First Strong 2371

Chapter 2371 - Island

With such a thought, the mind of Shen Lang is not the same.

No matter what the reason, he has to go to the island!

Otherwise, they spread the words and said that they did not find traces of the dog god? Wouldn’t that be hard?

Without him inside, he didn’t feel that the other person could send the dog * safely.

On the one hand, they may feel that this beast is of extraordinary value, so there will be an occupation heart.

On the other hand, even if they don’t have this kind of thought, and sincerely cooperate with the search, what do you say when you look for the dog god? Said the king of the sand country to find it?

Can the dog * be obedient to tame? If you don’t believe it, it will be a big fight.

Dog gods are naturally very domineering, but everyone in this world is unfamiliar, and many methods and rules are not known. These settlements that can survive for a long time naturally have their magical features.

In the home of others, with the words of the enemy, if the dog * is not good, it will suffer.

“Welcome! Of course welcome, very welcome.”

Shen Lang immediately smoothed out this, and the fisherman immediately responded after hesitating for a moment.

“Just because our Hanze patriarch is in the process of rehearsing, if the Lord of the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia wants to visit, he may have to wait for a long time.”

The fishman then added another sentence, vaguely expressing a meaning: in your capacity, we should call on our patriarch; but our patriarch has no time to see you, you have to wait, don’t think we are slowing you down.

Shen Lang immediately smiled: “You are very polite. Since the Hanze patriarch is in the process of repairing, I certainly can’t bother. I am just waiting on the island. If there is any news, I can inform you as much as possible. Because my beast is also very fierce. I am afraid that it will be bad if I have trouble.”

“You don’t need to consider entertaining me, just take me over and take it.”

Shen Lang has already said this, and there is no excuse for the fisherman. If you go on, others will doubt his intentions.

“Please come with me.”

The fisherman made an invitation to let Shen Lang follow him.

Shen Lang also showed an undefended posture, followed him and continued to go inside Hanze.

While walking inside, the holy armor monitored a kind of sound wave, which was the spread of the fisherman. It should be a way of sound that they only understood, but the specific content could not be deciphered.

Shen Lang does not need to decipher what, probably what it will be, can also guess.

He doesn’t need to care about how the mermaid family will arrange it. If he is here, as long as he can meet with the dog god, don’t say that the Hanze mermaid is destroyed. At least there is no problem to escape.

Of course, Shen Lang is still relatively peaceful in nature. The other party is friendly, he is also friendly, and people respect me. I respect one.

But if someone insists on his life, then I am sorry, he will make the enemy die hard to see!

There was a fisherman behind the road, and it didn’t take long. It took about twenty miles to add up and it was already on the island.

Because the surrounding area is surrounded by cold water, the temperature on this island is not high, but compared to the coldness of the cold water surface, it is much better, and the above is also a peaceful, no cold current.

“Respected Lord of the Kingdom of Sand, then you are slow, please wait here for the time being. Once there is news, I will come over, or someone will let you know. I still have the duty of care, I will leave now. Here…”

The fisherman said this time more directly, the sign will not have any hospitality.

In the end, it was also drawn, meaning that you should not go around. But this sentence is realized, it is not stated, so as not to be ugly.

“Thank you. I will wait for the good news here, and I will not sneak into the land of Hanze.”

Shen Lang smiled and said it on his own initiative. Anyway, it meant that his purpose was to take away the dog * and not to provoke the mysterious and unknown ethnic group.

“You will be later.”

The fisherman saw Shen Lang promised, and said a polite one, but in his heart, it is even more doubtful!

The owner of the Tang Sha country was pulled to the island by him. There was no hospitality and no notice. Just wait here, just soaking it, and letting him wait outside, it is not much different.

It is said that the Lord of the Sha State should be unhappy, but now it is still beautiful, obviously has more important goals, these are for the time being!

It can be seen that the spirit beast is absolutely precious, so that he can be so temperamental.

He couldn’t help himself, and quickly left and got more time.

From his rush, Shen Lang can already guess.

However, Shen Lang is still very calm, he just promised not to be chaotic, but did not say that he would not investigate the surrounding situation!

When he was outside, far away, he could sense the cold, but it was the whole cold. The situation inside Hanze, whether under the water or on the island, is impossible to detect.

The sand country is covered with an obvious huge building, and the cold is covered by the water, and the same is not possible.

These should all be arranged by the ancient tyrants. It is not so easy to break through.

Judging from the current situation, when he was flying in the waters inside, if the fisherman did not come out to receive him, he should face a wave of defense.

There was no operation by the fisherman behind him. He did not see it, but he was calm and calm, did not encounter a little attack, and did not have any lost illusion. It should be brought in by someone in the competition field.

What Shen Lang wants is to come in.

Waiting outside, he really can only wait.

But when it comes to it, his knowledge can spread out. Under the influence of the golden mask, the scope can be ten times more than that!

When I was just with the fisherman, Shen Lang did not go to investigate any place around. Just as the sacred armor monitors the fisherman’s external transmission of information in an inaudible band frequency, he may be discovered if he investigates.

Not afraid of instead of not wanting to directly flip face.

Now that the person has left, he can understand the whole cold before the other person comes.

But there is still a problem now, that is, whether it can be generalized.

In the sand country, the knowledge of Shen Lang was suppressed. That kind of suppression is the same in the chaotic space and in the holy place of Yungong. However, the golden mask of the country itself will not be suppressed. Can look at the overall situation.

Now that I have come to Hanze, maybe it will also suppress the gods and so on. Can the golden mask of the sand country be universal here?

Shen Lang insisted on coming in, just thinking that there is no isolation from Hanze, and it is possible to clearly sense the location of the dog god. Any problems can be solved as soon as possible.

But if the gods can only sense a few hundred meters, the golden mask has no effect, then it is really dried up here. In all cases, it is necessary to wait for the mermaid to inform, or else you have to go through it, that It is very passive.

Chapter 2372 - Desert island

Shen Lang didn’t waste a little time. After the fisherman left, he immediately spread the soul and spread!

There is no need to test the gods first, because he has always been wearing a mask, and it is completely integrated.

Just like a myopia wearing an eye can see more clearly and farther, you can’t take the first thing to test it.

This temptation immediately gave Shen Lang a sigh of relief!

The way the soul swims, let him quickly understand the situation on the whole island, all bird’s eye view.

There is no need to be able to sense the wide range of thousands of miles here, as long as you can understand the situation on the island and the Hanze.

Since it is effective, then he has not stopped, and further search.

But I was surprised again!

The whole island is indeed in the middle of Hanze, but it is like a desert island!

The island is not that big, so it’s not just covered, but it’s a quick screening for every detail.

But on this island, there is no trace of living things!

Or strictly speaking, there are no mermaids on top, no other animals, and plants are of course everywhere.

Desert island!

The first reaction of Shen Lang was that the fisherman had just taken him to a desert island. This is just an island in Hanze, but not the only island, not the island where the settlement is located!

The situation on the island is already clear, and there is not much value. Naturally, the scope has been expanded.

When it was said that it was too late, in fact, the search of Shen Lang was completed in an instant, and his thoughts and analysis were also a moment.

