

First Strong 275

Chapter 275 - Former palace owner

Shen Lang could not help but be surprised!

He had just discovered the facts, everyone was practicing, and he was very careful, did not alarm anyone, nor gave Chelsea a chance to cry for help. I did not expect someone to come over!

Looking back, I saw a middle-aged woman entering the cave.

This is a little older than the invitation month. It is about 50 or so. It is estimated that the real age is not a middle-aged woman, but an old lady.

There are traces of the years on her face, but I can see that when I was young, it was quite fashionable.

“You are...?” Shen Lang asked.

He is still standing still. In this middle-aged woman, he can't feel any danger and pressure, as if he is an ordinary person.

But the more it is, the more pressure he puts on him, and he does not dare to act rashly.

Because this represents the realm of returning to the real world, the strength of the other side is better than that of him, and it is impossible to see through.

“You sneak into our ice palace and ask who I am?” The middle-aged woman smiled.

Shen Lang secretly took a breath, relieved his pressure a little, and then held a fist: “I believe you should be able to guess, my name is Shen Lang, the ice palace disciple is a friend of the rain, do not know how the seniors call it?”

The strength of the other party is here, so that he does not dare to make it. With the strength of this person, and not to say that it is now blocked at the door, even if he is allowed to use the sacred escape, it is estimated that he will not run.

“Well, yes, I do know that you are a swell. Xiaoxiao should tell you that the Ice Palace is not convenient for men to visit. Why do you break in?”

When she spoke, she glanced at Ke Ling on the ground and did not directly question.

Shen Lang is a bit helpless. He can only tell the truth: “Although it was raining, I saved it, but I also sheltered it in the Ice Palace. I am so grateful to this, so I have some rain in the forest. Spiritual Bone Skin...”

“It’s a child who knows how to report.” The middle-aged and old woman’s dagger: “Do you want to get it back now?”

“Of course, it is not. Today, she and I invited the month to find me. I said that the palace mainly saw me and took me to a cliff in the northwest direction. The meaning of the palace...”

“Ask you ask for more?” The middle-aged woman’s slight frown.

Shen Lang smiled and shook his head: “I really want to accept it. I can still accept it. The palace owner found the bones of the golden giant, analyzed the inner Dan who had served the golden giant, and guessed that I had taken the first yang.” It is the thing of the sun, and it can neutralize some of the medicinal herbs of the ice palace. Because I can’t get it out, so she is going to raise me up, and put my blood in the water to refine the medicine.”

“Is there such a thing?” The middle-aged and older women are even more frowning.

“I just managed to escape, but I have to escape from the thousands of miles of Tianshan. I can’t do it. I think the most dangerous place is the safest place, so I grabbed Ke Ling and forced her to take me with me. Inside the Ice Palace, it is hidden in the cavern of the palace.”

Shen Lang is telling the truth, but the medicinal herbs that he wants to take away some ice palaces are hidden. He just came in, did not steal anything, just looking for it, it can be said to be looking for a place to hide.

“The Lord of the Palace of the Ice Palace, actually did such a thing, the old body!”

The middle-aged and old woman sighed and said to Shen Lang: “You can rest assured that there is me here, I will be able to protect you. I also apologize to you on behalf of the Ice Palace!”

“This... no need to apologize.” Shen Lang was shaking his head.

The middle-aged woman smiled slightly: “Do you think I don’t have this qualification? Tell me the truth! I am the last generation of the ice palace

The palace is down! ”

“...!”

Shen Lang was surprised, not the identity of the previous generation of the palace, because from his feelings, her strength is much stronger than the palace owner, even if it is not the previous generation of the palace, but also the predecessors and the like.

What surprised him was the name – falling river.

Before they fell on this surname, they felt very rare and rare. Now it’s so cool that the rain and the river are in this Tianshan Ice Palace.

“So, you are falling in the rain... aunt?” Shen Lang could not help but ask.

Falling in the ocean: “I am her aunt.”

Grandma... Well, from the perspective of strength and generation, this is pretty much the same.

“It turned out to be a senior in the river.” Shen Lang and Luo Yu are the classmates of the seniors. It is okay to tell her a grandmother, but he still can’t call it out, just called a predecessor.

“Small shackles are in retreat.” Luohe comforted Shen Lang with a sentence, and then said: “Trouble you wait a little while, the light boat should be back soon, then I will be clear, let her apologize to you, and personally send you go back.”

“The light boat... is the palace master?” Before that, the palace owner did not introduce himself. Shen Lang did not know what her name was.

“Well, she called the canoe, and it wasn’t long before she took over the palace. She was still a cousin.”

“...!”

Shen Lang was once again surprised, or because of their relationship.

The palace owner called the canoe, or the cousin who fell into the rain, just did not take over the palace master for a long time!

That is to say, she seems to be twenty-seven, not because she is old, but she is so young!

“Do you think that I am cultivating my family’s hereditary palace?” Shen Lang’s appearance makes Luohe laugh, and does not mind self-reporting hereditary.

“In fact, it is because the ice palace has not been followed, so that I have to introduce talents from my family. I am also eager to get home. Not only is there no one in the boat, but the future is not limited.”

“It is true.”

Shen Lang secretly white eyes, this is what others say is okay, she said so, Wang Wang sells melons to sell and boast.

“Before the canoe comes back, I will check with you about your injury?” Luohe did not continue to praise their sisters, but turned the problem to Shenlang.

Shen Lang refused: “Thank you for your predecessors, but I have no problem, just take a rest.”

“You’re welcome When you talked down the river, people went to the seat of the palace, and then did not see what action she had, there was an invisible force that pulled the waves away.

Shen Lang is eager to struggle, although she does not seem to be malicious, but also a rainy aunt. But the former owner of the palace was also the same attitude, and it was also the cousin who fell into the rain.

But thinking about it is not her opponent. Now there is no chance to escape, but also from the past, but only maintain a high degree of alert.

When Luohe had just sat down, Shen Lang was also drawn to her side, and she directly took the pulse of Shen Lang with one hand.

At the moment she was around her, Shen Lang put away her alert. Since it was useless, she might be dissatisfied with her. When he came in, he had already contracted the sacred armor, and this time he also took the initiative to reach out.

The river just took a moment on his pulse, and immediately revealed the color of surprise.

“What teacher are you, I can’t see it!”
