Chapter 180 - Death forest

Shen Langbaiyan: “What is hard to guess? Look at when you are specifically, if it does not affect me to challenge Chu Mo, maybe I can help you a favor.”

Xie You can't help but ask: “You...you still want to challenge Chu Mofeng? You all admit that it was because of lack of understanding. Now that you understand that he is the master of the real world, do you dare to challenge?”

He has been a bit rude, using the words “to be bold”.

“Why don't you dare?” Shen Lang shrugged: “Even if he is a master, a real person, or a person, a person can be defeated. Besides, I still have a month, I can also practice hard.”

It was Xie You's turn to give him a blank eye.

He estimated that Shen Lang is also the peak of the Yuan dynasty, but the actual experience and experience are hot, and the single strength is the five realms of poor wind and wind. Is this a month of hard work and hard work to make up for it?

“What attitude do you have?” Shen Lang frowned. “I don't want to give you a face in the morning. You are still a polite person. Now give you face, are you not happy?”

Xie You smiled bitterly: “Shen Lang, I am not afraid to tell you the truth! I can't help you to our home. I am very sorry that it is a pity, but come over tonight, mainly to persuade you to say a word – hurry to escape !”

“Escape?” Shen Lang glanced at him.

“Because you openly called the Chu Mofeng, this news will soon spread tonight. Because of the face, Chu Mofeng will definitely restrain the Chu family, only for you, not to move your family and friends. If you escape and hide, they will take the time to find you.”

“roll!”

Shen Lang said with no anger, although Xie You is out of good intentions, but he has only publicly declared war, and he has escaped. What is that? Still shameless in the future?

“You let me roll, I have to finish. Leave, hide. This is the best choice for you!”

Just like before hitting the Chu River, Xie You insisted on his point of view.

“I don’t need to escape.” Shen Lang shook his head: “According to what you said, since Chu Mofeng is so identifiable, he should not be able to pull his face and directly kill me. He even thinks that facing my challenge is already insulting. His identity. So it will be in this month, arrange people to solve me.”

Xie You stunned. He did not stop talking with Shen Lang. He did not expect that after Shen Lang heard the identity of Chu Mofeng, he had already had some analysis when he was talking.

“In this case, I don’t need to face the master of the real world directly. The only thing I have to face is the monk who is still in the virtual world. It is better to deal with it. It is also a free master to give me a free practice. I usually go there to find it. Good sparring!”

The optimism of Shen Lang made Xie You shake his head helplessly.

“You are... I heard that Chu Mofeng is a real thing. If you compare it, you will feel that it is still in the virtual world. It is very good. You are wrong! You have to imagine that Chuhe is also abolished. When the time is won, he is still a light enemy. This is the peak of the Yuan dynasty, but also the virtual world is more than a big realm! This is what you should compare, rather than comparing them with the real world.”

Corrected a bit of Shen Lang, Xie You stood up: “Forget it. You are a strong person, I can’t convince you, let me do it!”

“I didn’t want you to convince me. I asked you, really don’t want me to help you? At least I have time to help you before I fight with Chu Mofeng.”

Shen Lang has already sent two Lingshi as a thank-you, but it does not owe Xieyou what kind of human feelings. I will ask again now, it is really a bit curious about their affairs.

If it is a competition, in fact, there is not much meaning, the reward is transparent, that represents the Xie family, and inevitably should be given to others.

However, if you enter the test site and ancient relics, there is a lot of room, and maybe you can get any big benefits.

Xie You hesitated, and sat down again: “You heard that... forget it, you have never heard of it. I will tell you a little about it. This place to go is called the Death Forest!”

“Death forest?” Shen Lang is a bit speechless, what is the name of the ghost.

“You must have never heard of it. It is not the one you have in the geography textbook. This is exactly where I am. I don’t know it. This is a forbidden place in Death Valley!”

“Death Valley?”

Shen Lang thought that like Ye Jia, Da Xuanmen, and Ling He Quan, many of them mastered the secrets of the tomb of the King of the King. They were mastered by the wealthy families of Chu and Xie, and they did not expect that there would be another death valley master.

“Death Valley is a place and a martial art. They are very mysterious and powerful. The dead forest was originally a forbidden place they had. But now it has fallen, so they are willing to share it...”

The dead forest is like an orchard, and the Death Valley is guarding the orchard. They don’t have enough manpower and resources to clean up the orchard, they sell tickets. If the outsiders are willing to go in and pick them, they will pay for the tickets. Then they will pick them up and pick them up.

And if the people who go in are killed by poisonous beasts inside, they are not related to them. If it is too big, or if the fruit is not mature, there will be no harvest for a long time, and they will not refund the money.

In addition to the fact that the death forest itself is extremely dangerous, the asking price of Death Valley is not low. If it is too cheap, the various people in each door will be piled up.

Because Death Valley can be manipulated to open so it has not been fixed for many years. But it is expensive and the family is difficult to support. Generally, a number of martial art families unite to create a spiritual stone, part of which is for the Death Valley, and part of it is the loss of the death forest entrance law.

Originally, it is a matter of interest, so it is relatively fair to distribute the quota according to the proportion of capital contribution. If the cost is fixed and the quota is fixed, it will be too bad if one of the sects does not have a younger disciple of the age. Can not be strong for the number of places, it may be sent to death.

On the one hand, it is costly. On the one hand, it takes time for younger children to grow up, and another dead forest needs to recuperate, so this is not always the case. Generally, it is once in ten years and eight years, and you can grow a young person.

Of course, it will be negotiated in advance, but there are exceptions. For example, after five years, a family genre has a very talented younger child. If you wait a few years, you may miss the age and start in advance.

But in this case, the martial art launched in advance will have to bear more Lingshi. For example, if it is 20%, it can get 20% of the quota. In this case, the corresponding quota may be 30%.

This is the case this time, one of them was launched in advance. Xie's preparations are not so full, so I will consider introducing foreign aid.
