Chapter 28 - Antique street

When Shen Lang opened the door, he found a man with a bodyguard in the doorway corridor. When he saw him, he immediately looked around and walked over.

He frowned slightly: "Yue Zhennan let you guard me?"

The bodyguard shook his head in a hurry: "You misunderstood, Mr. Yue is afraid that you are not familiar with the urban area, let me wait here, what needs to run the errands, you can just order."

"I want to go out for a trip." Shen Lang said directly.

"This..." The bodyguard is a bit embarrassed.

Shen Lang patted him on the shoulder: "I am not embarrassed, you can go with me. Yue Zhennan wants to ask you, you can always find me."

The bodyguard still wanted to refuse. His task was to look at people and he could not go out. But Shen Lang took the hand on his shoulder and directly pressed his leg to bend, feeling that he would be forced again!

He is an ordinary bodyguard, and he can't talk to Ahu. This is what Yue Zhennan just transferred. I don't know what happened in Li County. Otherwise, it's not a surprise, but a scare.

"You call the car."

Shen Lang let go of his hand and then went to the elevator.

The bodyguard has no choice but to hurry up. When he is in the elevator, he has taken out his mobile phone and sent a message to Yuezheng Nanhui. He can't stop it, he must let the boss know.

There are more than one person left, and one is in the following. The bodyguard sent a message to inform them that when they came out, they drove the car to the door of the lobby and waited.

“Where are you going? I have already reported to the boss. The boss said that I want to eat what I want to buy, and I will follow the bill.”

After getting on the bus, the bodyguards after getting permission were more relaxed, and the attitude of Yue Zhennan surprised him and became more respectful.

“Small South Gate Antique Street.” After Shen Lang finished, waved his hand and signaled the driver to drive.

“Ah?” Hearing this answer, the bodyguard and the driver both stunned.

According to Yue Zhennan’s understanding, Shen Lang came to the city and should want to visit. This age boy should not be interested in park attractions, would prefer electronic products such as mobile phones, or sporting goods such as sports shoes, is ready to let bodyguards recommend walking to the pedestrian street.

This is also why he said what to eat and what to buy, so that the bodyguards follow the order.

A mobile phone, a laptop computer, sports shoes, sportswear or something, all brand-name cards can not use much money, and it is good to attract people.

But now the answer is to go to the antique street, it is not the same.

Everyone knows that the water in antiques is deep!

However, I only hesitated. I didn’t say anything. The bodyguard repeated the driver in front: “Go to the antique street.”

He has already grasped a rough amount from the previous confession of the boss. If you go to the antique street, just buy a small piece of bracelets and the like, the price is not expensive, he will put it on. If you want to buy expensive antiques, then persuade, you can’t persuade and don’t save money – he also looks down on it.

Of course, on the way in the past, he immediately reported to Yue Zhennan on the mobile phone and got the latest instructions.

Xiaonanmen Antique Street is not too far from the hotel. The driver is very familiar with the city and arrived in more than ten minutes.

When the driver was looking for a place to park, Shen Lang was led by the bodyguard into the antique street.

“The boss said that although there are a lot of shops and people here, there will be no good things. If you have something interesting to play with, don’t be fooled by them...”

Shen Lang squinted at him, the meaning is obvious: you can follow it, you do not need to teach me!

The bodyguard secretly smiled and could only keep talking.

Because Shen Lang is still wearing a school uniform, walking in this antique street is a bit of a different style. He keeps his posture and is even more eye-catching. He also does not want to be looked at by alternative eyes, even more afraid of encountering acquaintances.

Since Shen Lang didn’t want him to say more, he stopped and kept a few steps away, letting Shen Lang walk by himself. He kept the distance that he wouldn’t lose people. He could deal with any unexpected incidents immediately.

Shen Lang doesn’t need anyone to introduce it. He is not interested in ordinary things. He can sell this jade, let alone these ordinary things.

Probably because of the relationship between the working day and the afternoon, there is no one in the antique street, and there are not many people on the roadside. The shops on both sides are not too many.

Not far away, seeing a relatively large storefront, Shen Lang went in and came here, not to mention luck.

This is not like the gold shop jewelry store in the mall, there is no beautiful shopping guide to welcome, and there is no warm “welcome”. No matter whether it is the guest inside or the sinking wave that has just entered, no one is taking care of it.

Shen Lang glanced at it. In the corner, there was a little old man and a middle-aged man drinking tea. Perhaps one of them was the boss.

There is also a guy who is boring and yawning, and occasionally look at the phone. Someone needs to look at the things inside the glass counter and take it.

The bodyguards followed, and did not go to the side of Shenlang. On the other side, more attention was paid to Shen Lang.

Shen Lang’s “Yin and Yang Bozhengzheng” is a practice at any time and place. If you can absorb the aura of the heavens and the earth After entering the antique street, he obviously feels that here Aura, more than a normal place, more full of points!

Just after coming all the way, he has already observed it. It is not that the antique street is full of treasures. However, when a shop was under construction, attention was paid to the feng shui pattern. The store also basically had a different level of lucky feng shui bureau!

Although these are for the purpose of gas transportation, they will also gather energy to some extent. There are some shops in the town store treasure, are better things, the boss’s own accessories, generally also good things. Even the bosses and guests, there are usually meditations.

All of this adds up, and over time, it makes the nearby aura more lush, that is, “feng shui” becomes better.

Absorb the aura anytime, anywhere, so that the waves are very sensitive to energy changes. In addition to the entire environment of the antique street, the small environment inside is also slightly different, such as these stores are better than the street outside. There are various items in the store and various items.

To say the eyesight of Jianbao, Shen Lang is not bad, but his previous life is a real treasure! Generally, porcelain, jade, and calligraphy, these are the broken irons and irons that can’t enter his eyes. Of course, it is impossible to understand them one by one.

The treasures of all the town shops in the antique street, plus the treasures that can enter the eyes of the sun. Therefore, his current identification can only be through weak energy differences. If there is no aura, even if it is not a fake, it is a matter of shoddy or short-lived.

This shop called “Jubaoju” has a price ranging from a few hundred to hundreds of thousands of things, perhaps others like it, but in the eyes of Shen Lang, there is basically no good thing.

The only thing that attracted him was the little  of the store owner himself!
