

First Strong 1791

Chapter 1791 - Difficult brother

The dead water whip of Shen Lang, wandered in front of the elk, and then cut his leg directly under the dead ash.

The elk is hard, and there is nothing wrong with it.

Then he looked at the leg and was sucked into the tower.

Then, along the broken leg, a lot of blood was sucked into the tower.

“Is it interesting? If you want to vent your anger, kill me directly! Then you can be refreshed!”

“If you don’t, you will throw me back into the tower. It will torture me, but I will live for a while, but I can curse you, you will not be good.”

“You broke my leg and broke my hand. After they were thrown in, the effect was greatly reduced. This is a waste!”

Elk deliberately ridiculed Shen Lang, and this time, it also guided Shen Lang to make a decision.

Since Shen Lang hates him, it will lead to a refreshing decision, killing him directly, and will not want to let him live more.

“What you said makes sense. There is already one before. But I will slap you one leg first, not to torture you, not to waste. But to make you die faster!”

During the conversation, Shen Lang has already stepped on his heart.

The body of the elk deer, for this heavy foot, almost fainted, showing that the strength of Shen Lang is extraordinary.

“You are so embarrassed... poison...”

When Elk said this, he could not help but vomit a blood.

Just a kick of the waves, directly injured his internal organs!

Then he threw him into the tower of the tower, and he left a mouth to talk. It was impossible to break the tower with other great gods.

At this point, Shen Lang has completed his torture.

This guy is a must die!

Now throw him into the tower of the tower, and maybe let him reveal the secret to others.

Although from the current situation, it is impossible for other people to break the tower.

But for the sake of safety, it is better to lose a little “medical effect”, but also to hurt him so that he can’t help others.

Just sinking waves seem to be a casual foot, but in fact it is under the pickpocket, the elk will use the vitality again, the internal organs will burst first!

So at this point, you can just put him into the tower of the tower.

When the elk was taken in, Shen Lang’s knowledge also entered the tower to understand the situation inside.

In the current tower, the two people who started to earn income have already experienced a day, and they are already in the mood like the elk.

The blue mask ancestor of the latter income has not yet reached that level.

I used to want to put it in the space of Tianshu, so that they can refine and refine more time, but now, in order to pack the elk, in order to grasp more layers, they still took it out.

All three of them were shocked and helpless, looking at the blood and one leg. I don't know which old man was being cleaned up.

As a result, I saw the elk that was ingested!

“Elk? You have it today!”

“Are you not willing to be a dog's leg?”

“Do you think that you will have the opportunity to get close and have the opportunity to control him?”

“Daddy, now that you are not worthy of sympathy!”

They couldn't help but say that the slogan of my words satirized the elk.

The first two were personally heard by the elk who called Shen Lang the “master”, so it was very fierce.

The latter one also saw that he was fighting for the end of the wave.

“You, don't bully new people. People's elk ancestors, this is the second palace. For the situation inside the tower, it may be more familiar than you.”

When I heard the waves, the two ancestors immediately closed their mouths and stopped attacking the elk.

“Shen Lang Daxian... You asked me to hand over all the items before, didn't you want to let us go?”

“If you don’t think it’s enough, we can find a way. As long as we go out, we can contribute the magic of our martial art!”

They had been pleading for a long time, and there was no movement in the waves. Only the blue mask ancestors were laughing at them.

It was already desperate. I didn’t expect the sun to reappear now. This time I threw an elk in.

This allowed them to completely abandon the struggle, that is, even the elk that helped him busy, once they were distracted, they would be included in the income, then what else do they have to say?

Can only show weakness and plead for the end!

It’s also useful to say swear words now, they can’t help others at all.

“Do you ask him to be useful? Just now you are not only yelling at him like a dog, but also taking my things away and contributing, what?”

“You are guilty of yourself! It is impossible for him to let go of yours, and die this heart!”

Blue mask ancestors, very unkind to continue to satirize them.

Shen Lang laughed: “The two are a little misunderstood. I just asked you to help hand over the things. I also thank you. But I didn’t say that it was a transaction. I didn’t say that I would let you out.”

“As for the magic weapon of your martial art, what is it... isn’t it robbing? I am not that kind of person!”

The two ancestors listened to this, it was already very depressed, can not blame others for ridicule, is being played by Shen Lang!

And the last sentence made them even vomiting blood.

This is simply to do that and still set up a memorial!

Are you not robbing now?

It is as if it is more decent!

Just... no matter what their emotions are, now asking for the waves to let them go out is the only way to go out!

Others have tried all kinds of damage to the towers of the tower, and they have all tried it. It is useless at all.

“Let’s enjoy the last days, live here, you are friends, everyone must get along well. Of course, if you fight and fight which one is killed, I don’t mind.”

Shen Lang left a sentence.

Upon hearing this, the eyes of the two ancestors looked at the elk who had just entered, and looked at the ancestor of the blue mask.

Two elk, immediately scalp numb!

Shen Lang’s sentence, they divided them!

Elk is now injured There is only one person in the blue mask, even if they are two, they are not the other two opponents.

If these two old guys really listen to the differentiation of Shen Lang, would you like to kill both of them first to please the waves?

“Calm a little! I have been here, I am more familiar with the situation.”

“Before he let me go out, I wanted to be his slave. I first took my memory and took control of me. Let me be his beater and be his dog.”

“Do you want to be a dog?”

“If you don’t want to be a dog of his swell, then we should unite. We four think together, I don’t believe that this broken tower can’t be broken!”

Elk appeared in his own experience, let everyone listen to it, they no longer care about the words of Shen Lang, but want to hear if the elk has good ideas.

Chapter 1792 - Internal and external fighting

What good ideas can the elk have?

If he can have any good ideas, he will not be a slave.

His previous performance will not be worse than these two people.

However, he is still a little more refined, and there have been some guesses and experiences.

At the moment, I have told them about the understanding of the tower.

When they heard that their attacks might make this tower stronger, the other three were silent.

They have all tried this way, and they have been more than once and twice.

They didn’t feel that the tower was getting stronger, but they didn’t feel any effect before they stopped.

Now, after listening to the words of the elk, I realized that I was unintentional, but instead added to the tower.

Then, the elk told the story about Shen Tianta, which was also told by Shen Lang.

The suppression here, they all feel it.

I was able to confirm that I would be crushed to death, so I wanted to leave here and I would like to make a decision.

Now that I know this, I am undoubtedly more desperate.

The blue mask was the last one. It was still the most aggressive and confident. Now it is starting to have a little bit of focus.

If this is the case, then their final destiny will not only be crushed to death, but also be smelt into a remedy!

There may even be four people, plus the corpse fragments, broken legs, and the like, all together and refining...

Thinking of this result, no one can be happy, this is not the ending they should have!

With their age and strength, even death, it should be a glorious thing, is the end of life, is the respect of the sects of the sects, and the respect of the same people.

Now, in the end of the tower, it will be refining into a medicinal herb, and it will be taken up by Shen Lang!

Just thinking about this result is even more uncomfortable than death.

The elk of the "Second Palace", although it broke a leg and was seriously injured, but because the information is more intangible, everyone is starting to focus on him. I hope he can have something good here. Suggest.

"The consequences are very serious. I have personally experienced it. I believe that you have also felt it. I can't stand it, so I begged him, accepted the harsh conditions, and made him a dog, in exchange for a chance to go out."

“As a result, you also saw that when he didn’t need me to be a thug, even the dog was not willing to raise it, and once again threw me back, so I told you not to ask him, it didn’t work.”

