

First Strong 214

Chapter 214 - Truss does not act

“Oh, someone is angry and angry!”

“Hey! Tout you a sentence called your fairy, don’t tout you what bad? Two monks make up three dogs for men and women!”

The voice was trembling, and the one who pointed at the ugly voice screamed: “Hai Rui, are you looking for death? Do you believe that I have shred your mouth!”

The voice response was so big, and the side waves and falling rains were still calm, which made them all four people look at them more vigilantly.

If you are not attacked by such a personal attack, either it is very good to cultivate Kung Fu, you can be super-external, or the city is quite deep, and the mood is not indifferent.

Everyone is a young man. It is the age of anger and the strength is not weak. According to the statement, it will not be carried forward.

Shen Lang slowly opened: “The voice of the sister, do not have to see them with a group of waste, the dog is screaming at people, do we have to go back?”

In fact, my voice is a bit uncomfortable. She knows the cold character of falling rain, so it is a normal reaction to not speak.

Can Shen Lang be a man, the sister also said that she is her boyfriend, so insulted by other men, did not open it back, or a man?

I heard him a little now, but I felt a little bit like it, but it was still not cool enough. It was too hard.

“You are the sinking wave? One of the following dog slaves who have committed the pit owner, what qualifications are there to talk to Laozi?” Or the one called Hai Rui, directly sarcasm.

The following dog slaves who made the pit master!

Shen Lang suddenly understood, although Hai Rui used the ugly words to come out, but in fact this is the image of Chu Yunfei's external communication!

It's especially rare to be ugly into such a way that you can still believe and support him.

"Three in Haitian Town, and the Tama School with him, first report your name. I will dig your tongue later. I can lick my mouth, but I have to pay for it. The price is a bit higher!"

The voice shook his head and it was really a pair with the sister. This level of swearing is not good! Or does it mean that Shen Lang wants to maintain the image of Si Wen in front of his sister?

She took a sigh of relief and straightened her hands on her hips: "I will introduce you! This face is a bit deformed and called Hai Rui. When his mother gave birth to him, he used his strength to smother his head!"

Hai Rui's face is green! He actually asked himself to be handsome, and his face was long and thin. I didn't expect it to be described as such, and it was directly to his mother!

"This Golden Retriever dog is the Miao Yong of Haitian Town. In fact, he is more suitable for green hair!"

The other one was furious again. He dyed his yellow hair. It was more fashionable and fashionable. He did not expect to be gilded for the first time. He said that he should be green on his head!

"I don't know if it was black or was contaminated with hair, called Situ Yang!"

When this came out, everyone was first glimpsed and then reacted. Situ Yang was the darkest of all the people on the scene. So the beggars let the blacks or the donkeys get infected with the genes...

"In the end, this is not a human, the horse's flattering. A martial art is a horse – send it!"

The face of the horse group is going to be darker than Situ Yang. He is talking to the three people in Haitian Town and actively aligning with them – willing to be a vassal younger brother. That's because they are weaker. There is only one person this time. If you don't, you can't live safely!

Now the voice of the voice, he did not even have the qualification to introduce the name, and directly smashed them to the entire martial art school!

It's a bit curious to see Shen Yin's posture as a shrew, and it's a bit of a curiosity when I hear these words!

I didn't expect her name to be a squeaky voice. It was like a scorpion priest who was a scented sesame officer.

“Hey! The mouth is so stinky, you ate!”

“Your mother was contaminated by cockroaches!”

“You are paralyzed! Believe it or not, I will kill you!”

Hai Rui not only spoke in his mouth, but also took the lead in them, and waved at the moment to stop everyone's drinking.

“Don't be fooled! We don't want to be irritated and forget the business!”

After he finished speaking, he said to the voice: “Yuanyin! Yesterday evening, we are going to discuss it with you. As long as you hand over the map of Xuelinguo, you will get something else, we will not manage it, but we can still Let you follow, and keep you safe!”

Shen Lang heard this and could not help but secretly nod. Even if there are a few beasts in Haitian Town, they can also get the time and place. Even if the color is heavy, it is only a matter of convenience. It is impossible to spend a night chasing them.

Xue Lingguo is probably the key target of the Tianshan Ice Palace this time, and it is also the elixir that the former disciples are optimistic about.

“Why don’t you hand over your mother?” The voice slammed back directly.

“We used to have a map, and we are not interested in a few bad things! You are going to blow you up now!”

“Grass your father! Grass your grandfather!” The voice is arrogant roar.

“You don’t think too beautiful. If you want to do it, we will take turns to run your sister. If you look at it, we will only vent your anger when you vent your anger!”

Hai Rui is very proud of his counterattack, and has already made his voice irritated and out of control.

This time it was a bit more, but if you catch up with him, you will start directly. Four to two ability pressure, four to three can win, or pay a price. So he still has to test it, what is the level of this sinking wave.

Chu Yunfei said that Shen Lang’s strength is not good, but there are many intrigues and tricks. You can’t give him a chance. If you see it, you must kill it first. But he still has to be careful.

“Noisy!”

When the voice was about to fight back, Shen Lang shook his head and said, then he took a fierce step and went to Hai Rui!

Hai Rui, a few of them, are paying attention to Shen Lang and falling rain. When he sees him, he will immediately defend, but the speed of Shen Lang is too fast. Hai Rui has no time to counter or defend I feel that one hand is holding my neck, and then the whole person can’t move.

While several other people are coming close, they find that Shen Lang has already arrested Hai Rui and returned.

“what are you doing!”

“Let Hai Rui let go!”

Situ Yang and Miao Yong watched Shen Lang seize the core of Hai Rui, and Hai Rui did not struggle at all, and did not dare to move.

“You are a sneak attack, I am not convinced! And, I warn you, if you dare to move me a hair, it is an enemy in Haitian Town! We will let you die without a place of burial!” Hai Rui reluctantly said the threat if.

As soon as Shen Lang’s hand was lifted, he grabbed his chin and squeezed it with force. He immediately dislocated his jaw and opened his mouth.

“Although it is disgusting, but said to dig your tongue, still have to do...”

Everyone was horrified to see that his hand straight into it, grabbed Hai Rui’s tongue, and then pulled it out with a force, and directly broke a tongue out!
