were quite awkward. Like Yuejia and many people who have come to the head, they still have no relationship, so this opportunity is familiar.

During this time, the Yue family has perfected the program according to the rules of the Super Wu Heroes, including the venue of the contest, all the referees.

Shen Lang is not a referee, nor does he need to supervise anything. He only exists as a character in Yuejia Town.

Originally, he should show up last night, let the parties understand and know the foundation of the Yue family. However, he suddenly picked up, there is no visibility, he did not arrive, or rely on Yue Baichuan.

After arriving at the resort, they hosted a group of people and asked many people to say hello to them. In the middle of the team, Shen Lang, accompanied by the Yue Baichuan brothers, also let everyone focus on it. I don't know what this young man is.

“Hey! You still don't know? He is Shen Lang!”

“Shen Lang? Which sink?”

“You didn't actually receive the wind? Last night happened in Yuejia!”

After everyone's friendly greetings, Shen Lang heard the voice of discussion behind him. And soon spread, and more people whispered between familiar people.

“Is it heard? This Shenlang is a new backing that Yuejia invited! Last night, the Chu family of Chu family was miserable!”

“No? Don't look at Chu Yuncheng's young age, but he has already returned to the Yuan Dynasty, and he has been abused?”

“It's true! It is said that it was directly disabled. It was carried out. Didn't you see it? Yesterday he was still arrogant and eager to see everything. I didn't see it this morning.”

“The trough! This is really a big event. Chu Yuncheng was actually abused by the Yue family. It is a big face! Oh? No, this is called Shen Lang. Shouldn’t it be a Yue family? Is it foreign aid?”

“It seems that this Yue family can host this super-wu heroic meeting. It is a bit of enthusiasm. It is also an opportunity to take the opportunity to raise the flag!”

“Oh, it’s hard to say. It’s not about our business. It’s good to watch the fun. The Chu family will definitely not give up!”

“Of course, Chu Yuncheng is not a big road cargo. It is the leader of the younger generation of the Chu family. It was hurt by being beaten. Can you retaliate?”

“What is the beginning of this sinking wave? Have you heard of him? What level of monk?”

“Who knows? I have never heard of it before!”

“I don’t know! I have inquired about it! It is said that a month ago He was born! It is in the Yuefu Garden of Yuejia, which suppresses the powerful forces of Pingxi City. It is said that there is a return to the Yuanjing The mid-term monk was directly beaten by him!”

“Blowing the bulls? Pingxi, this broken place, when is there such a fierce person? Really so embarrassing, it should have been able to compete for the world!”

“Heroes don’t ask for their origins. Maybe this Shenlang is a fierce person who wants to rise. Last month’s World War I said that the biggest martial art family in the country is wearing soft compensation. This time, the heroes did not dare to participate. All of them are responsible for Yuejia. And this Shenlang seems to be regarded as the first strongest in Pingxi!”

“Cut, the first strongest player in Pingxi, where can you go strong? Look at the world, but it is a humble!”

“It’s hard to say, Chu Yuncheng is in the younger generation, there is such a number of people, and was slammed by Shen Lang last night!”