“Once you are under control, you can always get us back.”

“I have no accurate and feasible way to say how to leave. But I have a more reliable advice!”

When it comes to this, the elk can’t help but look around.

In fact, in this tower, the space is special, and the shape of the tower looks different from the outside.

They can hear the words of Shen Lang just as if they came from above, so they will look up. But in fact, I can’t see where the Shen Lang is, and it doesn’t necessarily come out from the top.

Now, the elk’s move is naturally to see where Shen Lang is and whether he is concerned about their discussion in the tower.

Everyone else is the same, but now it is in the tower, even if they want to build a soundproof cover, it may not be effective.

Someone soon told the elk to use the method of sound transmission.

The elk was also adopted immediately, and they were directly discussed with them by means of sound transmission, so as not to be heard by Shen Lang.

The only way he can think of is to try it a little.

There was only one person before, and I couldn’t break the tower. But now there are at least three living gods. What if the three people work together at the same time?

This way has not been tried before.

Whether they were the individual actions that were later, or the two people who started, they attacked the tower and did not hit the power.

This suggestion says that other people feel that it makes sense. If you can combine the strengths of the three great gods and attack together, even if you are a towering tower, you can't afford it.

Just do it!

What kind of end of the elk is, they all saw it.

This is already a dog's leg. They ask for it again. They have to be a dog's leg first. In the end, this is the result.

It would be better to beat it!

With the plan, everyone is looking for a target.

Although the tower is a whole, it should be reasonable to have a weaker place. If you can find it, the chance of breaking the tower will be even greater.

Anyway, their plan is to be negotiated, and there is no need to worry about being discovered by Shen Lang for the time being.

Just when they had not selected the position of the shot, there was a sudden change!

There is still movement in the tower!

Whether they are three or injured elk, they are alert.

There will be movements in the tower, and in general, it will start again.

Shen Lang will not want to let them out, it can only be continued to absorb people coming in!

Who is this again?

After so many times before and after, no matter who is absorbed, they will not be surprised.

This is just curious, and which is the unlucky one to become a difficult brother.

But in addition to curiosity, they have a little more excitement and expectation!

Because according to the results of their analysis, the more powerful forces attack together, the effect is greater!

Elk himself has been like this, can't help a lot, can only come up with ideas.

Everyone has no way for him, but if you come in again, a great god.

With the power of the four great gods, there is no doubt that it is much stronger!

However, it is impossible for the tower to grow in a short time, and continuous absorption should be more detrimental.

This is a good news for them.

For a time, they patiently embraced the change...

The effect soon appeared. Suddenly, something came in, but it was not human, and it was not one, but many, very many, and the number of people who felt terrible!

This is not the swordfish in the glaciers in Zhoushan the kind of strange fish that is fast and can wear a sword.

Shen Lang is going to torture the elk, but after seeing him in, he can still confuse others, still thinking about “jailbreaking”, and want to secretly plan, and immediately prepare to make up a knife.

He immediately crossed the Kunlun Mountains and crossed the glaciers that had passed before.

Although he had collected the swordfish from that period twice, but now, there have been other supplements from the upstream and downstream.

So his appearance is to let countless swordfish attack quickly.

The current Shen Lang is completely fearless of them, can be absorbed continuously and calmly, and can't wait for them to come together, and the active upstream and downstream can quickly absorb and absorb.

Thousands, hundreds of thousands, millions, tens of millions...

Countless strange fish were received inside the tower!

Chapter 1793 - Yao Yaochi

These strange fishes have a strong attacking power, and the spikes can directly penetrate the sword. But what is stronger is their aggressiveness!

As soon as someone approaches, they immediately come to flock, do not know the fear, and do not stop attacking.

Before the wave, the two batches of income in the tower of the tower were refining, and the medicinal herbs had been taken before.

The single effect is limited, but the win is huge.

Now he absorbs these strange fishes, that is, let them harass the gods.

They thought that there were other great gods who were brought in and were looking forward to it. As a result, countless strange fish came in.

This makes them inexplicable.

With the strength of the Great God, of course, it will not be impacted by these strange fish. They move with their hearts and form a protective cover around them, and they are arranged aside.

But the elk is worse!

He was seriously injured by Shen Lang. After a while, he responded a little and immediately encountered a lot of strange fish attacks.

When he also opened the protective cover, although the strange fish can be arranged, but the use of vitality, and let the internal organs of the five internal organs are generally uncomfortable.

And as more and more strange fish come in, the density of flying inside is getting bigger and bigger!

They themselves do not attack and devour each other, attacking humans, or other living things.

When there are no other living things in this tower, they will attack the tower indiscriminately under the pressure of repression, but now, the first four people are attacking.

The corpse fragments of the great * and the half-completed corpse of the previous god, the one leg of the elk, also with the breath of human beings, without protection, directly became the target of the first attack.

With their number of hundreds of millions, almost an instant, they broke the complete holes and swallowed a clean!

The protective cover of the great gods, although very advanced and powerful, is a desperate shock to these unreasonable strange fish.

Elephants can easily crush ants, but if ants pile up into mountains, it will be a big headache for elephants.

After a few moments of protection, they saw that the living space of the tower was almost filled, and they had to kill the strange fish.

But the number of these things is really too much...

After Shen Lang absorbed tens of millions of glacial fish into it, he looked at it and he was relieved.

Although this does not kill them a few, it is likely that they killed these tens of millions of strange fish. However, this process will inevitably lead to a lot of attacks and will gain a lot of growth.

After killing, there will be countless strange fish in the inside, they want to attack the tower again, the effect will be discounted.

Among them, the injured elk will undoubtedly be the most embarrassing one.

Being able to contain them in the inside, can not break the tower, you can rest assured to stay in the space of heaven, let time to refine them.

When Shen Lang was transmitting with the Kunlun mirror of the Three Realms, he took the dog * together and let it also see the situation inside the Zhoushan Mountain to see the glacial unhealthy.

Then I have to go back to Yaochi.

If you go to Yaochi, Shenlang has two choices.

One is on the edge of Yaochi. In that area, I have been there for a few times. I am very familiar with it for a long time. I can locate it at will.

But when it is there, how to contact the snow in the Yaochi is a problem.

Xue Feixue is the head of Yao Chi. It is not seen by him. Like Gong Gong, he will not be informed. If Xue Feixue feels okay, if he doesn't feel it, then he may eat a closed door.

Moreover, Shen Lang does not know how to enter, how to report, after that, he can only wait.

Another option is to go directly to Yaochi!

Shen Lang estimates that it should be able to locate inside Yaochi, the place where the last event was held. Everyone else has gone in, and the palace has not been notified.

At the time of the last Yaochi event, I did not participate with the dog god.

However, there is nothing to visit. The dog  used to fight with the palace, and it was not very good to go in.

So let it stay in the space of Tianshu, while practicing, while watching the towers in the sky, if they are made to have signs of breaking towers, or if the tower is destroyed, it can kill them with ease. .

Then Shen Lang will go straight to Yaochi alone!

In the past ten days, I came back to Yaochi. So I didn't think of it so quickly. I thought I might not come over in the future.

But after coming in, he found a bad situation.

When I came out from Caohai, it was still in the morning, then I fought with the three great gods, and then followed the purple ancestors.

Then cross the Kunlun school, then deepen the forbidden land, unravel the magic weapon, and fight outside the mountain gate, and finally pass through, there are some turnover in the snow mountain, glaciers and so on.

By the time I passed to Yaochi, although it was not dark, it was already in the evening.

