Chapter 166 - Stepping on the Chu River

Although Shen Lang himself had already seen it in advance, but before the spell sneak attack, I heard Xie You's condemnation warning, but let him appreciate it. After all, this is already a relationship between Xie and Chu, and it is rare for their sleek family.

However, there is no need for Xie You's warning, and he has already planned. Just now, in other people's eyes, he is nowhere to start, actually in the observation and planning of the attack plan.

When the "wind and thunder broke" to launch a lightning strike, Shen Lang used the "Phantom Meteor Step" to avoid it first, and turned to the top of the Chu River in the air.

Because of the sudden display of spell sneak attacks, everyone's focus is on the top of the lightning strike, but ignore the flash of the sky.

When Shen Lang spoke, he kicked out several consecutive feet! The Chu River, which has successfully cast a spell to control the wind and thunder, is a few meters higher than just now, and does not need to rotate quickly to keep people in the air. This solidity made him the target of a better attack.

Is the leg work very good? Then he used his legs and feet to attack the Chu River!

His first foot was kicked from the bottom up, and he came directly from Chuhe hips and chrysanthemums!

This foot made the Chu River, which was caught off guard, directly rushed out in front. Although he drove the wind and thunder in the air, but pulling the wind is pulling the wind, certainly can not borrow the same force as the ground, want to stand firm when the air falls. It's not that easy.

To make matters worse, he is showing "the wind and thunder", and the chrysanthemum kicks on the kick, making him almost suffocating!

Shen Lang did not give him a chance. He kicked out several consecutive feet. When he fell forward, his back, shoulders and head were kicked by several feet.

Originally, the “wind and thunder” spells were quite a bit of wind and domineering, but now they are kicked in the air and tumbling in the air. The last foot is directly on the ground, and it really becomes a cockroach. Fall to the ground!

Then Shen Lang had already stood in front of him, and one foot was on his head!

The superb warriors on the scene were stunned. They did not expect that Shen Lang could not only escape from the lightning strike, but also quickly counterattack.

Xie You and other monks are even more shocked!

The Chu River is using a spell, and it should have been unexpected that the other party can escape. At this time, the counterattack success is nothing. To their surprise, Shen Lang kicked all the way in the air, directly to the Chu River stepping on the foot, Chu River did not resist!

At the moment, Chu River, which was trampled underfoot, is suffering!

Just in the eyes of others, he was kicked a few feet, with his strength realm, it should not be so, hard and can still hold. But only he himself knows, just how many feet, just a few mountains are hitting him!

After all, just a few times, he did not have a hard confrontation with Shen Lang. Although the ribs were very painful, he felt that it was a fragile place and did not think much.

Just a few feet, it is to let him feel the power of Shen Lang!

The foot of the back hip makes him feel like being blown by the telephone pole, as if the chrysanthemum instantly turns into a sunflower feeling... and the back from the top down, the pressure is as great as a mountain, so that he is all Can't help, people in the air have nowhere to borrow power, they are directly suppressed.

Now it is as stunned as Shen Lang said, and his head is trampled again, making him angry, but at the moment he is not even rebellious. Because he is now equal to the head of a mountain, as long as the other party presses hard, his neck will not bear the first break!

With Shen Lang forced to step on it, he can't do it before he can fly people...

“Shen Lang! You dare to move me, I promise you will regret it! You don't want to see Zheng Yumeng, she will be killed by more than a dozen big men!”

Although this threat was made public, he and even the Chu family were shamed and shameful. But the Chu River is a mature person, it is clear that the threat is more useful than the blow!

Is the wrath of Shen Lang not just an indication of the girl? As long as he is still in his hands, he is not afraid of the waves and dare to come!

Just after the scene of the Chu River being counter-attacked, everyone was surprised, hitting the ground directly from the air, and was stepped on the head! Not to mention that they started to think that the Chu River can crush the waves, that is, after seeing the strength of Shen Lang, they did not expect such a picture.

At this time, if the Chu River roared out, it would make everyone come up.

As Xie You said, even if it is not a hero of justice, at least it is not a villain. When he hears that a girl is threatened by the death of more than a dozen big men, everyone is angry!

“Chu River! You are too shameless for him!” Yue Zhennan immediately roared.

This time, everyone did not worry because of fear, and shouted together: “Despicable! Shameless!”

The voice from the ear made the Chu River disdain. He pursued the law of the jungle, the weak meat! As long as you can achieve the goal, what means can be used!

These people who are jealous of him, wait for him to stand up, dare to face him?

If these people from the Chu family open their pockets on behalf of the Chu family, how many of them are not heart-warming?

Chu He slammed his neck and looked up at Shen Lang. He showed a smile: “If you have the ability to step on me! I believe you will regret it! Hey, how young and beautiful the little girl is not yet full. Are you old? Do you really want to see the death of the dross? It’s not that I am mean and shameless, it’s your selfish cruelty!”

At the scene, except for some people who have seen Yue family, others have never seen Zheng Yumeng. But to hear his description, a less than eighteen years old, beautiful young girl, he was surprised to be caught, and so threats are so angry you want to beat him!

“Shen Lang... calm down!” Xie You looked at this scene couldn’t help but remind him.

He had dealt with Shen Lang. It was really a hard bone that was hard and hard. He threatened him in this way. Maybe he would trample the Chu River directly!

It’s really nothing to kill a person and kill a few people with their comprehension. But also look at people, Chu River is the righteous son of Chu Mofeng, if he kills him, then Chu family will inevitably chase after killing, even Chu Mofeng will be hands-on!

What is the realm of Chu Mofeng, even he can’t imagine it!

Shen Lang overlooks the Chu River in the depression. This guy has not asked for mercy until now. Instead, he dares to threaten him with such vicious words, so that he really wants to step on the Chu River’s head into the chest!

He did not do this, just forced the Chu River to faint.

Seeing this scene, Xie You breathed a sigh of relief. At the crucial time, Shen Lang did not have a arrogant hard come, but he still followed his advice.

However, I don’t know that Shen Lang didn’t step on the Chu River. I was neither afraid of finding a clue to Zheng Yumeng, nor was he afraid of offending the wind, but felt that it was too cheap for him!
