

First Strong 26

Chapter 26 - Pull you

In the early years, some people in the countryside dug snake holes to catch hibernating snakes, often dig some ancient tombs.

Most of the tombs that are not found in the grave tombstones have little value, and at most a bit of bone. However, there are also excavations to the ancient tombs of the big family, and there are some funerary objects inside.

The countryman feels awkward about the things in the grave. Even if he digs it, he quickly sells it, especially like the price of gold and silver.

Yue Zhennan sees this jade seems quite a bit aura, it should come out from the ancient tomb of the age.

He estimated that this jade was also inconspicuous at the time, and the Shen Lang may not be big. He did not wear anything at home and secretly stayed behind.

As for suffocating, he certainly does not have such an idea. Most of the antiques, the so-called unearthed cultural relics, are actually dug out of the ancient tombs, saying that civilization is a little, called “archaeological discovery.”

The more ancient the tomb, the more antique artifacts inside it are worth!

After I believe this experience, I look at the jade again. The more I look at it, the more I feel that it is different. Yue Zhennan has already filled up many simple and mysterious colors.

“This is...when you were a kid, why?”

When Shen Lang heard him ask this question, he watched him with vigilance: “What do you ask this?”

“Haha, just ask.”

Although Shen Lang did not say anything, this vigilant attitude is to let Yuezhn Nanxin think about it.

This Shen Lang's natural power, but his classmates do not know, why is it hidden so deep?

Is there any other factor? For example, not born?

His family is no more common, there will be no problem, then his change will be because of this jade?

If you wear this jade and let the ordinary person of Shen Lang become such a strength, the real value is on this jade!

He put away his eye heat and tried to say in a plain and unconstrained tone: "Can you show me? I will help you with your palms."

"What is the eye?" Shen Lang looked puzzled.

"It is to help you identify, look at what material, what color, and then say a little bit, just look at the value is not worth it!"

Shen Lang seems to be a bit dubious. After a slow delay, he took it and handed it over.

"Be careful not to break it!"

"Do not worry, break me and lose you."

Yue Zhennan was excited to pick it up. After he started, he immediately felt a comfortable feeling. Although it was just awkward, it really existed!

As he carefully examined it, he slowly sensed it and made it clear that this comfort is true, not a psychological effect.

His heart is ups and downs!

This is really worth it!

In addition to discovering a genius, I also found a baby!

“can not tell?”

Yue Zhennan found that Shen Lang stopped eating and was staring at him. He smiled and said: “You are really not sure about this thing. Someone in my family is an expert in this area. Can you let it...”

“No!” Shen Lang reached out to the palm of his hand.

He pays so much attention to this jade, obviously not a general thing.

Yue Zhennan looked in his eyes, but his face showed a smile: “Although I have limited levels, I can’t even see the things of the calendar. It is definitely worth the money...”

He also generously handed back the jade to Shen Lang, so as not to be suspected of being suspected by Shen Lang.

Shen Lang hung around his neck, stuffed the jade into the clothes, put it on his body, and continued to eat.

Leaving from his hand and being covered by clothes, Yue Zhennan obviously could not feel the comfortable breath, which made him more certain that this jade is not simple!

“Do you need money? Do you want to transfer it to me, I will give you... two thousand!”

Shen Lang glanced at him. “Do you believe that I will throw you into the river?”

He really wants to throw Yuezhennan!

Even if he wants money now, you are two thousand, too bully?

Yuezheng's south is a hustle and bustle... For money, he is not awkward, but it is very generous. He is afraid that the value of jade will not be sold, and the two thousand can have obvious help, but they will not associate with the baby.

However, just this statement shows that even if Shen Lang does not understand the specific price, it is worth the jade is very valuable!

"Haha, you understand it wrong, hey! I am wrong. We usually get used to playing cards. The smallest chip is one hundred. I said two thousand, not two thousand, two thousand one hundred, that is. 200,000!"

Yuezheng South is also discouraged, the fare increase is not 120,000, directly jumped a hundred times!

Buying a piece of jade for 200,000, can buy very good, but if it is antique, there is a special bonus, of course, far more than this price.

It's just that Yue Zhennan can't determine the specific origin and effect, and he's afraid of eye-catching. This is the price he can afford.

"Two million..."

"What? You want two million for this thing? It's too dark!" Yue Zhennan could not help but scream.

He has raised his price to 200,000, which is already outrageous, okay? Shen Lang did not appreciate this, actually jumped directly to two million!

"Wrong!" Shen Lang said faintly: "I mean two million are not sold, let alone 200,000!"

"Ah? Why! Don't you want money?" Yue Zhennan is a little crazy. "200,000 can change the living conditions of your home."

This kid is not a gangster, how can he bargain so old?

“No reason!”

Shen Lang simply refused, no more to say.

Yuezhen Nanxin moved: “Is it... What is the special effect of this jade? You talk about What are the magical places. I can’t see it, you can introduce it! The price is good. ....”

Shen Lang shook his head and still didn’t talk again. He continued to eat and eat.

The more you say nothing, the more it makes Yuezhen South Heart itch!

His curiosity has been hooked up. I feel that this thing must have the magic that he does not know. Shen Lang is not willing to sell money, and he actually shouted two million and did not sell it, which is enough to show that the value is huge!

“If you don’t...” Hesitated for a while, Yue Zhennan asked in a consultation tone: “You go with me to Pingxi, let my family look better.”

“Why should I go?” Shen Lang said with no anger.

“I am kind enough to help you. Liu Zhilong said yesterday, I love, I...”

Seeing that the waves are hard and hard to eat, Yue Zhennan knows that these reasons will not be believed, but can only helplessly smile: “I want to draw you!”

“Come on me?” Shen Lang stared at him.

“Yes! It was originally intended to invest in you and make you my family. But now I can see that you will not accept it. So I just want to help you, so as to make good relations with you, Saying that it’s ugly is called pulling.”

Yue Zhennan said very calmly. Seeing that Shen Lang did not speak, he continued: “If your family’s conditions are not good, money is what you need at this stage. But I have to fund you, you will definitely not accept it. Let you talk to me fairly, of course, if this jade has no value, I will not give it money.”

“You are honest.” Shen Lang nodded.

Yue Zhennan wants to cry without tears. For the first time, he was judged by a man who is younger than him.