Because Yaochi is all female, the last time there was a bright and historic Yaochi event, there was no guest accommodation.

It was the deep wave left alone to help open the insurance, and it left before dark.

Originally, he came to visit this time, it should be more appropriate in the morning and at noon.

But now that I am here, I will explain it as soon as possible.

Such an outsider suddenly appeared in Yaochi, and there should have been disciples found by his disciples.

However, because the place where Yaochi is located is not easy to come in, there is usually no outsider coming in. The protection of the formation method also determines the outsiders who are not high enough in the realm.

A strong person like the realm of the great gods may come in, but for a martial art such as Yaochi, there will be such respect. If you try to break in, you will declare war.

Besides, even if there is a super-powerful person at the level of the gods who wants to break in, it will also cause snow and snow to pay attention.

Just like the last time Shen Lang and the dog * arrived, not only the palace went out Xue Feixue is also personally concerned, because the dog * itself is comparable to the realm of the gods.

Because it was seriously injured, snow and snow do not need to come out directly.

So I wouldn't have thought of someone entering Yaochi, and the strength of Shen Lang, the average disciple also had no time to discover.

However, snow is not snow, after all, snow is not snow, it is the * that can fly down the dog * without going out!

Even if the dog * was hit hard at the time, it can compare how powerful the snow and snow are.

Therefore, the disciples did not feel it, but such an outsider came in Yaochi, and Snow Snow was immediately felt.

Confirmation is Shen Lang, although she was a little surprised, but also a little offended, but still removed the warning.

But Snow is not a snowy person. Of course, he will not come to see the waves in person, nor will he contact him directly, but arrange for the palace to come over.

Chapter 1794 - Convince her

When Gong Gong saw Shen Lang, his expression was very unpleasant.

Originally, she did not like this frivolous young man, and this time she abducted the younger sister!

However, later on the top of the Yaochi event, Master was also treated differently, so that she could not reveal anything.

I thought he was gone, and this was the end of the matter, and it is generally impossible to come back.

I didn't expect it so fast, this kid is back!

And still directly into the Yaochi!

Of course, she was very unhappy. This is equal to her dereliction of duty. Some people even broke into the martial art and did not know it, or Master's notice.

“Follow me to see Master.”

Miyazaki's attitude is very cold and there is no politeness to invite.

However, Shen Lang does not matter, it is his rudeness.

"It's working."

He is also a simple guest, and he can't talk about Gong Gong, but he can guess a general, and naturally he will not ask about the situation of Fan Xueyu.

For other situations, this is a close-up. For the palace, here is no fun.

Gong Miao quickly came to a high platform in Yaochi with Shen Lang.

When I came here, I took everyone directly to a special area. Everyone had no chance to visit Yaochi. It was strange to this environment.

However, from this high-rise platform, the buildings that spread out in the surrounding open space are all bowed. It is not difficult to guess that this should be the residence of the head.

"The master of the division, the intruder has already brought it."

Before arriving at the high platform, the palace bowed to the high platform and then whispered a message.

This is of course only a procedure, with the strength of snow and snow, of course, clear.

However, Shen Lang noticed her use of words, "intrusion" and "to bring", which are all unfriendly and also expressed dissatisfaction with him.

Shen Lang slightly smiled, and did not compare with the palace, but the sound of self-reported on the high platform.

“Snow Palm Gate, Shen Lang has something to ask for, because I don’t know how to inform Yaochi Fairy, I will come in first, but I don’t want to blame.”

“Let’s come up.”

The sound of snow and snow was coming over.

Miyazaki heard Master’s instructions, turned and looked at Shen Lang, and snorted with a blank expression.

“Fly from here, pay attention to your attitude!”

What is the attitude, of course, is that he does not offend the snow.

Shen Langli ignored her and went straight to the high platform.

After landing, Shen Lang went inside.

When it looks like this, this is a high platform, but the height of a tower is not so special. It is relatively high in this Yaochi.

Just on the high platform, he found that the situation is completely different!

He is now on the high platform, as if walking the clouds!

Seen around the high platform, it is not the Yaochi landscape seen before, but it seems like the boundless sea of clouds.

This made Shen Lang secretly surprised, and immediately realized that this high platform is not only as simple as the head office, but should be a magical place used by Yao Chi to help cultivate.

“Shen Lang, what are you doing?”

The front is empty, but I don't know when I saw a fairy-like figure sitting in a white dress.

It is the head of Yaochi that is not snow.

In the realm of snow and snow, I could have communicated directly with him when Shen Lang just came in.

To go through this procedure, you have to come here and ask again, nothing more than to take a look at the shelf.

"I have something to ask for help."

This is to ask people to help, but also rushed into other people's sects, Shen Lang's attitude is still very good.

After the opening, he immediately said to the snow and snow for the past two days, and asked her to send a message.

Snow is not listening to the snow quietly.

After Shen Lang left Yaochi, suddenly disappeared in the surveillance of so many people, and then left a message to find a reservation for Gao Hanqiu, of course, she also knows.

When she left on the same day, she became bigger and let the Shen Lang stay, because many people outside were waiting to move him.

I didn't expect this kid to not only escape, but also killed one * after another in these two days.

Although there are some details of Shen Lang that have not been revealed, it is already very surprised by Xue Feixue.

The other thing she was surprised about was that she found that she had not seen it for more than ten days, but the strength of Shen Lang was soaring!

Suddenly, his realm has not improved, and he still looks like a peak.

But she was carefully observed about Shenlang last time. Now when Shen Lang tells her, she also observed him in close detail.

It has been found that the whole person has changed, and that is a change that is hidden, and it is to suppress the inner China that has not been shown.

She vaguely felt that the current Shen Lang can compete with the ancestors of the great gods!

Such strength, so leaps and bounds, has already hit someone else with a bad message!

Even if people do not underestimate the enemy, they will confirm his strength according to the observation of the day, but according to that, now is the effect of underestimating the enemy.

Coupled with all kinds of means and magic weapons, it is no wonder that he can succeed repeatedly.

“You let me send a message, is this going to make me offend people?”

“It’s just a message, how can you offend people? It’s me who offends people.”

“What are the benefits of my Yaochi?”

“The immediate benefits may not be there, but there are indirect benefits.”

“How indirectly?”

“I came from Kunlun, but I didn’t choose Kunlun to speak, but I came back to Yaochi not far away. It naturally shows that Yaochi is more authoritative and reliable. Others want my information and not available, but I am looking for Yaochi alone. The honor of Yao Chi.”

When the two came and went, Snow and Snow did not directly answer.

“Give me another reason to convince me.”

“...”

Shen Lang was speechless for a while. The reason he said was that he thought about it. The identity of Gong Yi may not be recognized, but the identity of Xue Feixue should be recognized for this reason.

There is another reason...

He didn't want to pay any price.

“I don't say how strong it is. With the current record, it is also a bit weighty. Choosing Yaochi is equivalent to adding a solid ally.”

Snow is not snow but shaking his head: “You killed many ancestors, such an ally, it is a lot of trouble.”

“...”

Shen Lang reluctantly sighed: “Snow Palm Gate should not be as sly as they are, really want to take my secret technique, I can already get started. Snow Palm Gate will not need any benefit for me...”

“The reason just now is not enough to convince me.” Snow is not snow but not loose.

“Open my record and openly because of their many actions, as well as Yu Yu's appointment, I will not make an appointment later. So, only Yaochi and Kunlun will open. The ancient treasure chest...”

Shen Lang only needs to say it here, not to mention later.