In the process of expanding the scope, it has been successfully caught up with the fisherman!

The fish talent just flew away a little, and then re-entered into the cold waters.

Shen Lang is equal to watching him into the water, this is at least a few tens of degrees of cold water, but he is not at all unbearable meaning, and then disappeared.

When I want to trace the traces under his water and see where he is swimming, Shen Lang found that he immediately lost the clue!

No matter whether the person is going back to the place where he was guarded, or going to the real island of Hanze, he has not been able to find out.

This is not because the water is too deep, nor because the water is too cold, but the waters of this cold, with a layer of isolation!

Perhaps the whole Hanze waters have this effect, so in the distance, it can only be sensed that there is a water area here, but it is impossible to know the situation inside.

And just the fish man, who lives here, has a very good understanding of Hanze, but also adapts to everything here, there will be no obstacles for them.

Since this is not the real island of Hanze, Shenlang does not need to keep its promise, and the body immediately flashes.

Soon, he slipped the entire island, this is a desert island that is not too big!

It’s no wonder that God has traveled all over the island so quickly.

It’s no wonder that it’s so good to talk, it’s clear that he’s been tricked into it. Staying here is not to trap him, but to delay time.

After searching for the entire desert island, Shen Lang will leave here immediately.

Just now there is no direction!

When I came outside, although I don’t know the specific angle, I can still refer to the direction trajectory from the sand country. With the combination of map memory, I can still infer a rough, even if it is not accurate.

But now that it is inside, these cold waters have isolated the investigation of the outside world, meaning that the situation on the shore is not known.

It is not known whether the mermaid brought him over, whether he used any obstacles or the like.

Shen Lang is a bit uncomfortable!

He didn’t want to get into life, just take the dog * away.

He also expressed his meaning very peacefully. As a result, the fisherman still wants to hang him!

If it is only for cautious precautions, then he can accept. If it is really to trap him here, and to delay him, in order to get the dog god, then don’t blame him.

With a wave of his hand, he directly uprooted a tree on the island and threw it into the waters outside.

This cold water that can be stopped even by the gods and even the souls of the gods is very unusual and certainly very dangerous.

Although he didn’t need to get into the water, now he wants to go to the water to catch the guy, it’s too late.

But when he first entered, he flew for about ten miles, and then he met the mermaid people to take the initiative. Perhaps there is no problem at all in that period, and the back is the essence of Hanze!

This hand is a temptation for the temptation of this cold water.

The tree that was uprooted, when it was flying to the water of Hanze, had already been frozen by the cold when it had not touched the surface of the water!

When it reached the surface of the water, when it touched the surface of the water, the frozen branches and leaves quickly shattered and then merged into the water.

The presentation of this scene reproduces the inconsistency between the physical science of the Earth and the Earth.

When it comes to the surface of the water, the ultra-low temperature that has caused it will directly freeze the tree, and the moment of contact will be frozen and crushed.

But the problem is that these cold waters are still in liquid form and are not frozen into solids.

The frozen branches immediately shattered and merged into the water when they came into contact with the cold water.

These waters are weird and can be verified again.

Shen Lang did not mean to chase down the water, but he was not willing to be shaken once!

He wants to use the sacred armor at the moment, and it is a great deal for this chill!

However, at the moment of the decision, it stopped again.

I just didn’t say that this is the island where they lived. It’s said that it’s just to let him wait here, no one will entertain, and don’t mess.

In this way, it doesn’t mean to deceive him. It just doesn’t say so much information – you didn’t ask!

Thinking of this, Shen Lang was dumbfounded.

Still too young!

I didn’t expect the mermaid who thought it was very simple, so it was so embarrassing.

Nothing makes sense, but it is ridiculed by people It’s not mad and it’s not venting.

But will it be useful? Can you force them out against a few shots at Hanze?

If you have this power and have this effect, then it is quite powerful. But if the shells go down, there is no reaction in this strange cold water.

It’s even worse when you are dumb!

With this in mind, Shen Lang calmed down.

Don’t deviate from the theme, or look for a dog god.

He immediately used one heart and two, on the one hand, through the sacred search for the traces of the dog * locator, to see if there will be a signal inside.

On the other hand, it is once again to swim the soul and spread out to the distance!

The water of Hanze can be isolated, but if it crosses the water, is there no problem?

If you can find out where the real island of Hanze is, you can fly directly from this desert island.

Chapter 2373 - Do you want to go to war?

This spread out, the effect is there, it seems to be able to extend far away.

But the effect is illusory!

Because I always feel a little endless feeling, from the outside world, this cold is not too big, it is not comparable to Yaochi. But now on the desert island, spread out to the surrounding, but as if it could not reach the head, it soon exceeded its entire area.

Everything in this world cannot be speculated according to common sense, so Shen Lang immediately concluded that what he saw was false!

This may be a large blinding method, or it may be any other form. It always makes him feel that people are inside and can go into the distance, but after all, it is an illusion. There are still farther places in the distance, but they are not real. aims.

The side of the holy armor has always been in the state of search, and there is no trace of the locator.

Shen Lang is also secretive, even he is bound by his feet, for the more simple and rude dog god, I am afraid that it has already been controlled.

If the dog * is really under their control, is it still willing to hand it over?

Continue to stay here, will the fisher really come back?

Then go out!

I just came in from the outside and flew over the waters to let the fishermen come out to meet.

It’s flying out of this desert island, even if they can’t find their settlements, but they will definitely not let it go, or someone will appear, and it’s not just the fisherman.

You can ask for it at the time, or you can emphasize the identity of the dog god.

Thinking of this, Shen Lang took out the golden chariot.

Originally used the gold chariot before, he felt that in addition to a little retro-loading effect, there is no practical value.

But now I understand that in fact, the five holy devices, including the golden mask, are actually a very weak state.

It is because for three thousand years, the golden mask is “charged and energized”, and the soul of the king of the world is consumed together and consumed.

This means that if you inject enough energy into them, perhaps in terms of functionality, there will be a lot of refreshment.

Now test the golden chariot.

With the memory of the king of the world, the understanding of the golden chariot is now more abundant. He knows a lot about the way he injects energy.

What you choose now is to infuse it with an energy group in the past!

This energy group is an ultra-highly concentrated energy that definitely has a very powerful effect. And it is obtained from the pyramid here. Even if you use a few more, you will not feel bad.

Besides, this is the “original” energy, which should be the best match. Others, whether it is Lingshi or Tiandi Essence, may still be a little different.

When a planet’s general energy group was poured, the golden chariots immediately changed dramatically!

Originally it was the golden appearance, it was the glare of pulling the wind and pure local gold.

Now that these energies have been poured, they begin to have a layer of fine luster that covers the entire gold chariot and then begins to have a radiant fluidity.

Simply put, it used to be like a tool, but now it seems to be alive!

Lived over…

This idea appeared in my mind, and Shen Lang was once again alert. Gold mask, isn’t it just alive?

With a high degree of alert, Shen Lang got on the golden chariot and then drove it to fly outside the desert island!

