

First Strong 263

Chapter 263 - Finally rely on

When I was in the forest of death, I took the first yang ginseng, which is actually called the millennium for hundreds of years, and the lingering springs, let him break through the third weight of the yin and yang wave.

But such a chance is not always available. Lingquan has been saved for hundreds of years, and the first Yangshen is also, at least the Xie family has also been found for decades.

Although he can find a lot of elixir and eat a lot of spirits, the years are often decades to a hundred years, and there is no such thing as the first Yangshen.

Just like the ginseng that he brought back and sold, although the vintage is longer, the efficacy of taking it is still limited.

Of course, it is relative to his realm. If it is ordinary people, or the strength is relatively low, these elixir effects are amazing.

The higher the cultivation, the more resources you need later!

In addition to these tonics, the Lingshi is of course a very important resource. The problem is that it is difficult to meet. He has always wanted to search for the medium Lingshi to leave.

So even if it is a year and a half, plus a lot of resources, but in fact the biggest opportunity is the one inside the golden giant!

These times, he of course refining the inner dan, coupled with the effect of the spirit of the spirit of the beast, so that his strength when he came out, and just broke through the third weight, is no longer the same.

It's just a distance from the fourth, or there is a distance, or there is a new chance, or you can only pile up the time to work hard.

Because of the previous dispersal to Zheng Man and others, that is, something relatively ordinary compared to his later period, Zheng Man must also be left to the Zheng family.

Therefore, in the storage ring, there are limited resources for him. For example, there are secrets for handwriting. It is a good thing for other people. For Shen Lang himself, it is only a matter of time to recall it.

It's not that it's not a word, but with his later realm, it's possible to express the low-level exercises more successfully in a better way, just like the gongs of Ye's yin palm. .

Others, the most valuable and practical, but the Lingshi and the unborn sword, as well as the storage ring itself.

Under the premise of no life-saving magic weapon, Shen Lang dared to call the board a stranger, initially because it did not understand the realm of Chu Mofeng!

At that time, from the strength of Chu Yuncheng and Chu Yuntian, it was inferred that their fathers might be higher than them, and the ancestors' Chu Mofeng might be two realms. God knows that this old monster is directly higher than five or six realms!

This is also why he will be called to the death forest by Xie You, even if there is doubt, you must go and see if you can find the chance.

But when he was trapped in the forest of death, he knew that the opportunity was impossible to meet. He had already got two big chances, and the others had to rely on himself.

Therefore, when looking for Lingshi, he practiced the "Phantom Meteor Step" to the peak, and also practiced many of the spells that had no time to practice.

But these are not the key, the key must have a reliance!

If there is no strength, then if you come out for revenge, you can only sneak a sneak peek at it. The deterrent power of the Chu family is simply insufficient.

There are a lot of powerful spells in Shen Lang, but now the realm is too low to be used at all, and that makes no sense. In the end, one of the choices he chose was a practice called “blood madness”!

“Blood madness” is optimized from the “Dharma Demolition Dafa”.

Sp; Devil disintegration Dafa, using the burning potential to overdraw life, so that short-term has the power of the law.

In fact, the stimulant ban on modern sports is essentially the use of overdraft to break through the limits, but the side effects are not so large, and the effect of improvement can only be effective in sports games that are accurate to the millisecond.

Further extension, ordinary people drink coffee refreshing is also an overdraft, let you restore energy to relieve fatigue, but in fact only block the substance “adenosine” that makes you tired, can not eliminate it, do not rest and then forced to work and study After a few hours, the adenosine will only be more, and when the blocking effect of caffeine is over, people will be more tired and sleepy.

Ordinary people occasionally need to sleep more often than usual to recover after the night, this is not the cost of sleeping during the day, but the cost of overdraft.

“Blood madness” is not as terrible as “the devil disintegrates the Dafa”. It does not need to exhaust the life to the same level, but it will pay a lot of money if it is displayed.

On the one hand, after the end of the madness effect, people will become very weak immediately, far weaker than usual. If there are enemies, it may be easy to kill.

On the other hand, it is an overdraft on all aspects of the body, just like a lot of blood loss, it can be restored as usual without losing blood, and the recovery process will be longer.

Although the cost is not small, but the effect is also very good, directly can make people’s potential to stimulate the burning of blood, the power can almost enhance a level of realm!

This “blood-induced arrogance” practice, Shen Lang is prepared to deal with the Chu Mofeng.

But tonight's fight, let him understand that he is better than the late period of the virtual world, but the distance is still in the virtual world, there must be no small gap.

He can kill one in the late stage of the virtual world, and even have two confidences in killing two enemy two, but the height of one realm is still the peak of the virtual world, but it is very likely to crush him!

At the moment, facing Chu Xiangxiong's hands-on, just when the second cockpit was opened, Shen Lang secretly caused "blood madness", and the latter was both to help the desolation, but also to delay the time until the effect appeared.

As for the card that was prepared for Chu Mofeng, Chu Chuxiong was unveiled in advance, not because it had to be used in the end, but after careful analysis!

Understand that Chu Mofeng is the strength of the real world, far better than the five or six realms of Chu Yuncheng, Shen Lang did not dare to look down on him.

This time the revenge has killed dozens of Chu family, including Chu Yunfei, Chu Yunlong, the two best third generations, including the Chu domain Haichu The mainstay of such a domain.

But Chu Mofeng has not appeared yet!

This made him boldly guess that Chu Mofeng is not in Chu!

This "no", may be closed, can not be disturbed. It may not be in Yunzhou, but in other places.

Otherwise, other ordinary children die dozens, can not care, but the second generation of elites died two, the third generation of reserve successors are dead, including Chu Yuncheng Chu Yuntian two, Chu Mo The wind can't be indifferent!

The advantage of Shen Lang and Desolation is that individual people fight in the dark, and the Chu family pays close attention to their feet.

However, if it is the wind of Chu Mo, with the strength of his master real person, you should be able to search for Shen Lang at any time in Yunzhou City!

At this time, it is impossible for Chu Mofeng to care about the superiority of the high-ranking people. He will not line up in a dead light before he shoots. With his ability, he will directly kill him, and others will not say that he is wrong.