Since only the two factions have obtained the resources in the ancient treasure chest, if they are lucky, it is very likely that they will open up a lot of other sects.

And to a certain extent, it will let other sects find them to find out what is in the treasure chest.

This is equivalent to giving them a lot of dominance.

“Good.” Snow non-snow nodded and agreed.

After all, she did not pay anything. The Kunlun faction paid the lives of two people, Shenyang and Sufeng, and a lot of money.

Counting, of course, Yao Chi is the biggest winner, plus the indirect reason of the previous reputation, enough to let her promise.

Chapter 1795 - Shocked proposal

The purpose of coming to Yaochi has already been reached, and Shen Lang will take it for granted.

It's not that he is so realistic, but that Yao Chi is not convenient for guests. He wants to stay, but it's hard to do.

So when the business is over, naturally you should leave.

“What are your plans for the next time?” Xue Feixue did not respond to his words, but asked.

Shen Lang slightly stunned.

Is this a guest or a concern? With their familiarity, they have not reached such a point of concern.

However, since people asked, he also responded with a sentence.

“To be honest, I haven’t thought about it for a while, maybe I will walk around. Maybe I can go to Qiu Lin Jianzong, and Gao Laozu invited me.”

Although his relationship with Gao Hanqiu is not clear, it is obviously different from the average person. It is also normal to visit.

Snow is not a little snowy.

“If you reveal their identity, you will offend them. Others may also sum up the reasons for their defeat, and then do it for you.”

“It doesn’t matter, since they have to do it, I will continue.”

“But when you go to the Qiulin swords, you will bring the disaster to them, just like the Kunluns. The strength of the old ancestors is shocking, but Mo Zongzhu and other Jianzong disciples may not be.”

Her words are also quite reasonable.

However, Shen Lang is not afraid, and the cold and cold nature will not be afraid. On the contrary, other ancestors will be afraid of the cold autumn.

“Let’s stay in Yaochi for a while.”

“what???”

Shen Lang really feels like a question mark.

Just Snow is not the snow palm, was he invited to stay in Yaochi?

Didn’t you get it wrong?

Yao Chi is not even able to receive a male guest to stay, how can he let him stay with a young man?

His expression is not concealed, snow is not snow, no need to guess, directly at a glance.

“No doubt. Because Yaochi will not stay in the male guest, so no matter who hears it, you will feel that you just let me pass the voice, and then leave.”

“Oh... it seems to make sense.”

Based on the understanding of the traditional customs of Yaochi, it is determined that Yaochi will not be cracked by Shenlang.

For example, after the Yaochi event on that day, Shen Lang stayed alone, but everyone was waiting outside, and he left before dark.

This proves the tradition of Yao Chi, which cannot be changed for a man.

In this case, this time for the sound of Shen Lang, that is, mutual use, or mutual achievement.

No one will think that Shen Lang is hiding in Yaochi, and he will not search for Shenlang, nor will he be tired of Yaochi.

It makes sense to make sense. Shen Lang also feels in doubt.

He made a sound through Yao Chi, which was because he blocked other people and indirectly helped Yao Chi to promote and promote his prestige.

This is a win-win situation.

But what benefits can Yaochi get with him?

Although it is not necessarily the risk of being hurt, at least it will break their traditional ring!

Shen Lang believes in the interests. If you talk about friendship, you must have a very good relationship.

For example, he and the dog god, after experiencing life and death, this is already very iron.

But and Yaochi did not reach this level.

And the mysterious girl, and the Fan Xueyu, are not the same, but also experienced life and death together. But neither the mysterious girl nor the Fan Xueyu can do the Lord of Yaochi.

The head of snow is not snow, but it is not the head of Zheng Yu and Shen Yang.

She is comparable to the ranks of these ancestors, and the problem is definitely different.

Before she could figure out the true intentions of Xue Feixue, Shen Lang could not accept her kindness casually.

“Reassured! We have nothing to do with you. If you think that Yao Chi is going to hang you, you can leave at any time. Can you come in at any time?”

Snow is not snow, it seems a bit of accountability for him to break into Yaochi.

Shen Lang smiled slightly: “I can come in to Yaochi at any time. It is because the hands of Xuezhangmen are merciful. Otherwise, I will shoot me directly at any time.”

The two of them have been fighting each other for a round!

Snow is not snow means that since you have the ability to go through the Yaochi without our approval. Found something wrong, are you not ready to leave?

Shen Lang said that your strength is stronger than me. I stayed here. It is not so easy to go. You can shoot me at any time and control me!

“Just you, I am just kindly suggesting.”

Snow and snow have not persisted.

In her capacity, she will open such a mouth, and it is already a demeanor!

It was retained the last time, and it has been rejected by Shen Lang, this time again.

Can't you ask for your stay? What is Yaochi?

At that time I thought I was fascinated by him!

“Thank you for the snow palm.”

Shen Lang seriously thanked him.

Since others have no plans, since everyone's friendship is not deep enough, then this concern is worthy of thanks.

“Of course I don't doubt the snow palm, it is even more fascinating for Yaochi. It is my great honor to be able to hide here.”

Snow and snow did not speak, waiting for the turning behind him.

“But even if I don't get tired of Yaochi, I don't dare to let Yaochi destroy me for thousands of years. If I really want to hide, I can choose to be near Yaochi.”

Shen Lang said what he said, he does not want to owe such a person!

Besides, staying in Yaochi, he can't say it, just leave and go. In the outer circle of Yaochi, it is convenient and free. If you want to go, you don't need to talk to anyone.

Snow is not looking at him: “Is there anything else?”

“Oh...” Shen Lang was a little embarrassed, he was not looking for an excuse.

“From your words, I have not heard that you are not willing to stay in Yaochi, but you don’t want to be tired of Yaochi. Even if you don’t get tired, you don’t want to destroy the rules of Yaochi.”

“Yes.” Shen Lang is a bit inexplicable, isn’t that enough?

Isn’t this very euphemistic?

Do you still want me to say that I don’t want to owe people?

Just say it out and you will be embarrassed!

Snow is not snow, but it seems that he did not see his thoughts, but continued to say it.

“In fact, the tradition of Yaochi is also good, and the rules are also In fact, they are all flexible.”

“...”

Shen Lang secretly frowned, he didn’t want to change it!

If the rules are changed for him, then the person is a little heavier.

I thought that they had been seriously injured and fled here. Fan Xueyu wanted to ask the palace to let them go to Yaochi to heal. At that time, Shen Lang didn’t want to, just want to stay nearby.

When he thought about how to refuse it would be better, Xue Feixue said a suggestion that surprised him.

“You can choose to marry Yaochi. Then you are not an outsider, but the son-in-law of Yaochi. If you stay and live, you will not violate the traditional rules. Someone will find a door, and Yaochi can support it.”

Kissing! Yao Chi Nuwa!

This is also the taste of the !!

Chapter 1796 - take them all

“This... not very suitable.” Shen Lang is slightly awkward.

“How is it inappropriate?” Snow is not a question.

“Uh.....”

Shen Lang hesitated for a moment, and this can not be said that he did not want to, it seems to be abandoning others. To be known as “Yao Chi Fairy”, to be able to get married, it is a blessing and a happy event for everyone.

And now, in this case, if someone wants to help him and propose such a plan on his own initiative, he must take better care of the feelings of others.

“For the fairy tales of Yaochi, I am very respectful. If I am tired of the reputation of others, it is hard-hearted. Besides, people are not necessarily willing, if it is the opening of the snow palm, It’s equal to putting pressure on people, so it’s not good.”