After driving, you can feel it right away. This feeling of living is not the same as the golden mask, but the cooperation of God in all aspects.

For example, driving is now very relaxed, very flexible, just a little meditation, you can completely do whatever you want, it can clearly feel the master’s subtle heart, can be accurately reached.

After just flying out of the desert island, I probably felt the coldness of the waters below, and immediately there was a heating-like existence, which completely covered the Shenlang, so that he could be very comfortable.

Shen Lang is certainly not for enjoyment, but what is needed is to look at this golden chariot, can you take him in this cold, find their settlements, find the dog god.

Unfortunately, the wheel of the universe can not be used, and can not accurately predict more details. And his own predictive ability, often only in the case of dangerous matters, will have obvious feelings.

However, just the endless feeling, let Shen Lang suspect that there is a magical effect, so at the moment on the gold chariot, he took the rare bluestone, also held in the palm, to crack everything Illusion!

After the golden chariot flew out of the cold waters, there was no change, but it was indeed a very windy effect.

The Shenlang people are flying in the air, as if they are patrolling their own sites, paying attention to all the conditions below, not missing any small island.

That feeling, like a chieftain sitting in a helicopter to patrol his own tribe.

It didn’t take long for Shen Lang to see a long dragon on the water!

He immediately controlled the gold chariot to slow down a bit and greeted him.

Sure enough, the fisherman just now!

In the sacred track, this is not the place where the fisherman was just met, but the person is still the fisherman.

“Respected Lord of the Kingdom of Sand, are you not waiting for the good news on the island? How come out? Hanze does not allow guests to hang out, but Hanze is full of dangers, we must consider the safety of our guests!”

The word in the mouth of the fisherman is still very polite, but the tone has been hard.

It seems that Shen Lang is flying out of the desert island, which makes him very unhappy!

That is what he said with the past. The two sides said that it was good. Shen Lang flew out so quickly, and obviously the island has been checked.

This is the distrust of him, and this is a suspicion of Hanze!

“Ming people don’t say whispers I am very friendly, but you just pick me up to a desert island! This is your home, want to fight with me?”

Shen Lang just did not send out the anger, and now it was directly smashed out.

The fisherman was silent for a moment.

“We have not had much friendship with the country of Sha, but we have no complaints. Are you sure you want to fight with Hanze?”

Although he emphasized friendship and grudges, he was also tough.

“If Hanze everyone, you are not as good as you are, do not know how to lift, how is the war? Are you qualified to decide?”

Shen Lang sneered a sneak, directly hand a move, immediately pulled the fisherman over the air, just ten meters in front of him, and then placed him in the lower air, so that he can only look up.

The fisherman hesitated again. As Shen Lang said, he can be tough, but he is not qualified to decide to fight with Saudi Arabia.

Chapter 2374 - Cold water attack

“Czeze is peace-loving. There is no grievance with the sand country. We naturally do not want to misunderstand. I hope that the esteemed Lord of the Kingdom of Sand will continue to wait on the island. If the island is too simple, you can also go outside on the shore. And.”

The fisherman chose to regress, and the emphasis was explained again. But in the latter sentence, the meaning of the complaint is also obvious.

The island is your choice. You also said that you will stay in the same place, or why don’t you stay on the shore?

This made Shen Lang a bit too bad to say directly. At that time, I thought that on an island, I didn’t expect the other party to be a chicken thief. Anyway, I just took an island.

The key is also the water of these cold waters, which can be very isolated!

I thought that if I entered the scope of Hanze, I could understand everything, but now it still has not much effect.

“Don’t talk so much, my purpose is to find the beast. It disappears in Hanze, you can’t find it, I have reason to doubt it!”

Shen Lang sinks his face and directly speaks a word with a little threat.

The fish was originally making concessions, and the result was another step!

This made him sink his face again: “I respect you as the owner of the sand country. It is not okay for you to be gracious to you. If you just want to find a reason, you want to rely on Hanze, then It’s good to leave!”

Just being friendly, but being fooled by the other side, Shen Lang did not want to continue to talk to him nonsense so much.

“What are you? In front of me, what is your qualification to speak!”

Shen Lang directly screamed.

Even if the fisherman has a certain identity, there is a gap with the patriarch. The mask that Shen Lang is wearing now is the identity of the king of the sand country. The other party really does not deserve to talk with him.

If such an identity person dares to tease him, the mermaid family will definitely not see him more, and may even have an idea for the dog god.

Therefore, Shen Lang has become a strong from politeness, and it is best to force them to come out at a higher level.

“We respect the guests, but the guests are not rude…”

The fisherman has been irritated by the words of the waves.

What about the Lord of the Shah? It was the king of the sand country, not the king of Hanze. Talking to him in such a tone naturally made him very upset.

The key is the previous speculation analysis, so that he has been expecting a very large value for the beast, and he has no chance to create a chance to win it.

Since the owner of this sand country first tore his face, he certainly took the opportunity to come!

The politeness of Shen Lang in front of him also made him have little respect for the Lord of Sand.

The Lord of the Shah State is a symbol of identity and may not necessarily be equal to strength. Besides, in the sand country, it will have a home advantage, but now in the cold, it will naturally be a great limitation.

For their mermaid family, Hanze is a great addition.

This contrast, let him feel the confidence of a battle with Shen Lang!

When blaming Shen Lang for “rudeness,” he was also the first to take the shot!

He just rose from the water and was the cold water of Hanze. He continued to rise like a fountain and put him in the air.

Of course, this is not to have a place to borrow, but to be in the air, he can naturally do it easily.

This hand is to show their strength and show the power of the mermaid to control the cold waters.

Now the attitude of Shen Lang makes him very unhappy, and he will start directly!

As his arms open, between the time, the fountain below half of his cold water, immediately like thousands of sharp arrows, burst into the waves!

These cold waters are all tens of degrees below zero, but there is no ice, which is more diverse.

If it freezes, it will be a cone of ice. But the state of the water is a water column that starts half of the fountain, and quickly turns into countless water arrows. When it comes closer, many of them become countless water mists!

It’s just that this low temperature, Shen Lang is letting them be poured on the body, there is no problem, and they will not be poured.

But this cold water is isolated from the gods and souls. It is definitely not just a cold and cold problem.

Before Shen Lang tried it too, throwing the tree and freezing it directly.

Now these chilly water arrows, directly to the front of Shen Lang!

The manipulation of the fish man did not stop, not only was there a large amount of cold water behind it, but the water of the cold water below and behind the Shenlang was also covered with him.

“Don’t say that I don’t make sense. This is your first move.”

Shen Lang said a faint sentence, then there was a long sword in his hand, and he went out directly to the front!

The fish man manipulated all the water of the cold, the effect is very good, whether it is a frontal attack on the past, or all aspects of the package, as he expected.

As the water of the cold rushes past, the temperature in the middle is also rapidly reduced.

He feels that he is still a bit confident, because this is their territory. They have the advantage of being in a good position at the right time, and they have just started to get ahead of it. It is reasonable to say that even if the Lord of Sand is stronger than him, there should be a surprise.

