

First Strong 281

Chapter 281 - I am coming to trade.

On the surface, the lord looks like the old man and the old man. But unlike the indifference of Gao, he is smiling. However, it is so kind, or smiles, you still need to understand.

“The Sovereign said, I am who, what purpose do I have?” Shen Lang also showed a smile.

“Shen Lang, a nameless ***** from an unknown small place. Some time ago, it was a matter of earth-shaking. Killing dozens of people in the Chu State of Yunzhou, including the grandson of the son of the contemporary family Chu Mofeng, etc. people!”

When the lord said this information, Gao Li’s eyes slightly changed, and he re-examined the waves.

“It is said that a year and a half ago, because of the grievances of a little junior, you can challenge Chu Mofeng with a big speech. Everyone thinks you are a clown. I didn’t expect it to be halfway after a year and a half, although there is no challenge. When I went to Chu Mofeng, I killed the Chu family and turned it over.”

“So?” Shen Lang looked at him. “The main thing is not to grab me, to send Chu Mofeng a person?”

The lord shook his head: “You don’t need to provoke me, I don’t need to sell anyone. But if you want to use my sword, it’s not as simple as grabbing it.”

He said it with a smile, but with a bit of domineering, it seems to be the same at any time.

In the face of the patriarchs and elders of the Tianshan Jianzong, the two should be masters of the true state, but Shen Lang did not have the slightest exposure.

He is not as strong as them now, and if he does, he does not fight back. But there is nothing to say about it. What is the level of the strong, what is it for his past life?

“The Sovereign thinks that my purpose is to ask the Swordsman to take shelter.” Shen Lang faintly asked.

“Otherwise? You just passed by here, so come and visit the old people of your patrons hundreds of years ago?” the sage said with a mockery.

Shen Lang laughed: “Nature is specifically looking for a door, but I don’t want to ask you to take shelter, nor do you want to take shelter. Just want to borrow the Qiushui sword!”

“Ha ha.”

“Humph!”

For this requirement, whether it is the sovereign or the high, it is a direct sneer.

It’s just a hundred years ago, it’s not necessarily true.

“I know, you think that I am whimsical.” Shen Lang said naturally: “I am just telling the truth, I have not concealed you. In fact, Gao Hanqiu is gone, Qiu Shuijian, you have no one to control. It can only be used for it. Why not borrow me?”

“Bold!” The lord sank. “Autumn sword is my sword-like artifact, can you criticize it?”

“I didn’t deny it, it is an artifact. After the cold autumn, you can only provide it. Whether it is the descendants of the cold autumn or the masters of each generation, you can’t use it. I am not wrong?”

Shen Lang looked at the sovereign and looked at Gao.

Just because he knows this secret, he has the confidence to borrow it. Otherwise, even if there is a token, the friendship of hundreds of years ago may not be equal to a few hundred years of friendship, and naturally refuses to lend him.

Now letting go of this is basically a transaction. If you lend the Qiushui sword to him, he can pass on the manipulation method to them. For them, it is true that they have a **** soldier, not just a deterrent.

“How? Don’t believe it? Or do you want to admit it? Now Qiu Shuijian is for you, in fact

Is it a bit of a chicken? Can not play the power of the legend, when the general sword is handled, not reconciled. Oh, yes, there is a commemorative value. ”

At the time of the talks, the two forces were on his body, and the Sovereign and Gao Li put pressure on him at the same time.

“Who are you in the end? Where did you ask about the Qiushui sword?” The chief’s face was serious.

His words are still very cautious. He did not say where to know the secrets of Qiu Shuijian, but this attitude is already equal to admitting that Shen Lang is in the middle.

Shen Lang smiled easily: “I just didn’t say it? Qiushui Jianben was given to seniors by my seniors. As the original master, I know what strangeness is this secret?”

Out of necessity, he had to be his own “predecessor”, but just this sentence “as the original master” is the truth.

The Sovereign and Gao Li exchanged their eyes.

“What do you prove?”

Shen Lang pointed to the token on the coffee table: “Are you not a descendant of the cold autumn? Can you verify that this is a cold and cold autumn token?”

For his name to call the cold autumn, the faces of both of them are even more unsightly.

“This is indeed the thing of the cold autumn public, but how do you prove that it was given to you by the cold autumn public?”

Shen Lang faint smile: “Speaking of what you don’t like to listen to, our predecessor, since the year can give high-level Qiu Shui sword, indicating that the strength is far above the high predecessors. Can you use this token to find the help of the seniors?” This book is sent by the seniors sincerely, and said that they can stay with the descendants and come to Tianshan Jianzong at any time.”

Both the Sovereign and Gao Li were stunned.

They know this, and only the descendants of the cold autumn and the patriarch of the Tianshan Jianzong know!

No one has ever been a thing in the past few hundred years. This token appeared today, so that they can pay attention to it.

Just after the sect directly said the identity and purpose of Shen Lang, it was to remind Gao. Seeing that Shen Lang did not mention, they did not say, prepared to perfuse the past, and then put the secret of Qiu Shuijian.

“I originally had this token, but I can ask Tianshan Jianzong. According to the promise of the Gaochunqiu seniors, Tianshan Jianzong will go all out to meet all the requirements!”

Shen Lang saw that they did not argue, they knew that they actually knew deliberately confused.

“But hundreds of years have passed. I don’t believe that the people of Tianshan Jianzong will still abide by the promise, so I don’t mention this request. Just make a deal with you, lend me Qiu Shuijian, I will help you restore the power of the Qiushui sword. “”

Originally, they both exerted pressure on Shen Lang. Now, when this is said, it immediately becomes a sinking wave and gains the upper hand.

The subtext of this statement is a deep disdain!

Originally, I can come back directly to you, and even let you protect me, but I don’t bother! I am also willing to exchange fairly!

This attitude, let them two super strong, all feel hot on the face.

The Sovereign and Gao Li, do not know how many people have known each other for a decade. Usually, everyone in this Jianzong Valley has reached the strength of the real world. There is no need to open consultations between each other. With a wink, you can complete the communication.

So after a moment of silence, the lord said: "I am not sure what you said, you can't confirm your identity! Please also stay in the valley, wait for us to investigate clearly!"