Just snow and snow are just suggestions for “kissing”, and did not say that the goal is “Van Xueyu” or “Mysterious Girl.”

Therefore, Shen Lang is not good to say directly, but instead uses “people” to refer to it.

However, he felt that it should be said that Van Gogh, the mysterious woman is a disciple of the cloud, and the generation and strength cannot be compared with the van Gogh.

Fan Xueyu is a genius of talents and is the pillar of the future that Yaochi vigorously cultivates. It is also a rare means to make a kiss with him.

“Your concern... it makes sense.”

Snow did not snow and nodded: “If you rely on my authority to pressure, not willing, the result is not good.”

“You are right.” Shen Lang is busy with the second line.

“That is to say, as long as the other party agrees, and you don’t feel the reputation, you have no opinion? – No pressure, purely voluntary premise.”

Snow is not snow, watching the waves.

“...”

Shen Lang is speechless, I feel this seems to be a pit!

He just said that it is a perfunctory excuse. According to the saying, Xue Feixue should be able to understand it and will not know what to say.

But now it seems that it has already obtained the consent of the woman, just waiting for him.

“This... of course I don’t have any opinions. For me, it is already a high climb. But...”

Xue Feixue interrupted his “but” and directly said: “You have no opinion, and I have no opinion. Just say so.”

“Uh.....”

Shen Lang had to remind me: “Since the snow palm is not an authoritative suppression, if you open your mouth, the fairies will not be disobedient after all. So...you have no opinion, you still need to seek the opinions of the parties.”

“Do you mean Van Gogh? Or should I talk to her first.”

The mysterious woman said last time that she was practicing in a retreat. The probability of Fan Xueyu was much greater. Shenlang would have no embarrassment and asked directly.

“Don’t you feel bad and tired of others? So this party is coming by me. I am not afraid of being tired and have no opinion.”

“...”

Shen Lang heard almost a soft fall!

“You, you mean...”

“I suspect that my old woman, I feel that my old cows eat young grass? Just such a nominal statement, I will not treat you like?” Xue Fei Xue said slyly.

Shen Lang could not help but smile.

He has just been shocked by this answer.

In addition to the most likely Brahma, he considered the target of the second choice, even the little fairy, who appeared in the target.

However, I did not think of it. Xue Fei’s goal of dating is actually her own!

To say that she is too old, this is not because, because snow is not on the surface now, it is more like a beautiful young woman, not a bit of an old woman.

The realm of great deity can no longer be measured by the age of ordinary people.

It is psychologically that he was not too young at the time of his life and would not feel unconventional.

Ordinary people's impressions of mythical characters, such as the fairy, do not think that this is a thousand-year-old woman, ancestor, and still a young and beautiful fairy image.

Shen Lang will not disappoint snow and snow, just as it will not be greedy with Fan Xueyu.

But the problem is that he and Xue Feixue only met for the second time, and there is no feeling at all!

If it is the words of Fan Xueyu, or the mysterious girl, it is also a risky adventure. Everyone has had time to get along and have a certain emotional foundation.

Even then, Shen Lang did not think about being jealous and making a relationship with them.

Suddenly I said that I had to get married with Yao Chi's head, and it completely shocked him.

"Snow Palm Gate, I am very grateful for your help, not to be disgusted, not to do anything, but really can not accept, this is disrespectful to you."

After Shen Lang's discretion, he decided that he could no longer use ambiguous enthusiasm, but must make clear his own ideas.

"My girlfriend and my nephew are friends of the seniors. You are the head of her predecessors; I and Fan Xueyu are also friends of the peers. You are her master."

"So, this is not possible, and it is a mess."

Shen Lang secretly speechless, he just wants to let Yaochi help to speak out, this is a reciprocal thing. Didn't want them to be sheltered, how did they become a snow palm door to recruit?

Snow is not snow, but he followed his words.

“Mysterious girl and Fan Xuexue are not equals. You can talk to their peers separately. Of course, you can also talk to my peers. We, of course, do not need to follow the common mortal.”

“...”

Shen Lang is speechless. He does not believe that Xue Fei will like him. He can look at him. Naturally, it should be for the benefit!

When others use the means of robbing, she uses the means of kissing to fix him!

When I think of it, he has nothing to worry about, looking directly at the snowy eyes.

“If the snow palm door says so, then I don’t come by, I can’t do it all?”

“...”

This is the next turn of snow and snow is speechless.

Regardless of the sound appearance or the identity background, she is a first-class one. If she is willing to recruit her, she will be lined up from the younger generation to the ancestors.

Now she is taking the initiative to personally make a kiss with Shen Lang, so that he can live in Yaochi with great brightness, and he can also be his backing. Don’t worry about other people moving him.

He is still not satisfied!

I still want mysterious girl, Fan Xueyu and her, Yaochi Fairy of three different generations all!

“Children, don’t be too greedy. Can you eat it?”

Looking at the attitude of snow and snow, Shen Lang also put up a serious.

“Snow sister thinks I can’t eat it? You are the biggest, you can arrange it.”

Is this for her to make a big room? There are also two rooms, three rooms and the like?

The eyes of snow and snow are facing each other.

“You want to open a condition that I can’t agree with, but you are not afraid that I really promised? At that time you have no retreat.”

Shen Lang smiled and said: “You think that I have to say everything, you, Van Xuexu and Xuan Nu, are you not afraid that I am talking about all Yaochi fairy?”

Although Miyazaki is so old-fashioned, there is absolutely no idea at all. But you don’t have to do anything!

Chapter 1797 - Question

“It seems that I still underestimate the thickness of your skin.”

Snow and snow shook his head and sighed.

Seeing her like this, Shen Lang is not at ease, it seems that he is only ridiculing him, and he will not really put him in the shoes at any cost.

If Xue Feixue really doesn’t care about his personal reputation, but also to hold him, it is really a little trouble, and today may become a self-investment.

“That is the head of the country, Shen Lang dare to let go.”

“Okay. Don’t be scared, just kidding you. I want you not to be so constrained, don’t be wary of me.”

Snow and snow began to get serious.

“It seems that you have your own arrangements. You are not convenient to say that I don’t know much about it. In general, as long as you are in Yaochi, we can protect you. When you leave Yaochi, you must face yourself. The road is over.”

In the end, Yaochi is the foundation of the millennium, and it is very confident to say this.

Not to mention that they still have any secret means, and do not say that the beast and the beast, the light is the strength of Xue Feixue, it is probably just under the cold autumn!

Shen Lang is also a true color: “Thank you Snow sister.”

Since she said that she should not be so constrained, she said before that she can talk about the peace, and Shen Lang has nothing to worry about.

With his current strength, he is already qualified to make a deal with Xuefei.

This time, Shen Lang is confirming the intention of Xue Feixue, so I am very grateful!

Before she left last time, she had already said something similar, and she also presented a bone flute so that if he had just come out and suffered an ambush, he could summon the sacred beast to spoil.

At that time, of course, I was wary. Even if this bone flute really can summon, I dare not try it.

Now it is even more convinced that snow is not snow.

Perhaps she also uses a moving way to achieve her goals, as long as there is no harm to his heart.

Snow is not a smile, “How do you thank me?”

“...”

Shen Lang slightly glimpsed.

Snow and snow are certainly the side of mature beauty, but it can also be regarded as a smile. Before the Yaochi event, not to mention the upside down, it is also a spring breeze.

However, Shen Lang has seen more beautiful women in this world. The girls around him are not bad, and the media on the earth are developed. The beauty of different races, ages and ages can be seen at any time.

