Chapter 211 - Tang Tujia

If the Shouyang ginseng is not discovered by Xie Jia at all, but they have heard this secret and attempted to  it, then it is reasonable to say why it will be marked on the map!

However, Shen Lang still has not moved, ready to look at the situation first.

After a while, the two men have arrived.

Let Shen Lang be a little speechless, they did not find the cave first, but first came to the water pool!

“Look! I said there is water here.” The rainy sister smiled.

“Hey? There is a smog in this pool, but there is no fog around.”

The rain fell and I observed it very carefully. I talked about the abnormal place.

Her sister squatted directly on the edge of the pool: “It is not easy to explain this pool.”

She directly reached out and interviewed the water in the interview, and then surprised: “It turned out to be a hot spring!”

Then she sipped a little bit of water and smelled it: “But there is no mineral smell like sulfur, unlike ordinary hot springs, but I can guarantee that it is safe and non-toxic.”

“The voice sorcerer knows the water best. If you say that there is no problem, you will definitely have no problem.”

The sinking waves are at the bottom of the water. At this time, they have already stopped to practice, but they are very embarrassed.

Where is this hot spring? It is because of the temperature of his body that the water is still warm.

I am afraid that they will find out that he wants to sink to the bottom and kneel down, but he does not dare to move too much, or else he will be more shocked.

The voice singer should be a cultivating practice to understand the water. After confirming that there is no problem, both hands hold a handful of water and sip the sputum to the grass. Then re-watered and even drank a few mouthfuls.

This makes the waves under the water very speechless. Even if you know more about water, don't drink the water outside. This is a pool of stagnant water.

But what I didn't expect was that the rain would be the same as the water, and then drink water!

The voice sighed and said, "Several  in Haitian Town, don't let me meet, or else they can't lick their skin!"

Falling rain is still as light as ever: "Now they will not be single, we are few people, we can't be mad, we must be more careful."

"Hey! They don't know that this girl can easily find the water source, thinking that stealing our food and water will make us hungry and thirsty!" The voice is still spit.

The rain fell and sighed: "There was nothing, but they chased us for one night and the demand for water increased."

In normal times, the monks in their realm have no problem not to eat or drink for a few days. But every day you have to run a hundred or two miles of cross-country exercise, even if you can endure hunger, you still need water to supplement.

This is also why the food that Xie Xun prepared for them was a day, but the water was three days.

The two girls, who should have loved cleanliness, actually drank the raw water outside, and Shen Lang began to be speechless, thinking that it was a hobby. I didn't expect to drink rain, but now I have learned about it from their conversation.

It seems that yesterday, three people in Haitian Town, met or tracked and found them, and they robbed the food and drinking bags without their defense, and then did not know whether they had a misconduct or a different Have a picture, actually chasing them all the way.

When I ran here, the two people had a lot of water consumption, and the voice was only looking for the water source here.

Shen Lang is now even more embarrassed. He changed the food and water prepared by Xie Xun. He also threw it after knowing that there was a problem yesterday, but he was prepared to have water.

They could have been given to them, but they did not expect that they would suddenly drink water. He was at the bottom of the water and wanted to stop it. It was even more inconvenient to show up.

Although they consume a lot of water, they don't have any cows. Let's stop and relax after a few drinks.

After talking a few words now, I lowered my hand and drank it.

“Wait a minute!” The rain suddenly slammed the hand of the voice.

When the voice came over, I reached out to the water and picked up a handful of water. This made the calm water surface awkward. Then she is holding the water again, and the cockroach is even bigger.

So the rain fell and did not find anything with the water, but just two people stopped to say a few words, the water pool has returned to calm.

At this moment, I will hold the water again. When the hand has not touched the water, it is still calm, and the visibility is much better than that of the waves.

“what happened?”

“Look at the following... Is it like... oh...” It’s a bit nausea when it rains. “Is that a corpse...”

“Ah?” The voice almost jumped up and then stared at the bottom of the water.

The water is very clear, with their eyesight, in this not too deep water, you can see a person. And people will not move in the pool, the only thing that can be explained is that the victim is in it!

Shen Lang heard their remarks and felt a little sympathy for their experiences. It was possible and capable of providing help in the rain. Whether it is food and water, even protecting them.

But people just drank the water in the pool. Although he was not dirty, he spent a night in it, which is a bathing water...

Originally, it was inconvenient to appear, and I was prepared to wait for them to leave, and then look for opportunities to keep up with the occasional encounter.

I didn’t expect the rain to be discovered!

And her guess is that there is a body under the water!

Compared with the living bath water, it is even more disgusting to know how long the body is soaked.

In order to prevent them from vomiting, Shen Lang quickly jumped out of the water!

The rain and the sound of the rain all saw that it was a humanoid object. I wanted to confirm whether it was a corpse. Suddenly, I suddenly jumped up the sky and scared them back a few meters and made a warning.

But the vomiting is down. Whether it is a human being, at least it is a living thing!

“Don’t worry, it’s not a corpse, it’s me! Shen Lang!”

People are scary and scary, Shen Lang can imagine the surprise of both of them, so when they leap, the mouth has already reported to the door.

When he fell on the edge of the pool, he quickly wiped the water on his face with his hands, and then wiped the pressed hair over his head, so that the rain could recognize his face.

“Shen...wave?” Rain fell on his eyes, and he did not expect that the previous second thought it was a corpse. It was actually the three-year classmate’s Shen Lang.

The voice is called: “Ah! You are a wave, it is a metamorphosis!”

Shen Lang thought that he did not stop them from drinking “bathing water”, only to make him perverted. He said a little embarrassedly: “You suddenly appeared, I didn’t have time to react, but I didn’t expect you to drink water. Actually... actually I just got into the water, I It’s very clean, so much water... you’re just swimming in the pool.”

Falling rain and reaching for the hand, also blocked the eyes: “When... when did you get into the habit of not wearing clothes and talking to people?”
