Chapter 290 - Money is gone

After Shen Lang finished the gauntlet, he quit the account.

It's been more than a month now, and soon after, it's the New Year. He wants to go to Yunzhou to fight the wind again. Of course, he needs a little time to prepare, so he is directly on New Year's Eve.

But now he is missing his parents!

Although they have been safely transferred to foreign countries, they have experienced such a thing, they must live in peace, and they are not used to it.

Shen Lang contacted her again and asked her about her situation.

Desolation quickly replied, she obeyed the last order of Shen Lang, has already withdrawn from the country, and went back to Zheng.

Shen Lang let her continue to stay outside and protect the safety of parents including Zheng Yuqing and others. Then I also agreed to take a moment to video with my parents, so that I can feel at ease with each other.

Desolation immediately said that there was no problem, and said that he would find a way to give him a false identity, so that he can also withdraw first.

Shen Lang did not refuse, he did not need to withdraw, but his parents were already outside, after all, they had to visit in the past.

Resting and rectifying, after staying for one night, Shen Lang began to turn around.

He still has a lot of cash, and he still uses the chartered way.

Although this is much slower than flying in a straight line, the effect of running away from the world is not to say that the holy armor consumes a medium spirit stone, and he still has to be a life-saving means, and he must not be too swayed.

When he is in a taxi, he can also take a quiet practice of sleep. Slow is slow, but it won't waste time.

After moving to a big city, Shen Lang took out the card that had previously sold ginseng to get the drug bank. He found the corresponding bank's business office and asked about how many times he needed to make a reservation.

He didn't have such experience before, but he also knew that the general business location would not have too much cash reserves, and that large withdrawals must be made in advance.

Hearing that he wanted to take so much, he immediately transferred to the manager and took him into the manager's office.

After the manager poured water on him, he asked him to verify how much balance there was in the card, and Shen Lang entered the password.

There is no error in the password, but the manager's face is strange: "Sir, how much balance is there in your card?"

"More than two million."

When this card was obtained, there were three million in it. The drug dealer Wu Lao personally gave it, and Shen Lang also inquired. At that time, he took out 50,000, including the cash used now, which was taken at that time.

"Oh... more than two million? Why is the balance I see is zero?"

"What do you mean?" Shen Lang frowned.

The manager directly asked him to look at the computer screen. The result of the inquiry was that the card balance was zero!

“As a service person, I should have a professional quality. Apart from leaving my position, I would like to say... Children, it is not like this! You have a hundred and eighty thousand in it?”

The manager’s face was disgusting and despised. He thought it was a big customer, but he did not expect it to be forced! The balance is zero, how can I get to the VIP room, how can I let him serve?

“understood.”

Shen Lang frowned, he was not jealous, but angry.

But this is not directed at the bank manager, nor will it break out here.

The card was the drug shop. At that time, he used cash in order to avoid being traced by the Chu family. He did not use his own card to collect the money, but a card provided by the other party.

He took the cash and did not change the password. Because of the cooperation between the two parties, the trust is Built on top of people. From the formal process, he is not protected by law.

This is the card opened by the other party. It really wants to blacken his money. Even if he changes the password, he can also modify it by reservation information.

Needless to say now, the remaining 2.95 million is already being transferred by the drugstore!

Probably the other party saw that he did not turn away, it began to embezzle, after all, not two hundred and ninety-five...

Shen Lang wants to take a sum of money, is ready to give the hotel owner!

Because he and the desolation stayed, the hotel was attacked by the Chu family. After the explosion, the entire building was gone, and six people were still dead. The other guests rescued by him did not say it. Six people died. Enough for him.

That night, Shen Lang also performed a play, in the fire, publicly exposed the Chu family, I believe many people also photographed. But now it has been a month, there is no video search, and there is no live discussion!

There is no doubt that the Chu family has been operating successfully, to remove the deletion, the control of the control, and finally the black pot, or the hotel owner.

As for the masses who saw the scene at the time, and did not say whether there was such a sense of justice, the heat of the people alone may not find them. They have forgotten this and will not go online to expose anything.

Shen Lang doesn't have so much time and energy to deal with one by one. What he can do is to fight the Chu family in Yunzhou! Others need the boss to save themselves.

But he still wants to be responsible. There are already innocent people who have died. Those who should get compensation, the hotel owner should also get help.

I did not expect him to make an appointment to withdraw money, but got such a result!

Shen Lang left the bank and immediately searched for it. This is a drugstore called "Qingtian", which has many brands of pharmacies, and some brands have many branches.

Considering other pharmacy brands, there may be franchise chain stores, so he chose all the "Qingtian Pharmacy" in the city and marked them one by one.

Then, I took a taxi and stepped on it. I found that the branches of Qingtian Medicine Bank have a certain scale. In comparison, those brand pharmacies are mostly small-scale community stores.

Shen Lang was very patient. He waited for these drugs to fight at night, and used his knowledge to make sure that the employees left after work, did not hurt the employees, and did not set fire to other stores. Instead, from the outside, directly blasted the pharmacy!

One by one, the Qingtian drugstore in the city was completely destroyed, and there was no need to spend too much time.

At midnight, Shen Lang dialed a phone call.

This is based on the last address of the drugstore, confirm which branch, find the store manager's phone on the recruitment website. The store manager obviously does not know who the Shenlang is, received this strange phone in the middle of the night, a bit impatient.

"Let Wu Lao call me."

"What Wu Lao? Who are you?"

"Wu Lao of your medicine."

"Nervous disease! Wu is always you...hey?"

After Shen Lang passed the words, he hung up the phone and then checked the distance to the city. If the chartered car passed, it would not be possible until dawn.

He came directly to the high-speed rail station!

At this time, the Chu family was inspected for his information. It was not so much scruples, but he was careful not to use the ID card to buy tickets. But when it is determined that a car is going to open, the "Phantom Meteor Step" is directly applied to the extreme!

From the security check to the ticket check to the platform, all of them flashed past, no one saw it clearly, so they got on the train all the way...