Film and television circles, various beauty contests, network reds, and so on, are almost screened in the billions of countries around the world, saying that it is not a million to pick one.

So whether it is a young Fan Xueyu, or a mature snow or snow, then beautiful can not let the waves stop.

He reacted now, but he did not expect Snow Snow to mention this request!

According to his estimation, Xue Feixue is self-aware. He will not directly ask him for the ancient secret technique, but will continue to give him benefits, making him embarrassed and letting him share it.

What does it mean now?

Look at his reaction, snow is not a little helpless.

“You kid, the thief is too heavy, and you are fortified everywhere. You are willing to talk to me, I will not be polite with you, I want you to give me a portrait. Where do you want to go?” ?”

Shen Lang can't smile.

“This is awkward... I think Snow Sister is not such a person, but I did not expect you to be interested in portraits.”

“Of course. Everyone is interested, everyone is envious of Xiao Yan.”

Snow is not a woman in the end.

Even with her realm, she can stay young forever, but after all, it is not true youth, and there is still a difference between it and Van Gogh.

After the appearance of the portrait, it will never change.

Besides, even if the face changes, it is very pleasing to have a portrait of a true portrait.

It is for the people of the earth, there are thousands of photos, and I still want beautiful and more beautiful photos, inventing beauty and body cameras.

He used the portrait before to give a gift to the flower fairy.

“I am honored to be able to enter the eyes of my sister.”

When Shen Lang spoke, he immediately took out various guys and professional cameras. Just above this high platform, he simply took a set of photos for Xue Feixue, then imported it into the computer and printed it out.

This is better than the photo taken for the Persian Fairy. It is better and bigger.

And this is watching the busy waves busy, so that snow is not very satisfied with snow.

After all this, it was already in the evening, and Shen Lang wanted to say goodbye again.

However, Xue Feixue does not seem to calculate this, but has a strong interest in understanding him.

“I have a problem. According to Xiao Yan, you and the beast * are both very seriously injured.”

“Yes.”

Shen Lang nodded, there is nothing to hide this. When they came to Yaochi, the palace and the dog gods fought. Snow and snow were all shots. It was clear that there was no report from Fan Xueyu.

“When you attended the event, you have no scars and recovered very well. Rest assured, you have your secret method, I am not convenient to ask.”

Snow and snow are naturally curious, but knowing that this involves the secrets of other people's sects, it is everyone's embarrassment to ask.

“I am curious about the beast god, it is not hurt. Listen to what you said before, it can also help you fight, but also against the ancestors. Can it recover so quickly?”

In addition to the recovery speed of the dog god, it is also a problem.

Shen Lang slightly stunned: “In fact, there is a misunderstanding, it is not my mount, animal pets, etc., but a friend of mine, a friend who is stronger than me. Some secrets, I also respect privacy. “”

He did not lie in this sentence. It is completely telling the truth. In the face of snow and snow, it is completely calm.

Snow is not a faint smile: “This is right, I am curious, ask directly, no scruples will make you suspicious. You also say it directly, don't worry about what I think.”

Shen Lang can only maintain a polite smile.

They really are not so familiar!

He also didn't want to have a deep friendship with Xuefei Snow Gate!

He is prepared to leave his words, or else he will continue to go on, there may be embarrassing topics.

However, the words were blocked by Xue Feixue.

“That is from the Kuafu family?”

“what?”

“Your beast  friend.”

“Oh... you said it is a Kuafu... a family?”

Shen Lang is really confused.

Kuafu is naturally familiar, and the mythical legend “Kwafu chasing the sun” giant praises the father.

Shen Lang’s past life, I feel that this is a myth and legend. The modern interpretation of this world, “Kwafu” is probably an ancient tribe of primitive society. It may be relatively tall and finally extinct and die due to drought.

After coming to this world, many myths and legends of nouns and characters have responded, so that he also has a way of interpreting the realm.

Kuafu... Is there a Kuafu family here?

Chapter 1798 - Kuafu legend

“Khao Fu and the day go, enter the day. Thirsty, want to drink, drink in the river, sputum; river, sputum is insufficient, drink Daze in the north. Not until, thirst and die. Discard his staff and turn it into Deng Lin “”

“In the northeast of the Great Wilderness, there is a mountain name and a fierce plough mound. Ying Long is at the South Pole, killing Yu You and Kua Fu, can not be re-appeared. Therefore, the number of droughts, drought and the shape of the dragon, it is heavy rain.”

“In the midst of the great wilderness, there are mountains and famous monasteries in Chengdu. Some people smash two yellow snakes, and the two yellow snakes, the name 曰 父. After the birth of the letter, believe in the father. Kuafu does not force, want to chase the sun, catch it Shibuya.”

“If you sip the river and you are not enough, you will go to Daze, but you will die here. You should have killed the princes and killed the princes, but went to the south, so the south is rainy.”

“The West is ninety miles away, and the mountains of the fathers are praised. The woods are more than a bamboo, and there are many bamboo arrows. How many beasts? The cows and the rams, the birds are many, the yang and the jade, the yin and iron. The north has Lin Biao, the famous Taolin, is a three-hundred-mile wide-scale worker, including many horses. The lake is out of the water, while the north stream is injected into the river, and many of them are jade.”

“Khaofu does not measure the strength, wants to chase the shadow of the sun, and goes to the valley of the valley. Thirsty wants to drink, go to drink the river, squatting. The river, the sputum is insufficient, will go north to drink Daze. Not until, thirst and die. Abandon Its rod, corpse paste is soaked, and Deng Lin is born. Deng Lin is a thousand miles away.”

There is no perfect conclusion about Kuafu’s ancient myth. The giant Kuafu, the descendants of the Houtu, the mountain of Kuafu...

The message that Shen Lang now gets from the snowy snow is that the world has a boastful father, and after a moment of confusion, he quickly searched for the memory of the elk.

Ginkgo Valley is also an ancient martial art. The elk is also the ancestor of the great god. Even if it is not as good as snow and snow, it should be known if it is a common sense thing.

There is a boundless wilderness in the West, and it is said that in the great wilderness, there is a giant race. They are born with great incomparableness, not the shape of the great gods who rely on external forces to change.

The Kua fathers are infinitely powerful, destroying a mountain and playing with them. Generally no one dares to provoke them.

Probably also because of the huge gap in physique, so that they do not bother with the Terran. I have always lived in the great wilderness.

Over time, this has become a legendary thing.

Just like the place where Tianducheng is now, many low-level monks will think that Yaochi and Kunlun are legendary ancient sects, and it is not necessarily true.

In the memory of the elk, the same impression is given to the giants who praised the fathers. I think that one may be an ancient legend.

Maybe someone used to go to the Great Wilderness expedition to try it out. The result was a strong one. Others shot and killed in a giant pose, deliberately letting them go, letting the giants boast of the existence of their fathers, so that no one dares to explore. Exclusive resources.

There is a flower fairy in the grass sea, and it has become a legend.

When Shen Lang was confused, he came back to God.

In the eyes of snow and snow, his confusion is not pretending, but she does not know what the origin of Shen Lang is. It can only be said that the background is strong.

Therefore, she did not think that Shen Lang did not know how to praise the father, but thought that he did not think that the beast * and Kuafu had a connection.

“It seems that you really have not inquired about its privacy, it really is respect for friends.”

She sighed a little, and this was a little regrettable, and there was no lack of appreciation.

“It’s really big... I call it a sacred behemoth, but I never thought it might be related to the patriot.”