And Shen Lang did not defend, dodge, but took out the sword, let him feel that his strategy is right – it is too late to defend!

He immediately made preparations to let the front of the cold waters strengthen and attack the past, to attack and defend, in order to block the attack of the sword.

At this time, he found that he suddenly lost control!

This kind of loss of control is not the sloppiness of the cold water, but at that moment, he feels unable to control the water of the cold.

Originally manipulated very well, it seems that it has lost contact, and he has not responded with any effort.

And those waters that should have been attacked by the waves of the cold wave whether it is the water arrow, the water mist that he first attacked, or the large number of waterfalls covered behind, have stopped in the air.

It seems that at this moment, everything has stopped. This change has made him scream, because then he found that he could not control himself!

After discovering that he was out of control, he realized that he was wrong. Of course, he wanted to escape. For the mermaid family, it was an instinctive choice to hide in the water. In this cold, this special cold water is a protection for them.

It is easy for him to escape. He only needs to drop quickly and he can go down the water column to the bottom of the water.

But now he can’t move himself!

Whether it is all the water in the air or his own body, it seems to be frozen in the air.

This feeling is something he has never experienced before, not even imagined.

As a result, he could only watch the long sword with his eyes, crossed the water in the air, and smashed directly onto him!

Chapter 2375 - Hanze patriarch

“Swords under the mercy!”

Shen Lang just decided to be strong, and it is expected that the other party will turn his face, and the field of God has been laid out in advance.

Only he was released around, there was no control around the fisherman around the circle, so he did not alarm the other.

When the other party started to attack, Shen Lang took control of everything.

The scene that the fisherman saw behind was nothing more than Shen Lang wanted to let him see it. He deliberately waited for all the cold waters to attack and casually refused to stop them in the air.

If the other party moves, then he will be ready to dispel all the attacks. What do you mean?

The goalkeeper went out early defense, what excitement? Waiting for the ball to stop at the front of the door, only to stop the game.

He just wants the other party to think that the winner is in the grip, thinking that the sneak attack is successful, including talking and shooting, and they are not rushing.

Wait until the enemy is most excited, let it fall from the highest peak to the bottom!

However, this fisherman did not find the realm of God, perhaps their patriarch had already discovered it in the distance!

Of course, it may also be because he just sent the information out in advance, so this time the block, the patriarch – or other strong, has already rushed to reinforce.

If it is an ordinary person's shot, it is faster than the speed of the sound transmission, and shouting "Knowledge under the knife" is such a possibility.

But for the strong shots like Shen Lang, wait for a word to say it, and then spread it, it has already been cut.

So the "swords under the sword" that he just heard was not the sound that the ear heard, but the idea that was directly transmitted to his mind!

The other party understands this and knows that it is too late to stop. It is only possible to come over first and let Shen Lang take the initiative to stop.

In order to stop the speed of the sword, it is natural to be able to stop, but he did not stop, the sword of the king is still extended out!

Ever since, the fisherman blinked at the sword and his arm was falling off. A lot of blood mixed into the surrounding cold water.

After the sword was completed, Shen Lang shortened the sword back to the side and then looked at the water above it.

Just below the cold waters, there was a figure flying fast, and there seemed to be no help in the water, but it gave him great help.

Because of the isolation, Shen Lang actually did not sense the movement below the waters, and his movements were not very large, and did not react to the surface like torpedoes and shells.

But just that person sent his thoughts to him. Through this, Shen Lang confirmed the change of his distance and the speed of his arrival.

When the man emerged from the bottom of the water, he naturally avoided the scope of the field of God and did not come close.

“Where is the Lord of the Shah, why do you have a general knowledge with the juniors? I am eager to ask you for enthusiasm, can you not sell me a face?”

Between the coming person and Shen Lang is the body of the fisher.

The fisherman had just opened his arms and manipulated all the water of the cold, and now an arm was cut and turned into a one-armed arm.

Shen Lang faint smile: “Hanze patriarch? You are not enough. You plead with me, I will give you face immediately. You don’t thank me, even blame me?”

“The Lord of the Sand Kingdom!” The Hanze patriarch was not happy, and he felt that Shen Lang was in the past.

Shen Lang signaled him to look at the past.

“You just told me that the sword is in love. I was supposed to split him in half. After listening to your words, I left my heart under the sword and moved aside to the side, just cut off his arm. You Not willing to admit?”

This said, let the fisherman angry and afraid.

He had just broken his arm and was very angry. He didn’t expect the owner of the sand country to even split him in two shots!

He had just manipulated the water of Hanze, and did not kill it… Of course, he did not have the confidence to kill the Lord of Sand.

After listening to this, the Hanze patriarch could not help but silence.

Who can blame?

What he just evoked was really “swords under the sword”, and the other party is indeed “swords under the sword”…

He is also very clear that the other party is deliberately chewing on him. Because he meant to let the other party not to move the people, not just to leave a little affection.

“The Lord of the Sand State, dare to ask me where the cold has offended you, Shaguo? Did you provoke you to kill the door?”

No matter how to interpret the “swords under the sword”, the ending has already appeared, and the entanglement has no meaning. What is needed is to solve the problem.

So he changed directly to a question.

This is not a sand country, nor is it a random wilderness outside. This is in the cold, your outsiders go to the site of Hanze, no matter what the reason, it is disrespectful and offensive to Hanze!

Before Shen Lang had expressed his politeness, even if he came to claim to be the Hanze mermaid, he was not interested in coming again.

“The whole process, I guess you are clear, then don’t be confused. If you really don’t know, then he didn’t put you in the eye, you should ask him well!”

When the words of Shen Lang were said, the mermaid who had broken the arm was immediately stunned.

Shen Lang does not care about their patriarch, he is very awe.

When even the previous band frequency was monitored, it was obvious that he was interpreting the voice and the patriarch.

For a moment, the Hanze patriarch should be aware of a situation.

He said to Shen Lang in a positive color: “I really don’t know about this. But I listened to the report, and my people didn’t have any problems!”

“If you have a beast that has been mistakenly entered into Hanze, it does not mean that Hanze has imprisoned it; if it falls into the cold, it will be drowned, and my family will not be responsible for it?”

The Hanze patriarch is also a sneer’s counter-question You are an outsider, come to my cold, my family has the right to refuse you to come in! Let you wait outside and let you in, all out of our friendly posture. You have to sneak in the cold and attack my people, what is the reason for you! ”

“If it is me, you have to break into your sand country, you have to sneak inside, attack your people, can you think that nothing happens?”

From the standpoint of his Han Zhe chief, these words are no problem, and it should be such a reprimand.

It is a pity that Shen Lang has evidence!

Regardless of whether he perceives it here or not, no matter how the mermaid strongman reports, Shen Lang directly released the video evidence.

When the video hologram of the previous video was projected out in the air, everything was clear.

Whether it is provocative or preemptive, it is all mermaid, and Shen Lang is a passive battle!

The Hanze patriarch immediately stunned…

Chapter 2376 - Catching hostage

Looking at his embarrassment, Shen Lang knew it.

This patriarch knows everything!

When the former mermaid leader led him to the island, the sound wave information that should be sent out included the report to the support.

