

First Strong 291

Chapter 291 - Dare to swallow my money?

In the early morning, Shen Lang had already arrived in front of the Qingtian Drugstore branch.

A month ago, he had just come out of the dead forest, thinking about revenge for his parents, but just passing through here to raise the point, but did not expect to come back.

With the eyes of Shen Lang, it is only three million, and will not let him get angry, but this is not just a question of money!

For trusted trading, he has lowered the requirements and streamlined the process. Now it is watching him unable to recover by legal means, or feel stupid not to turn the money away, so he swallowed his money.

If you don't investigate, don't you let them get the money back, but also stupid him?

The ticket was flashed on the high-speed rail, and the station did not go directly to the station. When it came to the city, Shen Lang was also rude to the branch of Qingtian Medicine Bank.

It is now the branch of the last transaction.

Of course, there is no hesitation. I haven't opened the store yet, and I'm directly smashing the palm of my hand, and the counters from the door to the inside are all overturned!

Shen Lang thousands of miles to chase, of course, because the store manager did not take the same thing, did not contact Wu Lao, the old man has not explained it, they have to pay a higher price!

When Shen Lang finished breakfast, he received a phone number with a strange number.

"I am Wu Bowen, are you the little brother who sold me ginseng last time?" The voice is exactly that Wu Lao, who seems to have guessed the identity of Shen Lang.

“Yes, you are a little late.”

Wu Laowen, who is called Wu Bowen, said: “He didn’t expect it to be you. He just told me about it. I immediately called it. I saved your number. I know you when I enter. Actually. I have been looking for you several times before, but every time it is turned off...”

Listening to him a little excited, Shen Lang is a bit speechless.

The branches of the two cities have been terminated, Wu Bowen did not know? Is it because the status level is too low?

“How much do you need to renovate a branch?”

“This, I am not too sure, it may be related to the location, store size, etc., what’s wrong?” Wu Bowen asked strangely.

“From last night to the present, I ruined a dozen of your branches, and the cost of renovations has increased by several million?”

“You, you mean...” Wu Bowen was shocked: “The stores were destroyed last night...and there is just news...all these are you doing?”

“This morning, I have to count on the head of the store. I found him last night. Let him call you back to me. He has delayed until now. These are the costs of his delay.” Shen Lang said calmly. .

Wu Bowen took a sip of cold air, but because he didn’t call him back last night, he directly gave up many branches! What kind of murder is this!

“Why are you doing this? I don’t believe that just because I didn’t call you back in time, what is the reason for our Qingtian Drugstore to be sorry for you?”

Shen Lang sneered aloud: “Do you think I want to tell the old guy about you? This is exactly what I want to ask you! What do I have to say about your drugstore? The ginseng I sold to you is a fake year. Or is the medicine too bad?”

“This... there is no problem. But what is the relationship with our store?” Wu Bowen said with a sigh of relief: “In any case, you can’t use this violent way! This is a crime...”

“No problem, right? If you take back 2,900,000 yuan, it would be to steal my money? Isn’t this a crime? You made me go to withdraw money when it was very embarrassing!” Said.

“what?”

Wu Bowen knew everything about the two cities, but he did not associate with Shenlang. The attitude was still very good. After discovering that it was Shen Lang, it changed its attitude directly.

But now I heard the reason, but I was taken aback. This is his

I don’t know at all.

“It turns out! Your card didn’t take the money away, and didn’t change the password?”

“I am changing my password. It is my business to take the money away! I put a bunch of money in front of you, not saying it is for you, you can’t move me!”

“You said something makes sense...” Wu Bo warmly smiled: “But you should not use such extreme means. I don’t know about it at all. If you contact me first, I will give you a confession, you. Now make it like this...”

“The old guy listened!” Shen Lang interrupted his words: “I want to contact you, not to listen to your criticism and complain about me. But to let you pass the message back, to swallow my money, you have to prepare your throat The risk of thorns! In order to avoid involving the clerk, it is best to close the branches in each place!”

After talking about it, I hang up the phone.

Of course, he didn’t have time to pick up these branches all over the country, but he had to pass it back and let Qingtian Medicine Bank know his attitude.

Wu Bowen immediately called the phone again. “I apologize to you! Give me some time. I will immediately ask what is going on, and I will give you a confession.”

He didn’t know, and he couldn’t believe that it was done by one person!

I can take a store to this extent, but I still have to use a lot of people without leaving any clues.

Quickly and continuously smashing multiple branches, only a large number of people can act together. Before dawn, it was a city relay that was thousands of miles away. This shows that the other party has invested a lot of manpower!

Therefore, he really believes that Shen Lang will give up the branches of the country!

“Give you half an hour, I will be opposite the last store.” Shen Lang finished, and hung up his phone again.

Qingtian Pharmacy can do such a big business, the boss behind the scenes will definitely come to the fore, maybe there is a comprehension family or martial art to support.

I spent more than a dozen branches overnight, and the medicinal materials will not be stained and destroyed. The cost of shop decoration will be millions.

At this level, it is not a “technical faction” that Wu Bowen can solve. It is likely that he has started to trace him last night.

Half an hour is not enough for Qingtian Medicine to bring the experts from the field, but it is enough for the city’s masters to rush to the scene.

But Shen Lang is not the same thing, they want to make a big noise, he will stay with the end!

There is no time for a nationwide hotel, and it is more time-saving to directly master the master.

The place where he had breakfast was not very far, and after he finished eating, he walked over.

The store manager has already arrived at the scene, and it is very depressed at the moment. Because there have been many attacks against Qingtian Yaoxing, the police have also had a direction. The site investigation will leave and will not be guarded.

The clerk has not come to The manager has no way to clean up, can only make a phone call.

Ten minutes later, Wu Bowen rushed to the scene in a hurry and kept looking around. The store manager saw it and hurried over.

“Wu Lao, how come you come in person? We will handle these things, you...”

Wu Bowen gave him a slap directly!

“You are too embarrassed to say! It is because of you!”

The manager was beaten.

In the street, Wu Bowen took control and did not continue to beat him, and then searched again.

“Are you looking for me?”

Suddenly heard this voice, Wu Bo warmed a shock, only to find that Shen Lang did not know when he was standing by.

“You, you, hello, hello...” Looking at Shen Lang, Wu Bowen was very embarrassed. He didn’t know what to say. It happened that the manager was next to him and immediately slapped it. “Hurry up and apologize!”