Shen Lang responded calmly.

“I didn’t see the true size of the body, but according to Xiao Yan’s description, and what you said, it should be very huge. This is very rare among the beasts.”

Shen Lang nodded.

He banded the land in the Golden Valley, and he also saw the tide of the beast. In the mysterious valley where the ruins were not traced, he also saw many beasts.

The stronger the beasts, the bigger the physique will be, but basically the corresponding ethnic groups.

For example, the iron armor red dragon is inherently larger, and the king level and the beast * level are only bigger. The same is true of the dragon and the swallowing.

But some other beasts will not be infinitely big.

This is different from the world of behemoths. It should be caused by the special environment of the world. All the beasts and races are very large.

According to the historical information in the temple of the temple, the ancestors of the dog gods are really just a pet dog!

It was only after the world that it slowly evolved into the size of the Emperor.

Because I have been to their hometown, this time I came here, from the world of giant beasts. Therefore, there is no relationship between the dog * and the Kuafu in the great wilderness. This is very confirmed.

“Maybe it’s related to praising the father. It may not matter. I just want to mention it.”

Snow and Snow did not continue to talk about this issue.

“You leave!”

“...”

“Don’t you always want to leave? Your heart is afraid that I will leave you.” Snow is not a little teasing.

Shen Lang hit a haha: “Really, it’s going to be dark. I am a man. It’s not convenient to stay here. It’s time to leave.”

Snow did not snow and nodded, indicating that he was going down from the high platform.

“Oh... the last time I said it to Van Gogh, I have a chance to come to Yaochi as a guest. This is also a guest. If the snow sister informs her, it is a greeting. Or let her send me out, I don’t ask for it. I have taken the liberty.”

On the one hand, it is out of courtesy. On the other hand, Shen Lang uses the door of the Three Realms to send away. Snow and snow can definitely find out.

“Let Xiao Xiao see you, of course. But... can you take her out and experience it? After she was taken out by you, my heart is already wild, and I have no intention of practicing. It is better to go out with you.”

“Well, this... I think she is still better at Yaochi, and I can ask you at any time. Follow me out, the risk is too great.”

Shen Lang immediately resigned.

The Vulcan and the Elk are not the same. The elk can’t let him follow, and the Vulcan itself has no problem.

But according to the meaning of snow and snow, what is experienced is an excuse, it is clear that you want to match them, let them cultivate more feelings!

The snow-female self-recommended marriage is perhaps a teasing joke, but it is a great possibility to combine him and Van Gogh to achieve the goal in a roundabout way.

“Let’s leave.”

Shen Lang thought that Snow and Snow would continue to talk about it. I didn’t expect her to let him go quickly.

In order to avoid long night dreams, he quickly quit his voice and went down from the high platform.

It is like a high platform in the cloud, it is still as natural as going up, but after it has settled down, it is no longer the feeling of the cloud, but the Yaochi that has been seen before.

Miyagase is still waiting for him there!

She is going to send him out personally before dark!

Chapter 1799 - Communication magic

After sending Shen Lang out of Yaochi, the old-fashioned palace, who had been cold-faced, did not leave immediately.

“Shen Lang. Please pay attention to your behavior! No matter what method you have, the next time you sneak into Yaochi, don’t blame us for killing you as an enemy!”

“...”

Shen Lang did not come, it was not reasonable, listening to her words, did not justify anything.

“Don’t have any fantasies about the younger sisters! The younger sister is my sacred daughter of Yaochi. I will take over the head of the army in the future. Don’t try to abduct her!”

“...”

Shen Lang was a little sweaty. He came over this time and didn't want to abduct Van Gogh.

I saw it as a friend before I left, and I was too snowy and I didn't want to see you again.

However, the words of Miyazaki made him a little surprised.

In the case of the Yaochi event, the palace should be the successor to be trained. She is qualified enough for her seniority and strength. Xuefei Xue is also training her to take care of others.

Although she has always been carrying Van Gogh, but this has been a bit of cultivation, Van Gogh, even if there is a chance to take over, will be after the palace.

Now listen to her meaning, what is the name of the Yaochi Saints, which is destined to become a successor?

With the light age of Fan Xueyu, there is such a strength, it can be seen that the talent is high, and Xue Feixue is vigorously cultivated by this close disciple.

“You have to worry about it. I came here just to visit the snow palm. Even the snow palm door invited the Yaochi to become a son-in-law of Yaochi, but I have already refused.”

Before Shen Lang was called by her predecessors, but now she is called Sister Xue Xue, and naturally she does not need to call her predecessors.

When Miyazaki heard this, her eyes almost came out and did not hide her shock.

However, even if she did not wait to see the waves, this is outside the Yaochi, Shen Lang did not dare to arrange Master's words.

That means that this should be true.

Whether Master is a temptation, a joke, or another intention, she is not allowed to question.

“You please come back.”

After Shen Lang finished, he flew away directly, leaving the palace to be silent in the waters of Yaochi.

After leaving a certain distance from Yaochi, Shen Lang entered the space of Tianshu.

He doesn't need to hurry all night, but he doesn't have to stay and find a place to rest. In the space of the book, time can be much more comfortable.

It is not known how Yaochi will spread the news, but I believe that these ancient sects should have special contact methods.

For example, the Yaochi event, can not be sent to disciples one by one to find the past?

Not to mention the distance of tens of thousands of miles, like the Kunlun School, in the huge Kunlun Mountains, it is not easy to find the martial art directly.

Shen Lang tried to search for the memory of the elk.

Ginkgo Valley is also an ancient martial art. There should be similar contact methods. Maybe you can refer to it.

Soon there will be an answer. In the Ginkgo Valley, there is a communication magic weapon that looks like a jade.

Just like the Ji family token that Ji Qiandao gave him, he can interact with the other Ji family.

These jade-shaped communication magic weapons are capable of transmitting information over long distances, including text, sound and influence.

In the specific application, it can be sent in one-to-one or one-to-many.

This is already a very historic thing, and it is the elk that is not clear when it was first discovered. It may be the time of a certain Yaochi event.

The strongmen of the major sects gathered together. It was not easy to think about gathering once. If there were no major events and they couldn't get together regularly, then the great  of refining made such an idea and created a batch of such communication magic.

In fact, the factions also have similar communication items, but they may not be as good as the distance, or they may integrate with their own martial arts and cannot share information with outsiders.

This communication magic weapon is generally controlled by the person at the head level. There is no information at all, and it is impossible to hold it at any time, so once this information is available, it will immediately remind the perception.

Shen Lang was searching for it. In the storage ring of Shen Yang and Zheng Zheng, there was such a jade. Before he cleaned up, it was the token token of their respective sects. They didn't care.

There are two kinds of harvest, and Shen Lang is satisfied.

This should also be with obvious traces. If you send a message, others will know that this is from the Ginkgo Valley and Kunlun School, so he is not very convenient.

But he doesn't need to send anything himself, so just look around.

I don't know if Snow and Snow haven't sent the information yet, or because they can't receive it in the Tianshu space, neither of them has any reaction.

Shen Lang is now thinking about where to go next.

After he came in, the dog  immediately opened his eyes and looked at him.

The dog  is a cultivation method with human beings. It is higher than other behemoths, so it progresses faster and more efficiently, so that they have stood at the top of the food chain for generations and become the behemoths.

But with the enormous advantages of the body, it is also complementary, and it is much simpler than the cultivation of human beings.

Shen Lang did not discuss this issue with the dog god, but in fact everyone has a heart.

That is the  of light!

