

THE FIRST STRONG

Chapter 2 - Back to school

The boulder burst thoroughly, although the sound was a bit big, but it didn't move very quickly. No one nearby lived, and it wouldn't attract attention.

With the power of Shen Lang, it is of course impossible to break the boulder. Just a small array of methods left before was cracked, and the boulder fell directly.

Before he passed, he felt a familiar energy.

Inside the cracked boulder, there is a piece of jade that exudes luster. When the waves burst, it feels its change.

This is a small object that he used to carry. He has been able to raise his temperature and keep it as a treasure. At the time of the robbery, this jade also helped him block a few thunder, almost becoming a waste jade.

Considering that you have to come back after the reincarnation, this thing is the best auxiliary in the early days, so it is buried in this boulder and protected by the array.

Looking at it now, in addition to his breath, hundreds of years have also condensed a lot of heaven and earth aura, although far less than perfect, but much better than when it was buried.

After starting, Shen Lang immediately ran "Yin Yang Bo Ruozhen" and absorbed a lot of aura into the body. This speed is much faster than his practice. With his current condition, he will soon have to stop. Otherwise it will not be able to bear it.

If the aura is thick and thin, it is likened to the level of air humidity. It is absorbed from the air, just like the dehumidifier. The more humid it is, the more obvious it is.

Now the effect absorbed from the jade seems to be direct water release!

Shen Lang did not stop, went home and found a string, hanging jade around his neck. This way you can absorb it a little bit at a time, faster than the natural state.

But now he needs to change it first, or consume the vitality of the body, for example, to quench the body, in order to continue to absorb. Either impact the higher realm and can accommodate more energy.

It is not easy to consume the vitality of the body, but it is not a matter of time to upgrade to a higher level. After considering it, Shen Lang is not in a hurry.

From the village, the bus can go directly to the county, about half an hour. Today, Shen Lang did not wait for the bus, and ran directly along the road to the county town!

Originally his body was very sick. Although after a night of practice and practice, the situation was much better. But now, running up, I quickly realized all kinds of discomfort. The legs were as heavy as lead, and the heart and lungs were even more It is like a burst of fire, but also breathless.

However, Shen Lang did not stop. He ran and adjusted his breathing and rhythm, and he ran “Yin and Yang Bozhenzhenzheng”, spreading the vitality throughout the body and quenching the muscles and muscles. Slowly, from the legs to the heart to the breath, they began to ease.

After running for more than half an hour, Shen Lang stopped and took the bus.

He has some perseverance. As long as he runs and manages, the body will not be able to bear it so quickly, but his speed is not fast now, and the distance is far away. This will go to the county, at least until noon.

On the bus, Shen Lang closed his eyes and raised his spirits. He ignored the outside world and continued to operate the “Yin and Yang Bozhenzhenzheng” to refine the body he had just exercised.

The extent of this exercise is of course not enough, but it is a very good start. It consumes a part of the vitality, and allows these elements to strengthen the body, so that he and yesterday have a clear gap.

When he came to the middle gate of the county, Shen Lang glanced deeply. Here in the past few years, he can be described as a painstaking effort, but in exchange for the teacher’s disregard, the classmate’s ridicule, and even all kinds of oppression.

Starting today, let them re-recognize the waves!

On Sundays, only high school students make up classes, which are basically self-study, and the campus looks very quiet.

Shen Lang slowly walked in. As he walked to the high school classroom, three boys ran quickly and rushed to his side. Then one left and one right grabbed his arm, and another one hugged his neck from the front.

The way they look now, even if they are seen by a teacher or security guard in the distance, can be seen as a common shoulder-to-back between boys. The three boys “passionate” surrounded the waves, leaving the direction of the teaching building, but heading towards the playground.

Behind the toilet next to the playground, they stopped, and here is a blind spot of view, not coming close, no matter what happens.

“Paralyzed! I thought you didn’t dare to come!” The student with a sullen head pushed his head.

These three are the people who often oppress the waves, Dong Wenbin and his two younger brothers Lin Yun and Li Rong.

Dong Wenbin is not a light bully, it is like bullying, bullying in the lower grades, girls are also bullying! In the third year of high school graduation, he is generally not bullied, and there are still Shenbo bullying and no scruples.

His family is not short of money. His father Dong Dawei is the owner of the battlefield and monopolizes the river sand business in the county. It is a family of over ten million. Other students spend a hundred or two hundred yuan a week, and more than three or five hundred, he will not be less than a thousand.

It is not enough for him to buy a game prop and reward the live female anchor~ ~ but he enjoys this fun!

For example, Shen Lang, even if it can only scrape ten or dozens. It can directly affect the quality of life. Just think that Shen Lang has no money to buy food and buy food, so he is very cool.

In the past, Shen Lang was blocked by these three people in this corner. There is no other way. He can only endure it silently. He only wants to be blackmailed as much as possible. For this reason, he will also put money in advance. The points are hidden in several places.

But today, the Shen Lang is different. He hasn’t struggled with Lin Yun Li Rong at the moment, just staring at Dong Wenbin who just pushed his head.

“I have endured you for a few years, and for the last two months, are you still not converging?”

This is a very calm statement, but it has already brought a hint of chill.

However, Dong Wenbin and Lin Yun Li Rong three, not only did not hear the wrong, but also feel that Shen Lang, a sick coward, dared to provoke them!

“Receive your mother! The last two months are left, the more you have to engage you more! Two hundred pieces are not good to take over, but dare to talk to Laozi, I think you are shameless!”

Dong Wenbin is very savvy, and extorting two hundred pieces is calculated. Too little is meaningless. Too many parents will find a school when they are suspicious, and it may be a big problem.

Shen Lang can get up to three hundred at home, paying the data fee, extorting two hundred, leaving little left, and half a year of hungry.

And he usually hits people, and so is it. No matter whether it is punching or kicking, it will not go to the exposed face of the face or the palm of your hand. The place where the clothes were blocked, swollen and red, the parents did not find that the general teacher was fine, and the bullied ones often did not take the initiative to complain.

Just looking at the attitude of Shen Lang, he was very upset, saying “shameless”, directly slap a palm to the face of Shen Lang!
