

First Strong 165

Chapter 165 - Spell sneak attack

Chu He stretched his finger and thanked Xie, and said: "Xie You! Do you want to do something?"

Although Xie You said that there is some truth, he still suspects that this is a thank-you.

In the face of his imposing pressure, other people are ashamed, and they dare not speak. However, Xie You relies on Xie Jia, but he still has the confidence. As long as he does not do it, he believes that Chu He does not dare to treat him.

Just as they were squatting, Shen Lang was physically moved, and he flew directly to the front of the Chu River, and with a thunderous punch, he slammed into his chest!

Although Chuhe rebuked Xie, he remained vigilant and found that after the waves were moved, they immediately guarded. When the fist came to the front, a punch was made.

The Chu River is also well prepared. The wolverine just made him realize that the strength of Shen Lang is stronger than expected, and he will plant it if he does not pay attention. So this time, he poured his strength into his fist and really hit it all!

Since Shen Lang does not accept the threat, he has to earn this face on his own.

Everyone is not next to them, but they also feel the whistling wind. Everyone has a breathless look, and the eyelids don't dare to squat, for fear of missing the most crucial point.

Just when everyone is expecting two people to hit hard, it will be a stone-shattering shock, and suddenly there is a situation in which everyone is surprised!

The fist that is almost hit by a few inches is suddenly slipping out like a snake snake!

The violent attack of Shen Lang, in the moment of the upcoming blast, was actually an incredible 诡 asynchronous method, sliding directly to the side of the Chu River, originally attacking a punch on his chest, but also turned into a rib!

Chuhe has just made a full blow, but he did not expect the target to suddenly disappear. He wants to change is too late. At the same time as a boxing is empty, the ribs are also awkward.

“Roar!”

With a violent drink, the entire Chu River swiftly swung up and kicked his legs around like a fly. He realized that the sci-fi and singularity of Shenlang’s footwork must be comprehensively attacked, so he directly turned himself into a gyro, and he could always pay attention to the 360-degree angle, while his feet were kicking out, making the enemy unable to near.

After a moment, he rotated to a height of a few meters, and the condescending edge made the attack of the legs more convenient and simple, and the control range was also greater.

At the same time, his body is running, and the Chu family’s spell “wind and thunder” is ready to go!

Originally, I tried my best to win. I didn’t expect Shen Lang to put him together. The punch under his ribs made him aware. The other side is fast, powerful, and the body is more subtle. The experience seems to be more abundant than him. So together, even if the realm is lower than him, he can fight with him.

With the body and speed, the opponent can attack again and again, and even if he can’t hit him, it will make him very embarrassed.

Compared with this consequence, the remarks are nothing. Therefore, when he is making himself as fast as the top of the gyro, he will not let the Shenlang approach, but also to confuse the Shenlang, let him show time to display the “wind and thunder”!

Seeing his leg work, the extraordinary warriors are secretly amazed, although this Chuhe character is not good, but the strength is really extraordinary. Without the use of spells, this leg work is also incomparable.

After a few times, everyone can see clearly. Shen Lang’s body is very magical, but now the defense of Chu River is such that he can’t get close. Although you won’t lose, you can’t win if you want to win.

But then again, Shen Lang played against the Chu family's master. In the case that everyone is not optimistic, no loss itself is a win.

What everyone is looking forward to now is to see what kind of way Chu River uses to counter the waves. As a famous master, he can't be satisfied with the hedgehog passive defense.

Shen Lang flashed several times around him and was not attacking. It seemed that he could not find an entry point. But in fact, only he was discovered by the scene, Chu River is preparing for a spell attack!

So he also understands that the Chu River now looks like a very defensive defensive. In fact, it is even more bluffing. It is very easy to succeed before the attack of the spell has not been displayed.

However, Shen Lang did not do this. Even if the Chu River is defeated, the effect is limited. Whether it is a blow to the Chu River or a shock to the crowd.

He doesn't seem to be looking for an opportunity to attack. He is actually waiting, waiting for Chu's spells to be successfully displayed!

It was originally a sunny night of the moon, and suddenly there was a faint sound of wind and thunder...

A lot of people looked up at the sky and secretly prayed that Tiangong should not be so beautiful. When the battle is in full swing, this is also a battle that they rarely see in their lives. If it is over because of the rain, it is really disappointing.

And the monk who knows Chu's understanding like Xie You is a change of face. It is guessed that this is not a thunder to rain, but Chuhe's "wind and thunder" is about to be displayed!

"Lord Chu River! Just said that you are not using the technique, and now stealing the technique, is it too unreasonable?"

Anyway, the scandal that Chuhe just burst out is already a bad person, and the blow to the bad guys is just right! Plus, it really occupies reason, so Xie You once again offended Chu River, but also reminded Shen Lang to be careful.

The Chu River was secretly cold and cold, and he did not pay any attention to Xie You. When he was at a critical time, he only needed to be “wind and thunder” successfully displayed, and he was sure to be able to hit Shen Lang by a surprise!

Although Xie You’s opening has already reminded Shen Lang, he has already completed the operation of the spell!

“broken—!”

With his violent screaming, his finger pointed to the swell of the waves, and the air suddenly thundered, and the hidden power of lightning, directly went to the place where Shen Lang stood!

Xie You’s words plus the current shot, has let everyone understand. The Chu River, which claims to be not using the magic and magic weapon, is now eating a word, and is using the spell to attack the waves!

“I didn’t expect the Chu family to be so shameless!”

“Yeah, it seems that Chuyuncheng last night must have been too shameless to be beaten by Shen Lang.”

“I originally thought that Shen Lang was too arrogant. Now I think he is so good. It is much better than saying that a set of Chu masters is a good one.”

“You whisper a little, be careful that he will settle accounts after the fall! One can’t eat and walk.”

With a lightning strike, the place where Shen Lang stood, was blasted into a big pit, and even the stones were broken and opened!

Just as everyone was wide open to see how the situation was, a voice rang in the air: “Give me a slap!”

The body of Shen Lang has disappeared just before the arrival of the lightning strike. At this moment, flying behind the Chu River in the air, he is kicking on the Chu River with several consecutive feet!
