

First Strong 27

Chapter 27 - Extraordinary warrior

“You are the first to make me look like this, including none of Yao’s secretary last night.”

Yue Zhennan seriously said that there is a glimpse of the words in the words.

Shen Lang snorted: “When you find that I have no use value, you will regret it. I hope to maintain the grace and not suppress me.”

Yue Zhennan laughed and laughed: “Maybe! I don’t think you are as simple as I saw on the surface, just because you can’t see you, so I value you more. But...”

He paused, but Shen did not ask “whatever”, but continued to eat and drink, making him a little embarrassed, can only continue to say.

“But just because you can easily defeat Ahu’s strength, whether you can win or not, you have to be able to get my respect, it is impossible to suppress what you are.”

Shen Lang glanced at him: “The extraordinary warrior, this is the topic, don’t deviate from an irrelevant jade.”

Yue Zhennan is very helpless. This is the reason why he attracted the sinking waves. Now he can only say it.

“I told you a little bit yesterday, but I didn’t have a chance to say it more clearly. Now we are both, I told you what I know...”

As the name implies, the super-armed warrior is beyond the ordinary warrior, and one section is the champion champion, and the highest is nine.

Yesterday, Ahu, who was defeated by Shen Lang, is the third-class superb warrior, comparable to the strength of the heavyweight champion. Yesterday’s fiasco, there were also factors that led to the failure of many of the forces that did not play out.

In Yuezhennan's view, Shen Lang does not have attack skills, and the speed is not fast. He can break Ahu's knees and punch people. It is purely power. This is not simple, at least five paragraphs. Strength.

The higher the strength, the stronger the strength. With his family history and knowledge, he also met five or six paragraphs. The higher seven, eight, and nine paragraphs are heard.

According to Yue Zhennan's statement, a superb warrior is equivalent to the master of ordinary people, the fifth section is the master of the high hand, and the seventh, eighth and ninth paragraphs are the super masters of the high hands!

To what extent is the highest nine-segment master? It is said that it is already a superhuman existence!

On the other hand, the nine-segment super-armed warrior has surpassed the scope of the warrior, and is qualified to be called a monk. It is a comprehension person with magical power!

What is the level of strength of the monk and what kind of mana spells he has, Yue Zhennan is also unknown, and it is a legendary existence.

There is not much of this content. It is not very helpful for Shen Lang. It is only to understand the current power system, and through his strength not less than five paragraphs, there is an intuitive comparison.

As for the monk, since Lianyue Town South knows it, it is no longer a legend, but it must be real, but he is not qualified to come into contact.

If you have already inquired about it, Shen Lang will care about another purpose.

"You just said that let me go to Pingxi with you, do you want to find a super master of your family to engage me?"

Just said a meal of Yue Zhennan, is taking a sip of tea throat, heard this, almost stunned.

"What do I do for you? I said it is worth noting that this jade value is worth it!" He was really dumbfounding.

“Hey! Last night, your bodyguard, isn’t it a master? I was injured, I have no money to pay for it, and I won’t sell myself to you. Can you be willing? You don’t dare to come here, Pingxi is you.”
The site is up!”

In the words of Shen Lang, Yue Zhennan couldn’t help but laugh out loud.

“Shen, brother, you know how to analyze and think, but it’s still a bit simple. If I really want to take revenge and want to engage you, do you still need to trick you into Pingxi?”

“What do you mean?” Shen Lang deliberately did not say good.

He must show the power of madness, and the age of the young.

“I really want to engage you, one night’s time, enough to transfer the super master, now you can throw you into the river to soak up! Besides, you also saw Yao Houpu’s attitude towards me, you can engage you from another angle! ”

Yuezhen’s southern demeanor is completely proud of the posture of a wealthy man. At least in Pingxi, their Yue family can be considered a giant.

“Then you... really just for jade?”

Shen Lang seems to be very reluctant, but he also has to admit the appearance of his family, making Yue Zhennan feel very cool.

“I have already told the truth, I want to draw you up. That is quite vulgar. In terms of elegance, I want to establish friendly relations with you and help each other...”

In order to draw people, the son of the son of the town of Yue Yue is also showing an elegant side.

Shen Lang has already done enough, and he is too lazy to reload it. He interrupted his words: “I can’t take time off, and the station may encounter acquaintances, which is inconvenient.”

Yue Zhen Nan stunned a bit, then laughed.

“I am here!”

The words of Shen Lang are equivalent to agreeing to go to Pingxi! He has just made a lot of effort and low attitude and finally did not waste his effort!

“Leave me to help you settle, station, do you still need to go to the station? Take my car directly!”

He sent a message directly on his mobile phone and said that he was done.

In his capacity, there is no need to contact the school at all, and there is no need to contact any teacher. With Yao Shuji, Yao Shuji will have a secretarial arrangement, and it is estimated that he will directly seek leadership.

These sinking waves can be thought of, without much question, my heart is a bit embarrassing.

Power!

The power of nature has everything convenient!

This Yuezhennan will not have many cows at a young age Only the family has the power to make Yao Shuji so pleased.

But he does not envy anything, strength is everything!

If he does not have a certain strength now, can Yue Zhennan be this attitude?

Don't say Yue Zhennan, even Liu Zhilong will not pay attention to him!

Shen Lang did not go back to school, Yue Zhennan was already impatient, arranged the car, and took him back to Pingxi City after dinner.

Pinglang City is no stranger to Shenlang. Their C County is a county under the jurisdiction of Pingxi City. However, the name is familiar. From small to large, he did not go to the city several times.

While in the car, Shen Lang seems to have been playing with the phone, actually looking at the city map and searching for some places he wants to know.

He will promise Yueshan to come to Pingxi, in addition to selling jade, there are two places that the county does not have. One is the antiques antique market, and the other is the medicinal herbs market.

Needless to say, the medicinal materials are only pharmacy pharmacies in the county, not only the medicinal materials are limited, but also too much to buy. In the antique market, it's time to go and see if there are any old things with aura.

Yue Zhennan is also a mobile phone, and does not avenge Ahu. It does not mean that he will not find a master to identify the strength of Shen Lang. And this jade is also to discuss with the family, but also the eyes of the experts. After all, Shen Lang shouted out that two million did not sell, not that he could do the Lord.

The car went very fast. Yue Zhennan settled Shen Lang in a place that was no more than a luxury hotel. He went back to ask the family to find a jade expert to identify.

This is exactly the meaning of Shen Lang, although there is no money yet, but you can go to the antique market first. If you are fake fakes, you don't need to waste time anymore.
