

First Strong 217

Chapter 217 - Erase memory

Both Xie and Haitian Towns have been here, and they all feel that this is a temple because in this dead forest, within the 10,000 square kilometers they explored, this may be the only building to see!

To say that it is a building, in fact, it is also very simple, that is, some giant stones are stacked up. But it is obviously not born, but artificially processed, and it is not clear about the specific use and who built it, so it is called the temple.

It is a temple, and everyone is with awe. Whether it is a predecessor or a group of people, it can do this in this dead forest, and it does not have strong strength.

It is not a masterpiece of God, it is a strong man's admiration for God.

"This is the temple... It is very grand, I didn't expect it to be in the dead forest, there is such a building, I really don't know how it was made..."

Standing outside, Ma Yansong could not help but mutter, revealing reverence and yearning in his eyes.

This temple is as tall as dozens of floors, and the boulders are all built to a length of tens of meters. These seemingly minimal estimates are at least tens of thousands of kilograms, and large hundreds of thousands of pounds are possible.

Don't say ordinary people, powerful comprehensions, can't do it easily, let alone the giant trees in the vicinity, these boulder should be shipped from afar.

It's hard to imagine how this was built, and it's not natural. Because of this, everyone who sees it will be revered and praised as a temple.

"This is where you say there is a mine?" Shen Lang sighed.

Ma Yansong, who was excited, heard the words and his face became ugly. This look is not like a place with a spiritual mine. If there is something in the temple, the predecessors have already come and have taken it away.

“I, I did not lie to you ... is Hai Rui, they lied to me!” Ma Yansong smiled.

“You let me go, I... I still have value! If there is anything you need to take risks, you can let me go ahead, there are organs and beasts, let me take risks!”

In order to survive, he does not hesitate to make a * that he will abandon at any time.

However, the chess pieces, even the abandonment, are not qualified for anyone!

Shen Lang looked at him, did not speak, Ma Yansong already understood what the consequences were.

“Would you like this... There are still two days, you let me go, I will go looking for the treasure of heaven. I will give you my harvest by the time, as long as you let me live!”

He is anxious now. “Your strength is far better than me. Everyone will go back in the same place. If I don’t cooperate, you can kill me anymore!”

Shen Lang slowly said: “We have no grudges...”

“Yes! I have no grudges with you. I am completely respectful to you. I admire the five-body cast. It is an idol in my heart. If you like, I am willing to follow the left and right...”

Shen Lang interrupted his habitual ass. “If you just say that you are not good at the Tianshan Ice Palace, I will kill you and be too overbearing.”

“It’s my mouth smelling, I was unintentional at the time, there was no malice...” Ma Yansong immediately gave himself a few mouths.

“Do not blame you.” Shen Lang shook his head.

Seeing that he was so amiable, Ma Yansong gave a sigh of relief and waited for him to say the final result.

“You are tired of Haitian Town. I killed them all. If you don’t kill you, wouldn’t you have trouble finding me after Haitian Town?”

Seeing that he wants to swear, Shen Lang stopped him: “It’s useless, only dead people will not leak. In turn, if Haitian Town killed the two girls in the Ice Palace, whether or not I participated, you will also take me. Destroy the mouth.”

Ma Yansong’s face was immediately pale, and Shen Lang’s so eloquent reasoning was not to let him go, but to explain to him why he wanted to kill him!

“Through my tongue, I can’t speak, can I do this?” He yelled, then put the items he carried: “This is all my things, I hope I can spare my life!”

“You can’t talk and write, cutting your tongue will only make you hate me more. As for your stuff, killing you is not the same?”

In the words of Shen Lang, Ma Yansong was desperate and almost fell down.

Originally, this time, you should desperately desperately. However, he had seen the three spikes of Shen Lang against Haitian Town before, so that he could not afford to resist.

“But... I decided to let you go.”

The sudden turn of Shen Lang, Ma Yansong did not surprise, he did not expect, Shen Lang thought, and responded to that sentence – only dead talent will not leak. How could it let him go?

“You want me to run away, then kill me from behind?”

He smirked: “I am not a man who is not rude. I want to be flattering just to live. Since I have to die, you have already hit me once from the back. This time, let me watch you kill me!”

“I said... it is to erase your memory of these two days.”

Shen Lang is not teasing him, there is no need for it. He was really impressed by Ma Yansong's will to survive. He was very reluctant to die. Ma Yansong did not give up at the last moment. He could try his best to live. This is a kind of respectable will.

When I heard this, Ma Yansong was really surprised. In addition to following a few people in Haitian Town, he was only verbally unsatisfactory. Even the accomplices were not counted, and he was not allowed to kill himself.

If you can erase his memory, you don't need to destroy it.

"No problem, please erase the memory for me!"

Shen Lang hesitated and grabbed his head.

Erasing memory is not a general spell, but it is done by strong mental power. Just like a movie in the movie, or a flash can be done, of course, just the entertainment settings.

Before Shen Lang said that he controlled Mo Qi, it was similar in spirit, but at that time he only scared him. When he was sent to leave the bleak, he also thought about using her  to attack.

Now, with the "Yin and Yang Bo Ruozhen" breaking through the third weight, his spiritual strength has also been greatly improved, it is really easier to do.

Ma Yansong is not prepared for Shen Lang, because it is easy to kill the waves. It is not necessary to carry out the tricks, so it is the relaxation of the whole body and the invasion of the spirit of Shen Lang.

After a while, he closed his eyes and the whole person lost consciousness and was completely controlled by Shen Lang.

Shen Lang searched his memory for these two days and found that he basically did not lie. Hai Rui did say this to him. I also learned that they met Chu Yunfei's situation. The insidious guy was illusory and deliberately wanted to attract others to attack him.

Finally, the memory of Ma Yansong's two days was erased, and after he was in a coma, he was thrown directly into the forest, and at least he would wake up for a long time.

Shen Lang himself picked up his things and returned to this magnificent temple of megaliths.