They came from the world of giant beasts and wanted to challenge the  of light and let him understand that neither the earth nor the world of giant beasts could be played by his so-called  of the upper bound.

The result was also very smooth, from the ten apostles to the dark and the bright apostles, all the way to the past.

However, when it finally came to the light of God, there was still an unattainable height.

Others don't need to come out, just a spiritual will, you can crush the waves, you can make him and the dog  almost drowned.

That is to say that others are teasing and playing. If they really want to kill them and avenge the apostles, they will not be struck by him for a long time, and they will be annihilated directly!

What kind of realm is Light God?

This time it is not known about Shen Lang.

Because of his previous life, that is, the height of the Great God, he has already exceeded the upper limit of the Earth's space, and began to encounter the catastrophe, and finally fell.

Now this world He has touched the height of the Great God again at a speed dozens of times faster, and now he is suppressing himself.

Nowadays, it has been able to compete with the ancestors of other great realms, but it is still completely incomprehensible to the  of light.

Bright God, is it a super god?

The same level as the cold autumn?

A higher level than the cold autumn?

Then he is... true God?

Everyone knows what they are looking at, and they don't know what to say. For the defeat of the God of Light, or the heart is unwilling, and want to be prepared, then go to the next one!

However, even now that the dog  has recovered its peak, Shen Lang is more powerful, but there is still no confidence in challenging the bright god.

It's just that there's no big point in going to chaos, or killing a group of believers and even apostles.

To do it, dry up the gods.

Chapter 1800 - Go to the wilderness

“The Emperor, I also want to do it for a while, but we still can't do it now.”

Shen Lang smiled a bit.

For the elk and other people, you can use the magic weapon such as Shangyu Tianta, and the information asymmetry of strength. And these things can't work in front of the bright god.

Even if he finally relied on the space of the Bible, he would be controlled and taken away by the other party.

The Kunlun mirror of the New Three Realms, the last time they have successfully left with them, but it is very likely that the Light God wants to see what he does, or else the time when the artifacts are started is enough to destroy them.

Now Shenlang has merged with the wheel of the sky, and it has obvious predictability, especially in terms of danger.

The elk was hiding there and it was foreseen. The Baihua Fairy was also predicted there. The Kunlun faction also predicted that it would not be dangerous to come to Yaochi.

On the top of the snow peak, ambush by the elk, it is a deviation.

That was because he sent the elk to leave, then entered the space of the heavenly book, and then counted the spoils. At that time, even if there was a dangerous prediction, I didn't think much. I didn't expect it to be an elk.

Now Shen Langguang is thinking about the * of light, there is a deep feeling of danger!

This may be the subconscious manifestation of the shadow of the heart, or it may be the foresight of the wheel of the universe.

Listening to the words of Shen Lang, the dog * is also very helpless.

It can be so convinced of Shen Lang, in addition to life-saving, but also because its confidence has been weakly hit.

The extent to which the bright * is so powerful to the incredible, and the presence of a group of human powers that are not inferior to it, has subverted its imagination.

The last time I came here, I did not encounter a strong person in the realm of the gods. The strongest is the dragon elephant beast, with the help of Shen Lang and the killing warrior, let it swallow it.

Originally digested the dragon elephant beast, and some big fairy, can make it more powerful. After going to Earth, the strongest Tula elders are just like this, and it makes it full of confidence.

Even Augustus, the * of light, did not make it any threat.

Therefore, at that time, the dog * really had a mentality of “the sky is only the only one in the sky”, thinking that even if it is a bright god, it will certainly be able to turn over.

“Where are we going next?”

The dog * is also helpless, avoiding talking about the light * that affects the mood.

Shen Lang listens to this meaning, obviously not wanting to be the world of giant beasts now.

He himself is the same mentality.

If it is a win, it is a triumph, it is full of confidence and joy to go back. But now I have suffered a fiasco. Before I can't make this bad breath, I feel that I have no face to go back.

Going back now, there will be a feeling of escape.

Because when I go back, I won't come back easily.

Both are sighing...

In this world, on the one hand, it is to prove that in order to breathe a sigh of relief. On the other hand, there are more possibilities and more opportunities than the world they are familiar with.

If Shen Lang is going back to Earth, it is not so easy to make a sudden leap forward. The world of giant beasts is also constant. It is difficult for dog gods to make progress quickly.

Where are you going next?

Shen Lang is also considering this issue.

Now through the sound of Yaochi, let everyone know that he will not go to a family to help open the treasure chest.

But others will not give up looking for him!

Those who have made an appointment, even if they will condemn Yu Yu and others, will also find the waves, because they have not made mistakes, and cannot tear their promises to others because they have made mistakes.

Those who wait and see may still sum up the experience of others and continue to start with Shen Lang.

Therefore, his voice, but it is to hide his whereabouts.

The original person can follow the appointment plan and set him up in advance, just like on the way to the Kunlun School.

But now he doesn't go anywhere, other people don't know where to look for him, maybe he will come to Yaochi, maybe he will go to Qiulin.

Thinking of this, Shen Lang feels that he can't stay in this neighborhood!

Because others will not attack Yaochi, there may be some people waiting for him here.

The news has just been sent out, it is too late, but if you come over, he will appear again, it is not easy to do.

The enemy can fight directly, but if it is warmly invited? Reach out and not smile!

Before Shen Lang was prepared to go to Qiulin, the sword was always going to go. Gao Hanqiu was a lot of help. The last time he went to Tangcheng, he also stirred up a lot of trouble and added a lot of trouble to Qiulin.

But now think about it, the place he plans to go, but to trouble others.

For example, when you come to Yaochi, you will definitely let some people gather together. Even if it is not directly harmful to Yaochi, it will also be a monitored effect.

“Go to the Great!”

“Great waste?”

“I heard that there is a vast expanse in the land of the West, there is a kind of giant living in the father, and maybe you can find a companion.”

“...”

The dog  is listening to Shen Lang’s business, and the last sentence is ridiculous, making it speechless.

It can’t find a companion, nor can it be a Terran, even a giant.

“Haha, saying, your gods and behemoths, it seems to be a single pass, how is it passed down? This is to a certain extent, just get the other mother beasts?”

Shen Lang is really a bit curious.

Because according to that history, the original transmission of the past world is just a dog.

I don’t know how many years of hardship, how many years of evolution, let it become the Emperor of the Emperor, standing at the peak of the world.

I don't know the giant beast gene there, because it has influenced it in the past, or its descendants. It is affected by the genes on the other side, and it is getting bigger and bigger. With the present Emperor?

The dog * directly eyes, then closed his eyes.

“You can arrange it.”

It is too lazy to pay attention to the gossip problem of Shen Lang.

Before Shen Lang, he still said that he respected privacy with Xue Feixue. He was also embarrassed to ask the origins of the dog gods and how they were passed down.

Looking for the Kuafu Giants Finding a companion for the dog * is of course a joke.

But in fact, to be more true, this is not an ethical beast and a person, because to this extent, it can already be adult.

For example, the White Snake Pass is already a love story of the ages, and it will not be considered a beloved orc love.

Modern people also have love stories about Sun Wukong and Zixia Fairy, and they don't feel like people and beasts.

The dog * can transform the human form, and there is no problem with the Kuafu giants, even the ordinary people.

But now is not the time to say this, Shen Lang will suddenly decide to go to the vast wilderness, because this is a whim!

Even he himself is a whim, even the legend of Kuafu, but also inspired by Xue Feixue, or else he would not have thought that other people would naturally not be able to guess and analyze, and could not find them.
