

First Strong 24

Chapter 24 - You dare to marry me

The students are sensible because they are incredible, so let them suspect that they are cheating. However, Dong Wenbin jumped out and accused Shen Lang of cheating. After being surprised, everyone became suspicious.

What kind of person Dong Wenbin is, everyone knows how he is bullying the waves, it is even clearer.

If they unify their calibre, they will listen in reverse.

Maybe it's really a miracle?

Teacher Wang stopped everyone from being noisy. Although everyone had no intention to listen, they continued to finish the results and rankings.

"Teacher, we are really..." Under the inspiration of Dong Wenbin, after Wang finished reading, Lin Yun gave his finger again.

"Shenlang's grades are not cheating, the teacher will investigate clearly."

Teacher Wang did not say good luck, did not let him continue to finish. After a while, he said to Shen Lang: "Shenlang classmates, come to my office after class."

When this statement came out, it also led to a whisper of swearing.

"The teacher said that it's not that Shen Lang didn't cheat, but that he would investigate clearly!"

"If there is no problem, then he will not be allowed to go to the office alone."

"I will say it! Who can improve more than 20 people, it is impossible!"

“Should it not? If you cheat, you can do it once. It is impossible for every subject to cheat.”

“It is hard to say. The teacher only remembers the total score. Maybe it is a certain department that got a perfect score?”

“I also think that it is not possible. There is no such thing as a top-notch before and after Shen Lang. He has to copy some places when he cheats.”

“Who said that you must copy others? You don’t have to copy a book. If you stole the test paper in advance?”

“Yes! If the exam papers for each subject are read in advance, with the preparation, you can easily test a good score without a perfect score.”

Everyone said everything, to Shen Lang’s current hearing, basically can hear, but he did not mind.

He did not cheat, there is no evidence to prove him!

The classmates jumped out because of Dong Wenbin and dispelled a lot of suspicions. But the attitude of the teacher immediately brought a strong rhythm!

Even if you don’t believe in the teacher, on this issue, the teacher has more information and the words are more representative of the truth.

I just didn’t clarify for Shenlang. Instead, let him go to the office after class. It is easy for people to understand that the teacher already has evidence. He just doesn’t want to say it in public, so as not to ruin the Shenlang before the college entrance examination!

With suspicion, everyone has more speculation in the coming period.

Of all the students, only two people did not pay attention. One is the swell of the center of the whirlpool, and he knows that he has not cheated.

The other one is falling rain. Although she doesn't know how Shen Lang is doing it, she doesn't even want to give a note, but at her level, it is a trivial matter to achieve the top 20 results. No need to cheat.

When the bell rings, everyone leaves the classroom, no longer in front of the teacher and Shen Lang. When they talk about it, they are even more unpredictable. They express their opinions and tell their own guesses.

When Dong Wenbin left the classroom, he smiled with victory.

Regardless of the method used by Shen Lang, it has been successful for the teacher to doubt, and the students are also skeptical, and this will win!

If you can punish the waves, it will be even better!

Shen Lang came directly to the office.

The teachers of the third grade group are in a large office, and the teachers who have just finished class are only returning to the office.

Teacher Wang saw that Shen Lang came so quickly. He didn't want to say scandals in front of everyone. He was tempted to pretend to pack things and greet other teachers.

When all the teachers left the office to eat, they opened their mouths to Shen Lang.

"Do you know why I called you?"

"Do you want to reward me?" Shen Lang asked deliberately.

"..." Teacher Wang was stunned.

Reward you! You still have a good time to reward!

He looked at the calm waves and shook his head. He didn't know if the kid was nervous or really innocent.

Originally, because of the poor performance of Shen Lang, he did not have much good impressions, and the rumors he told him last week made him have a bad impression!

"That is to thank me for raising the average grade of the class? You are welcome, I am not helping you, it is for myself."

The words that Shen Lang followed, let Wang vomited blood.

Who wants to thank you? Still not polite!

Teacher Wang took the teacup and took a sip of water. Don't let the fire go down like this, he is afraid that he can't help but worry about it in the office!

"While you are not good, I will try to help you get a little more average."

The words of Shen Lang were said to let Wang, who had just slammed a sip of water, directly smashed it.

"Cough, cough... you, you..."

"Not so excited."

"I am so excited!" Teacher Wang put the cup on the table heavily. After taking a sentence, he gasped and let himself go.

"It's already very exciting to be beaten by the fart." Shen Lang said without a pain.

"..." Teacher Wang's finger pointed at Shen Lang, but he couldn't speak.

If it is not at school may not be able to beat, he really wants to swear! What is it!

Shen Lang shrugged: "Well, there is something to say, there is..."

"There is a fart and quick release." Needless to say, Teacher Wang also knows that the chest is up and down, and the mood is quite excited.

"How do you cheat! Honestly, this is a quiz, I can not hold you up! If you refuse to confess, hehe..."

Originally, he still wanted to twirling a little. Now seeing this swearing sentence is swearing at him, what is the good mood, and bluntly cheat!

"Which eye do you see me cheating?" Shen Lang sneered a little and asked.

"Do you dare to face the teacher?" Teacher Wang was more angry and arrogant. I immediately remembered the last threat to kill Dong Wenbin's rumors...

This kid is getting more and more arrogant!

"You didn't cheat, can you test so many points?"

"can."

"..."

Originally thought that this would be awkward, Shen Lang would be angry, and if you don't say anything, you might be exposed. I did not expect to return to him directly "can"...

Teacher Wang didn't know how to pick it up.

"Do you have evidence, or do other teachers react to you and cheated?"

"..."

“If not, you spray like this, not just the same thing as Dong Wenbin, others will think that you are listening to the dog legs!” Shen Lang faintly ridiculed a sentence.

Teacher Wang bit his teeth and rattle!

“If you can’t do it yourself, you can’t make it possible for others to do it. It’s the logic of stupidity. Next time I will test better, welcome to stand up and supervise me!”

“You, do you dare to stupid me?!” Teacher Wang stood up fiercely and pointed at Shen Lang.