When there is no movement here, the patriarch should come over, but keep watching under the water and there is no direct appearance.

So in the end who is provocative, whoever first shot, he should actually be clear, or the report of the mermaid strong, is completely honest.

However, since he has to occupy the moral high ground, he naturally pretends to not know this. There is no evidence anyway. From a logical point of view, they have the upper hand.

After all, they did not go to the sand country, it is Shen Lang into the Hanze!

I didn’t think of it. Shen Lang actually restored the pictures completely, and it was exactly the same. All the details were presented, and I wanted to rely on them.

However… Hanze’s patriarch has no problem!

These are not his own shots, the mermaid strong, that is, you can carry the black pot!

So after his flashing, he immediately sighed.

“Wind autumn! As a cold welcoming guest, you represent Hanze and represent the facade of my mermaid! No matter how rude the guests are, you can’t be rude! You know sin!”

He immediately reprimanded publicly.

In this way, the problem has become a trivial matter, and the people of the mermaid have problems. He has criticized education. And the emphasis is “no matter how rude the guests are,” this refers to the mulberry!

Shen Lang sneered.

“Hanze patriarch, you don’t need to act here. You are here to welcome the priests, I will keep it, I will find my beast, I will take it away, then I will return it to him.” You are.”

Shen Lang’s slight raise of his hand, the water of the coldness that was still around him, quickly fell to the cold below, and it was calm and calm.

In the air, there will be a mermaid who is called Fengqiu.

His arm has also fallen into the cold. At the moment that it is about to fall into the water, it is instantly frozen by the extreme cold. When it touches the surface of the water, it is broken and there is no trace.

The field of Shen Lang's * is still not removed. He just hooked his fingers and the body of Fengqiu has already arrived in front of him.

"What is the meaning of you, the Lord of the Sand State? If I have not heard the mistakes and made a mistake, you are going to take the welcoming guest of Hanze as a hostage? Shouldn't you be so rude?"

His tone is very heavy, and there is no room for manoeuvre. Shen Lang either releases people or admits to taking hostages.

"You didn't get it wrong. I don't talk to you so much nonsense! What kind of selfishness do you have, don't think I don't know. If you don't want the problem to get bigger and bigger, I hope you can solve the problem honestly!"

The golden chariot of Shen Lang is still in the air. He took the wind autumn directly and quickly flew out to the back.

Since the patriarch of Hanze has been alarmed, he will not be able to find a settlement again.

At this moment he returned to the desert island just now.

The hostages are already there. If the other party does not hand over the dog gods, or does not disclose the information of the dog god, then he is welcome!

If Hanze does not take the life of Fengqiu as one thing, then after killing this hostage, go out and search for it.

The dog * is not good at all, and after being merged with the mysterious poisonous grass seed, all aspects have increased greatly, and it is not so easy to be pitted.

Shen Lang estimates that it is in this cold, it should also be with the mermaid.

At the moment of leaving, Shen Lang sent an idea to the Hanze patriarch.

“Now I just catch you alone. If you really annoy me, this is your territory. I can catch more of your mermaid! You can consider the consequences and the cost yourself!”

This is a warning!

Regardless of whether the Hanze patriarch will cover this wind and autumn, or regardless of his life and death, the follow-up situation has already been made clear.

Can catch one, and in front of him, it means that it is possible to catch two, three, ten!

This is Hanze, their site, and has the advantage of home. If they do not do anything, they can be besieged by the group and have a good effect.

But this is their advantage and their disadvantage.

They have more people. If others kill them casually, they will kill them. If they catch them, they will be arrested. There are very few who are qualified to face a war.

The reverse is also true.

If he entered the sand country, it would also be possible to arrest the people of the Shaguo people as hostages.

Looking at the disappearance of the golden chariot, Hanze’s patriarch did not chase, but entered the cold and disappeared into the water.

Shen Lang returned to the desert island, and then stared at the welcome officer of the wind and autumn.

“You killed me! The Lord of the Kingdom of Sands has invaded Hanze casually. If this is spread out, all parties will cast aside your sand country!”

The wind autumn showed a hard side.

This may be what he originally had, or it may be…

Just after he heard the hostages, he also clearly felt that he was the hostage who was arrested. The patriarch’s murderer was obviously trying to save him.

If he lives or not, he will just start directly.

The attitude of the patriarch is that the other party feels it, and naturally he will feel that he is a human being.

So he can take a look and behave a bit harder. If Shen Lang really killed him, he couldn’t tell the patriarch, and he couldn’t help him.

He was confined by Shen Lang using the realm of God, and this will allow him to speak.

After listening to his hard words, Shen Lang was undecided and smiled.

“I want to study it now and see if there is anything different about your mermaid. Even if I want to kill you, I will take away everything that you have in the first place!”

Shen Lang is really looking at his situation just short arm, it looks a bit strange, it seems like an arm, and like a fin.

Before this wind and autumn was imprisoned, it was in the state of last desperate defense, so now Shen Lang can see some details that did not appear before.

For example, his skin is covered with a layer of scales!

These fish scales should be for them, just like an armor-like defense.

It’s just in front of the sword of the king, it’s hard to beat. At least this mermaid is still vulnerable.

At this moment, Fengqiu was staring at the “researching” eyes of Shen Lang, and he could not help but panic.

In particular, he can’t move, and if he wants to avoid it, he can’t do it. There is always a feeling of being stripped.

“Do you think that there is nothing valuable in you, are you afraid of taking it?”

Shen Lang smiled slightly: “What about your memory?”

Chapter 2377 - Control the cold water

Originally, Fengqiu felt that he was panicked, and he did not know how Shenlang would handle him.

Their mermaid family is not very accustomed to dealing with other people, because they may eat them as fish…

Just the gaze of Shen Lang, let him have this worry.

So when Shen Lang smiled, he couldn’t help but panic.

Even if the hostage is important, it will not really kill him, or eat it all, but if you cut a few pieces of meat, you will feel very uncomfortable.

When he lent it to Shen Lang, he even shocked him.

Memory!

He immediately understood what the other party wanted.

As the welcoming guest of Hanze, he knows a lot about the various situations of Hanze and even the external situation. It can even be said that it is the minority who knows the most in Hanze.

It is precisely because of this that when he saw the golden mask, he recognized that it was the mask of the Lord of Sand.

If his memory is taken away by the waves, then the information of other people outside, the secrets of Hanze alone, will be a huge loss!

“You, you are immoral! You are the master of the sand country, you must pay attention to your identity!”

Fengqiu was a little bit flustered, and he quickly used words to suppress the waves, which made him inconvenienced by his inconvenience.

“Do you know that I am the owner of the country now? When you were disrespectful to me, why don’t you pay attention to my identity?”

Shen Lang was already in control of him, and it was a state of complete imprisonment. It is also easy to suppress him at this moment and read his memory.

Feng Qiu felt that consciousness was invaded and quickly issued the final struggle!

“You can’t do this! If I spread this out, the sand country will be very shameful. Anyone will spit on you and will not dare to deal with you!”

