

First Strong 220

Chapter 220 - Million tempering

A punch has already verified the strength of the other side!

Shen Lang had to raise his predictions for this person again. He thought that it might not be inferior to the mid-term of the virtual reality. Now it seems that it may not be late in the virtual world!

This also fully shows that the other party is definitely higher than his realm.

There was no big grudge, just to drive him away. It is the best policy to leave according to reason. It is not a shame to be driven away from this level of strong territory.

However, Shen Lang did not want to leave, he wanted to verify his own limit!

Because after he went out, he had to face a very powerful enemy – Chu Mofeng.

Chu Mofeng is a master of real life, and should be stronger than this person. After he went out, there was a fight! But there is no understanding of the truth.

The opponents that have met before, the strongest is the peak of the Yuan dynasty. There are four or five realms in the middle. Without a transition, it will be very passive.

So now I am confronted with this mysterious powerhouse who may be in the late stage of the virtual world. He just happens to be a transitional sparring.

Since it is necessary to challenge its own limits, Shen Lang will not use external forces, including no swords. Just use the power and speed of the individual to go around with this mysterious powerhouse.

After the palm of his hand smashed a punch, the middle-aged man was amazed, and then his eyes radiated with exquisite light and began to accelerate again!

Between the time, his body became a residual image, surrounded by the surrounding waves, and may attack from any angle at any time!

“Roar–!”

Shen Lang violently screamed and shot a punch out!

When he went out, it seemed to be a random attack with no purpose, but it was hit on one of the virtual shadows, which is exactly the entity of the middle-aged man!

The speed of that person is very fast and dazzling, but it is relative to the average person.

The Shen Lang who practiced the “Phantom Meteor Step” is not only very fast, but the eyesight is also very amazing – otherwise you can’t see it when you are fast.

So he can hit the opponent’s body accurately, but this time it is not hitting the palm of his hand, but hitting the other’s chest!

After the “squeaky” sound, the man’s body quickly flew out to the back, until it hit the trunk of a big tree!

When he punched in his body, his voice was not loud, but when he hit the trunk, it made a loud noise, and the whole uncle trembled a few times. Many leaves were shaken.

Shen Lang could not help but sigh, it looks very miserable, but it is actually an opportunity to unload!

Although the trunk is hard, it is different from the hardness of steel or brick wall. He transmits power from the body to the back of the tree, and the damage to himself is small.

Of course, the wall can also use the same method, it may directly knock a wall down, and the steel wall is in trouble.

The man had just struck on the trunk, and there was no change in the next moment. He flew directly and it was already in front of him!

The speed of this force made the Shen Lang unexpected, and had not had time to block and dodge. Finally, the man grabbed his arm.

Then the man was still flying fast in the forest, and grasping the body of the waves, it is constantly going to the trees and stones!

Shen Lang lost an opportunity, and it was too late to struggle, but immediately made another preparation – using the “King Kong is not bad spirit” defense!

This is the case, and this way down, it also makes him feel sore.

Because the speed of the person is too fast, Shen Lang was directly caught and rushed for dozens of times, but the time is actually only a second or two!

After a second or two, the defensive waves broke back and he made a counterattack. He punched the other side’s waist!

Although he was unable to borrow power because he was caught, the other party could not dismount the force. It was a hard punch.

After a punch, Shen Lang felt that his body had vacated and flew out, and was thrown to a huge stone!

He quickly reached for the front to support!

As long as it is not the head to the boulder, under the defense of “King Kong is not bad body spirit”, lying on the boulder will not make him seriously injured. However, with both hands holding the boulders in advance, you will be able to stand on the ground.

But when the palm just touched the boulder, he knew it was not good!

After the man broke the man out, he did not stop, and the speed of flying with him had already caught up behind him. At this moment, he kicked his back in a row!

“Come back!”

The sinking waves that fell on the ground, swayed and screamed, and continued to impact the man.

Facts have proved that this is a stronger than his realm, and the other party has not killed his heart, so he can get such a strong partner, it is a good thing that can not be met.

Shen Lang is not disappointing, nor is it a competitive heart, but cherishes every second of exercise.

In the eyes of the other party, this young man is a small strong who can't die, even if he has been smashed dozens of times hundreds of times, the thick trunk is broken, the stone is broken, and he can't let him yield!

Both of them are quick to play, and there is almost no stopping when the waves are knocked back or knocked down.

So for half an hour, the two people have been amazingly more than 10,000 times!

Most of them were resisted or dodged, but some of them were hit.

The part that hits is probably that Shen Lang hit the other side hundreds of times and was hit... at least two thousand times!

Seeing that the sky is dark, the mysterious strongman is impatient: “Mad! You come to me and kill you!”

He was not stupid, and soon realized that Shen Lang was using himself to temper himself and to use him as a sparring partner.

He didn't stop or leave, but it was too lonely here. I don't know how long it hasn't met anyone, so it's good to be active.

After the Shen Lang hit him hundreds of times, there was no big damage to him, but Shen Lang did not know the pain and fell again and again. Looking at him was full of scars, but still spirited !

Let him think this kid is a fighting man...

Shen Lang, who was knocked down again I don't know how many times I've stood up again, and I'm still excited about the blood donation. Today's battle is really hearty and rewarding him!

Although he had a rich experience in combat before, but the body of this world can not keep up, just now both sides are very fast, there is no time to consider so much, it is forced to integrate his consciousness and body. together.

And tens of thousands of fights, but also got excellent training and reinforcement, can really play the past experience as instinct.

“Come back...”

When I said this, I saw the face of the mysterious strong man under the dim!

This makes Shen Lang a little sweaty, as for it! Basically, I am beaten. What are you afraid of?

But he immediately discovered that it was not because of him that the mysterious powerhouse had quickly rushed in the direction of his residence!

What has changed? Although Shen Lang was scarred, he followed it up.
