Chapter 274 - Invading the ice palace

Shen Lang can play the powerful home of the ice palace in the palm of his hand, of course, the use of the holy armor.

According to the analysis of the rain, the Chu family is likely to analyze that she saved. Although the Chu family can't find it here, as long as he doesn't go out, it's safe, but there is no such thing as Chu Mofeng!

In addition, the injury is too heavy. For the sake of safety, Shen Lang wears the sacred armor and keeps it in a state of escape.

Today, I found out that the people of the Ice Palace came over and put down the vigilance, but finally I learned that the intention of the palace owner also had a retreat.

He dared to jump like this, that is, there is the black technology protection of the sacred armor, and it did not become an aircraft. It was only a jet buffer on the sole of the foot, and he was not injured when he landed.

Just rising up, not relying on his personal strength, but relying on the Holy Grail.

Originally, he just wanted to leave, but if the palace owner landed, he decided to tease and directly smashed her skirt.

His current speed is faster than falling, and when the palace owner reacts, he has reached the top of the cliff.

Then pay attention to it, the palace owner continues to chase it over!

However, she relies entirely on her own strength. From the above, she must be careful not to fall, flying from below to the top, not only to be careful, the speed is not so fast, but also need to use iron chains to wrap the rock in the middle.

It will take some time for her to come up, and Shen Lang will leave immediately.

Before I took him up with the invitation month and Ke Ling two, went down from the other side, but waited at the foot of the mountain.

Shen Lang flew directly and quickly, and went straight to them.

Suddenly seeing Shen Lang, both of them were taken aback.

“You, you... the palace owner?”

“The palace main skirt is rotten, let you take it back and change it.” Shen Lang directly threw the skirt away.

Whether it is the invitation to the moon or Ke Ling, they are stunned.

This white dress is just worn by the palace owner, and there are no other people on it. It is impossible for Shen Lang to have such a skirt.

Can the dress worn by the main body of the palace, how can it be rotten, and still in the hands of Shen Lang, and take it over to let them change one?

For a time, the natural gossip flame burned.

Reminiscent of this is to let them bring the two waves, and send them away.

Two people couldn't help but make up a lot of unreasonable pictures...

“You... go up and see the palace owner.” Shen Lang coughed a little, then said to the invitation month.

Inviting the moon for a moment, combined with the plot that she just made up with, I wondered if there were some pictures. It was inconvenient to let Keling, who was too young, see that she had no words and immediately rushed to the mountains.

Upon leaving the invitation month, Ke Ling couldn't help but ask: "What the * is going on? You and the palace owner..."

Because of the recent Lenovo story, she did not have a good attitude towards Shen Lang, and she began to be friendly.

"This is the case..." Shen Lang said as he approached, and under the curiosity of Ke Ling, he grabbed her neck.

"Take me to the Ice Palace!"

I felt that my neck would be pinched off at any time, and then I heard this, Ke Ling was awkward, she wanted to talk and could not tell.

"Guide!"

Ke Ling found that not only couldn't breathe, but the neck was even more painful. The throat seemed to break, and quickly pointed to one direction.

Shen Lang directly grabs

She flew up, and under her guidance, she quickly arrived at the entrance to the nearby Ice Palace.

The entrance to the Ice Palace is in the depths of a valley. From the outside, it looks like ordinary snow. There is no hole or portal at all.

But under Ke Ling's way, the direct past, I found that there is a magical array to protect.

After entering, Shen Lang still grasped Ke Ling's neck and asked her to point to the palace's living room.

He is not crazy, the most dangerous place is the safest place!

He is not the opponent of the palace now. He just managed to escape. No one would have thought that he would come to the ice palace to find death. And because the skirt humiliated the palace owner, and let the month invite the skirt to go up, this is equivalent to making the matter public.

Can the palace owner spare him? I must seize him immediately!

This is their territory. If Shen Lang wants to escape, he can only follow the road to withdraw. The biggest possibility of the palace owner is to chase after the invitation month.

But this time will not be too long. With the speed of the palace master and the understanding of the snowy area, if you catch up with it, you may not be able to catch up. Maybe you will return. So Shen Lang is forced to take Ke Ling to take him to the palace. Main room.

The palace owner wants to raise him as a spirit beast. He has no ability to defeat and kill her now, but he must first disgust her. It's just not like that. It may be humiliating to her. For Shen Lang's own, it's just a level of mischief. I have to get some practical compensation.

The situation inside the Ice Palace is similar to that of Shen Lang.

In the depths of the Tianshan Mountains, there is no signal, there is no excessive entertainment. Everyday everyone is together, there is no external situation, and there will not be many topics. The disciples of the Ice Palace are naturally taking time to retreat.

Going all the way, seeing the ice palace, it is like a huge cave hidden in the mountain belly. This is obviously not born, nor is it created by one person, but is constantly being expanded from generation to generation.

There are a lot of roads in it, leading to the caverns, and in all the roads and caves, there are some night pearls.

Of course, this should not be the night pearl of the secular legend, but a kind of glowing crystal, probably mining such a mineral. Because of the large amount here, many of them are only embedded in the stone, all kinds of shapes, and are not polished into a bead shape.

This soft light is convenient for the exploration of the Shenlang. It can be noticed that everyone is practicing. If someone walks, it will be discovered in advance. It is Ke Ling who wants to refer to it, and he can detect it.

Under the threat of life, that Ke Ling did not dare to have any concealment, pointing the way to Shen Lang to the deepest part of the Ice Palace.

The palace's living room is a luxurious cavern that is much larger than the average person, with various utilities. In the vicinity of the caverns in the vicinity of the road, in one of them, Shen Lang saw the falling rain that was meditating.

Seeing her usual cultivation, he was relieved that it was opened by the palace.

After entering the main room of the palace, Shen Lang stunned Ke Ling and immediately searched.

The cave room of the palace owner must have a lot of good things. Perhaps the magic weapon or very precious resources are hidden in the secret room protected by the array. But what about general medicinal herbs, there should still be some.

Shen Lang did not expect such a short time, and if he did not understand, he could seize the most precious things of others. He just wanted to find some compensation, so he was disgusted with the palace owner.

With his current physical condition, the nourishing remedy can still be used.

“What are you looking for?”

He hasn't started looking for it, he heard a voice rang at the door!