At this point, he can’t care too much. In order not to let his own secrets leak out, he can only use the reputation of the sand country to smash the waves.

“Do you remind me to kill you?” Hey… it’s not good to destroy the mouth. For your patriarch, you still have to explain it. I want to pay attention to identity!”

Shen Lang said to himself.

“I understand! What you mean is that after I read your memory, I will make you an idiot, so that people will not die, and there will be no threat to send them back.”

Listening to his words, Fengqiu despaired!

He feels that the owner of this sand country is not like the head of the country of sand. It is completely hard and hard to eat. It is useless to stimulate the law, and the face can’t be pressed, and nothing is hooked.

It was very easy to read his memory in Shenlang. When he was desperate and almost collapsed, it was even more difficult for Shen Lang to use it.

After reading his memory, Shen Lang did not need to talk to him so much, directly stunned him.

Shen Lang first began to analyze his memory, and then began to dig deep into his soul, and deepened his consciousness into a lot of useful things, and directly integrated and understood.

To put it simply, through his memory, he has to copy and learn something that needs special learning.

Among them, it includes the control of the water of Hanze!

The most worried about Fengqiu is the foreign information he has, including the information they have collected from many settlements, including Shaguo.

The other one is that the secret inside Hanze is known by Shen Lang.

But in fact, the two points he cares the most, Shen Lang is not interested at all!

He is only just taking a look at it by the way. If it is useful in the future, then it will be used only, and he will not pay special attention to it.

What he cares most is how to manipulate the water of Hanze, how to be unrestricted in the cold!

Because he never forgets his heart – come to Hanze, not to * resources, but to find a dog * confluence.

Just after he returned to the island with the wind and autumn, it seems to have taken the hostage, waiting for the Hanze patriarch to bring the dog god, or at least send the information to the door to exchange.

But in fact this is his real intention!

Have caught the hostages, will others be willing to help? It would be a very uncomfortable state, and it might not be good for the dog god, or there are other arrangements.

And that is the hand that gives everything to others. If the patriarch thinks that the value of the dog * is greater than that of the wind, it is still possible to give up the already injured welcoming division.

That kind of autumn is in his hands, it becomes very tasteless.

Killing, there is no benefit to him, but can let the other side shake the mood, let Hanze other fish people with the enemy, can not wait to kill him for the autumn and revenge.

If you don’t kill it, it’s a burden, and it’s very unwilling to put it back.

Therefore, he needs to master everything by himself, then he does not need to be passive.

Now this is the fastest way to solve the problem, and then he is not willing to stay on this desert island. This hostage does not have much value.

After mastering the method of manipulating the water of Hanze, Shenlang is in a state of maintaining a high degree of defense and tries to launch the water.

Soon, he has a specific experience. The new 81 Chinese network updates the fastest mobile phone: https:/

This cold water is of course very low temperature, with a strong chill, but now he uses the secret method of the mermaid, it will not affect him.

After the experience, Shen Lang officially sneaked into the cold water.

He did not rush to go to search for anything, but continued to try to use all aspects of control in the cold water starting https://https://

After a while, Shen Lang learned how they used the water of Hanze here!

Their use is too broad, including defense, isolation, and cultivation.

What is needed now for Shen Lang is to crack the restrictions of the water of Hanze on the gods and souls.

He now has all of this, but he hasn’t actually done it himself. After full control, he confirmed that the gods and souls of the gods have swiftly spread the entire cold!

Before the land was above, there was no obstacle. I could understand the whole desert island, but when it came to the water of Hanze, it was isolated, and it was inexhaustible and there was no head.

Now there is no such problem, and the waters are like land, which can spread out in a wide range.

Now the whole cold is like a complete view.

Sure enough, the settlement of Hanze is on an island in the middle. This island is much larger than the desert island where it was located. It is the largest island in Hanze, and other islands like desert islands. There are more than one.

What is the use of these desert islands, Shen Lang has not cared, his thoughts at the moment is to the bottom of the middle island!

As for the bottom, it is because there are many mermaid families on the island, but the smell of the dog * appears at the bottom of the island, and it is difficult to perceive the specific situation. It seems that there is a special isolation and suppression.

Chapter 2378 - Dog god

Since there is a clear direction, even if you can’t specifically perceive the status quo of the dog god, Shen Lang is also relieved.

The environment here is so special, even he has tossed a few times, the dog * will be in the road, it is normal, as long as it has not been killed.

But it is not really dangerous to want to come to the dog god.

Because it is very powerful in itself, it will be highly valued. Before the misunderstanding of Fengqiu, he must further feel that this beast is very valuable and will be alive. The new 81 Chinese network updates the fastest computer: https://

At this moment, with the goal, Shen Lang is directly in the cold water, going to the bottom of the middle island!

Because Shen Lang has just mastered the skills of the mermaid family, it is still very fast in this cold water.

In terms of proficiency and tacit understanding, he is certainly not as good as the mermaid of Hanze. Not to mention the patriarch, the experience of Fengqiu is also insufficient.

However, when he was in Tongtianhe, he had received a giant water-free water-avoiding bead, so even if his body had no fins and no breathing, there was no problem in the water.

The use of the combination of the two is not worse than the ability of the Hanze people to control water.

Walking through the water quickly, it didn’t take long before I came around the big island in the middle.

When he was close, he could more clearly sense the breath of the dog god, but still could not perceive the specific status of the dog god.

Below the island, it may not be hollow, so it is a bit of a sigh of silence to sense that the dog * is under the island.

Could it be that after the dog * entered the cold, he came down here under the water?

In that case, they have not had formal contact with the dog god, and they may not know it.

But there is a bigger possibility, that is, the dog * has been caught by them in what way.

After they caught it, they were brought to this big island. It’s just that their prisons and the like are digging a deep underground pit on the island!

In that case, Shen Lang feels in the distance, it will feel that it is in the lower part of the island, but it is deeply isolated, it is difficult to find out the specific look.

If so, Shen Lang must first board the island and then find the specific place.

But Shen Lang does not need such trouble!

There are a lot of fish people living in it. Even if he has the memory of Fengqiu, but there is no memory of the patriarch, the patriarch may have spread the news.

Then, as soon as he appeared on the island, he would become the target of public criticism!

Now that I am near the waters of the island, no one has come to pursue him. It should be because everyone has not thought that he can hide in the water, or else he should attack directly.

The solution for Shen Lang is… small shovel!

The little shovel of the shoal is still very practical here. Because the island is also real, it is earthy, you can use it with a small shovel.

He can use a small shovel to dig a big hole and follow it.

But in that case, the movement will be bigger. If the shovel is quickly excavated, it is at least a tens of meters long. On the island, there will be vibration.ァ新ヤ~8~1~中文网 ωωω.χ~8.~1zщ.còм

So now, the other model is to use the small shovel as a magic weapon to walk through, directly following the small shovel, to achieve the effect of a smashing through the earth.

Using a small shovel, I quickly sneaked in the mud, and soon the waves felt close to the dog god.

at last!

Go through the air.

This is where the dog * is, and Shen Lang also took the shovel’s castration in time and paused.

This stopped to help me.

