

First Strong 277

Chapter 277 - Tianshan opportunity

The skirt of the canoe was thrown into the cave and there was no time to change clothes. In the original skirt, she was also white, and she sent the Shenlang out.

She didn't want to send her back to the waves. She wanted to give it to the invitation month, but she had already told me that she had to obey.

“Sure enough! Not only the sharp teeth, but also a flatterer, in such a short time, the Master and her old man confused.”

When the export illusion came out, the owner of the raft was ironic.

Shen Lang glanced at her and smiled and said: “As far as I know, the predecessors of the river are not only your master, but also your former generation, or your aunt. You actually said that she likes to be flattered?”

“You -! I didn't!” Although the raft was roaring, the voice was involuntarily depressed, and then she accelerated directly to lead the way, and wanted to quickly take the **** away.

Shen Lang naturally followed up: “I originally thought that you are an old guy, but you are looking at the young, and I didn't expect to be a cousin who fell into the rain. It seems that the age is not too big.

This is a misunderstanding, but it is particularly harsh in the ears of the canoe!

I couldn't help thinking of what he said before, she was old and ugly, couldn't talk to the rain, the voice, or even the Ke Lingbi, and she said that she experienced the foul words and then thought of the thing that he had ripped off the skirt. Have you caught his hips...

Under the anger, her iron chain suddenly appeared in her hand, quickly circled, and flew directly to the front of Shen Lang, and he was bound to tie him directly.

Shen Lang now has a “Shang Fang Bao Jian”, but she is not afraid of her attack, nor has she escaped. She will continue to move with her.

The light cane hates teeth, but it can only hold back.

“What did you say to Master? Why did you hold Ke Ling into the Ice Palace, can she not pursue you?” When she asked again, the iron chain in her hand still did not close up, or swim around the waves. move.

“That is to say your conspiracy. And clearly stated that I am sure I can’t escape your pursuit, so I deliberately do the opposite and use the most dangerous place as the safest place to hide.”

The canoe was shaken, and a large piece of ice, a few meters high, was broken and burst by an iron chain.

She blamed herself for not thinking about this at the time. She chased him in the direction he came. He thought he was arresting Ke Ling for being a hostage! If you first guess that he is asking Ke Ling to go to the Ice Palace, there is still a chance to stop before he enters.

It’s strange to invite the moon to be an idiot! Actually believe it, come and ask her skirt!

I was very annoyed when I think of it. Although I didn’t say anything too much in the month of the invitation, I thought that she was taken advantage of it by Shen Lang.

Seeing that I have left the Ice Palace for a while, Shen Lang stopped.

“The palace owner, you don’t have to escort, I don’t go back, just leave Tianshan.”

“No! Since you are going back, you have to go back and be honest!”

Shen Lang shook his head: “You are the sister of the rain, I will not remind you of a few words. You may have just been the head of the palace, want to show your power and planning. Isolated here. There are not many opportunities in the place, so there will be things today, I can not care.”

“Hey! Who do you think you are? Not yet outside!” The canoe snorted.

Shen Lang ignored her emotions and continued: “Whether it is internal and external, the most effective thing is to enlighten and apply, but everything is good. It is grace to touch your light; the rule that the ice palace does not allow men to enter is I am observing the power. So I am willing to present a gift! Your line

For that, it is after the degree that there is a current situation. ”

“What is the situation now?” The canoe sneered: “I will kill you now, Master will not know, Xiao Yan will not know!”

“Don’t underestimate your grandmother, don’t let her down!”

“I want you to control!” The canoe took a deep breath, and today she has been mad at her. In front of Shen Lang, she can’t keep the gas field of the palace.

“The predecessors of Luohe have planned well early, so that you can take over as the head of the palace. Falling rain may be the road to the peak. As long as you don’t let her down, your palace owner will be able to sit still. “”

After Shen Lang finished speaking, he left alone alone.

The canoe wrinkled his brow and looked at the back of the waves in the snow, thinking about just a few words.

what is this? Bystanders clear?

He is just a kid who doesn’t have a long hair. Can you know what?

Shen Lang is not as old as her, but her experience is far better than her. She saw her roots!

She even took over the palace master even at a young age, but there is still the upper elders of the river, and there is a enchanting little girl under the rain. I feel a sense of crisis in my heart and feel that I am a transitional person.

Therefore, it is inevitable that there will be a hint of falling rain on the smashing waves, but she does not know it, or she does not want to admit it.

There was no excessive criticism in the river, and she still kept her face, and Shen Lang could see the heart of the river. She cultivated another way of raining the rain, not for replacing the canoe in the future.

After all, after all, these two are not only pro-disciples, but also the blood source of their maiden family, why not want to see their competition for mutual harm.

The canoe can be valued by the river, it is called talent, and it is a young man to succeed. It is of course not only the relationship between relatives and blood, but it is really extraordinary.

After pondering the waves for a while, combined with the attitude of falling rivers, it is already clear.

Looking at Shen Lang, it has disappeared into the peaks. I don't know if he will really leave Tianshan.

This caused her to frown. Shen Lang was seriously injured in the battle with Chu Xiangxiong. She was in a coma for ten days. After she woke up, she only took a week to recuperate. It is impossible to recover much. The escape just now is definitely a magic weapon.

Now leaving the Tianshan Mountains, if you are caught by the Chu Mofeng, can you still have a living path?

After Shen Lang left the canoe far away, did not go away by himself, but opened the sacred armor function and then rose to the air.

He didn't go back to the cave before, and he wouldn't ask him if he was going to go to the raft. Will there be any other plans for the river? Just continue this way, he will spend another week, and he will recover the injury at most. Only.

As soon as he recovered, his strength is equivalent to the late stage of the virtual world. He can't compare with the peak of the virtual world, let alone the one who is waiting for him now.

Moreover, in a short period of time, he is no longer able to display the “blood-induced madness” practice, that is, to come back to a strong who is still in the virtual world, he can only escape.

So he must spend precious time on finding the opportunity. Only if you find a powerful magic weapon, or break through the fourth weight of “Yin and Yang Bo Ruozhen” in one fell swoop, you will have the qualification to fight with Chu Mofeng, and you may not be able to win.

And thousands of miles of Tianshan, with a continuous area of hundreds of thousands of square kilometers, has a lot of magic.

What Shen Lang wants to find is a former Tianshan Jianzong!
