

First Strong 237

Chapter 237 - 3000000

Wu Lao was very embarrassed, but he also saw that the young man was very confident about his own things and should have a certain source. And it doesn't mean his identity. If they don't want it, they really take it away.

"Little brother, don't be excited. It's not that I can't see my eyes, but..."

He pointed to himself and smiled bitterly: "I am just this age. When I was twenty or thirty, I still dare not say how powerful I am. When I have been in the last one or two decades, I have been in the mountains for more than a hundred years. Almost none of them have appeared."

He put the bag of Shen Lang on the table and took it out and looked at it.

"Of course I have seen it, but some of them are dry collections. I have never seen a new one that has been dug up for more than a hundred years. You don't believe that you don't want to go to another house. If you don't think it is a few years of artificial cultivation. !"

Wu Lao's words are very sincere. If it can be solved here, Shen Lang does not want to run more, and then sits down again.

"Dare to ask the little brothers to be psychologically priced?" Wu Lao put down the ginseng and asked a sentence.

Shen Lang said casually: "10 million."

"..." Wu Lao was speechless.

"Do you think it is worth the money?" Shen Lang asked coldly.

This is not just a hundred years old ginseng, but it is brought back from the dead forest, which contains abundance of aura, making this ginseng a spiritual level.

Wu Lao smiled bitterly: “This is not a question of worthless. As the saying goes, things are rare, and I don’t see how much I can see. It’s a hundred years. The new century-old old ginseng is really huge. the value of.....”

“That is what you can’t afford?”

“No, I mean. This thing can’t be afforded by ordinary people!”

Wu Lao personally gave Shen Lang tea, in fact, Shen Lang did not drink, he is a little bit of tea meaning.

“You think about ginseng, except for medicinal use, its value is more as a tonic. Don’t say that the average person can’t afford it, even if it is a local rich man, can not care to take out 10 million to buy ginseng, at least tens of thousands of people. Billion?”

“Now, don’t look at a lot of media reports. Who is tens of billions? Who is hundreds of billions? It seems that billions of people can rank hundreds. But these are virtual, and most of them calculate the market value of shares.”

“In the face of the big bull market, and the speculative stocks, many have skyrocketed dozens of times hundreds of times. When the stock market crashed, many people’s wealth can fall by billions of billions...”

“Don’t talk to me!” Shen Lang frowned.

“Yes, yes...” Wu old piled up and laughed: “These you definitely know, I mean, there are 10 million people, but ginseng is a consumable. If you use it, you can get one thousand. There are not many people who come out to buy ginseng. If you can get it, you can believe that ginseng works less!”

“Don’t circle.” Shen Lang reminded him again.

Wu Lao took a breath: “Your things are definitely worth the price, but we are not confident that we can sell this price. Finally, this thing is likely to become the treasure of our drugstore’s town store, sold for ten or eight years. stay home.....”

“Or we have to organize human and material resources to make a claim, and finally sell it in the form of bidding. But it is hard to say how much it can sell.”

Seeing that Shen Lang is impatient, he quickly said the specific price: “So I can only accept two million...”

“Two million?” Shen Lang glanced at him.

This is a temptation by Wu Lao. He quickly said to the smile: “This is the lowest price. We have to spend a lot of manpower and resources on this basis... Otherwise, wait until the final sale price, after deducting the cost, More than two hundred →>, the fastest update of the latest chapter of the first strong!

If you are 10,000, what will we divide with you? ”

“A price, five million.” Shen Lang shook his head.

“This... It’s said that we are also doing business. In addition to human and material resources, we have to make money. Besides, it’s not good to hear, even if there is a rich man who is willing to pay here, you are personally holding this thing, and people are not willing to believe it. I won’t ask for money. The real thing that can make it sell the price is the guarantee of our drugstore’s reputation for decades!”

Five million is beyond the psychological price of Wu Lao, so he said it is straighter.

Shen Lang stared at him and did not speak.

He would like to say that if you sell it to the self-cultivator, there will be a lot of people who buy it. But he has no such channel for the time being, and this drug line is not clear whether it is there.

When he saw his heart faint, Wu Lao looked at the ginseng again. If it was really a few hundred years, it could indeed become a treasure of the town shop, or it would be a good time when the dignitaries needed to be renewed. effect.

“Two hundred and fifty. Oh, my old man is not the boss, the pressure is great.”

“You yell at me two hundred and five?” Shen Lang said a faint sentence.

In some places, two hundred and five are the meaning of a fool, Wu Lao Khan, busy saying: “I don’t mean this, or 2.68 million.”

“Look at you, you are a young man, three million.”

“Three million is still a bit high, I can’t do the Lord...”

“That’s it! I have to give in again and again, are you good slaughter?” Shen Lang sank.

Wu Laoyi saw that he was really angry. He quickly got up and stopped him: “Oh! I will go out and guarantee me with my identity and honor, giving you three million!”

He made a big decision. After he finished speaking, he carefully checked it out to avoid leaving his eyes.

After he was sure, Shen Lang proposed that there is no need to buy or sell contracts, and there is no need to transfer funds, let them give a card and tell him the password.

This makes Wu Lao a little doubtful. Is this afraid that the source of huge property is unknown? What is his identity?

Is this the secret of stealing the baby inside the family? If you don’t recognize it in time?

But then again, if you don’t want to sell it privately, you won’t be in the door. It takes a part of the cost to claim the momentum. If the auction is final, five or six million or even ten thousand yuan will be fine.

Wu Lao did not let the store manager handle it, but made a phone call and let people handle the card.

Then he left Shen Lang to leave a contact number and opened a receipt, which clearly stated the transaction, and let Shen Lang press the fingerprint, which is a hole in the pit without a contract.

Shen Lang mainly does not want to expose his identity for the time being. As for the handprint, it doesn't matter. Anyway, he will not rely on the account, and he is not afraid of the other party's debt.

The mobile number is a new number that he bought in the town before he left. Although real-name certification is required, he can spend a little more money and can still buy new cards that have been certified with other names.

After getting the card, Shen Lang went to take 50,000 cash. Then take a taxi directly to leave, change the car from one city to another city, and take a taxi to the city of Pingxi.

Although there is no airplane and the cost is high, you can leave the cash payment without leaving any contact information. It is why he needs to sell ginseng.

The expressway transferred to the city to change the car, plus the time of lunch and dinner, did not stop at night, but also let Shenlang return to Pingxi City the next morning.

Returning to this land, his anger is also stirring, and his parents and dozens of other people who have been squandered are as if they are floating in the air! Let him feel directly!