The place where the dog * is located, sensed from a distance, is below the island. But now I look around and discover that it is actually an abyssal tiankeng!

This is an abyss tiankeng on the island. The dog * is here, just because the crater is very deep, and it is far enough to cross the island’s water level.

So from the far side, the feeling is that it is under the island, but to come over, it is really very far around, to cross half of the island.

That doesn’t require any special spells. Purely physical isolation can already make any signal fade.

The scope of this tiankeng is not small, the top is also very high, and the dog * is now trapped at the bottom of this tiankeng.

But the moment that Shen Lang appeared, it did not come over immediately, not even alarmed to it!

When Shen Lang looked at it, he had an answer right away.

The dog * is at the very center of the bottom of this tiankeng, and now its body is not the size of a dog, but the size of an elephant.

But it is lying on the ground, completely lost consciousness.

With the dog * can almost rival the realm of the cold and autumn, not to mention such a big movement to dig over, even if someone above is gently floating down, it should also be immediately detected.

But now, it seems to be drunk, in a state of being asleep.

Shen Lang took a step and went straight to it.

Whether it is direct observation or the monitoring of the holy armor, it is impossible to see how it is now. Sleeping doesn’t sleep so badly!

Fortunately, on the surface, it seems that the dog * is not injured, can only be said to be imprisoned and under house arrest.

House arrest is a way to save it If the body is greatly damaged, it is a big trouble.

At this moment, Shen Lang came to the side of the dog god, and consciousness immediately invaded the dog god’s mind!

The two of them are very tacit, and it is very simple to enter the past.

Shen Lang is not to inquire about it, even feel that it is not convenient to read its memory, because this is a friend!

Entering its brain is nothing more than awakening it in this way.

As a result, at the moment of entering, Shen Lang felt that he did not wake up the dog god, but he almost fell into it!

I don’t know how they did it, but I can be sure that the dog * is now locked in consciousness and let it stay here.

With the power of the dog god, if you really want to limit it, it is really not easy, let alone the iron chain and the like can not bind him, even if it is a general magic weapon, including the magic weapon such as the sky, you may not be able to sleep Live it.

But after consciousness is locked in here, it will not struggle because it is self-conscious and has no idea of leaving.

At the moment of intrusion, Shen Lang had a strange feeling of wanting to stay here.

Just like a normal person, suddenly become very sleepy, I feel that closing my eyes and sleeping immediately is the most comfortable and fragrant thing. I don’t want to resist natural reactions at all. Go to sleep right away.

However, his alertness is not comparable to that of ordinary people. In particular, there is speculation. In the moment of intrusion, he has done enough defense.

Chapter 2379 - Electric shock dog

Shen Lang re-examined the situation of the dog * and confirmed that it should be safe for the time being. It was only in a state of sleep, how it was achieved, it is not known.

This is the site of Hanze. He came here through the waters of Hanze and traveled underwater to the crater in the island. The mermaid patriarch of Hanze may be aware of it. The new 81 Chinese network updates the fastest computer: https://

The reason why I haven’t come here yet is that I didn’t expect him to be able to travel at such a speed after he got into the water, and he could clearly distinguish the direction in the water. He even realized that he could pass through most of the island from the bottom of the water.

Therefore, even if the patriarch rushed from the water, it would not be blocked. Even if you know that Shen Lang is here, they may not be able to walk through the soil and must go around the island.

However, it is very difficult for the dog * to enter the cold water from the outside. It is very difficult to get through these strange waters. It is impossible to run on the island by himself and you can come to the tiankeng in the middle of the island.

Therefore, whether it is cited, deceived, or arrested, it should be a place similar to a cage. The place where the Hanze patriarch must know, it will not take long, it should come over.

If the Hanze family does not come, it may be another point: there are restrictions such as seals, you can’t escape, they can rest assured!

But Shen Lang is directly from the water to here, and logically, he may also go with the dog * to wear the island, then the other party should be able to come immediately to be assured.

Looking at the unresponsive dog god, Shen Lang immediately made a decision, first not to wake it up, take it away and say it.

That kind of consciousness locks the general state, perhaps leaving the environment, it will naturally fail!

This cold is still the right place. According to the memory of Fengqiu, the mermaid also has a lot of special secrets, and there are also many strong people, plus the environment and other reasons, it is not suitable to study slowly here.

He decided to bring the dog * into the space of the heavenly book, and then go straight out of the cold with the door of the Three Realms. After leaving a little further, he would find a way to save it.

But at the moment of the action, Shen Lang changed his mind and made an adjustment. Let the sacred armor release a few detectors scattered around, and then he did not rush out after taking the dog * into the space of heaven.

After bringing the dog * in, I immediately came out, and I almost didn’t delay the time. Then the door of the Three Realms was sent outside Hanze, and no matter whether the mermaid had laid down the net, it could not be traced.

This is safety first, but it is a bit embarrassing.ァ新ヤ~8~1~中文网 ωωω.χ~8.~1zщ.còм

I have just crossed the wave with them and caught a Fengqiu hostage. Now they have come to the place where they are imprisoned. This is already the upper hand. It is not reconciled.

Although the dog * has already been rescued, it has not yet figured out exactly what it is, and it is already in their hands, and it is uncomfortable to make an unsuspecting look and not to retaliate.

To this end, Shen Lang's new plan is to solve the problem of the dog * directly in the space of the heavenly book, and then wait for the mermaid to think that they have already left, then they will go out from this day and give them a Crit!

The dog * went into the space of the heavenly book, and the whole was still in a state of lethargy.

This has left the environment, but there is no way out of that kind of consciousness to lock the general state, Shen Lang did not try.

However, when you get here, you have to be more calm. You don't need to consider the problem of the Hanze patriarch, and you don't have to think about time.

Shen Lang is quite familiar with the situation of the dog god. After being merged with the mysterious poisonous grass seed, it is already a giant beast plus plant, and it is very poisonous.

So put it down, it should not be toxins and the like. It is not so easy to fix it with its realm and mental invasion.

But the experience just made Shen Lang not intervene in consciousness to investigate.

After a little thought about it, Shen Lang decided to strike the dog * in a lightning bolt to see if he could stimulate himself to wake up.

The thunder and lightning of Shenlang is the minefield that comes from the chaotic space. It is homologous to Leiyuan. It belongs to the heaven and earth spirits in the form of lightning, not the general natural lightning.

The power of this is very big. Of course, it will not be used by himself, but now he is welcome.

Let the dog * save yourself by stimulating!

Because the body of the dog * is big enough to withstand it, if it is a general stimulus, it will not work.

But its current state is wrong, Shen Lang does not dare to be too strong, or with a trace of conservative, lest it can not hold it under this state.

After the bombardment of the lightning, Shen Lang felt that the dog * seemed to have a little reaction, but the effect was not enough, and did not wake up.

It seems that it should be degree or not sure, but basically determine its current state, still able to hold it, and the stimulation is not enough!

Shen Lang then came again, and above the previous strength, made a certain increase.

This time the effect of the electric shock is obviously much better than just now. The body of the dog * has a clear reaction, but it still does not mean to wake up.

Shen Lang is a bit helpless, this guy is now comparable to the true degree of the immortal, plus the body is so thick and thick, the lightning is not strong enough!

Can such a fierce guy be so easily put down by people?

He is now like a hospital with electric shock to save the heartbeat sudden stop once again geared up…

With the experience of the previous two, Shen Lang can safely and boldly improve the power of lightning, and directly give it a slap!

Finally, after being thundered by the escalating thunderbolt three times, the curled dog’s head was lifted and a low humming sounded.

It seems that this is waking up from the state of slumber, but what it encounters is too powerful, and even such a powerful stimulus makes it difficult to fully wake up.

Shen Lang pondered, if this time throw it into the waters of Hanze, let this cold water that does not freeze for a few dozen degrees to stimulate it, I don’t know if it will wake up immediately…

“The Emperor! Wake up, what happened to you?”

Shen Lang directly conveyed the idea to the past. It took a kind of shocking shock, directly stimulating its spiritual will, an internal and external stimulus.

The dog * has just been roused to be awake, but it is like a person who is extremely sleepy is awakened, there is no continuous stimulation, that painful stimulation, can not let it continue, or want to continue to squat.

And Shen Lang’s sigh of deep consciousness was immediately awakened.

The realm and strength of the dog * is strong enough. It was only unable to resist that state before. When it was awakened and realized this, it immediately had self-control.

It nodded to Shen Lang, indicating that he already knew it, and then closed his eyes, but began to sort out his own state.

Chapter 2380 - 1 bird problem

It took the dog * about an hour or so before it returned to normal and completely “wake up”.

“What is the situation? How are you being pitted?”

Shen Lang is still very curious, I want to know what the dog * is because of what was pit.

In the course of that hour, Shen Lang also learned more about the memory of Fengqiu. For the many secret methods of the mermaid family, they are completely mastered, as long as they know the inside of the Fengqiu privilege.

But when combined, he still can’t judge it. He doesn’t know what the dog * is.ァ新ヤ~8~1~中文网 ωωω.χ~8.~1zщ.còм

The dog * has no concealment for Shen Lang.

Although it just woke up, it also realized that it was definitely a danger, and it was saved by Shen Lang.

According to its description, Shen Lang knows another layer of this relationship.

It turned out that after the dog * appeared in the place where it appeared randomly, it began to search without a target.

The cold fire is very dangerous, it is also clear, and it will not touch the challenge. Later, when you see this thing, it is not strange.

But after it searched for a great range, it met a bird, a strange blue bird.

The weirdness of this bird is not because of its head, color, etc., but it can actually swallow the cold!

This caught the attention of the dog god. It was observed that the blue bird could open the mouth and swallow the cold fire that flashed through the air, and then it was a break and then tried again.

It looked very curious, and it has been observed that the blue bird seems to be a kind of food, and the food is that cold.

Its observations quickly made the Bluebird feel it. For this unknown monster, the Bluebird chose to avoid it. Originally it was in one place, because there were a lot of irregular, random fires in the air, and it didn’t have to worry about eating out.

After discovering the dog god, he began to move away.

The dog * had no target at all. When he saw the blue bird that swallowed the flame, the curiosity had been chasing the past.

Originally, it was observed in the distance, and the Bluebird has been alert. As it chased, the Bluebird further regarded it as a threatening enemy.

So one escapes and one chases, everyone’s speed is very fast, but the dog * can not control the blue bird.

Because the blue bird is much smaller and has a good understanding of the cold fire, it is very flexible to fly against the cold.

Dog gods can also shrink the body, but they are not so skilled, and the speed is not the advantage of the dog god, so they have not caught up for a long time.

In the end, the Bluebird has always brought it to Hanze. The dog * is not sure whether it lives in Hanze or wants to lie to Hanze.

But it is also wise. Seeing this big lake, there is no common cold fire on it, obviously it is not normal.

In comparison, these cold fires, even if they have not tried, have seen more, and already know that they will not attack and will not attack it.

But this looks calm on the lake, but there are still more unknowns.

The dog * does not want to take risks, so not only speeds up, but also directly pops up the long vine-like poisonous grass!

The Bluebird has been chasing it for a long time. He feels that he is very familiar with the speed of the enemy. It is difficult to get rid of it, but it is difficult to catch up with it, so he will come to Hanze and want to smash the dog * through the environment.

But I didn’t expect the dog * to suddenly explode the attack of the plant system, so that it stretched a distance at the same time as its established speed.

The result was that the Bluebird was tied by it.

The dog * started by observing it and wanted to touch it and understand the situation here. A bird in the district, it really has no appetite, and it is not treated as one thing.

But you are chasing after this road, and the other party brought it to this cold, let it catch it hard, I feel that this bluebird is very embarrassed, for insurance, it is directly sent to the mouth. The past.

Even at this time, the dog * did not want to eat it, but first trapped it, and then changed to another place to say.

But the best catch-up, because the speed is very fast, and there is no cold fire blocking, the straight line will go out very far, directly into the cold.

When the blue bird is caught in the mouth, it also wants to turn away from this unclear environment.

The result turned around again, only to find that the front has not seen the shore!

The direction it came from was full of cold fires. There was no cold fire on the cold waters. This is very clear, but now it turns around and sees the endless waters!

Looking around, all are endless waters, and the range that can be sensed is limited.

Realizing that this water area is really weird, the dog * did not pay attention to the blue bird. For safety reasons, it sprayed the poison, corroded it, and then swallowed it.

Originally, he had to concentrate on leaving this place, not to be caught in the backyard by the bluebird.

However, after the blue bird came to the stomach, it began to have a great impact on it!

Originally, it was like a headless fly. It was smashing above the waters and retreating in the direction of the coming. It felt that it had already withdrawn from that distance, but it did not return to the top of the land.

After the blue bird swallowed, it began to affect its body and began to influence the consciousness of affirming it Later it seemed to be very tired, like a bird that was tired, sleeping directly in the air.

In the latter case, it is not known. When I wake up again, it is already here. I was struck by lightning waves and the stimulus was awakened.

When Shen Lang awakened to it, it still felt very uncomfortable, and the blue bird's effect was not finished yet, or it was very uncomfortable.

But before it was anxious to leave the strange waters, now it is back to the space of the heavenly book, and there are still waves in the side of the protection, has been very peace of mind, can concentrate on solving the problem of the blue bird.

The result was that it took about an hour to completely digest it.

It now feels that after the blue bird swallowed and digested, it seems to have a little influence on its body, but what is the specific effect, and then it can't be said, after all, the time is short.

Shen Lang heard it very magical.

Originally, he was angry, thinking that the dog * was caught by Hanze. But he can't find it from the memory of Fengqiu, and naturally he thinks it is the patriarch!

The patriarch must have mastered more secret laws such as Fengqiu. Starting https://https://

I did not expect it to be because of a bird!

However, according to the description of the dog god, the blue bird that can swallow the cold, Shen Lang has a general impression.

He now has the memory of the king of the kingdom of the sand kingdom, and also the memory of the wind and autumn. For the situation in the ancient cold world, there is already a general understanding.
